This mgevisser@iafrica.com is my very mineral rich author-journalist cousin Mark Gevisser.

BTW gold, a little earlier, blew past its all time high of US$850 a troy ounce.

Now look at the tin, gold plated goblet below which was given in 1960 to my paternal grandfather, Israel Issy Gevisser commemorating his 50 years of "DEVOTED AND LOYAL SERVICE" to the Moshal Gevisser Group of Companies.

Not to mention that Issy Gevisser in 1960, some 72 years young and healthy owned the control block of shares of this highly diversified multinational trading conglomerate whose shares were actively traded on the Johannesburg, South Africa, Stock Exchange and well known to the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel whose very top dog, American Charles Engelhard chose very carefully as the executor of his estate my uncle David Gevisser, my grandfather's horrible stutter and so very non-athletic nephew and whose other uncle, Sol Moshal had like Charles Engelhard, no male heirs.

<http://www.edwardjayeinstein.com/diamond/chap18.htm>

To mention little of my very poor business person uncle Dave's primary benefactor, a racist of racist, a Nazi of Nazis who was the single biggest financial supporter of the United States of America's Democratic Party, first began journeying to South Africa in the late 1940s to consolidate the future rule of the United States of America's South African Apartheid Regime who beginning May 26th, 1948, some 12 days after David Ben Gurion gave the name Israel to the newborn Jewish State, ruled over South Africa sitting atop the world's richest mineral resources including uranium, gold, platinum and diamonds which were the most abundant and totally worthless outside of critically needed precision tooling.

To mention in passing such a most brutal rule of the Apartheid Regime over some 90% of the non-white population continued uninterrupted for a period of 45 odd years without once the most vocal opponents of this US sponsored and highly protected protectorate of the United States of America daring to ever speak out publicly against De Beers beginning with Nelson Mandela, the first Black South African President who spent some 27 odd years in detention, knowing perfectly well that he had done "good" by his DAAC bosses when speaking from the dock of the Supreme Court of South Africa in Pretoria on April 20th, 1964; his sickening speech,

"I am Prepared to Die" sounding at best like a slave asking for a "slave wage increase" all the while saving his neck from the gallows as he again, so vomit like, paid homage to the judicial system of his captors, the United States of America and Great Britain.

Shame on you Mr. Mandela for first of assuming that not a single independent thinker would ever surface to question why it was that you went after civilians when bombing the railway station in my hometown of Durban, South Africa, murdering innocent, that served as quite the distraction from simply dropping one grenade after the next down the mineshafts of even deserted De Beers mines that would have inevitably attracted the world's attention and put to an end all the world's genocides.

Shame on all those imbeciles who still think highly of you.

May the good and smart Lord continue to show his vengeance towards you and all those who choose your DAAC sponsored hospitality as our Omnipotent Power keeps you with us before returning you as best as an ant to be squished time and again without a single other ant when passing you by bothering to do more than crap on your remains.

Adam, remember it is not only this hypocrite homosexual cousin of mine who is alive this very day also suffering so very horribly from the inside out, all the while promoting his autobiography of South Africa's current stooge black President, the drunk Thabo Mbeki, which doesn't interfere with Mark Gevisser being afforded the opportunity like Edward Jay Epstein, author of The Diamond Invention to write nonsense editorials for the New York Times and the such without a single person apart from myself thinking it important enough to call up Mark Gevisser as well as email him asking about his immediate family's wealth and what he thinks about his father "selling short" both his brother and cousins, as well as whether he thinks those who read his articles and books should at least be told that his father's primary benefactor was Charles Engelhard, an extraordinarily "open supporter" of the South African Apartheid Regime and whose American lawyers, who I first met with in early 1980 before joining Codiam Inc. on 47th Street, New York City, the money laundering capital of the world, handed my uncle David Gevisser a cool US$6 million upon the death and burial of Engelhard on March 2nd 1971, when the price of gold ended the day a +-US$35 a troy ounce, and those in attendance at St. Mary's Abby Church, Morris Town, two words, New Jersey, beginning with Senator Ted Kennedy, former President Johnson and Vice President Humphrey, had just as good an idea as my uncle Dave and of course the Mossad, what would occur some 5 odd months later on August 15th, 1971, when the United States, the world's military intimidator of military intimidators, would officially go off the Gold Standard and the value of Charles Engelhard's fabulously rich mineral estate would go through the roof.

Not to mention a very good gauge of whether someone is going to grow up to be a bully-coward beyond looking at the relationship they have with the bully-coward parent beginning with the passive aggressive behavior they exhibit not only towards that coward-bully parent but also the parent trying their best to make them an independent thinker, is how "curious" they are about not only their past beginning with both parents and grandparents as well as of course great parents and to trace as much as possible the family line to the year dot, but about the family history of their friends.

To mention little of how New Year's Eve was not only the most interesting dinner of my entire life during which time I never once chose the conversation subject matter and of course you will recall how we never got in to the tinkering of the fruit flies without messing with their DNA that has them becoming homosexual, but how it began as Marie and I chauffeured to a party very underdressed and cold prone JoNathan and his 4 much more warm clothed male friends who included a cousin of JoNathan's "best friend", who we call "Brown", because "Brown", a very fit and unafraid Jewish South African, is constantly tanned, as if the sun circles him even at night when "Brown" is asleep in his bed.

To mention little of this cousin's parents intimately involved in the diamond business although the only word that came out of Brown's cousin's mouth in answer to my question, "What do your parents do?" which of course irritated JoNathan who expressed his agitation by feeling the need to comment, "Here comes the interrogation!", no doubt feeling this kid who he only recently met, needed some sort of "support" which of course couldn't be further from the truth given how I knew there was a high probability that no matter what profession/business his "parents" were in given how they were Jewish, they would have most likely encouraged their kid, as I was from an early age, to ask questions about his and his parents' heritage, and when the kid answered, "My father is a gemologist", JoNathan who prides himself on his good vocabulary acted like he hadn't even heard the word before although there is most likely no kid JoNathan's age who has heard more the word "diamond".

It is not only what is not said but what is said that also counts.

Of course I knew better than to explore Brown's cousin's answer any further, apart from making certain this kid of diamond dealers who work for the mafia of mafia never felt for one moment uncomfortable beginning by "distancing" myself from my intimate knowledge of the bloody diamond trade by referring to the Diamond Mart in downtown Los Angeles where his parents work as the "Jewelry Mart".

The information that I am now sharing with you should have "peaked your curiosity" to the point that you would not only have no difficulty in completing the analysis of the ingenious Israeli military intelligence report of all time to the best of your ability, seeking input from everyone you know as well as strangers who you come across in the future, while understanding perfectly well something I have been repeating ad-nausea that only those whose intelligence has not been interfered with by scumbags such as The IT and Co. would have needed me to mention just once before going "deafening silent" and contacting each and every Jewish leader beginning with the rabbis and governing boards of each and every synagogue in the world.

To repeat for the umpteenth time, the Hasidic-ultra orthodox Jewish-Black Hatters serve principally whether congregating on 47th Street in New York City or at airports or other diamond centers or toilets in particular throughout the world as the intelligence gathering arm of De Beers who do not only rely on Black Hatters but each and every politician, medical doctor, scientist, academic, housewife, artist painter, bricklayer, painter, plumber, carpenter etc etc they can corrupt with their very simple agenda, "Take the money now or open up a taco stand".

Not to mention not all Black Hatters smell nor do all Black Hatters work for De Beers only when watching those they have or have yet to co-opt-corrupt enjoy both gay and heterosexual sex, let alone the small talk that goes on around a dinner table where the bought and paid for waiters and restaurant hosts have previously placed microphones as well as miniature cameras to watch very carefully all the body language and most importantly the touching of shoes which also has you thinking of that one occasion on February 11th, 2002 during a most important board meeting of the Wetherly Capital Group financed by Ron Burkle and Co. I had to contend with Ms. Vicky "Sticky" Schiff kicking me under the table with her new very pointed high heeled shoes as I took on her co-managing director Dan Weinstein.

I think this would be a good time for not only you but every literate person in the world to read this "knuckleball" of an email I sent Mr. William H. Jackson Esquire, yet another moron Stanford Law School trained attorney for the Wetherly Capital Group back on July 25th, 2002 in response to the email he sent me 3 days earlier which in turn was in response to an email I sent him also on July 22nd, 2002 which in turn was in response to a letter and fax he sent me on April 3rd, 2002, some 110 days prior.

Not to mention that on July 23rd, 2002 I began broadcasting the following carefully worded communiqué that Mr. Jeffrey R. Krinsk of Finkelstein & Krinsk edited:

Subject: Epilogue to Manager Minute One

The collapse of the stock market here in the United States is all but certain. It makes no sense that a publicly traded company should be valued more than a private business which generally sells for between 3 and 5 times predictable earnings plus liquidation value, i.e. "less goodwill blah blah" [sic]. And remember management of private companies are much more accountable assuming they have the checks in place for their "audirtors not writely balanced" [sic].

Publicly traded companies with their diverse shareholder ownership allow management much more flexibility to mix things up, taking with the right and hooking the owners with their left, lefties to boot. Right now the smart money has left or is in the process of leaving the markets in search of "safer heavens" [sic], safe harbor provisions a thing of the past.

President Bush should do the smart thing and immediately suspend trading of public corporations, thereby protectING the innocent and naive who are simply throwing good money after bad. Those well run public companies should have no fear for they will be at a competitive advantage relative to the capital that has been so smartly socked away.

The scars of 1907 remain on the masonry buildings housing the stock exchange of Wall Street. The fundamentals of the economy at that time were much worse than in 1929. One man J.P. Morgan saved the day, not so lucky for the victims of 1929. History has a way of repeating itself but today the "risk markets" are more fragile than at any time in history.

"Risk assessment" is my business.

Gary S. Gevisser

[Word count 267]

I think it is fair to say that my dealings with Mr. William H. Jackson is a good example also of my patience, bearing in mind that the letter from Mr. Jackson was a "Settlement Offer" which called for the Wetherly Capital Group to pay me monies due to me under a signed and executed Consulting Agreement which Mr. Jackson seemed to forget along with my attending that so critically important meeting on February 11th, 2002 which the documentation provided by the Wetherly Group showed the chronology of events including the US$63 billion collapse of Vivendi's market value following 2 meetings the Wetherly Capital Group arranged with California Governor Gray Davis on December 28th, 2001, some ten minutes apart.

Not to mention yet again why you think The IT, the flat line plotter of flat line plotters backed up by De Beers master spy Roger W. Robinson relying of course on his bosom buddy Mr. King Golden Jr. Esquire, my one American attorney of some 15 odd years, would introduce in to a court of law on October 24th, 2002, my wife's very carefully crafted 7 provision will that was witnessed by a neighbor attorney, Mr. Jim McFarland on January 3rd, 2002, the very day I was quite certain Vivendi's share price would begin a 280 day unprecedented and precipitous US$63 billion collapse which of course meant those smart enough to "short" the shares of Vivendi [symbol V] and its 63% owned sister company Vivendi Environmental [VE] would make nothing "short of a killing".

Of course it helps even to remind you why it is that THE IT remains, in my humble but seasoned opinion, the most evil human being the world has ever known who serves to make those less evil feel, really, "rili" [sic] good about themselves so that they can at least function with minds as close as it gets to being a perfect vacuum of space, much like Deep Space and a vacuum tube from which no sound can travel but who serve to light up the path for the rest of us which makes life not only bearable but still very interesting; again just talking for myself.

Not to mention I have never bothered to follow up with Mr. Jackson Esq. or the Wetherly Capital Group to collect the monies due me given how you would understand that there is only so much time in the day when not making love to the most beautiful and sexy woman on the planet to do other things like staying in shape and making certain that Israeli Military Intelligence don't "drop the ball".

You would surely now understand perfectly well that the Black Hatters focus not only when dressed in their black garb, almost exclusively on the non-religious Jewish people who the Black Hatters make to feel "guilty" about being not all that religious and performing the daily rituals such as "laying tefillin" as well as feeling "well to do" courtesy of course thanks to De Beers and their most brutal intelligence gathering arm.

Do you feel like you have just had the most potent cup of Turkish coffee, and please don't remind me that you don't drink coffee.

BTW I had Turkish coffee for the first time yesterday in possibly 35 odd years since I was on Ulpan back in the fall of 1972, when I met for the first time the 33 year old, in good shape, physically and mentally, Israeli owner of the Mozy Café, where Marie, JoNathan and I all had falafel burgers and let me add that Marie refused to let me have more than the one very excellent French fry off her plate which I had to grab that nearly resulted in another great food fight were it not for the fact there were others all around including Mozy who is of course copied.

Bear in mind most non-religious and religious Jewish people are just like the non-religious and religious Gentiles, overwhelmingly very superficial and assume that because the Black Hatters don't wear fancy diamonds or expensive business suits without even thinking for a moment that the possibility exists that their underwear is made of the finest silks and linens, doesn't mean all Black Hatters are stupid or corrupt but you wouldn't know unless of course a graduate of the Gary S. Gevisser Charm School of doing business-personal where you learn how best to get along in this world by first of all knowing when to shut the fuck up and to listen very carefully to those who make perfect sense and to avoid those who don't, like the plague and if choosing to be with an IT anywhere close to The IT then of course you are going to suffer horribly not only in this world but the one thereafter and if you don't want to take my word for it just ask God and let me know His-Her response.

Nor is the Mossad stupid enough to have on its payroll only those Black Hatters who swear only allegiance to the Mossad.

On the other hand you would know that the Mossad don't first check with people like Senator Ted Kennedy before they place on board his private plane a very well trained agent who also understands they are being watched by the world's most deadly accurate assassinations unit whose membership mostly, if not all, know their modern Jewish history extraordinarily well, beginning with the fact that the American and British Nazis won World War II.

Most Jewish people like most Gentiles are total and complete morons.

I don't know a moron who is not an imbecile.

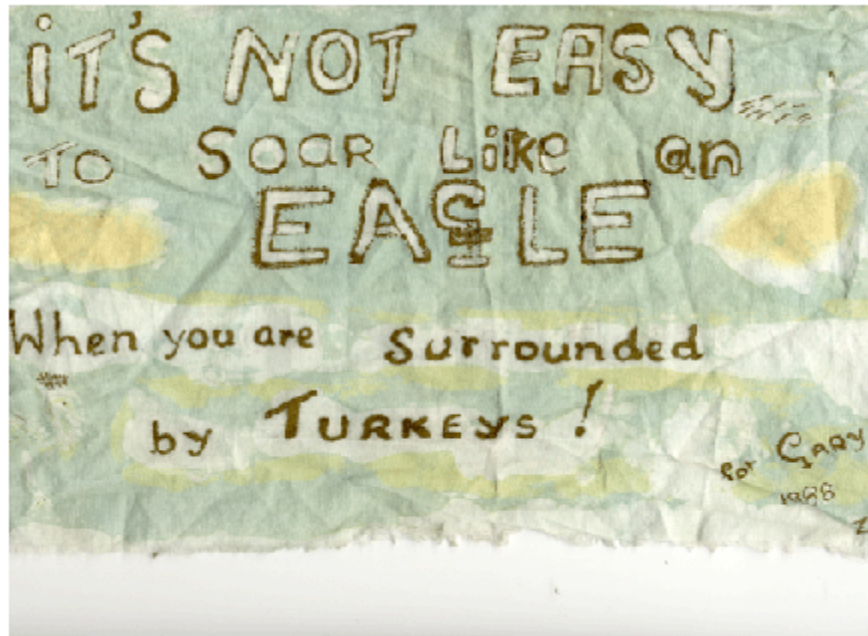

Most, if not all, imbeciles are morons.

Don't you think this monologue I am having right now is a whole lot more interesting than any of the dialogues that went on our dinner table on New Years Eve where again I never once contributed to the subject matter?

You recall that each and everyone at the table decided for themselves what was important to them and of course I not only "played along" but gave my pennies worth of input knowing perfectly well it would go in one ear and out the other, apart from those "listening in", although Dr. John K. Pollard Jr. thought he was following everything, but not necessarily quite as well as his new girlfriend, 69-year young Dotte who read each and every one of us seated at the table exceptionally well including me who like everyone else at the table thought no one else but them was reading the others quite as well, but when I threw in towards the end about us Lilly White Wheaty Eaters being the most "inbred" and therefore the dumbest of all the races it had to have her thinking, no different to the rest of us seated at the table, that I was "losing it", given how "Conventional Wisdom" would strongly suggest that black population groups particularly in Africa where she had recently visited, are the most "inbred", apart from of course The IT, and therefore suffer more so from hereditary diseases including, "Poverty of Thought".

And of course it is unlikely that Dotte, also a LWWE, thought to recall how she couldn't get over how very naturally happy the members of the Mosai tribe looked; bright smells and so very warm and friendly to US LWWE Americans who are so fucking dumb that we couldn't even figure out why the most non-Aryan looking human being on the planet could surround himself with the most non-Aryan looking clowns on the planet and in no time at all focus their propaganda on the need to create one Aryan race, all the while these inbreds of inbreds managed to produce themselves in no time to speak of, the most extraordinary military machine of all time that had those who financed Hitler and Co. having to "play act" rather well in "catching up".

Do you appreciate better why it was that my poor, poor, poor, Royal Mater-Mother felt so very often the need to "console" me, best illustrated in this wording she wrote on a piece of cloth she had colored:

But of course you cannot forget given how I made such a BIG POINT about very pretty Dotte

[of course I had to choose the worst photo I took of her and the best of Dr. JKP] being the only westerner I have ever met, who without me prodding, questioned whether Africans such as the Mosai tribe are better off not being educated by us westerners; although before I gave, again my two pennies worth of input, she thought it was a "good thing" westerners have all these charitable foundations operating throughout the United States induced impoverished world, headed of course by those disgustingly awful and so hypocritical medical, "Doctors Without Borders".

I am assuming the next time you hear one of US ugly Americans talking about how very "sad it is to see how poor" are our slaves throughout the world but who still manage to smile a whole lot more than us growl looking Americans you will know what choice words to use apart from "Fuck Off!"

Do you also better understand that it is only the loud mouthed ugly Americans who are so fucking loud when traveling the rest of the world thinking not only the world revolves around America but their American Dollar is Almighty.

You also realize that the overwhelming majority of US Americans don't have a fricken clue what is going on this world thanks to those loud mouthed ugly Americans who do most of the traveling to the rest of the world and who must now be spotlighted like never before by the rest of US Americans.

Please look on my database for those couple of photos I took of THE IT and his Cow when walking by the cliff house a few months back when they simply couldn't avoid looking over their shoulder at me taking their photo.

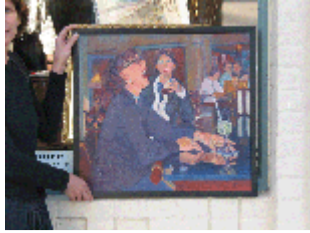

Just so that you know, I will, in the interests of not offending those going to www.just3ants.com for no other purpose than viewing the ugliest of ugly Americans, erase out both their big butts.

You haven't forgotten that while I may have spent more time than any LWWE South African traveling abroad during the 21 years shy of one week I grew up in United States of America controlled Apartheid South Africa, I spent the overwhelming majority of those 21 years watching extraordinarily carefully how easy it was for the United States of America to, at the same time as intimidate, make, even those not bought and paid for, so very stupid.

And of course, thank God for my mother who also taught me to follow the teachings of her father, Alef-Albert-Al Badash-Ash who in turn taught his only child, my very brilliant mother, the importance of, "Keep Smiling!"

BTW Dotte and Dr. JKP are currently visiting with Marie over that the gallery in La Jolla where Marie displayed rather well both her artist skills as well as agility when hanging the current show.

Focus is a Canadian produced movie that every single human being literate and illiterate should be forced to watch by the end of the day today and in the next instant I doubt there will be any currency trader worth their salt thinking it smart to hold on to US-DeBeers-Dollars.

When watching this low budget movie with the best of the best of Hollywood's actors your mind will tell you that not much if anything has changed in the United States since the early 1940s when Jewish people were harassed and couldn't get jobs.

There are no more vocal group of Jewish people in the world than US American Jewish people who make such a big deal about the Holocaust and the need for all the memorials and all those pitiful film footage of dead and walking dead Holocaust survivors.

What if, though, there were no death camps like Auschwitz?

What if, Afrikaner Field Marshall Jan Smuts and David Ben Gurion knowing exactly what was happening in those death camps, but much more importantly that it was the United States of America responsible for each and every brick, each and every square meter of concrete, each and every gas pellet, etc etc, had decided to "interfere" and focus their energies on destroying the evidence.

How fucking dumb to even think about kids who use bad language.

How many sons and daughters of American Naval officers such as my mentor Amos Wright have thought to ask their fathers why it was that the orders came from above that when sending American troops in to "harm's way", the first to go would be blacks and Jewish Americans.

Those African and Jewish Americans who support the United States of America's Democratic Party should from now and until next meeting with our most smart and vengeful God hold their heads in shame.

Those Americans who support the cowardly bastard Republican Party should do the same.

But my focus is the Jewish people especially those who promote Holocaust memorials as if they provide any solutions for tomorrow.

IT IS NOT THE WHOLE WORLD, LET ME REPEAT, IT IS NOT THE WHOLE FUCKING WORLD, THAT DENIES THE HOLOCAUST.

Why don't we focus on those who DO NOT deny the holocaust but who support the diamond trade who are run by the Nazis who won much more than World War II.

Please don't bother responding to this communiqué with anything other than completing to the best of your ability that analysis, although I do need the following:

1. In the "task" section of Microsoft Outlook on my desktop computer there is a telephone number next to the first name Jeff.
2. To backup sometime today all the data on this laptop.
3. To let me know when Marie's laptop is working again.

4. Let me know if you hear that President Bush has decided to immediately suspend the trading of shares in public corporations thereby protecting naïve and innocent investors from throwing "good money after bad".

BTW even my very smart business person wife says "Maybe!" after I just mentioned that maybe by the time she returns to the cliff house this evening when hopefully there will be as great a sunset as last evening, President Bush "may suspend trading of shares in the stock markets".

Remember, my very on-top-of-things French-Canadian wife, unlike me, has little hope for humanity and why when around superficial people she prefers to be superficial all the while never letting her intelligence suffer from other's lack of intelligence as she first "lays the groundwork" in protecting her mind by allowing those in her company to first establish the extent to which they are "wishy washy"; i.e. will go either way depending on the wind, and then she just "plays".

Yes, one has to be rather calculating if one wants to protect one's sanity in a world having gone stark raving nuts.
