Please provide Adam and Devin a recap of our walk including a brief history of Michael.

Not to forget that Trust-Hush-Fund nephew of yours off to Columbia University.

Now lets continue our celebrations with lunch.

Devin – excellent feedback.

Let me critique your business plan.

It begins and ends with “teach by example”.

One day with me will destroy the entire credibility of all those business plans you are working on let alone the extraordinary damage it is doing to your spirituality.

Examine next the “predictability” which is zero for each of those business plans given the ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence report you are not alone in failing to comment on and yet you know that IMI as well as the most lethal Mossad have said and done everything that needs to be said about my credibility that is attacking the credibility of each one of your business plans.

Next examine the will of Marie’s prior to Jonathan reaching 16 years of age and then look at your own will and see the extraordinary flaws that has to have you constantly worrying whether your own children if given half the chance would be as corrupt as Jonathan and Danielle who decided to “go for the money”.

Have you noticed how everybody “shuts down” once they visit just3ants.com and see how not only “close to home” it gets but that I spare no effort in making each of us intellectually honest in order to maintain our god given intelligence which I can prove with each person who shuts down is increasingly lacking.

I am about to go for a hike in the Cleveland National Forest with Sebastian Capella, his protégé and assistant Ray Anne Marks, another student of Sebastian’s Joey who is the caregiver now for 20 years of Michael who is a quadriplegic.

Then we are going to celebrate more of life with a most delicious meal.

I will keep you informed.

In the meantime see how intellectually honest everyone is around you once you let them know they are cut out of your will beginning with your children who you surely know are no more special than those children fighting on the front lines to prop up the fictitious-worthless lifestyles of the lazy filthy rich with too much time on their hands lighting fires all over the world beginning with those liberal arts majors living on “daddy’s” ill-gotten gains.

Peace,

GG

Gary & Adam:

The missing element is WIIFM! What's in it for me!

A laser focused, tangible, definable, & measurable benefit sells.

Then you can pin point the audience and figure out the value of y/our selling the benefit.

For example, at the seminar:

- A) You will learn XYZ
- B) XYZ is important because
- C) You will be able to do ABC and benefit with the knowledge.

I attended a wilderness survival class last night.

$85 for 6 sessions. We learn preparedness, navigation, shelter building, & survival skills.

When we are done with the course, we will be able to:

- 1) Avoid getting lost in the wilderness
- 2) Know how to build a shelter if we are caught in the wilderness
- 3) Know how to assist rescuers find us if we are lost and, or injured in the wilderness
- 3) Know how to stay safe in the back country, etc.

The guy ran a couple of ads in the paper and has 26 people in the class.

With enhanced marketing communications, I am certain I could help him get 50 to 100 each time he runs it, and charge 2-3 times as much. Additionally, I could help him generate extra income by selling equipment, and a series of advanced courses, to all of the participants.

So, what additional items will we sell to attendees?

What will we offer them in terms of additional, sequential training?

How will we reward them for introducing their friends and families to the course?

These are my thoughts.

Cheers,

Devin

PS. Just started a new private security business, offering security guards & protective services. And am working on a business plan for a firearms training, less than lethal force, preparedness training school together with one of Col Jeff Cooper's 3 living instructors. The guy currently has a gunshop & a small firearms training academy. This business will be something between Gunsite (www.gunsite.com) & Blackwater.

Here is an outline. I strongly recommend using an outline versus trying to script it or commit it to memory. You will feel much more natural if you can just stick to bullet points and elaborate.

I am going to shave and then head over unless I hear from you differently

- Why are you here attending the seminar?
 - Fear?
 - Self preservation?
 - Economic gain?
 - Changing your world?
- How come we use money?
- The US Bankers
- The Federal Reserve
- The Golden Rule
- War
- The Diamond Invention
- Politics during WWII
 - Joe Kennedy
 - Prescott Bush
 - Roosevelt
 - Meeting with Ibn Saud Feb 1945
 - Israel
 - Ben Gurion
 - Haganah
 - Irgund
 - Yalta Conference
 - United Nations
- Six Day War
 - USS Liberty
- Gold Standard
 - Importance of gold and backing currency
 - Alan Greenspan
 - Significance of gold in today's economy
- Gold prices
- The stock market
- Real estate

You must not forget that not only are you not the only person in the world “eager” but there is nothing wrong in being “fashionably late” especially when the “world is your oyster”. As far as I know you only have Mindy signed up and of course I will give just one “freebie” to Keren at the Israeli Embassy.

We also have to figure out what it is that I am going to be saying.

Below are my current thoughts.

Elitists which include the nouveau riche listening to my first VODcast over the Internet are humming to themselves, “You have no solution. All you are doing is stating the facts and the problems.”

Those of you who don’t consider yourselves elitists; in other words you don’t feel you are getting your share of the graft-spoils of diamond drilling bit oil wars have in all likelihood a very strong opinion that not only are elitists 100% correct in their assessment of your dire straights but you are equally convinced that when exposing left and right these selfish sons and daughters of bitches and brutes who you know deep in your heart are a bunch of bullies and cowards, nothing happens; at least nothing good happens as they not only continue to get richer you can still feel their growl in your bones believing again that it is just a matter of time before you and/or a loved one encounters the heavy handedness of an overbearing government representative only of this very small minority who I have been painstakingly, methodically and every so patiently putting a name to.

You have heard the words, FOOLS NAMES FOOLS FACES IN PUBLIC PLACES and the first thing I suggest you do right this moment is get out a pen and paper and start making a list of all those who suspect fall in to the category of elitists and then see if their name appears in any of my communications currently highlighted on the internet and all you need do is go to a search engine like Google and type in their name alongside mine.

The most important I assume each one of you attending my first VODcast seminar-workshop want answered besides for me explaining why it is that you cannot expect the truth to be told by either your elected and non-elected government officials who know better that to bite the hand that feeds them bearing in mind how much it costs to get each of your votes the so few of you who actually vote is first and foremost how to both create and preserve your wealth.

By now you should all know that the former Chairman of the Federal Reserve Alan Greenspan spelled out very clearly in his very easy to understand 1966 essay GOLD AND ECONOMIC FREEDOM the importance of the Gold Standard in each one of our lives since first and foremost it prevented beginning with non-elected government officials creating money out of thin air without any backing apart from their word.

When the US Federal Reserve was formed by an Act of Congress that did not get the blessing of either the US Supreme Court or the people who were not informed about this “slight of hand” until it was a fete compli the only responsibility of the members of the Federal Reserve was to “exercise good judgment”.

This seminar-workshop is not geared towards being funny and nor am I a comic but it is important to maintain at all times a sense of humor assuming of course you are not currently feeling hungry, dying of thirst or about to go on a military mission where you know there is an increasingly possibility that your targets already have you in their sights, are fully wired, and most importantly invigorated by the truth; the same with those providing you with the most trustworthy intelligence beginning with how to avoid minefields.

Adam, there are a lot of people out there very "angry" with me and although they only represent some 10% of the world's population they are still a formidable force.

Think about how you can get more people like mindy by getting mindy to get more people like mindy who by the time we are ready to broadcast could have mindy feeling rather rich as we "kick back" to her a percentage of the take.
