Subject: FREE MARKETS WORK WHEN THEY ARE FREE AND FAIR -

Since Marie thought THE TRAP "would be good to watch" we began to watch it but only Part II since Part I when clicking on the hyperlink you provided resulted in an error. After watching Part II for less than a minute, the internet connection failed and we decided to go to sleep.

We were rather tired, actually exhausted after a long day lounging around the studio cliff house enjoying the art and the view that had me photographing Saturday night's most out-of-this world sunset which I referenced yesterday in a 4022 word email to a couple of our friends - click hyperlink below - before retiring to bed to watch the BBC production, drinking beer and eating pistachio nuts; the beer part of the kidney stone prevention treatment I am on.

I recall Marie saying about the Pistachios, "They are very good. Here you can have one" as she delicately placed it in my mouth without interrupting the flow of things.

BTW, did you read that email to Joey? What did you think?

Did you read the MADD-PRIVATE LAND OWNERSHIP email that included a newspaper article penned by a Ms. Dempster titled, Revenge of South Africa's "Dr. Death"?

What did you think? What did you think was the most revealing item in Ms. Dempster's article?

BTW do you recall how many times I have explained to you why Chaos-Game-Theory is totally irrelevant in today's market places given how there is absolutely zero predictability, a fact of life not only known to every single individual and group who knows the first thing about me?

Do you understand why "$MarT" [sic] money people like Mr. Jeffrey R. Krinsk of Finkelstein & Krinsk would be able to argue rather well in court that, "Risk Assessment is my business"?

In other words what else has you so fascinated with this utterly nonsense series that shows a bunch of producers, directors, actors, politicians, the guys and gals granted the food concessions on the movie set etc etc having found an "angle", just another marketing strategy to make money and confuse the already highly confused masses which of course include you and 99.9999% of the individuals/groups on my email list that you recall represents a statistically valid sampling of the world's literate population which does not make them more intelligent just that much more conniving from reading what I have to say.

Images are very powerful. You have to know who produced the series. It can be misleading unless it is challenged.

Do you recall a single journalist, movie producer, movie director, author, politician etc etc who hasn't gone "deafeningly silent" once challenged my me, beginning with all those so very "liberal", so very "open minded" folk who feel they are contributing to the betterment of humanity in their own way starting out by showing empathy to the world's poor and downtrodden?

Do you remember there is this Hollywood blockbuster author out there by the name of Steven SPIelberg who does not have an advanced degree in economics and nor does he have the slightest bit of intelligence training beginning with the fact that it is a prerequisite to being trained by the world's best intelligence officers that you first and foremost be intelligent?

SPIelberg you recall mentions the word "empathy" in his 5 minute introduction to MUNIch that not only makes the Mossad look like a bunch of clowns with so many internal conflicts you could sink a handful of Titanics but SPIelberg manages to spit out how in no way, shape or form is he attacking Israel all the while promoting most of all that the Mossad is made up of a bunch of retards who not only pay for their own intelligence but pay big bucks, specifically US Dollars without Mr. SPIelberg disclosing in that 5 minutes that he owns hundreds of millions of US Dollars that he knows are totally worthless without the US military-industrial-complex managing to light fires amongst "next of kin" 24/7 throughout the world including here in the U.S.

You also recall that it is not only SPIelberg who has yet to produce-direct a movie about The Diamond Invention written by increasingly edgy Hollywood blockbuster author Edward Jay Epstein.

Have you read yet Carolyn Dempster's article?

How many times have you read it before I reminded you in the paragraph above to read it?

Do you think you might read it 10 or closer to 50 times before getting back to me?

Do you recall that analysis you have been working on now for months about the ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence report that spells doom for the US economy?

Did you know that Obama's wife attended Princeton University?

Do you think she can explain why Princeton University freshmen in 1938 were proud to vote Hitler the greatest living human being and Einstein, second?

Do you recall you repeatedly telling me that you are working on that analysis to finish it off and at the same time write a synopsis of what just3ants.com is all about?

Did you sell any rEVOLUTION t-shirts this weekend while recruiting patrons of Il Forniao on the deck of the Del Mar Plaza to attend an Educational Light Journey-One Tribe of Achievers seminar-workshop?

<http://www.nextraterrestrial.com/pdf/Microsoft%20Word%20-%20dave-practice.pdf>

Name me a single credible person who has successfully challenged me?

Free markets work when they are both free and fair.

BTW do you recall why we got rid of Aristide in Haiti after he was elected President by the overwhelming majority of the 6 million Haitians and then proceeded to increase the minimum wage that would have resulted in US business interests having to pay more and pass those costs on to US American citizens?

BTW do you recall why for 45 odd years the US Government never bothered to withdraw its support of the most anti-free competition Apartheid Regime in South Africa who in return for US military protection allowed US business interests to ship around the world all of South Africa's precious mineral resources beginning with gold and platinum?

Are you familiar with the internet only book, THE DIAMOND INVENTION written by De Beers controlled investigative reporter Edward Jay Epstein who also writes editorials for the De Beers controlled Wall Street Journal?

Do you know why it is important that Epstein points out in The Diamond Invention that De Beers has controlled the world's drilling industry for more than a century having been financed at the turn of the last century by American banks led by J. P. Morgan with approval from the 3 Branches of the United States Government who all know about our sacrosanct anti-Trust/anti-Price fixing laws essential to putting out of business monopolists such as De Beers?

Were you aware that when you go to a bank to get a loan and you get approved, the bank is now your partner and would like to see you successful?

Again, have you counted the number of conscious human beings who have commented in writing about your rather good, although incomplete, analysis of the ingenious Israeli military intelligence report which spells total doom of the US economy which includes the Trust-Hush-Funds of all the so nauseatingly bought and paid for.

"Game-Chaos-Theory" discovered in the upside down year of 1961 applies to everything along with the 2 other most important discoveries of the last century, Special-General Relativity and Quantum-Gravity-Physics-Mechanics placed before humankind, the oxymoron of all time, by one Supernatural Force.

Steel trap minds maintain their "retentiveness" not only by searching out their past, going "back and forth" faster each time until achieving Light-G-d-speed when time "stands still" but are guided by those also gifted the same intelligence who lost their minds, a terrible thing to lose, thinking not only is this world all about them but forgetting how easy it is for the one who creates all life forms including inanimate objects to reveal itself on those "blank faced" mindless individuals, now "waking up" and seeing what is so "discomforting" with no place to hide beginning with their own minds - the mind the first indicator of the supernatural, chemistry translating back into the science and the math the most precise and godly language - playing games and ending with a lifetime record on the internet; their pregnant pauses, their delayed reactions so revealing along with of course the FOOLS NAMES, FOOLS FACES IN PUBLIC PLACES list, aka "$ shit list" that contributes significantly to their deafening silences speaking the most volume; the digital age, a godsend, bridging at light-g-d-speed the information divide that has separated the haves from the have-nots.

Do you recall me mentioning to you that the "$ hit list" needs updating?

Maybe there should be a question with every photo on the homepage of just3ants.com.

It has to be more "rounded"; the photos have to have meaning; they have to reflect what I am talking about in the different emails beginning with that important photo of Ibn Saud with President Roosevelt telling us independent thinking Jewish people, the extraordinarily few who had survived the Holocaust and who understood perfectly well that the Nazis had in fact won World Oil War II,

"DON'T DARE PUSH FOR A JEWISH HOMELAND BECAUSE YOU WILL BE DRIVEN IN TO THE MEDITERRANEAN SEA IN A MATTER OF HOURS".

Even consider throwing in photos of me, autobiographical, but not too much of me or Pypeetoe or sunsets. But what about the one of Marie at the beach that THE IT tried to intimidate her with outside a courtroom, suggesting that it demonstrated that she was an "unfit" mother, in an effort to stop my wife from giving truthful evidence that inevitably resulted now in the world knowing why The IT who was willing to also sacrifice his own children to get what he wants should be labeled the slimeball of slimeballs, and of course may the Good and so very vengeful God continue to exact his vengeance on not only The IT but all those who gravitate towards this evil of evil that allows all the rest of the evil people to feel so much better about themselves?

Right now the surf is so big and rough that not a single surfer has managed to paddle out; one guy battled for more than a hour as other surfers lined the cliff watching and shaking their heads each time he got pummeled back towards the cliff.

As soon as it looks like there could be longer breaks developing in between the sets I will be out on my wave ski.

My plan is to follow up today with the President. How do you think I should begin apart from informing him once again why in the fall of 2002 Mr. Jeffrey R. Krinsk Esq. didn't think I stood much of a chance of seeing out that Christmas once he also figured out that there had to be more going on that allowed Dr. John BIG Ben Stewart MD who filed a baseless criminal complaint against me managed to get both a senior Detective from the San Diego Police Department, Black Detective Jeffrey Steele as well as a Lily White Wheaty Eating FBI agent to visit me at my one former residence in an all out effort to intimidate me in to leaving town.

You do understand that in most if not all cases when someone is being "used and abused" by another who simply doesn't care for anyone interfering with them getting what they want; i.e. more control which means to all about money, me people simply more money no matter how they get it, lying, stealing or cheating no different, such "abused" readily go along with being "used and abused" because they too are getting exactly what they want.

Do you recall the importance of this email below which I sent Sheri Hendricks of the Rapaport Report on September 4th last year commemorating the 35th anniversary of De Beers-US sponsored PLO terrorists beginning to brutally murder 11 defenseless Israeli athletes at the 1972 Munich Olympic Games.

<http://www.nextraterrestrial.com/pdf/shendricks-report.htm>

Do you understand the significance of the most awesome "deafening silence" going on right now by all the co-opted-corrupt individuals/groups in this most marvelous world?

Are you happy, sad or indifferent?

If I asked you the same question 10 minutes from now would you give me the same answer?

Why would it be any different even though your mind changes one moment from the next just like the tides?

I just saw a pod of dolphins, about 8, surfing a wave well over 8 feet.

Awesome!

All set

Did you watch that BBC mini-series on game theory that I sent you?

Excellent. Now that the site is evolving rapidly I don't think we need, "this website is not about blood diamonds" because it makes it look like it is about blood diamonds.

So that it reads as follows:

Zena weighed a whopping 13 lbs and in no time was used as an advertisement – for Cow & Gate baby foods. Six years younger than her brother, who at the time she was born had moved on to boarding school, She always felt an 'only child'. Not that this caused her any concern. From two years of age she was performing in pantomime and being paid for services.
