Subject: OF COURSE YOU AND I ARE ON THE SAME PAGE - RE: Message via the Web site

George hi again – I am quite certain the first thing you are going to ask yourself after reading what follows is,

“It is going to be so interesting to see how best I respond because I am quite certain all those reading this, both in the carbon as well as the 5,000 individuals/groups in blind copied section are saying to themselves, ‘It is going to be so interesting to see how he responds!!!’”

I am now over at The Inn a rather fancy, excellent lit hotel in Rancho Sante Fe, southern California where my walkin-talkin-work-of-art clothes horse always perfectly dressed for the occasion French-Canadian wife

With the most perfect pear shaped breasts is attending a meeting of the Rancho Sante Art Guild where she is a board member.

I have managed to "tap into" without any difficulty The Inn's wireless internet connection, at least I think I am connected - we will soon find out.

One of the kind youngish looking ladies, assistant manager and letting me know that she "works manager's days off, and doesn't really live by titles", who assisted me order tea for myself and two others meeting with my wife just walked by me typing away at a 100 miles an hour in the entrance area, commenting, "It is so bright out there!", referring to the outside patio area where the sun is shining ever so bright, not quite though as bright as the sun reflecting off the Pacific Ocean directly in front of our rented studio cliff house perched atop the bluffs of Del Mar, about a half hours drive away, due west.

Not to mention, Becky who has now shared her last name as well as email address with me is awesome; beautiful, tall, perfect figure, independent, has another full time job where she is the Food and Beverage Director, unmarried, sans children, happy as a lark living on her ranch with her horses, and looks about 10 years younger than her biological age of 40, hence the youngish. What a catch!!!

To mention little of the "pennytrate" [sic] mentality of the "quack" Chiropractor my wife and I earlier visited with began his examination of my extraordinarily beautiful bodied wife with the most gorgeous face having her do "You must resist me" exercises that started with him spreading her legs that wasn't much of a problem for him doing the lifting and bending since MDG is wearing a lower ankle high, most beautiful skirt.

Bear in mind that the doctor as well as all his nurses were fully aware that the reason my 1/32nd Huron Indian, 31/32nd F-C wife, came to him was because of, not some chronic pain caused by a long standing illness or genetic disorder caused mostly by us Lily White Wheaty Eaters inbreeding, but a sudden, most violent fall some 10 days ago.

Not to mention this doctor began his verbal "seduction" after first feeling ever part of her body while mumbling some mantra to mask his heavy breathing, by asking my wife, who has "been around the block", first married to an out-of-control one time practicing pathologist which pretty much says everything and if not I can elaborate if you insist,

"There is a difference between us and medical doctors. You know that when you were born you had no need for medicines!"

To mention little of it wasn't long before this corrupt but intellectually honest quack battling to keep track of his own self-induced short-circuits had fully exhausted his "repertoire", all the while placing pressure on wife's tail bone area where she was aching, the tail end beginning, "I am going to be manipulating you!" which then had my rather brilliant wife asking rather curiously, "Are you not going to first to do an x-ray!!!!" which then had the doctor without missing a beat responding alarmingly, "Of course! You and I are on the same page! I wouldn't dream of doing anything to you without first looking at your x-rays!"

To mention in passing Marie Dion Gevisser started out pretty early in life knowing that most of the world beginning with us men are rather dumb as she jumped two classes at school because of her extraordinary command of mathematics which you would know, most of all means that she could logically thought process than most, which again isn't all that much of an accomplishment when one considers how very stupid is most of the world, just look at our kids, bearing in mind that it is not so much a generation gap as it is a credibility gap that has grown over time given the lack of checks and balances that begins with not one of our elected or non-elected government officials refusing to hold accountable the counterfeiter of counterfeiters, the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel making a mockery of all those hard workers throughout the world who are increasingly wired and rather upset with all these loudmouths laughing all the way to bank.

Not to mention that you really don't want to get people in shape bent out of shape beginning by making fools of them followed by stealing their hard earned wealth.

Cutting to the chase, and not to forget my intimate knowledge of those associated with Chase Manhattan Bank, back on Wednesday, November 7th of last year I sent the following email to the folks from MADD that read:

I have a young friend who was recently stopped for a DUI offense. There is possibly no one who feels more strongly about anyone let alone kids driving drunk even though they and we can come up with so many "poor excuses" for such "bad behavior". I do, though, want to understand more about MADD's position in terms of "punishment fitting the crime" given how there are very possibly greater crimes than "driving drunk" such as "driving drunk" as well as smoking pot which I am certain you would also agree is outrageous. Again, my focus of attention is understanding how MADD maintains "perspective" in deciding how to spend the monies you receive from people such as myself who also are conscious about what our kids possibly less intoxicated are doing on the battlefields of the world all about getting us getting cheap oil so that our kids are so geared toward getting driving licenses at such a young age, public transportation to boot.

That same day I received the following response:

Subject: RE: Victims seeking help or information

Dear Mr. Gevisser,

Thank you for contacting Mothers Against Drunk Driving, MADD. I appreciate your concern for the safety of our roadways.

I'm going to attempt to answer your questions as best that I can, without spending too much time getting caught up in the details. MADD's mission is to stop drunk driving, support the victim of this violent crime and prevent underage drinking. This mission is MADD's perspective, we are not organized to look at other crimes or prevent other crimes, we must maintain our focus on our mission so that we can achieve it.

MADD's official position statement on sanctions are here:

<http://www.madd.org/Media-Center/Media-Center/Official-Position-Statements/Position-Statements/Sanctions-Related.aspx>

MADD utilizes it's funding in ways that focus on research proven directives to work towards our mission. We set goals and directives towards our mission, the latest group is our Campaign to Eliminate Drunk Driving - you can read more about it on our website here:

<http://www.madd.org/Drunk-Driving/Drunk-Driving/Campaign-to-Eliminate-Drunk-Driving.aspx>

I hope this information is helpful to you.

Sincerely,

Heather Estudillo
Victim Services Specialist

The next day, November 8th, I responded with:

Dear Ms. Estudillo,

I apologize for the delay in getting back to you following your prompt as well as articulate response. Part of the reason is that I was waiting to hear back from this one 18-year old male who had shared with me yesterday morning when I visited a local coffee shop here in Del Mar, California, where he was working, his "horror story" about being stopped for drunk driving by a California Highway Patrol Officer who apparently failed to follow "standard guidelines".

Although I refer to this rather clean cut, slender and good looking gentleman who tells me that he lives on his own and needs his car to get to and from work, as a "friend", I only met him just minutes before writing you that email, bearing in mind that I have no reason to disbelieve his "story", the same with you who I also consider a "friend".

I make it my business-personal, despite being a rather busy individual ferreting out corruption at the highest as well as lowest levels of the socio-economic pyramid, to treat everyone I meet both "kindly" and "generously", most of all with my precious time, since as you would know one can always "make money", assuming you know how, but never make up for lost time.

The fact that I have, relatively speaking, significant wealth that would place me in the top 1% of the materially wealthiest people in the United States just when looking at my "liquid net worth" which includes less than US$5,000 in the bank and just a little more I carry around in cash in the event I need to feed myself with a loaf of bread which could have US Americans soon needing a wheelbarrow full of US$100 bills to afford, no different to the way things were during the Weimar Republic, a time and subject matter I happen to be intimately familiar with, does not prevent me from either listening very carefully to what someone in need has to say or using my numerous resources apart from again my very significant "liquid net worth" to assist such individuals who for all I know could be God, since I know for certain that I am not God who I am quite certain would be smart enough to disguise him-herself in someone in need if for no other reason than to "test my mettle".

Not to mention if you knew the first thing about how either to raise a child or nurture a business you would know first and foremost to NEVER "throw money at a problem."

To mention little of "problem children" first become so very tiring and so very boring politicians before going on to be full time politicians with nothing more of value to contribute to the betterment of humankind than their so very annoying, "gift of the gab".

To mention in passing, the expression, "There is no such thing as a problem child only a problem parent" who chooses ever so carefully to first and foremost to "throw easy come easy go money" at the "problem child" when not able to address their child's rudeness, the result of a lack of discipline brought about by a parent co-opting-corrupting their child with Trust-Hush-Funds to keep them quiet.

Repetition is only necessary when dealing with "brain dead" humans who are too busy keeping track of their lies from day one.

Lack of knowledge-information-light-power, power to change the world stems from humans being lazy and fearful from embracing the truth.

The truth is too disrupting for some people too busy keeping track of all their lies from day one. I was fortunate to have two sets of grandparents as well as two parents who allowed me, the 4th and youngest of my siblings, to fly free and high from the start.

For "sum" [sic] time now I have been on a "mission" to "empower the kids to parent the parents who need the most help" and I couldn't think of any better organization than MADD to assist in this endeavor which I believe you would agree is a good "social cause" that could very possibly mesh in well with your mission without taking away from your focus.

Despite being rather well home schooled and formerly educated, not to mention more than just well above average "worldly" which is only partly due to having traveled quite extensively around the world even before I came to the US on March 17th, 1978, one week shy of my 21st birthday, it was only about 7 odd years ago that I was first introduced by a former US attorney of mine, Mr. King Golden Jr. Esq., an alumni of Berkeley University and the University of Virginia Law School where he was a top, if not the top student, to the Latin adverb "sic" which you may know denotes "so" or "thus" and is used by us English when there is a spelling or grammatical mistake within the words in quotations or as we would say in South Africa, "in inverted commas".

18-year old Kory along with his 19-year old female co-worker Lily received a copy of what I sent you yesterday but neither have responded to my request asking them what they thought of your response given how this gentleman in particular was rather outraged by what he saw as you folks being a bunch of money grabbing individuals doing nothing more than pulling at the emotional purse strings of guilt ridden mothers looking for yet another distraction from the greatest disease plaguing us Americans.

Absent Parenting Disease is very often, in my humble but seasoned observation, misdiagnosed as Attention Deficit Disease as well as a host of other ailments that has US Americans becoming not only codependants, taking no responsibility for our actions both here as well as abroad but at the same time so very quick to blame others for all that is wrong in our lives including very good people, very possibly you and each and every one of your co-workers doing your utmost to contribute to the betterment of humankind while knowing that there is only so much time in the day as well as only limited resources that prevent you from "attacking" each and every "ill" that is out there which you may very well believe is not only "out of your control" but not of "your making".

While I continue to implore these two kids to be responsible as well as respectful towards me for helping them in what they believe was the most pressing problem facing them, at least yesterday morning - remember to most of US kids raised with all the computer toys, everything provided for including our thinking by so self-absorbed parents who think like most US Americans the world revolves around the US, everything is just one quick game after the next - I would like to hear more from you, at least in terms of what MADD is doing to possibly decrease the driving age for those parents whose formal education has interfered with their learning and at the same time increase the driving age for their poorly conditioned

“diKs” [sic] who only have one thing on their minds and at the same time be mindful of those kids who don’t have Trust Funds like my wife’s two kids from a previous marriage who could care less about some financially poor stupid 18-year old dumb enough at least not to have figured out how easy it would be for him and his co-worker who has not been stopped for any offense that of course is designed to cost those most financially disadvantaged an “arm and a leg”, to have their own Trust Funds right this minute worth at least what my wife’s 15-year old son and 18 year old daughter’s is worth which combined I would say should be at least US$5 million, all depending upon first how well or poorly their “Sperm Donor” has been paying attention to my insight and analysis of the important events of the day and second how much it cost him to buy off his “blackened hand money” girlfriend who he has yet to marry despite getting the approval from at least his 18 year old daughter who told him in response to him asking her whether she had a problem with her Trust Fund being affected were he to marry the girlfriend of about a decade, thus making her his 3rd wife, that she, his only daughter we know of, had no problem with her Trust Fund getting depleted so long as he, her father, “loved” his girlfriend.

Yes, I have purposefully given you a fair amount to think about, bearing in mind once again I only contacted you because an 18 year old kid I had never met before asked if I could help him find a lawyer who wouldn’t cost him an “arm and a leg” following his “brush with the law”.

Suffice you to know, in the time it has taken for me type this email, some 20 minutes which is about half the speed I used to be able to type when communicating with a whole lot more people than I am right now, sending out as many as 30 emails a day, sometimes to as many 10,000 individuals/groups, I could earned for myself significantly more than US$10,000 even without having to try very hard given my rather unique and universal “risk assessment” skills; bearing in mind, however, that “in war money is no object” since during war times money becomes at least to the combatants totally worthless and the bartering system once again kicks in which brings me back just very quickly to the business-personal of “making money”, again a subject matter I am very well versed in and one that I think you as well as your co-workers and sponsors would be well advised to begin at least showing a very strong interest in, especially if any of you including MADD has any money in either you checking or savings accounts, certainly not foolish enough to own shares or bonds in public corporations.

The photo above shows my Sharp calculator that I got when at high school in South Africa, some 33 odd years ago. Not only does the white button at the very left bottom still work as a counter but the rest of the functions still function perfectly as a calculator, even able to do calculus, assuming your math teacher trained you to be more than a robot when learning this so very important language because of its extraordinary precision, that if taught right would allow each and every kid of elementary school age to figure out first and foremost that their parents are not God, since not one of them are smart enough to have engineered such a precise language that Einstein used to prove out the workings of the Cosmos, apart from God who wouldn't surely be foolish enough to entrust his brains to any imbecile parent who in thinking themselves God prevents their child from getting the very best education in the math that translates in to the science that can explain the chemistry of the mind, the first indicator of the Supernatural, allowing all kids to fly free and high from a young enough age when they could so very easily challenge their over-controlling parent-s who didn't support first and foremost the math teacher proving foremost that children should be very weary of parents thinking themselves godly.

Sincerely yours,

Gary Gevisser

On Tuesday, November 13, 2007 at 11:18 AM, the kid who had shared his "sad" story with me and who had received a copy of what I sent the MADD representative responded also via email with the following:

Subject: RE: Victims seeking help or information

hello again Gary. i cannot explain how much i appreciate all the time and work you've put into my simple problem, i thank you very much for following through as much as you have. i have read over MADD's reply as well as yours and what i have to say about MADD's is that it didnt really answer my question.

which is: why must madd put so much pressure on cracking down on drunk driving without creating a way to protect the lower income people who cant just pay off such fines and pay for expensive classes....they are just adding to the constant problem of the rich getting richer and the poor getting poorer. i know they care. so why cant they follow through with their "mission" as well as a random man i met at my work who needed internet access can follow through with helping out the youth. or better yet, the future?

Kory

George, my thinking is you are first of all not all that bored.

The lady who served me my cup of tea just commented, "my horoscope says this week that any confrontational business I should refrain from and keep to myself because it might get me in trouble" following my comment immediately earlier, "My wife says, 'Being non-confrontational is no excuse for bad judgment!'" that resulted from this also young lady remarking, "I don't judge people" after I had mentioned when she began picking up the 4 or 5 empty sugar packets on the coffee-tea table right next to where I am sitting, "I want you to know that all this sugar was used by the previous person sitting here; I am no sugar addict".

At the present time a dialogue has begun between Becky who works about 24 hours a week at The Inn and "60 or so hours, let me think,,, I have been slacking a little lately", and this waitress that had me just moments ago interjecting, "I will come back to you with a response to your horoscope suggestion".

Now that I have both their email addresses I will suggest they and everyone they know go to one of my websites www.just3ants.com and if they have time, www.footsak.com and www.NEXTtraterresTRIAL.com, and the first thing they will be is a little more thoughtful in the future, not knowing for sure who they are communicating with who may have even more of an ability than me with just the push of a button to communicate with the entire world.

Not to mention, that if you have nothing to hide, have not come close to getting your fair share of the graft-spoils of De Beers diamond drilling bit oil wars; moreover, it is not part of your "makeup" to lie, steal and cheat, you will be most happy with yourself and therefore to dialogue with me and all those who share my value system.

You are of course aware of the Talipot, Israel's most wired Special Forces intelligence unit who don't make it a habit of reporting in "real time" to the U.S. Congress or for that matter at any time in their entire now 3 decade history, for the simple reason they would willingly comply were the US Congress to pass an act making it compulsory for the Talipot or for that matter the Mossad, Israel's most brutal intelligence institute to keep the US Congress informed of all the intelligence they have gathered over the years on the 3 Branches of the US Government including the US Supreme Court, Justice Department and the such, going back well before the US Government imposed a trade and weapons embargo on the fledging Jewish State that included prohibiting men of Kory's age from entering Palestine to assist either of the two Jewish Underground movements, the Irgun and the Haganah, fighting the British-Americans for a Jewish homeland that was named Israel on May 14th, 1948, some 12 days prior to the US Government installing in to power on the most southern point of the African continent the most vile, the most heinous, the most inexcusably repressive South African Apartheid Regime who thanks to the military mite of the US Armed Forces protecting this redneck of redneck regimes, harvested on behalf of the US business interests who had corrupted the entire US Congress, all of South Africa's precious and limited mineral resources beginning with gold and platinum.

Now do yourself a favor and read Chapter 18, THE AMERICAN CONSPIRACY of Edward Jay Epstein's Internet only, most fascinating non-fiction novel, The Diamond Invention. Click hyperlink below:

<http://www.edwardjayepstein.com/diamond/chap18.htm>

And you would know that my father's first cousin, my uncle David Gevisser became on March 2nd 1971, the official "male heir" of American Charles Engelhard when uncle Dave was made executor of Engelhard's worldwide fabulously mineral rich estate that included controlling the world supply of platinum and the "control person" position of the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel, the mafia of mafia, the special interest of special interest group.

Not to mention you would understand exactly where my uncle Dave invested all of the US$6 million, tax free and offshore "sign on bonus" he received following the funeral of Mossad assassinated Engelhard which took place, again on March 2nd 1971 at St. Mary's Abby Church, Morris Town, two words, New Jersey, with Messrs, Senator Ted Kennedy, former President Lyndon Johnson and Vice President Humphrey all forced to pay their respect to their DAAC bosses, and DAAC you gathered, is the acronym I use for the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel, the counterfeiter of counterfeiters who laugh themselves silly at the United States Secret Service tasked in addition to protecting the President and other dignitaries, the Almighty US-DeBeers Dollar from counterfeiters.

Gold last trading at US$938 a troy ounce and platinum US$2156 which is quite dramatic considering that 5 odd months following Charles Engelhard laid to rest at the rather young age of 54 having during his lifetime bought off each and every elected and non-elected member of the US Congress using the DAAC's unlimited supply of untraceable, lightweight and never inventoried diamond currency always price fixed at more than a barrel of oil, the United States went officially off the Gold Standard and the price of gold and platinum skyrocketed.

Moreover, on December 31st, 2002 when gold closed the year at US$347, my very business savvy wife wrote an email to a group of gold traders that began,

It seems that Mr. Gevisser might in fact be on to something...

So what do you think?

When can we talk?

George, I have to take my very athletic and most beautiful French-Canadian wife to the doctor to check out her lower back after a very bad fall she took a week ago Saturday while on a hike over very rocky terrain in the awesome Cleveland National Forest where we have a stone home.

When would be a good time to call?

I have a great story to tell you about how MADD ducked an 18 year old's "hard luck" story.

Let me know if you are interested.
