Subject: REMEMBER ME?-CAREFUL THOSE VOCAL SUPPORTERS OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL- NOT SMART ENOUGH TO STEAL LEGALLY-: take your pick!- the most dangerous person in America...---...

Mr. Roop,

Were you aware that the most typed in word on Google search is, "Poker"?

Were you aware that my one cousin Martin Moshal, son of John Moshal who my father once worked for, controls more than one-third of all internet gaming?

Evil John Moshal, first cousin of my uncle David Gevisser, the American head of the DeBeers Anglo American Cartel, should not be confused with my very good friend

Dr. Michael Moshal MD who died in 1981, within a year of diagnosing that my liver had been poisoned when working for the DAAC's Codiam Inc. on 47th Street, New York City; Michael, dying of lung cancer, never having smoked a single cigarette, at the very young age of 45; dead some 10 months after writing me this last letter [click on hyperlink below] on February 24th, 1981, in which this great man references me playing rugby against the women's world rugby team.

<http://nextraterrestrial.com/pdf/dwoolf-inactive%20vs%20Proactive.htm>

Next plant permanently in the back of your head the thought that you don't know when awake as well as when you are trying to get a good night's sleep who else is fully aware of my prescient timing.

You are not, however, alone in feeling increasingly "helpless" but at the same time now very possibly momentarily "invigorated" when I tell you that Adam L. Tucker is sufficiently distracted today that he is taking his "cat" [sic] for a very late breakfast before the two of them are off to the Birch Aquarium.

But you also know that Adam L. Tucker while capable of being very elegant with words, the same with anyone literate so long as it doesn't get too close to home, does not need to either, "fight for a living" or at a significant risk of being drafted in to any of the world's military, and can therefore feel that he is entitled after a hard week's work to relax, at least this Saturday while letting me know he is available tomorrow to pick up from where he and I left off, which assumes first of all that I would have much interest in doing anything on my day off; and second, that any of us will be around to enjoy it, let alone whether those of us in the 1st World will be able to afford much more than a pot to pee in, and which might explain why Adam L. Tucker is not alone in getting all his sightseeing in.

And of course Kat is the name of a girl he met on an internet dating website; so distracted is Adam L. Tucker by these two new sets of legs, two tits, two nipples, an ass that he has decided to place further on a "backburner" responding to John Loftus, a former United States Justice Department Nazi Prosecutor who wrote to him awhile back, the same with finding a plaintiff for Mr. Jeffrey R. Krinsk, a very busy and most successful Shareholder Class Action Litigator who has expressed a willingness to join me in destroying De Beers; and you would know the replacement for this terrorist of terrorist financing organization couldn't conceivably place the world on a more dangerous path unless of course De Beers' replacement is themselves and all those opposed to me who remember remains very much alive, fit and well and most of all looking forward to each of my detractors continuing to live their hell, here on planet Mother Earth, right now and until next meeting up with our most ingenious and vengeful God who you must surely agree has done one most extraordinary job of protecting me!

Now of course each of us is entitled to pick and choose our respective "distractions" as well as seek out those we find most "attractive" especially when we still have our basic needs met and our deficit needs, the fear of losing our luxuries, very much under control, the result mostly of a very corrupt daddy and mommy, not to forget grandma and grandpa doing their part to secure our Trust Funds.

The problem though, besides for the fact that most human beings don't have Trust Funds is what God is thinking and acting upon in the very same instant.

Then adding further grief to your misery is me continuing to broadcast in "real time" with each and everyone reading what I have to say knowing their name is increasingly getting out.

And with this knowledge of others knowing what each of us knew and when we knew about our most blackened and bloodied hands in the ongoing genocides as we "dilly dally" with our so very boring and meaningless lives, so we have trouble losing ourselves in our miserable thoughtlessness.

Moreover, such wasted time not lost of course on an omnipotent power who alone can be the only one responsible for the world not blowing up and at the same time making each and every one of us guilty of our "ostrich behavior", feeling increasingly ashamed.

The "back and forth" between an omnipotent power knowing and keeping track of each of our "poor judgment" and those humans we choose to interact with, is increasingly "nerve racking", assuming you have just the slightest guilt feelings while totally uplifting for those of us "living right".

As you would also know, there are in fact people out there whose business is "fighting for a living" beginning with both Israeli Military Intelligence and the Mossad, the most wired and lethal of all the world's intelligence institutes who have no problem in me explaining the need, of in particular, the western alliance countries, to without the slightest conscience and of course so very consciously having, now more than ever, to move expeditiously to murder such shell-shocked so very poor, but mostly so very misinformed peoples prior to them being "wired", and once armed with both the knowledge of why they are so miserably misinformed as well as all the weaponry we have shipped all over the world and increasingly more difficult to guard, will inevitably be used against us.

Yes, the smartest and most deadly intelligence officers in the world don't have the slightest problem in the world with me explaining in simple English, easily translated in to the 42 languages broadcast by the BBC, the fact of life that us westerners, led by the United States of America have stripped the "purposefully" poor 3rd World of all their precious mineral resources which first required wiping out their art, their culture replacing it with US "money, me" culture.

You will notice increasingly the ringing in your ears, alerting you to God's presence.

Not to mention I choose very carefully to remain in the United States of America which is my chosen home, and let just one American citizen dare suggest I leave and go elsewhere where I can prove, beyond a shadow of a doubt, that the United States of America continues to have enough "clout" even in a place like Israel which has been "at war" with the United States since it founding in May 1948, I will unleash "choice words" that not a single member of the United States Supreme Court will have trouble understanding given how I have already provided irrefutable smoking gun proof of all the 3 Branches of the United States Government including the US Supreme Court guilty not only of treason against the citizens of the United States but of the most heinous War Crimes against the peoples of world.

Atrocious is one word to describe the United States of America's support for some 45 odd years, the most brutally repressive South African Apartheid Regime, beginning within a month of the U.S. controlled United Nations "granting" Statehood to Israel, which I can also prove beyond a shadow of a doubt, the United States of America believed would be defeated within a matter of a few hours.

On the other hand given how I am not an official or unofficial member of Israel's military or intelligence gathering Special Forces divisions beginning with the Metsada who again have no problem whatsoever in me being the only person in the world broadcasting the very official and ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence report that says in no uncertain terms that the reason Al Quaida hasn't attacked US oil interests in places like Qatar, Kuwait and Saudi Arabia is because Al Quaida knows better than to bite the hand that feeds it, it would be wrong for me, or anyone else for that matter, besides for Israeli Military intelligence, to assume that Israel who has already secured all the oil its needs to fight their next war which few would argue is highly likely to be Armageddon, wont launch a preemptive strike, very possibly using nuclear weapons, on the oil fields of Saudi Arabia, Qatar and Kuwait, that in the next instant will paralyze the US economy.

You would recall me mentioning not only the ingenious timing of the Israeli Military Intelligence that talks short, loud and clear to the western world, very specifically the US' blackened hand monies in the funding and therefore "directing" of Al Quaida, the House of Saud, Saudi Arabia who has yet to suffer from a halfway competent attack on its oil fields and to repeat ad-nausea, in the next instant paralyze the US economy, but the less obvious, "Doctors without Borders", being lethal to the purposefully powerless Third World countries whose precious mineral resources have been summarily stripped clean by principally US De Beers business interests whose origins can be traced back to US financed De Beers and the Diamond Invention.

This morning's headline news in the New York Times Internet edition, is titled, Ethiopians Said to Push Civilians Into Rebel War

http://www.nytimes.com/2007/12/15/world/africa/15ethiopia.html?_r=1&hp&oref=slogin

NAIROBI, Kenya — The Ethiopian government, one of America's top allies in Africa, is forcing untrained civilians — including doctors, teachers, office clerks and employees of development programs financed by the World Bank and United Nations — to fight rebels in the desolate

Ogaden region, according to Western officials, refugees and Ethiopian administrators who recently defected to avoid being conscripted.

At around 9 AM today Danielle, my wife's 18-year old daughter arrived at our cliff house here in heavily corrupt Del Mar, California and after we all got our "hellos" and hugs "out of the way", she came over to my wife's and my king size bed where I was still "lazing around", took hold of my new laptop computer and told me that she was going to "bookmark" for me the following:

http://audio.thisamericanlife.org/player/CPRadio_player.php?podcast=http://www.thisamericanlife.org/xmlfeeds/253.xml&proxyloc=http://audio.thisamericanlife.org/player/customproxy.php

I have since emailed Ira Glass who is apparently well-known for "off the beaten path" pod broadcasts. I will let you know if I get any response.

Soon after our cliff home had some 6 of us not exactly "potted plants" interacting; my wife and her two kids on the long and very comfortable black couch looking out on one of the most spectacular ocean views in all of southern California if not the entire world, me on the bed and two of her son JoNathan's friends, Brown and Patrick, mostly seated at the small circular table eating breakfast.

It was not long before the music got rather loud causing each one of the five having to raise their voice; Danielle who we haven't seen in several months, the least talkative, fully aware that this podcast has captivated my attention and that I would be very soon broadcasting my insight and analysis of the important events of the day, then walked over to the CD player and lowered the volume.

Her 15-year old brother JoNathan was not only the most talkative but his voice towered over both his friends.

Most noticeable from where I was seated with my legs stretched out, buttocks tightened, head up, shoulders back, and of course stomach in, was the morning light coming in from the south facing windows striking all three of their heads as Jonathan now joined his friends, and began pushing a plastic cup around causing a most annoying squeaky sound that went a long way in not just me but everyone else including his friends understanding his need to be "the center of attention."

Everyone, not just kids, feels at some point "insecure" when everything is quiet which is of course why we create noise that does little other than to pass the time before moving on to the next distraction which inevitably become a lifelong pursuit until of course someone says, "No!".

It is possible that I may in fact improve my communication skills to the point that each and every properly conditioned kid would understand perfectly not only what I am trying to do but will not tolerate rudeness which has each successive generation of "money, me" kids thinking that much more that this world is not all about "money, me".

It was almost impossible for me to make "head or tail" of this rather important podcast but I picked up enough before the noise level in the rest of the studio house "washed out" the sound coming from my laptop computer that this would serve as an excellent although rather long introduction.

One of the first words I recall were,

"No government is taking responsibility for all this trash – You don't often hear about places where no one is in charge of anyone. No island is an island. Nauru, a remote place where the biggest crooks congregate to conspire."

And then the two words, "Bretton Woods".

Back on September 18th of this year I sent both JoNathan and Danielle a 988 word email detailing certain aspects of the July 1944 Bretton Woods conference that took place within a month of the most staged D-Day June 5th-6th 1944 which in turn took place some 7 odd months before the start of the atrocity of the Yalta Conference that began on February 4th, 1945, some two days following the Soviet Red Army liberating the death camp of Auschwitz where more than a million people were murdered, 90% of them Jewish.

<http://nextraterrestrial.com/pdf/danielle-wiki.htm>

Now add to the back of your mind the fact that you cannot forget the name Boris Senior, Deputy Chief of Israel Air Force, and what this very close friend of my Royal Mater-Mother who, just 19 years of age and married just a few months to my Allied Fighter-Bomber-Pilot father, "From the earliest days of 1949 she [Zena] visited Israel two and three times a year writing reports for different publications", emphasized in his book, New Heavens, subtitle, My Life as a Fighter Pilot and a Founder of the Israel Air Force.

<http://www.potomacbooksinc.com/Books/AuthorDetail.aspx?id=2665>

Now add along with Boris Senior spelling out for me in very simple English when I met with him in Israel at age 15, back in the fall of 1972, not only why exactly, he as well as David Ben Gurion, considered the United States Government an "enemy" of the fledging State of Israel, but why both my grandfathers as well as mother chose very carefully to keep my father "in the dark" when Boris, was in addition to getting weapons, aircraft the most important, recruiting experienced South African Jewish fighter-bomber-pilots for Israel's forthcoming War of Independence.

Not to mention yet again, Ben Gurion came from the same tiny village in Poland as my great maternal grandmother Nechie Badash who was orphaned when a gang of marauding Cossacks wiped out her entire immediate family.

To mention little of Nechie Badash was also an early resident of Tel-Aviv, only returning to England to help raise my mother when Zena Rosland Ash was born on May 30th, 1929.

To mention in passing Boris Senior who died in 2004 confirmed not long after our initial conversation, "How is your mom? Fine. How is your dad? Fine", that it was also no accident American Charles Engelhard died at age 54 with so very little mention in the media of either his relatively young age or the fact that he was buried in a church with the most prominent corrupt members of the US Congress beginning with Senator Ted Kennedy, former President Lyndon Johnson and Vice President Humphrey forced to pay their respects to their DAAC benefactors, within a couple of years of extraordinarily mineral rich Engelhard orchestrating the shutting down of my paternal grandfather, Israel Issy Gevisser's extraordinary multinational trading conglomerate, The Moshal Gevisser Group of Companies which is what mostly attracted my mother's father, Alef-Albert-Al Badash-Ash to Durban, South Africa back in 1947, right when Israel was preparing to go to war with its enemies who had won both World Oil War I and World Oil War II.

A careful read of my Royal Mater's short but so very clear and at the same time craftily written autobiography, LIFE STORY OF ZENA, makes mention of my granddad Al Ash, "abruptly" informing her that her, "Life was a ball. Dancing - Partying – Summer days at the poolside – attending live theatre at least once a week and much more" was about to end.

Cutting and pasting – LIFE STORY OF ZENA:

The war was over and her dreams of being a foreign correspondent and dropping behind enemy lines in Europe came to an abrupt end. Suddenly in 1947 it came, abruptly, to an end. Her father had decided to emigrate to South Africa!!! Landing in Durban the family went to stay at the Minora Hotel.

You would know when researching Sol "Gambling Czar" Kersner's life story that this also lifelong close friend of my Royal Mater who is considered the biggest "brick and mortar" Gambling-Entertainment player in the world, mortgaged his parents' Minora Hotel, to get his "kick start" which of course doesn't even begin to explain where he got the rest of his financing.

Not to mention Sol Kersner just last year lost his son in a plane crash.

Jewish people are not supposed to gamble.

My granddad Al Ash was a bookmaker at the Durban, South African racetrack.

What goes around comes around with a vengeance.

On top of all that filling up the deep vacuum of space between your ears, add the name Leslie Shagam who died in August of this year; Leslie, while not considered that great a pilot, certainly nowhere near as skilled and experienced as my father, was also a very close personal friend of my Royal Mater, much more so than my father who was not only a very accomplished fighter-bomber-pilot during World War II but who was most "conspicuous by his absence" in Israel's War of Independence.

<http://101squadron.com/2007/08/ripping-rip.html>

It is not what is said but what is not said that is so very important.

Clear in my mind right now are one of the first words I recall in Ira Glasses podcast,

"Welcome to the free world where the only thing forbidden is disclosure...."

Ira Glass whose job function at Public Radio seems to me to be one of exclusively giving the next generation a false sense of security that there are people like him "fighting the right fight" in faraway lands, is now faced like you in having to decide what you want to do when he decides to "grow up" and dig in to the things he, like you, has told us is "interesting" beginning with this concern he tells us we should all be concerned about,

"The US$70 billions of dollars that disappeared to Soviet central bank, how does a pacific island liquidate a superpower?"

As you and in time rest of the literate world listen to this broadcast, bearing in mind that time is very much on my side, the side of the truth, that which doesn't change, you will hear how this one US Government bureaucrat in Glass' podcast mentions how when he arrived for the first time on Nauru he,

"knocked on the door of that shack...Two broken down rooms... close as I would get to the new cleaning lady of the global economy. ...Almost of Nauru is missing... was once dense tropical forest... airborne stagnant."

You will recall me describing the two rather austere offices of Codiam Inc. located on 47th Street, New York City that I first came across in the spring of 1980 when as a result of my uncle David Gevisser's introductions, I was now joining with a, "nothing to speak of job", that 24 years later had me once again knocking on their door with the two words, "Remember me?"

You would also know that there is empirical evidence of a French author going through the trash of the Soviet Central Bank in Moscow, back in the summer of 1979 where he came across documents that talked to the Soviets knowing that the price of gold would rise precipitously.

You may think the book Le Marche Aux Voleurs was just a "black operation" and therefore, nothing meaningful can be drawn by the disclosure of its French author Jean Montaldo who says he purchased gold in an effort to convince the world of the truthfulness of his "trash findings".

But then you are reminded of me reminding you of "personal connections", more so the fact that I can provide full-on "triangulation" for everything I have to say.

Lets now come back to Boris Senior, more responsible than anyone I know for clandestinely bringing in to Israel the most important weapons of war that were the deciding factor along with fighter pilots like himself and Syd Cohen in Israel winning its War of Independence 1947-1949.

Senior recounts how his ragtag air force secured victory by personally purchasing aircraft and sneaking them across international borders, and how they risked their lives on unfamiliar and untested equipment. He reminds us of the ingenuity, determination, and resolve that he and the fighters had for the creation of Israel. He emphasizes that the U.S. government was not a friend of the fledgling nation, curtailing the pilots' ability to transfer airplanes to Palestine. In contrast, the Russians rescued the endangered Jewish fighting forces from destruction by permitting "Czechs to assist us (training in and procuring Messerschmitts)." In addition, "Russian diplomatic and political support in the United Nations during that period were instrumental in helping Israel survive." This directly contributed to the success of the war in the air, which, through the efforts of the Mahal overseas volunteers, brought final victory to the nation and led to Senior's ability to initiate and build the Israeli air force.

Now listen up very carefully.

What Boris Senior who I met for the first time in the fall of 1972 is recounting, "the U.S. government was not a friend of the fledgling nation" took place some 3 years after the world knew all about Hitler's Final Solution where some 6 million Jewish people were murdered and while surely not the first mass killings, the first ever recorded orchestration by the ruling elite to rid the world of one most "troublesome" Jewish race, made up of the world's most independent thinking people.

Here you have in "black and white" the bone chilling, most truthful words of one man who was more responsible for the survival of the State of Israel as well as Israel building up one most brutal Air Force, than anyone else including the very great Commander Syd Cohen who flew alongside my father in many of my dad's 71 miraculous missions dive-bombing the crap out of the DeBeers Nazi bastards during World Oil War II.

Not only does Boris Senior lash out at the United States for not being a "friend" of Israel but he goes out of his way to credit, using very specific instances of the Russians "saving" Israel from a defeat that would have inevitably led to the total destruction of the Jewish race.

It is not only so very important to follow the "money trail" all the way back to De Beers sitting atop the world richest mineral resources of South Africa, this dynamic organization backed to the hilt by the military mite of the United States not in the least bit interested in the survival of the State of Israel, on the contrary going out of its way to make it difficult for this fledging state to defend itself as both the British and American Governments not only watch with "hands folded" but do everything they could to interfere with the Israeli Air Force, held together by one group of most courageous men and of course my mother played her part, rather well.

Would you agree that someone who lies whether it be to their parent, friend, colleague either superior or subordinate thinks they are smarter?

What is it about me that causes someone like you to think I am dumb?

I believe that if you lied once to your parents and got away with it, you would remember that occasion the rest of your life.

I wouldn't know this for a fact because that never occurred in the 1 week shy of 21 years I lived in my parents' household.

Can you imagine if I am right about us only getting dumb since we are all born geniuses, no more than 24, possibly 25 standard deviation points of intelligence that separate the smartest of us from the dumbest at birth, once we are lied to by just one of our parents and then figure we are smarter than them who we would logically conclude are dumber than us because they have a head start jump being too busy keeping track of their lies from day one?

Was it not you who wrote me the following back on Tuesday, November 27th?

Dear Gary,

I was forwarded your emails and I find your ideas intriguing. please include me in future mailings..

How many families do you know look down on "output", those such as the Chinese and Israelis who live on Kibbutzim who actually have to "sweat for a living"?

Most people I have met in the 29 odd years I have lived in the US look down on those who actually have to produce items of value in order to "make ends meet", thinking laborers are simply not smart enough to steal "legally".

In other words in the going on 30 years I have lived in the US it is mostly artists who mostly struggle for a living, who do not look down on those who actually have to produce items of value in order to "make ends meet", thinking workers who could easily lose their life or limb or suffer debilitating physical injuries the result of the short-circuits created from being too busy keeping track of their lies from day one, would be dumb to steal.

So far only one struggling artist but worth several million US dollars has paid me more than a penny for the extraordinary "output" I have achieved in getting the scum of the earth, the dirt-bags, the duchebags deluxe such as Adam L. Tucker's family to "stand still"?

That one amount US$23.88 [twenty three dollars and eighty-eight], check number 4001 was made out to me on March 26th, 2001, has yet to be deposited.

Why doesn't one family member of all the families I know in the world see significant value in my getting the world's most evil people to go deafeningly silent once I make them aware that they are very much a factor in the ongoing systemic rot?

Most people who steal look down on those producing "output" unless of course such worker ants help them further feather their nest.

Birds of a feather flock together and that doesn't make them good.

Being a sperm donor or sperm recipient doesn't make you a good parent! – Marie Dion Gevisser

I don't recall getting a reply from you to this intriguing response to your, "...i travel alot so please send to both"

It really is a sin to lie to oneself and worse yet, and as logic would dictate, get angry with the person informing you of the truth?

So what exactly is it with you that has what I have to say getting increasingly too close to home?

Do you happen to know of a mother or a father who in the time you have been alive has attended confession with a pedophile priest who failed to disclose that he is a pedophile?

Do you happen to know of a mother or a father who in the time you have been alive may have benefitted from attending confession, taken the high risk that the priest was a pedophile but who could reinforce basic virtues such as "Being non-confrontational is no excuse for poor judgment", it not mattering that the priest was more likely heterosexual and joined the priesthood figuring there was less overhead being part of the clergy than opening a psychology practice where you have to worry about all the minutia such as a vagrant using public facilities to wash themselves, stealing a prized Gillette razor from a locked cabinet in a supermarket and once passing the receptionist's desk slipping and falling and claiming on your liability insurance coverage versus wearing a frock that easily identifies one's state of arousal, leaving it up to the easily impressed who are more inclined to be in denial to make the first move in an effort to distract from having failed time and again to do the right thing?

Can you explain why Israeli Military Intelligence who produced the most ingenious not so top secret Israeli Military Intelligence report stopped communicating with me in writing immediately after I responded to their written request to send them "a SHORT, CLEAR e-mail of what it is that you need from us"?

Can you explain why anyone would email someone such as myself who can be extraordinary short and clear in my communications to send them an email asking them a question they had prepared and would be unwilling to answer since the question that they had been told I would be asking was so very self-explanatory.

Can you explain why Israeli Military Intelligence, not exactly the dumbest group of people on the planet, would want to let me know ahead of me asking permission to "put them on the spot" for producing with very possibly my help the most ingenious military report in the annals of human history, that they were granting me permission, knowing that not only am I smart but smart enough to know exactly how they operate in flushing out traitors to the State of Israel.

Please explain in a SHORT, CLEAR e-mail of what it is that you do not understand about the first question I put to Israeli Military intelligence back on November 23rd, 5 days prior to US-House of Saud-Saudi Arabia-Al Quaida announcing on November 28th click on this [hyperlink taking you to Reuters report] the arrest of 208 Al Quaida members attempting to blow up the oil fields of Saudi Arabia.

Do you refute the Israeli Military Intelligence report:

Immediately following the 2008 Beijing Olympic Games, Al Quaida who serves the best interests of certain US banking interests with direct ties to the House of Saud, will launch a series of attacks on the oil fields of Qatar, Kuwait and Saudi Arabia that in the next instant will paralyze the U.S. economy; much like this very smart, not so top secret Israeli Military Intelligence report is designed to do, and at the same time explaining why precisely Al Quaida has not attacked the oil fields of Qatar, Kuwait, and Saudi Arabia, so biting the hand that feeds Al Quaida.

Please explain in a SHORT, CLEAR e-mail of what it is that you do not understand about why the US is now making Israel the "new enemy" along with China?

Please explain in a SHORT, CLEAR e-mail of what it is that you do not understand about why Israeli Military Intelligence continue to protest they still have not received my 402 word email from November 23rd that in addition to the question above included 5 other questions similarly worded?

Please explain in a SHORT, CLEAR e-mail of what it is that you do not understand about why all the "deafeningly silent " do not want to discuss why President Bill "Rhodes-Secret Society-DeBeers Scholar" Clinton granted traitor of traitors Marc Rich a very rarely granted Presidential Pardon within hours of President George W. Bush being sworn in as Chief Executive Officer of the United States of America, apart from Ehud Barak pointing a loaded high powered rifle at the head of DeBeers President Clinton that when fired would have left an indelible impression the size of a tennis ball even if fired from more than a mile away.

Please explain in a SHORT, CLEAR e-mail of what it is that you do not understand about why President George W. Bush has decided to visit Israel next month.

Please explain in a SHORT, CLEAR e-mail of what it is that you do not understand about why President George W. Bush who often times appears awkward in front of a camera wouldn't be the DeBeers first choice in a President versus those who can't get enough of themselves, fat, eat themselves to death, poor lovers, weak libidos, constantly having to flirt with others particularly those they consider weak of mind but sufficiently physically attractive so that when the lights are turned off they lose themselves in their misery from having failed time and again to be angry enough with themselves for having repeatedly, time and again, turned the other cheek.

Please explain in a SHORT, CLEAR e-mail of what it is that you do not understand about why someone like King Golden Jr. Esq. raised in a religious Roman Catholic household in a working class family and intimately familiar with the pedophile epidemic since he was once an altar boy with a rather excellent voice but when the time came for he and his generation now with their own Bill "Rhodes-Secret Society-De Beers Scholar" Clinton in the White house, failed to speak out

Not to mention, King himself says he was "duped" in to marrying his wife who only told him of her being sexually molested as a child once he was married to Sarah Golden with now kids of their own, knowing so very little about their one grandmother's diabolical selfishness.

So high and mighty are the King Golden's of the world thinking it mighty fine to simply share "privately" their knowledge of gross misconduct, no different to most of us aware who somehow think we are so godly that we should keep family abuse within the household that does nothing good for the future victims all the while protecting yet another predator and those whose silence has been bought.

Please explain in a SHORT, CLEAR e-mail of what it is that you do not understand about why THE IT aka Dr. John BIG Ben Stewart MD, a close neighbor of the Mr. Golden Jr. Esq., Dr. JBS himself a single child raised in also a working class bigoted household where he was never told "no", growing up to think that the world was all about "me, money", would file a baseless, totally fabricated criminal complaint against me, so very carefully crafted but leaving no doubt in the readers mind that "sexual rape" was involved as The IT "made ugly" of a day I decided to be financially generous and get a pair of shoes for his daughter Danielle whose mother I had helped raise since she was 4 with a value system void of money but lots of cultural experiences that had been passed down to me by very caring human beings wanting to improve humanity, The IT feeling that the "uniqueness" that he offered to his money Trust Fund cultured children was now being threatened and this very screwed up adult "kiD" [sic] decided to play the "child abuse" card.

Please explain in a SHORT, CLEAR e-mail of what it is that you do not understand about why there can be no evil quite like The IT who doesn't know when to stop and continues to wonder why it is that I go on and on detailing his evil in "real time" when all he needs to do is account for his sins not going back necessarily when he was played with in the sand box at kindergarten by an over-controlling adult who understood that rape has nothing to do with sex but an over-controlling person wanting to get their way, but to the day he unilaterally decided to reduce his ex-wife's child support check and got caught red handed before then apologizing to both Marie Dion Gevisser and me that it would not happen again, and only after he has convinced himself that he is no longer the slimeball of slimeballs to make a genuine apology which is certainly a whole lot more pleasant than what I know versus believe the great, the smart, the most vengeful God has in store for this future shellfish having to work his way up the food chain.

Let me explain further. Click on HERE.

Please explain in a SHORT, CLEAR e-mail of what it is that you do not understand about why so far only one person still believing they are getting more than their fair share of the graft-spoils of diamond drilling bit oil wars has made what I consider to be a very generous contribution, relatively speaking of course, for the extraordinary "output" I have achieved in getting the scum of the earth, the dirt-bags, the duchebags deluxe such as Adam L. Tucker's family and The IT and Co. to "stand still", as they ponder from now to eternity the sudden brilliantly orchestrated "deafening silence" of Israeli Military Intelligence who wouldn't have much difficulty in dispensing with me given their close ties to the Mossad with the brutally effective assassinations unit, if in any way, shape or form upset with me being the first and so far only person on the planet broadcasting their very easy to understand "shot across the bow" of the United States of America in particular "war mongers wrapped in sheep's clothing" such as vocal Professor Alan Dershowitz who gives the impression he is so strong a supporter of the State of Israel, but in taking umbrage at anyone who criticizes Israel even when Israel makes it a point of welcoming such criticism so as to expose "Jew hating Jews" such as Dershowitz, so he shows his "true colors" of a coward-bully.

Please explain in a SHORT, CLEAR e-mail of what it is that you do not understand about why it took someone like me and not say Alan Dershowitz or for that matter any academic anywhere in the world including all the US Attorneys working for the Justice Department, all the analysts at the FBI, all those at the CIA with top secret security clearance to now have you think very carefully about those 208 Al Quaida arrests, bearing in mind that there were approximately 100 Special Op Hezbollah commandos mimicking very brilliantly Israeli Special Forces commandos, broken up in to approximately 10 groups.

Let me help you with the math, 10 in each group who during the summer of 2006 not only held off the brutal Israeli army for some 6 weeks but in the process, simply text messaging one another, rained down the most unsophisticated missiles on Haifa, the 3rd largest city in Israel with a population of 300,000, causing its evacuation?

Who says the 911 19 odd hijackers weren't as equally well trained as Hezbollah Special Op commandos who wouldn't need box cutters to take control of a passenger airline; breaking someone's neck far quicker than it takes a box cutter to cut through tough skin, forget all the fat of fatsos, which would have done exactly how much good for Homeland Security finding another need NOT SO MUCH to spend but much more importantly to PROMOTE worthless-fictitious U.S.-DeBeers Dollars.

Please send further thoughts and questions to both email addresses gevisser@sbcglobal.net and gsg@sellnext.com and why not add to the US$23.88 and should it be worth my while I will then proceed to open a new bank account and deposit it along with the US$23.88.

Do you ever recall coming across in my writings this one "un-fortunate" [sic] incident that took place just inside Mexico on the outskirts of Tijuana?

And even if you do let me repeat it for those who haven't heard it including very possibly President George W. Bush.

Valerie Schulte Esq. who you recall had during her "heyday" this wild 15 year sexual relationship going on with Ted Turner who inherited a billboard business from his father that he catapulted in to CNN.

Howard Stern had recently published his one book, I believe it was Private Parts, and I had bought a copy and was planning on reading it on a weekend trip I had planned with both my long time American attorney King Golden Jr. Esq. and his female bosom buddy Valerie Schulte. The 4th leg in the stool, Roger W. Robinson was busy in Washington DC and couldn't make it out but he was very much in our thoughts each time King would roll a joint and say a little blessing along with a toast to "Our Man Roger".

Now I know this might not be the funniest thing you have heard today or for that matter in your entire life, but trust me if I could get hold of one halfway decent scriptwriter with SPIelberg's access to Diamond Currency we would have one blockbuster comedy of all time when I tell you this was the funniest material you could ever imagine in your wildest dreams because here we were, me, not exactly a nobody and two "high-powered" attorneys driving from the United States of America into the sovereign country Mexico run by the US military in my black second hand Jeep with a pot full of King Golden Jr. Esq.'s homegrown pot which was undoubtedly significantly superior to that grown by Dr. John BIG Ben Stewart MD that stunk so bad that ants made their way in to his freezer where The IT's pot was sealed in plastic bags just like his fish from years back with freezer burns, paying homage to "Our Man Roger" running the US Military.

That scene alone would bring the house down, agree?

It gets better.

Within minutes of entering Roger W. Robinson controlled Mexico, a Federale on a motorcycle pulls alongside and orders me to stop.

At the time there wasn't a lit joint but if one were to have been forced to take cover during a nuclear holocaust and stuck one's face in to the relatively high quality leather seats one would have surely been able to see out the holocaust high, certainly until it had "blown over".

I thought it rather strange given how I had been down to Mexico many times before and never not once did I have a single unpleasant incident, let alone being pulled over while driving according to all the regulations.

The cop asked for my drivers license and then when I handed it to him without even looking at it, asked if I could hand him the ashtray which I did without any assistance from Valerie who was by this time a complete basket case but at least she had managed to calm herself down considerably compared to when the patrol officer asked us to pull over when she instantly got hysterical,

"My career. I am going to lose my career. Shit King, how much stuff do you have?"

Now you do have to just meet Valerie Schulte Esq. just once outside of her offices at the National Association of Broadcasters to know that right now as she reads this she is realizing that not only is there no place to hide but who in their right mind would want to smoke pot with her let alone be in her company.

Valerie Schulte Esq., a nice Roman Catholic girl can most definitely "dress the part" and she is no doubt an okay lawyer but not quite as smart a lawyer as King Golden Jr. Esq. who is no dummy even when he is not high which I doubt very much has occurred once in his lifetime since he graduated as an Altar Boy which I assume is where he first developed his taste for alcoholism and a liking in particular for those attracted to Alcohol Anonymous gatherings.

Throughout my intercourse with the Federale law enforcement officer who seemed just a little too sharply dressed and manicured, Valerie who was seated in the front passenger seat, on the right - just for those of you out there unaware that here in the States the steering column is on the left side - looking straight ahead, not saying a single word. King was alone in the back with his stash of pot and also silent.

Private Parts was seated face up in between the two front seats and I could see that it had caught the officers attention and so I promptly began a dialogue talking about Howard Stern which had to have both Valerie and King's stomach's turning given their utter disgust of Howard who occasionally tells it the way it is.

And of course Howard Stern is smarter than Valerie, King and "Our Man Roger" all combined which again doesn't really amount to much more than a whole ball of wax.

After I couldn't come up with much more small talk and not thinking it appropriate to ALSO discuss King's penis which he refers to as "Jesus" the officer told me that I should follow him to the police station, and then walks back to his motorcycle.

Valerie is now beside herself and the expletives begin to take up much of her mantra, "there goes my career". Even very cool King is starting to "sweat bullets" until I mention, "We still have Roger!" which wasn't enough to make Valerie at least laugh, in fact she just started to cry like a baby until I reminded her about how much she detested being a lawyer which only brought on more tears.

The next thing is the cop approaching the car and waving us off, telling us that he has to take another call.

Of course even I was relieved although by this time I was not only very financially independent I didn't have a job and therefore felt I had nothing to lose, much like today.

The funniest though was both King and Valerie wanting me to stop off at the first church we came across which I took place within a few minutes; remember this is the United States Mexico.

I also got out of the car but never went inside the church but with the door open I could see both King and Valerie on their knees their hands clasped together praying.

Do you not want to vomit?

Let me come back to you imagining if the father comes along admitting he has been molesting his kids and the priest is a pedophile himself?

Do you think he would take advantage of the kid?

Nothing changes because no one wants to speak out for fear it would hurt their "gravy train" which allows them plenty of free time to gripe about all the ills of the world and do, like you, nothing about it.

You also perfectly understand when dealing with those who have made out rather well being on the side of the most oppressive, most brutal empire the world has ever known, the British-American confederation making the Roman Empire look like a bunch of saints, so it makes perfect sense the odds of me finding just one of us British-Americans willing to stand tall and who has just more than a pot to pee in is rather slim; but then again the world does not revolve around either Great Britain or the United States and much more importantly there is a whole other world out there who don't need all the luxuries of modern day living to make their presence heard and that of course includes members of the US military so poorly paid, for very good reason.

Shame on you!
