Subject: PUMP-BLOOD-MONEY-OIL

Do you think your decision somehow absolves you from "personal liability" or would you prefer I use the words, "personal responsibility" when failing to inform new recruits of your agenda that increasingly parallels, in my humble but seasoned opinion, that of the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel, who played a pivotal role in the financing of not only the Anglo Boer-Farmer War of 1899-1902 and the American led 8 Allied Nations invasion of China in 1900 but in each and every subsequent war where the US Government representing corrupt big business interests, stole the mineral resources from the rest of the world including oil, water, gold, platinum and uranium and then enslaved their peoples all the while indoctrinating people such as yourself that the poverty you see in the rest of the world is the "choice" of the indigenous peoples who put up with US government-business interest tyrants?

I would still like for you to share with me the name and rank of your Commanding Officer as well as that of the General Counsel of the US National Guard-Army and feel free to include all members of the United States Supreme Court.

In the meantime perhaps you would like to share your other thoughts apart from who else apart from the private banks that formed the US Federal Reserve in 1913 also financed De Beers, with people like Tefo of South Africa and Augusto of Peru including letting them know how you feel about the US government's pivotal role in the South African Apartheid Regime's biological weapons programme that included almost indescribable inhumane acts executed by their assassins with the most deadly and torturous force; not to mention how you feel about being paid not quite enough by your Commanding Officer that allows you any peaceful night's sleep.

BTW it is possible that by the time your rise tomorrow morning before doing your 5 mile run just to maintain your peak physical condition, I will be once again approaching President George W. Bush, your Commander In Chief, to try explaining as well as me the most bizarre, the most arrogant decision to even talk about giving the US Federal Reserve that prints the money that pays you to now be quiet, even more power than they currently have which of course as you well know, is not possible.

By The Way, do you understand the visual of this very BIG ELEPHANT that sits on the table each and every time you sit amongst one or more people?

Does it make you feel better or worse knowing that you are not alone in your thoughts?

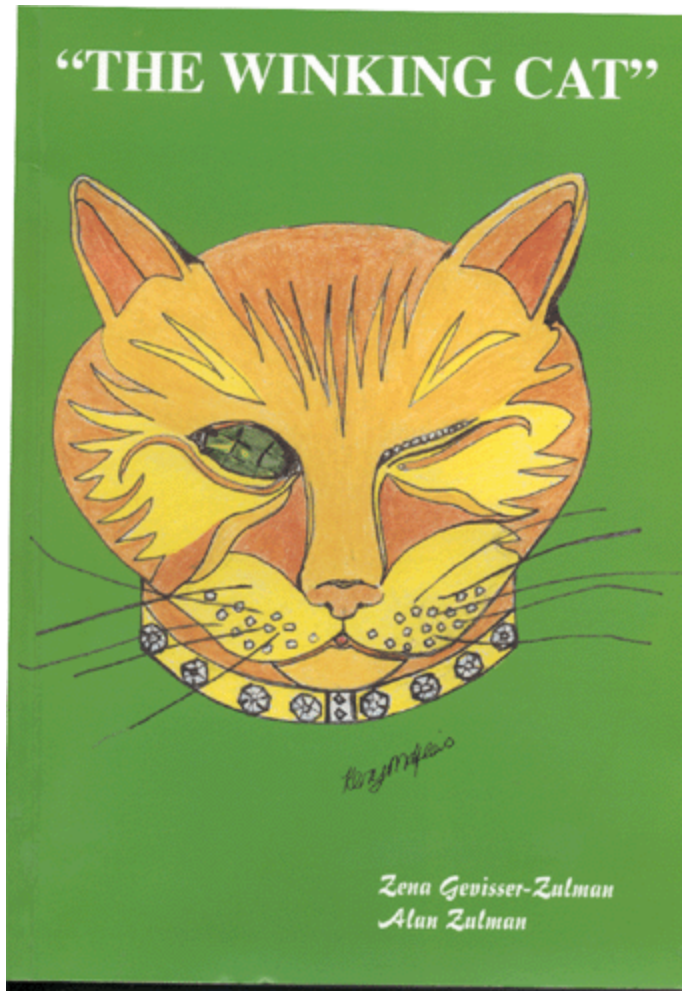

Do you honestly believe any of the advice apart from mine, including all the conflicting thoughts going through your mind? Especially knowing that I didn't get off a boat just yesterday in Haifa harbor, Israel all the while growing up for the most part of my 21 years shy of one week before immigrating to the United States in March 1978, in Durban, South Africa?

Could you just take a quick time out to think of everyone you know including each and every member of your immediate family who has as much credibility as me; and don't forget to include in your thoughts those in the blind copied section as well as those much greater numbers in the blind copied section?

You understand perfectly well that when I decided to break my 24 year deafening silence with the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel, I was "letting the cat out the bag".

Even when you start having cat fights with someone else on issues that you think are "crystal clear" you can never be certain, and increasingly so.

You also understand that I am continuing to move forward.

What other thoughts do you have?

I am just getting back to our cliff house after the most awesome walk with my so gorgeous, so mouthwatering sexy, super smart and so very tantalizingly funny French-Canadian wife, first along the cliffs of Del Mar, heading south then turning back at the concrete bridge you see in the background and walking along the beach where we got to so very much enjoy these tiny birds that when you squint your eyes they look like little golf balls running in sync along the water's edge.

Just moments ago the sun "touched down" and now let me say "Good morning" to all my friends in the Orient.

Remember to now immediately after catching your breath, research the history of the U.S. Federal Reserve and if you feel like your heart is pumping out of control think about all those you have recruited under the US economic draft inevitably reading this much sooner than you would care to believe.

Pump-blood-money-oil.

Moreover, the fact that the US military is the most underpaid military in the world given all that you have to do, simply incapable of winning over your adversaries with the truth of why exactly the US-Federal Reserve-De Beers have military bases on 130 of the world's 190 countries, is exactly what I am counting on to prevent the US military from "turning", instead impressing upon those such as China, that you have all been so very horribly misled by mostly foreign business interests paying you all peanuts to do their dirty work.
