Subject: DECEPTION - LAW - seducing the next of kin - Part II

Can you just stand by for an additional 10 minutes, maybe 15 as Adam L. Tucker and I first eat lunch here at the cliff house. A lady dressed with a white long sleeved shirt, black pants, talking on the phone using an ear piece, not blacktooth, no strike that, bluetooth, just strolled by seemingly oblivious to what is taking place right now this very instant, but of course I could be very wrong.

Mossad - By way of deception we wage war.

The fact that this lady is not in the best physical shape could in fact be part of the deception given how again she was not naked, not even close, and of course I cannot bear the thought of her naked no matter the distinct possibility she is a most beautiful Mossad agent with a body very possibly close to that of my secret weapon knitter French Canadian wife Marie Dion Gevisser, however, extraordinarily slight.

Such possibilities must have you now thinking of the word, "predictability" so very important in not only Wall Street wars but those now being waged on the battlefields of the world and none more important than what is going on between Venezuela and Columbia who are counted on to produce unlimited quantities of cocaine to be consumed mostly by "elitists".

Both rich and poor are now finding out that not only is the world very small, increasingly wired and nowhere to hide and therefore we are all in the same boat-ship-space flying through deep space at an extraordinary and increasing speed, but even those who have stolen untold amounts of wealth including fictitious-worthless monies, as well as gold and the such, when you are dead none of it accounts for very much, wouldn't you agree?

Am I missing anything you haven't thought of to make our chat session that much more meaningful apart from a couple of edits?

BTW what do you think of that copper Bluemarine dress my wife plans to wear this Saturday evening?

By The Way, again if you have the time, and why not check with Harvard's in house legal counsel as well Mr. Dershowitz in helping establish your priorities going forward, take a look at the PBS special about the diamond business, featuring Edward Jay Epstein's classic non-fiction novel The Diamond Invention whose name has changed at least once.

Ps - we need to get moving rather quickly as Adam has a date-walk on the beach in front of the cliff house at 2 pm pst with a South African Jewish woman, 5 foot 11 inches, beautiful, athletic, very fit who lives near 29th Street. I will ask Adam who provided all those particulars if she would pose in front of the cliff house as another very attractive lady, all dressed in black, strides by, again seemingly oblivious to the most important issues of the day.

Again, I-we thank you from the bottom of our hearts for increasing the circle of those dependent upon my insight and analysis of the important events of the day.

President George W. Bush cannot be all that far away from immediately calling for a suspension in the trading of shares of public corporations thereby protecting the innocent and naïve from throwing "good money after bad".

Subject: LAW - seducing the next of kin - Part II

At first I thought you were Wendy the sister of Adam Tucker's mother who when last communicating with Adam's X wife Julia Cadar a few months back, told Julia who then informed Adam, that her sister and her husband Pete Grande, I believe is their last name, were plotting to have Adam jailed because he divulged information about Pete and his Iranian Jewish partner having received a sum of 2 million United States Dollars packed in a single suitcase that was then invested in their plastic business that services customers like the Cheese Cake Factory and Jack In The Box which says what exactly about not only "blood as thick as experience" but our anti-money laundering laws and not to forget our sacrosanct anti-Trust laws so important in the war against price fixers such as De Beers, wouldn't you agree?

I am meeting Adam for lunch shortly. If you would like we could all, including all of Adam's family, the FBI, the CIA, Israeli Military Intelligence, the Mossad, etc etc, all copied on this very heavily broadcasted communiqué, get together in a "chat sessions" and begin by having you explain your fiduciary responsibility to inform not only your co-workers but the entire student body of Harvard University about your decision to "play ostrich".

Your knowledge of The Diamond Invention cannot be ignored.

Moreover, you won't mind me also informing the United States Congress that you should be one of the first to be called as witness to their equally diabolical behavior.

Ignorance of the law is no excuse.

Equally important choosing to ignore who pays you to be so "deafeningly silent" says what about those who make the laws as well as those who teach law school!!

If you think this very hastily crafted missive is incomplete, please forward me ahead of time whatever thoughts, however stupid.
