Subject: HAS ANYONE EVER TOLD YOU YOUR WIFE LOOKS LIKE A MOVIE STAR-RE: Much different response on Military.com

I don't have the time to read all the stuff. If you think what is going on at military.com is critical for me to know, make certain you have thought long and hard, run it by an author as well as editor if you think it will help, then email me with it all spelled out in simple English leaving ABSOLUTELY nothing to the imagination.

I am alive, fit and well and according to my "primary physician", very possibly the coolest medical doctor in the world who charged me all of US$100 for a good half hour of the most delightful entertainment all the while going through very deliberately the mass of medical records I brought over from my two Emergency Room visits last week, I am a "super fit athlete", even if my physician who is two years younger than me didn't use those exact words but knows enough about me including my pulse rate of 52 at rest and blood pressure that is apparently "perfect"; not to mention this gentleman happens to also be a friend of Marie and me and began our conversation so mellow-like, bearing in mind this is very possibly not only the most respected family physician in all of the United States but one whose patients never seem to get impatient no matter how long they have to wait,

"Has anyone ever told you your wife looks like a movie star?"

BTW have you seen a movie, In the life of Dan, where the lead actress has a bit of a French accent and whose name is Marie?

Now of course there isn't an actress alive who can act as well as Marie Dion Gevisser and I would bet my bottom worthless-fictitious De Beers Dollar MDG would agree without hesitation even when she is not acting.

One of the neatest things about my wife is that unless you have made love her as many times as me in not necessarily the "hottest" or the "coldest" of climates including when being watched by marauding ant colonies and spiders feeling the need to jump and bite my ass, it is impossible to tell whether she is "pulling your leg" once the person she is communicating with has shown they are all bs.

Giving everyone the benefit of the doubt is just as important as giving even the biggest of retards "a way out" unless of course one is in a "military setting".

BTW you understand that one of the most significant points I have been making this past 9 odd years since beginning to "speak out" is to draw Public International Attention to this extraordinary nonsense of "Privacy".

Once you have a single currency that is untraceable let alone Diamond Currency that is unlimited in supply, untraceable, lightweight and has never been inventoried then in the very next instant, like right this very moment, even an imbecile can understand that not even medical records are secure from the De Beers, the mafia of mafia.

Again, such facts of life were known to people like David Ben Gurion before the Mossad was established in December 1949 within 12 months of my Royal Mater-Mother who wrote reports for different publications began visiting Israel when still 19 years of age, two and three times a year.

Not to mention yet again, my mother, Zena was raised by her paternal grandmother, Nechie Badash, an early resident of Tel-Aviv, who only returned to England in 1929 when her multi-millionaire son's only daughter Zena was born and her father Alef-Albert-Al Badash-Ash who also knew that his mother Nechie came from the same tiny village of Plonsk, White Russia-Poland as Ben Gurion, felt it important enough with all that was going in Israel at the time for his pogrom orphaned mother to have his "Wise beyond her years daughter listen to the problems of the world relayed in her presence and the solutions to many of these problems."

Why not approach South African and British newspapers to see if their editors would be interested in attending our first seminar-workshop broadcast over the Internet this coming Wednesday and of course feel free to invite the editor of the Jerusalem Post while reminding him of not only your post detailing the ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence report that I was the first to begin broadcasting that requires little or no analysis if you have just the most basic common sense which of course anyone failing to attend this conference does not have or is simply unaware of it, but my very first 4 Letters to the Editor which he smartly chose to publish back in early 2001 soon after President George W. Bush took the oath of office, to uphold the law.

Not everything has to be a "drama" and nor does one have to be constantly talking about war, let alone economics, politics and history so long as it is not you or your son or your daughter being drafted into the world's military to sustain, let alone improve your "standard of living".

Not to mention that for a single human being who has children of draft age not to be in favor of the draft knowing perfectly well that it is only economically

Then again, my writings are not directed to you but rather to those not yet hooked on "quick fixes" but who are increasingly hooked up to the Internet who should have little difficulty understanding the extraordinary "weak underbelly" of their "slave masters" namely US Americans who derive great satisfaction from seeing our corrupt 3 Branches of the US Government including the US Supreme Court wage violent war in the rest of the world, all the while having the audacity to broadcast loud and clear,

"We are a nation of laws where the rule of law is supreme. Consequently when we say, 'It is the law of the land' what it mostly means is that no man, whether it be the President or even a member of the superrich is above the law unless of course they can show that they talk for De Beers, the mafia of mafia, special interest of special interest group who along with the Mossad never pay either for their intelligence or weapon systems; bearing in mind that we need to have exceptions always to the rule that simply reinforces the importance of rules and laws and of course terminology and plenty of procedures that make our jobs of law makers important that again allows us without even pausing to take a breath, announce boldly, and repetitively that it is us, the United States of America that represents true democracy that supports more so than any other form of government the free market system that breeds entrepreneurialism that generates creativity all the while protecting the rights and liberties of the individual to express themselves freely."

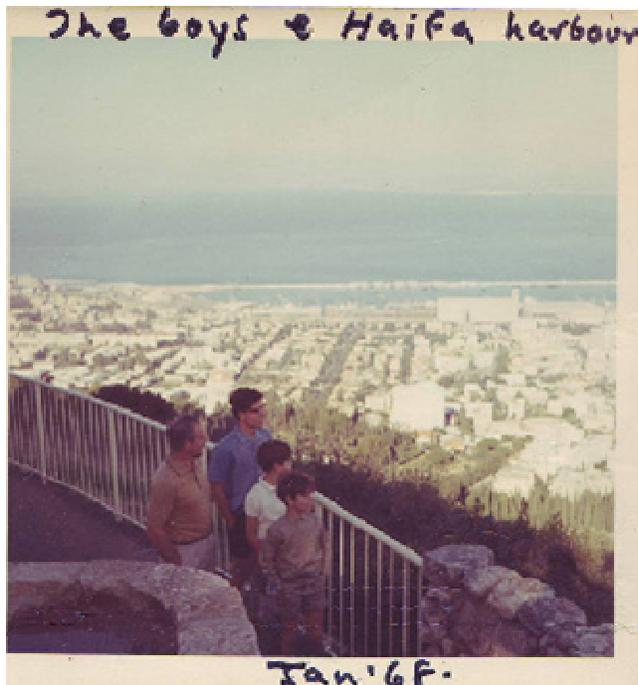

You have now heard repeatedly on local radio here in San Diego this commercial for Shane Company, a new diamond wholesale-retailer money laundering operation who opened their doors just prior to Christmas bolding announcing, "Now you have a friend in the diamond business" all the while imploring unintelligent women to "shame" their lover into buying them diamonds.

Now Shane Company has expanded their "inventory" to gold and now they are selling pearls that they are getting cheap, cheap, cheap out of China and selling them for an exorbitant amount of money.

Even my very worldly French-Canadian wife Marie Dion Gevisser thinks it is "interesting".

You also know that I didn't when first looking over Haifa Harbor

Back in January 1968 only wonder about the nonsense story my mother told me about a crooked Israeli lawyer stealing my paternal grandfather, Israel Issy Gevisser's priceless properties in Haifa Harbor that first attracted my mother as well as her father Al Ash, to my dad's family back in 1947 when the Ashes immigrated from Leeds, England; and you recall in my mother's memoirs titled "Life Story of Zena" the 3rd to last paragraph:

Eventually, Rabbi Avner Weiss arrived in Durban and taught her kashrut and the true meaning of Judaism. His lectures to the children of the community "The Rabbi From Out Of Space" were important lessons for her. From the earliest days of 1949 she visited Israel two and three times a year writing reports for different publications. Her paternal grandmother had been an early resident of Tel Aviv only returning to England when Zena was born. The Gevisser (she married Bernie Gevisser when she was 19 after only a few months in Durban) owned land in Haifa harbour and Zichron Yscov and she rapidly felt at home in Israel.

Not to mention there is nothing to stop you and/or those you are approaching to attend next Wednesday's live broadcast of my first seminar-workshop that still needs a title, to email Professor Abner Weiss to not only encourage him to attend but to explain in his own words what he thinks about my Royal Mater saying "she rapidly felt at home in Israel" after arriving in Durban, South Africa and finding out that her future father-in-law owned priceless properties in Haifa Harbor, Israel that were in no time to speak of "stolen by a crooked Israeli lawyer".

Bear in mind my Royal Mater-Mother has never been know for frivolous talk nor has this very brilliant women been once to suffer fools well; on the contrary there isn't a person alive or dead who has ever just once dealt with my highly shrewd and secretive mother who would choose "to kick her in the teeth"; on the contrary my mother fully understands the "power of the pen" especially when she could call upon at any time the brute military force of Israeli special forces commandos by simply placing a single phone call or so I have been told.

So go back and read very carefully my mother's so very carefully crafted memoirs she first began broadcasting over the internet on October 9th, 2001, the day after I attended my first board meeting of the criminal enterprise Wetherly Capital Group whose seed capital of US$2 million came from Ron Burkle who was the first high profile crook here in the United States to hire Bill "Rhodes-DeBeers Scholar" Clinton when he exited the White House with everything short of the kitchen sink, not forgetting either how much Ron Burkle sought the company of Dan Weinstein the co-managing director of WCG when attending strip clubs in Los Angeles or how Bill and Hillary's White House staff removed the letter W from the keyboards of the White House computers just prior to George W. Bush taking charge of the first and only responsibility of the President, printing worthless-fictitious De Beers-US Dollars and declaring war on any country or person refusing to accept such bloodied and worthless monies as legal tender.

<http://www.nextterrestrial.com/pdf/jkansa-name.htm>

Now come back to the last paragraph of my Royal Mater's, "Life Story of Zena":

Reporting on the many wars when Israel was attacked she was the first civilian in the captured area of the Sinai and in later years at her own expense twinned Durban with Eilat. In 1978 she left Durban eventually making her home in Netanya [Israel] and England.

Remember to ask Rabbi Weiss how much he thinks it cost my mother to "twin" the port of Durban, South Africa with Eilat, Israel apart from my mother having to write a letter, maybe two at the most, and then pay for a postage stamp.

It is not exactly a coincidence that my mother left Durban in 1978 the year I immigrated to the United States destined to take over from my mother's very close and "lucky" friend, my uncle David Gevisser, the American head of the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel who you see below sitting in the middle of the 5 people swinging on a swing, to David Gevisser's left is my mother and to Zena's left is my father, Bernie Gevisser, the first cousin of David Gevisser.

Much of her work carried on in various places and although she gave up lecturing she continued with her writings to this day. Her second husband, Alan Zulman wellknown in the clothing industry having started in the early 50's – with a partner – a company which became South African Clothing Industries – collaborated in an Anthology that published recently entitled "The Winking Cat". The first story of the title of the book which is about Ancient Energy offers Zena's philosophy which will overcome all of Life's problems. "Keep Smiling".

There is of course nothing to smile about a kidney stone workings way through one's plumbing prior to exiting the penis but then again this is second as well as first nature to women who give birth and to top it off when their kids turn out as most do to be burdens rather than pleasures, so us males should be so much more sensitive to women especially very good women who end up with bastard selfish offspring who are only that way because they have CHOSEN the "easy money" path to hell.

Hell was it funny to hear my doctor talk about how he who is good looking, in great physical shape also married to a most beautiful woman, took self-defense classes with his 18 year old, most beautiful, 5 foot 8 inch lean tall, long blonde haired daughter gifted with one great brain that could have got her in to any college of your choice, just prior to his daughter going to Northwestern University in Chicago, a not exactly shabby university where I would occasionally run around their track when I first arrived in Chicago from South Africa back in 1978, a pivotal year in The Diamond Invention.

BTW did you hear the story about Chinese people wanting to look Western on NPR's Morning Edition. It seems it might have been part of this series:

http://www.npr.org/programs/morning/features/2004/aug/china_road/

Apparently none of the synopses for each installment makes any reference to the Chinese undergoing cosmetic surgery, leg lengthening, etc.

Let me know if you come across any articles pertaining to Chinese people now beginning to use skin lighteners like the ones sold Twins Pharmaceuticals of South Africa to Black South Africans brainwashed in to believing that Black is not beautiful.

Have you heard of a book by Robyn Meredith called "The Elephant and the Dragon."? It's about the meteoric rise of the Indian and Chinese economies. Meredith was apparently with the NY Times, is now with Forbes magazine and lives in Hong Kong.

She apparently goes into great and very interesting detail that documents and underscores the impressions many of us who have visited China come away with, beginning with how this very literate and articulate gentleman Marie and I met on the trail describes China:

"They're transforming a 5,000-year-old agrarian economy into the Las Vegas strip overnight."

You may think such a description is a bit "fanciful", but it's basically what's going on there. What do you think?

Like this gentleman who again does not only know of Martin Rapaport of the Rapaport Report but has met him on at least one occasion, I remember reading/hearing that a lot of Chinese people are super gullible, so they're easy marks for advertising/marketing messages.

Us westerners even those totally unsophisticated believe they are more sophisticated and wary because they believe they've grown up with the messages and can often wade through the exaggerations, manipulations and outright lies to find whatever truth might be there and therefore conclude that the Chinese just accept and follow.

How would you expect a brainwashed individual to evaluate their own read of a people with a 5,000 year old culture that while being bombarded with our "money me" culture isn't close to being as brainwashed as US American?

This same gentleman say that he has heard or read about a female ad exec with an American agency in China saying how easy it was to manipulate Chinese minds; that she was "almost embarrassed by it, I mean, she felt guilty because the targets were virtually defenseless."

The most "defenseless" people in the world are US Americans and let me know if you think I need to provide more of an explanation then to direct you once again to The Diamond Invention written in 1978 by De Beers' Hollywood blockbuster author Edward Jay Epstein who still writes editorials for De Beers' Wall Street Journal.

BTW it is my understanding that it was Robyn Meredith who cited De Beers' advertising in China and how hugely successful it's been in convincing people that buying a diamond engagement and/or wedding ring is a requirement.

As you know, historically, China was a jade place. Today, it is or is rapidly becoming a diamond and colored stones (like ruby, sapphire, emerald) place. Older people might be into jade, but young people are into diamonds, colored stones and jewelry metals.

This is much more than very sad. This is extraordinarily tragic and were it not because of who I am that includes this extraordinary large footprint on the Internet without my name appearing once in any well-known newspaper let alone mentioned on TV or radio, there would be tears streaming down my face.

I have of course friends not only in Israel who are on "high alert" but throughout China who understand increasingly well the awesome power of Hollywood owned by De Beers from its very start.

Such people are also able to explain in their own language, in their own way, that the government of China should not be in the least bit afraid to "ban" fascist Hollywood from reaching in to the homes of the 1.5 odd billion strong Chinese people, at least not until Hollywood explains what is taking it so long to produce the movie, The Diamond Invention and depict in great detail the devious nature of this mafia of mafia, special interest of special group who own everything and everyone with but a few exceptions here in the west.

I continue my quest to find amongst US Americans individuals who are nothing short of "obsessive about detail" and who like the detective work of research, finding what they are seeking, and separating truth from fiction.

Of course such individuals have to be personally interested in the topic though.

For example this gentleman we met on the trail spent nine years researching and writing an historical novel that nobody wants to publish. He sent it to an historical society in one of the novel's locales. A board member there read it and thought it was fact. She asked if he had photos of the characters and where she might find their graves. She inadvertently paid him the highest compliment possible. One of his goals was to make the book so realistic and authentically detailed that some readers would ask, "Is this fiction or did it really happen?" Few to say that he succeeded with at least one.

How long do you think it would take such a gentleman to write my forthcoming book, The History of Money Creation and Its Future, subtitle, "A Message for the President"?

Marie just walked and I have all the prep work done for an awesome candlelight dinner.

Please make any and all edits and additions in green before posting this up on just3ants.com.
