Subject: BLOTCHED FAT - MARIE IGNORES THEM - TIME STEALERS-THE CROOKS ARE GOING DOWN - I HAVE TO SAY - would have liked to be a fly on the wall - do the right thing!

How much time would it take to get all the email addresses of the teachers say at Torrey Pines High School and if not able to convince them to attend one of our seminar-workshops, have them watch us expose their colleagues for the idiots they are, and careful not to also call these morons names?

Look around you and don't stop at all our leadership who do in fact reflect, different to represent, the peoples of the world who if given half the opportunity to be as corrupt as our current leadership I would wager would be even more corrupt.

You have a better clue than most about what is really going on in the world but yet you also "dilly dally", your best asking me if I have heard from Devin, your most recent email sent to me at 2:50 PM, "Has Devin replied to the email to/for Shunit?"

Devin doesn't know whether he is "coming or going" either. You surely understand Devin better than me who understands most things but not the mind of God who I could argue quite convincingly has taken over most of our minds.

Let's stick to making you financially independent without having to sell your soul.

You would know to begin the dialogue as you know best by not necessarily mentioning that you believe Torrey Pines, a major drug and not necessarily all free sex high school, is still considered one of the top high schools in the US, quite expert at grabbing the most money for their star athletes who also don't all turn out that good once no longer able to attract the crowds in their later lives when they too are "old news" just like Client #9's hooker.

Have you also forgotten that in addition to the Mossad and De Beers not having to pay money for their own intelligence, her name as well?

Do what next is the question?

Let's explore a little of Shakespeare, shall we!

To be or not to be!

Money doesn't grow on trees which take watering and fertile soil unless we are talking about plants such as the castor oil plant

We don't fight over oil; on the contrary oil is the perfect excuse to fuel oil wars.

If it wasn't oil we would fight over water and if there wasn't water then there would be no one to fight and we would all live peacefully dead.

You are doing just great!

Do you remember me not mentioning the look on Dr. John K. Pollard's face when T4 Mohapi appeared "out of nowhere" on Monday, March 10th at 9:34 PM Pacific Standard Time, breaking a 10 month "deafening silence"?

And so what that I didn't mention how all the blood drained out of Dr. JKP's face since all you would have needed to do was envision what not only your face looked like when hearing the great news but most of the emotionless imbeciles on my one of a not-so-kind to the crooked email list.

Also, when last did you visit a Vet hospital and offer your services to hook up the invalid who don't have homecare to the internet while of course being subtle when mentioning www.just3ants.com + the latest additions to the "$ hit list" [sic] and begin explaining why we dug a hole all the way to China?

How many times do you think welfare dependant Chinese and rogue Chinese policemen ask Chinese citizens when producing their Chinese passports whether they are Chinese citizens in an effort to determine not whether they are Chinese, but to cover up their tracks?

You do recall me mentioning that not only did Joey Riley when not taking a liking to my flushing her out asked me so Gestapo-like, "Are you an American citizen?" but that not so little Deputy Sheriff/Corporal Matt McClendon from the San Diego Sheriffs Department when I found him and his partner on August 15th, 2006 playing things very fast and loose with a poor and elderly White American citizen whose civil rights McClendon had previously trampled on when asking Don Riley, no relation to Joey, when Don back on August 1st, 2006 was on public property having purchased for himself a piece of pizza at the local Del/gas station in Pine Valley, just up the road from the Stone Home, "Don, what is it going to take to run you out of my town?" and then deciding 15 odd days later to enter deep inside the Cleveland National Forest where they never venture and proceed to order Don out of his camper that was legally parked in the shade under a large oak well off a rarely used road, perfect for a murder.

<http://www.nextraterrestrial.com/pdf/kemery-placeonfile.htm>

Fortunate for Don, don't you think, that his cell phone was working and his brother-in-law in Las Vegas managed to reach me and I was able to race up the road some 2 miles and so very much interfere with another case of illegal aliens being the root cause of course of most peoples "Poverty of Thought" apart from alcoholism that doesn't only affect the alcoholic in the family but all the family members who have to deal with this very serious problem, that few would argue is not rampant amongst us Jewish people, and very possibly the only thing, apart from God, that has saved us Jewish people which of course hasn't prevented us from also being selfish bastard imbeciles having also bought in hook, line and sinker into the next big problem, second to "illegal aliens", broadcasted 24/7 by all the bought media including the Drudgereport.coms of the world; namely, that China is the "new enemy" and must be stopped at all cost.

Did you know that Chinese policemen do not carry guns?

Did you know that the United States of America is the most armed citizenry in the world and that correlates with us having 1 out of 99 adults in prisons, the largest prison population in the world?

Did you know that United States local law enforcement didn't start carrying guns when we introduced our Regime Change policy in Mexico and the rest of Latin America in order to steal their people's oil and enslave their workers and for those with means to escape to cross over to the United States and work for slave wages, all the while promoting US-De Beers dollars.

Do you remember that De Beers have controlled the world's drilling industry for more than a century using their price fixed diamond currency to also price fix diamond tipped drilling bits.

Do you recall me telling you that the Mossad didn't need to have each and every one of their agents attend my business school tutorial that I put on today during a cell phone call with our contractor who is putting in two 14 inch solar tubes over the living room area in the Stone Home?

BTW how much would you charge for the labor and when quoting me make sure the bid covers a completely finished paint job as well as removing legally all the illegal aliens, no strike that, all the dirt?

Did you know that after a while you can play with yourself, no strike that, play with the numbers all you like but in the end they do have to add up and right now things don't look very good for western number crunchers, western media, western military personnel, etc etc who have to still deal with a whole bunch of material disclosures that the bought media have yet to announce, apart from me of course, and I cannot be bought.

Did you know that the Chinese invented gunpowder as well as paper money as well as set the scholastic levels at all our schools and universities as well as their own?

Do you think the lack of religion let alone religious fanatics hurts them in "sum" [sic] way?

Do you recall me mentioning that my orthodox Jewish mother who keeps kosher and "From the earliest days of 1949 she [Zena] visited Israel two and three times a year writing reports for different publications" without mentioning which Mossad publications exactly, not only cannot write a single Hebrew letter, but the sum total of her entire Hebrew vocabulary is no more than a handful of words.

Can you just see my stepfather Alan Zulman bringing out a Hebrew prayer book and beginning to tutor my mother now fast approaching 79?

Sidebar to the Mossad:

Be gentile and kind both towards my mother and her "lucky" friend, my uncle David Gevisser, may they both live to 120.

How many people do you know on Wall

-47th Street

the writing, no strike that, a balance sheet better than me?

Plaque reads:

RESTORED WITH THE GENEROUS HELP OF SOUTH AFRICAN JEWRY
1969

How many times including the once in this email below have you heard me explain the utter nonsense of Jewish people in the Diaspora raising worthless-fictitious monies for the State of Israel who had the Mossad with the most brutally efficient assassinations unit who don't also have to pay for their weapons, let alone their own fricken intelligence.

I think I am typing too hard.

How many times do I need to repeat that to his credit President George W. Bush didn't attend law school but when at Harvard University business school he would have learned to read a balance sheet better than that idiot, corrupt, moron, bought and paid for, stinky finger pointing, dog values, Bill "De Beers-Rhodes Scholar lawyer" Clinton who simply doesn't know when to be quiet.

Sidebar to Bill:

Shut the Fuck up!

You haven't forgotten, I hope, The Diamond Invention whose survival is predicated upon the 1.5 billion odd strong art-jade cultured Chinese picking up the slack as there are CURRENTLY more westerners than there are the Jews of the Orient on my one-of-a kind email list that represents a statistically valid sampling of the world's literate and most corrupt.

I am going to take a mid-afternoon nap and when I wake it could be tomorrow. Vanmore is nog a ander dag – Afrikaans for, "tomorrow will be an even better day" – I would check that translation with Tefo and don't be surprised if he says the literal meaning is, "The crooks are going down!"

Ps I – Do you understand why I have never been a member of the board of directors of any public corporation/charity and it has nothing to be with all my etiquette and Charm School training; and when a member of the board of a private company only when I would be the Chief Executive Officer and the "control person" of all the outstanding shares.

You should recall the significance of that one document detailing the extraordinary voter fraud that took place during the November 2002 California Gubernatorial election that is now being shared at Light-G-d-speed throughout the internet.

You do remember that China today has nearly 3 times the number of "wired" and more so wireless internet users than the United States and that well within a decade China will be the largest English speaking population on the planet.

Tomorrow I am planning on meeting with a highly educated and very "wired" Chinese-American lady whose husband divides his time equally between the Peoples Republic of Santa Monica, no strike that, The Peoples Republic of Communist China and the United States, and from what I understand both husband and wife have very different opinions on the most important issues of the day.

Amazing isn't it to hear that Chinese people could possibly be independent thinkers?

How many times do you think I will need to explain to President Hau of China why the Mossad, an Israeli based Israeli intelligence institute don't need to pay for either its weapons or their own intelligence, the same with the entire Israel Defense Force?

Do you recall me mentioning the distinct possibility that someone very senior in the Clinton Administration "blew it" big time sometime in 1997 when failing to inform the Admiral in charge of our most sophisticated fast attack Los Angeles class nuclear submarines based on Pt. Loma that a very large Chinese ship, most likely a warship, flying the Chinese flag sky-high that you would have to lean you head back to view its top even if you were standing on top of the top deck of one of those fast attack most advanced weapon systems submarine known in the world apart from those in China and Israel, was coming in to port at San Diego harbor and those submarines as well as other US Navy Frigates who were operating under their own power; i.e. revealing the most extraordinary "fingerprint" to the Chinese vessel carrying the most advanced sensor equipment that combined with their satellite tracking didn't matter that the Chinese may not have had the most perfect visual from their ship but enough with just what I am writing to have Robert Gates US Secretary of Defense to pull back all US forces throughout the world and let our service people "cast their vote" on what this most likely not isolated event means to the entire security of our Armed Forces, don't you think?

Do you recall the title of our forthcoming seminar-workshop and how much do you think we should charge for those attending in the flesh?

Not to mention you recall that it was Senator John McCain's Admiral father who was most responsible for sending the USS Liberty in to harms way in early June 1967 that resulted in Israel Defense Forces unleashing the most extraordinary "unprovoked" attack on a defenseless US spy ship that had absolutely no business being there apart from getting up to mischief as Israeli Special Forces Commandos "laid the ground work" for future battles.

To mention little, as you are not the only one who should be waking up big time, bearing in mind you of course well above average in your knowledge base, that the current most powerful person in Israel, Ami Ayalon who Kerene over at the Office of the Israeli Department of Defense attaché at the Israeli Embassy in Washington DC will confirm, is extraordinarily "deafeningly silent".

To mention in passing Ami "Minister without portfolio" Ayalon would not need to be reminded much of Operation Green Island that took place on the eve, I believe it was, of Neil Armstrong stepping foot on the moon, July 20th, 1969 and us very recently hearing about Henry Kissinger at the exact same time getting up once again to much mischief in the Middle East, given how Mr. Ayalon the former head of Flotilla 13, Israel's most brutal Maritime Special Forces unit was earning his "stripes" on that extraordinarily daring and successful mission resulting in him becoming Israel's most highly decorated soldier, much more so than very highly decorated Ehud Barak who is currently Israel's Minister of Defense but who knows perfectly well to take his orders as does Israel's idiot Prime Minister Omert from Mr. Ayalon who to the best of my knowledge I have yet to meet.

So again, here we have in 1969 South African Jewry contributing some worthless-fictitious DeBeers-South African Rands to purchase fricken motor to hold up a gate and Ami Ayalon and his fellow commandos are doing more than risking life and limb; part of their job was to bring back their dead and injured.

It is all about time efficiency although having people waste your time gives you time to waste talking about "time stealers" while not finding the time to confront those flat line plotters watching and calculating their next moves.

I'm back. My "forty winks" were suffice.

Do you have any idea how much I have accomplished today having first of all not watched much if any TV over the past decade and even when having a TV hookup going back more than 5 years ago I barely paid any attention other than to the date which seemed to be missing given how everything seemed such a repeat which it was for the brain dead who thought they were so very smart in being able to read in between the lines of the lines written by liars, cheats and thieves who understood perfectly well how to let people think they were smart enough to read in between the lines.

Man isn't so much primitive as he is so much stupid than he could have imagined in his worst nightmare.

Second, I fall asleep quick knowing that I have lived right from the start always without exception confronting evil as best I could and when I knew I wasn't about to get anywhere to just go quiet and figure out a way knowing that when choosing change I would inevitably succeed; and the worst that could happen is that I would end up dead while knowing that if I lived I had the skills to survive anywhere including in a desert so long as I had access to clean drinking water, a "cupocchina" [sic] machine that worked, the one at the Stone Home is now very problematic and it depresses me but not to the point of simply getting a Philips screwdriver and cleaning out the one rather easy to reach filter, the sled bed we have here with the most extraordinarily comfortable mattress that allows most of all Marie to sleep as many as 12 hours.

Where was I?

Third, once figuring out that the world isn't about "money, me" that it therefore has to be about something much bigger and so much more beautiful than all the fake people I noticed constantly around me, so that when I wake up, I not only wake up much earlier than most but I am totally invigorated all the while knowing that imbecile, liars, cheats, and thieves all one and the same need their "beauty sleep" as they also don't figure out but too late that they are getting older and uglier by the minute, worse yet having yet another thing to worry about that puts them back to sleep as I go about building my own network, one individual at a time.

Fourth, so what that I haven't convinced yet the whole world since not only has the whole world not blown up I am still alive, fit and well and living very comfortably, thank you.

Fifth, God is not stupid you know and knows to take care of those who take proper care first and foremost of themselves by always being straight with themselves.

Sixth, it is now 2:12 PM PST and I really don't have anything more to say.

Gold last trading at US$944.50 a troy ounce up some US$7 since when I suggested Marie should purchase some more gold as the trend was heading down fast.

Marie, though, looks at the size of my emails and if it requires her having to scroll she just ignores them.

You may not have got the email I sent Marie earlier.

Hitler wasn't the first to understand the "herd mentality".

God gave us two ears and one mouth so that we would listen twice as hard as we speak!

I am about to head out the door of the stone home, first a slow jog around the 90 minute loop walk and then a sunset bike ride.

The photos below I took yesterday with my cell phone while resting after a fairly strenuous bike ride.

Do you think the fat you see on the right side of my face could turn in to the sort of blotched fat you see on my so very ugly, even disgusting to look at cousin Mark Gevisser?

Now of course I don't have the LONG perfectly toned thighs of my skier legged perfect DNA French-Canadian wife that for "sum" [sic] reason had to mix with the ... but then again I don't have as my great great grandfather a Huron Indian Chief who ruled the roost and lived mostly outdoors even when bagging the best equipped French woman in the land, but at the same time my "jeans" [sic] aren't all that bad on either my mom or dad's side of the family; bearing in mind I don't know of even the best French-Canadian ice hockey players dumb enough to jump over even one barrel, day after day and when getting home at night and falling fast sound asleep even when I fell very hard "sumtimes" [sic] I couldn't wait for the next day to arrive to be up on my feet knowing that the worst that could happen was that I could break a leg which is what my mother told me each time I got on the ice.
