Subject: PI [SIC]- BLOG - who wants to walk around with a barrel - what the problem - RE: Good afternoon :)

Marie is dictating her "speech" to the board all the while making two zucchini pies well cooked inions, zucchini, tomatoes, feta and Swiss cheese in a "pi" [sic] crust, . So you are welcome. It will be ready around 7:30am. Marie also says, "If what you have is the same thing I had, we are not afraid of you!"

The draft so far of her 2 minute speech that may need a sentence or two moved and repetition removed.

The interest in the arts has suffered in the last 100 years or so, stepping away from the classic training.

Art is the foundation of a rich culture.

Written arts, music as well as paintings is a testament of evolution.

Art is necessary to foster creativity in humankind and it is only through knowledge-education that we continue this endeavor. (The first budgets cut in schools is the physical and art budgets)

Through history the depth of a culture has been defined with its involvement with the arts.

The only way to get this depth is through the sharing of knowledge-information.

To improve the relationship in and out of the community I think the internet is a necessary tool.

With today's internet it is the perfect way to communicate knowledge, maybe using a blog.

We have to keep up with a fast evolving clientele who don't necessarily want to put in the time to step into a gallery, and what better way to reach out to the community at their pace, their convenience, their level of learning.

I want to try and make our website more exciting and in tune with the changing times.

Problem is a kidney stone. Not drinking enough, most likely.

You are right in every respect about everything else.

I am working with VP Marie to come up with a presentation to the board of directors of the Rancho Sante Fe Art Guild tomorrow. I will run it by you if I don't soon pass out.

Marie now commenting after reading her your "honey" to let you know, "As you get your speech down you will in the end say only silver and gold. Who wants to walk around with a barrel?"

If I can help in any way, let me know. I assume that you were injured in a surfing accident and since you are emailing with some vinegar I know that you are doing fairly well. None-the-less...

I am learning how to share the knowledge without scaring people away. I started out being called an "activist" and now I have people donating time and pennies.

I want to give Kat until tomorrow to reply. You emailed her at work and so I assume she will need to be at work to reply.

Subject: WHAT THE PROBLEM - RE: Good afternoon :)

Adam, I am more than a little surprised about the following:

1. Why you haven't followed up with me on Kat and before you do so make CERTAIN you make "cents" [sic], unless you are dead in which case simply have Kat confirm your death.
2. Why you haven't responded to what I sent you and Devin yesterday while managing to find the time to date yet another woman you met on the internet.

My follow up to President Bush, yet to explain amongst a number of things how the United States can call itself a "democracy" when it costs political candidates some US$200 for each vote they get, may or not explain to your satisfaction why I bother to carbon copy others such as Devin, Dr. John K. Pollard Jr. who I wager is coming back as a racehorse that can only canter since he, a regular at the racetrack is convinced that during most of the race, racehorses canter, as well as Larry Nielson; and you would know how to find out everything you need to know about Larry not by going and doing a Google search but by placing their name alongside mine and doing what the "smart money" all over the world are doing these days even those now watching Sunday afternoon football betting the US Military can intimidate the Peoples Republic of Communist China to collapse the gold price.

Ever heard when walking along, minding your own business, someone saying to the person they are with, "That name sounds familiar?"

Have you ever heard me say that you should watch SPIelberg's movie, MUNIch, repeatedly, along with his 5 minute so bizarre introduction that fails to mention, this movie about a real drama, was mostly about promoting United States Dollars-US Treasury Bills, as the constant theme throughout this 2005 movie was of Israel's Mossad paying for both information and weapons to be used against Israel's enemies; and as SPIelberg's contacts within the Mossad would confirm, there isn't a credible Mossad agent alive who would agree the Mossad use any currency to purchase both intelligence and weapons that they already have, unless it is to set someone up, including Hollywood blockbuster Producer-Directors like Steven SPIeberg who have yet to produce-direct Hollywood blockbuster author Edward Jay Epstein's epic, most fascinating non-fiction book, The Diamond Invention whose "inventors" have owned Hollywood from day one?

Have you ever felt that when someone asks you a question it is not clear exactly what they mean?

Have ever felt that in some of those instances it is not worth wasting your breath to ask me for example,

Gary, did you mean to say, "Have you ever heard me REPEATEDLY say..." which would have meant that you were being more "in my face" versus if I, Adam, were to give it all more thought, what you were doing was not only being "in my face" but pointing out time and again that you think I should watch the movie MUNIch enough times so that when you hear about someone raising monies for a "good" cause whether it be for an art gallery or to feed hundreds of millions if not billions of starved people beginning with the children who never asked to be brought into this world without first asking De Beers followed by the US Government "in bed" with De Beers from its very start, you would be "sick to your stomach", which is a different feeling to "laughing oneself silly" even though a person with the least amount of common sense would know that if a human being goes overboard "laughing oneself silly" it is inevitable that they would eventually be "sick to their stomach" since most of us human beings would agree, it is almost impossible to feed yourself when either laughing or talking although you might be thinking the act of "farting" should be added.

In other words, in the time it has taken me to write this email the entire totally out-of-control capitalistic system could have collapsed from which there is not the faintest possibility of recovery, which is a bad thing for all those non-capitalists who are mostly here in the United States of America which would mean exactly what to you given how you obviously feel you have other priorities apart from helping to redistribute the wealth stolen by non-capitalists.

Capitalism, as you know has at its core the concept of "productivity" which is closely associated with the "merit system" which if you spent one day in the Peoples Republic of Communist China has been operating there since the time of Confucius with interruptions when invaded by non-capitalists and need I remind you that in 1900 the United States Government led an 8 Allied nations invasion of China, stealing everything that wasn't nailed to the ground beginning with all of China's harvested gold.

Yes, it does little harm to remind about 1,000 new names being blind copied also at the turn of the last century, the same American banks that financed the invasion of China also financed both the Anglo Boer War of 1899-1902 and the illegal diamond syndicate, De Beers.

Bear in mind that I also have many other things going on in my life right now, no different to the 7 billion other human beings, although I always think when thinking, of the entire universe that includes the overwhelming majority of brain dead human beings who think they think that because they can talk, chew, write a book, sing a song, surf a wave, attend a lecture, lie, steal and cheat, but only occasionally and only in those instances when it suits their agenda.

My "off the wall" forthcoming email to President George W. Bush may explain a lot of my current thinking but don't let that prevent you from doing exactly what you are doing which is being a conscious human being only when it suits you.

Remember, the overwhelming majority of Israeli are not fanatics about anything, apart from wanting peace.

Remember, the best minds in the world beginning with Jesus Christ who was born Jewish, lived the life of a righteous Jewish person, got murdered because he was being Jewish in standing up to all the corruption of the corrupt State-Church, are Jewish.

Remember, the best military minds in the world are Jewish.

Remember, the best fighters in the world are Jewish.

Remember, there were many European Jewish people who survived the Holocaust, despite the most extraordinary odds.

Remember, Field Marshall Montgomery who was not Jewish but considered even by Jewish people like David Ben Gurion smart enough to add the number one to the number two and come up with the right answer 3.

Remember, Field Marshall Montgomery wasn't speaking to himself when he said, "When Britain evacuates Palestine, the Jews will immediately be overcome".

Remember, David Ben Gurion as well as both my grandfathers Albert Ash and Israel Gevisser were alive in May 1948.

Remember, Albert Ash whose mother came from the tiny village of Plonsk, White Russia-Poland as did Ben Gurion, was English as was Field Marshall Montgomery who also understood that it would not only be his own ears that heard his remarks; and most certainly those who spoke English would not need an interpreter to know that things didn't look very promising for very the Jews in the newly formed State of Israel.

Remember, before we had internet translating tools there translators who could translate even without the use of translation books.

Remember the expression, "Loose Lips Sink Ships" was written in English.

Remember the story of Cain and Abel.

Remember, to write things down is an excellent idea if your intention is to communicate a message without having to speak.

Remember, not everything written down about a private meeting between a group of people, is intended only for the eyes of those attending the meetings.

Remember, the Mossad's motto, "By way of deception we wage war!" was something the Mossad took seriously also when not writing reports for different publications.

Remember, I know a thing or "tTOo" [sic] about how not only to be clear and short in my communications but when need be I can also, "cut to the chase".

Remember, you sent me this very short email containing a hyperlink below:

"If we were all rich, that would be very nice," Albright said. "If we were all poor, it would be too bad, but we would be the same. What the problem is now is the poor know what the rich have as a result of information technology and the spread, generally, of knowledge. And, it creates a whole new host of problems in terms of disquiet and anger."

Madeline Albright

<http://www.businessandmedia.org/articles/2008/20080110122225.aspx>

Remember you wrote in the subject line absolutely nothing.

Remember to read yourself those 66 words of Ms. Albright who may be considered very bright by those who speak English but mostly don't understand what they read, certainly in terms of the implications of such words spoken by a former Secretary of State who strongly supports Democrat Hilary Clinton.

Remember the husband wasn't crooked enough we had to go for the wife.

Remember non-capitalist human beings depend upon big government handouts, at the top of the list scientists, medical doctors, non-medical doctors etc etc who have the attention span of a gnat unless it suits their agenda which is the same as De Beers, which to repeat ad-infinitum:

YOU THINK YOU ARE MAKING MONEY?

THIS IS THE DEAL. YOU CAN TAKE IT NOW OR OPEN UP A TACO STAND!

<http://www.nextraterrestrial.com/pdf/ATUCKER-TACO.htm>

Remember, just by looking at the facts both the State of Israel and the Peoples Republic of Communist China are capitalists beginning with China willing to purchase worthless-fictitious US Treasury Bills that prop up their rather small sized US market, about 20% the size of the Chinese market made up of very hard workers who didn't just start smiling when gold reached US$900 this past week and China took control of Citicorp, to name but one no longer US financial institution that of course China can liquidate without it costing China a penny; bearing again in mind that China remains extraordinarily "patriotic" to US Treasury Bills given how they still own a rather large junk which not that many of US Americans are still holding on to, at least not willing to let me know.

BTW do you think THE IT still owns US Treasury Bills in his IRA?

One of my goals is to make better use of the internet to reach the community of current gnats and get more exposure for their future ancestors.

There are already events in process such as the email I sent South African National Nazi Party supporter Bernard Lazarus that had only just one person on my email list that represents a statistically valid sampling of the world's literate, dumb, and most crooked human population, responding and Devin Standard knew exactly what he was doing in helping me bring Public International Attention not only to the Jewish South African Lazarus clan and all those who have supported their support of the South African Apartheid Regime during its 45 odd year most repressive rule, including our orthodox rabbi Abner Weiss.

Most Jewish people I know like gambling.

Most Jewish people are only Jewish when it suits them.

Most Jewish people know that only someone who is anti-Semitic would support gambling let alone participate in this most regressive form of taxation.

Moreover, much worse than this extraordinarily heavy tax burden on the poor is how gambling is part of the brainwashing that has ignoramuses saying things like, "Are you making money?" or "Lets do a deal together and make money!"

How many people apart from none including yourself, do you know who are sick to their stomach when they see a casino that is just one very high profile way for a corrupt government to give handouts to the lazy, filthy rich.

What the problem is for all those very stupid like Madeline Albright is that I am still alive not dependent upon anyone apart from my French-Canadian wife who continues to let anyone who asks about what I do, know, "He takes care of my many needs!"; not to mention Marie Dion Gevisser who just read me an article about the two of us in some magazine/newspaper which referred to me as Gary Dion, is not depending on that gun Judge Hendrix placed in her possession to protect herself from her ex-husband, The IT.

You recall the US$16 bet I took with Mr. Jeffrey R. Krinsk Esquire of Finkelstein & Krinsk following he and I getting our arms around why THE IT aka Dr. John BIG BEN Stewart MD aka The Sperm Donor aka The Slimeball of Slimeball decided while further incriminating himself back on October 24th, 2002 in Judge Hendriks' courtroom 25 in downtown, San Diego, subjecting himself to both criminal as well as civil lawsuits, by introducing my wife Marie Dion Gevisser's very carefully crafted will that I had her get witnessed on January 3rd, 2002 by a neighbor attorney following my conclusion that the French-French water multinational conglomerate had to be in very serious financial difficulties more so than what they had portrayed in their media that caused them to act so very desperately and take a pivotal role in committing voter fraud here in the United States.

Not to mention that the Slimeball of Slimeballs after filing a baseless criminal complaint against me on 9/11/2002 that without any investigation by the authorities resulted in a Temporary Restraining Order being issued against me that six weeks later had this most evil human being in the world becoming the laughing stock of the courtroom as Judge Hendrik's delivered to him one "death blow" after the next, then contacted Mr. Jim McFarland Esq. who witnessed Marie's will all geared to eliminate altogether THE IT's over controlling nature, asking Jim to file an affidavit to support The IT's baseless criminal complaint.

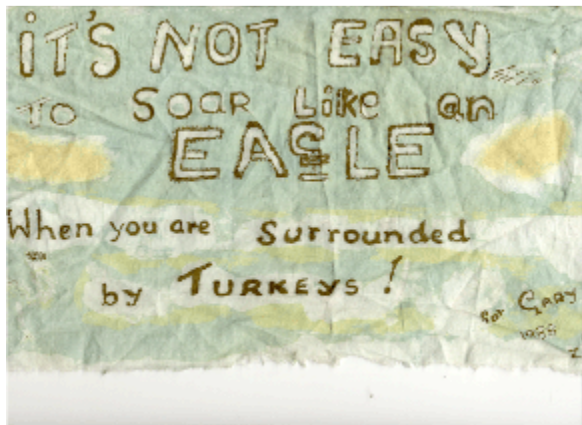

To mention little again of the fact that if such a will to be used by every spouse who finds out too late; i.e. after marrying someone and having children with them that they are over controlling, not only would it "hold in check" such a very insecure individual but much more importantly it would be all the ammunition the other spouse would need to use in "convincing" the children they have "in common" that they, the children, should also avoid such an individual like they would the "plague" and if such a caring spouse would not be able to convince their children for it makes patently obvious that the only thing "attracting" the children to the over-controlling parent was their financial wealth since again a major feature of this very carefully thought through will is leaving one's children with no more than smallest of "kick starts" and only if their caring parent were to die prematurely either by accident or murder.

You would recall since I am still alive that I won this bet that had Mr. JRK willing to lose US$16 if I survived Christmas 2002 as well as the follow on bet for the same amount were I to survive through New Years Day 2003.

If it had been interesting enough for you at the time you first heard this story repeatedly you would know that while Mr. JRK lost the bet and people with too much idle time on their hands like Dr. John K. Pollard Jr. would like to argue Mr. JRK never paid me the US$32, Mr. JRK had me feeling "sumwhat" [sic] comfortable that my "death at the hands of a relative would be quick with a blow to the back of my head".

Now just because Mr. JRK's timing was off doesn't mean I will leave forever, nor of course would I want to live forever when surrounded by mostly turkeys.

Again, my Royal Mater-Mother's "entertaining words":

You would know without having to check with the media or Senator Ted Kennedy or that matter 7 odd billion human beings less me and of course you to know that both my mother and father and many of their friends and acquaintances are still alive including my uncle David Gevisser.

You remember me suggesting that you use your skills in attracting women of all ages who use websites such as jdate.com and match.com to solicit free sex and if lucky to also find a well-to-do partner, to promote www.just3ants.com.

Let me now help you with the math.

In all the hours you have devoted of your time in the course of the past 3 months to soliciting free sex and if lucky to also find a suitable marriage partner and companionship the very least of your thoughts you have managed to get one person, your date yesterday, to contribute another US$5 odd and some 33 odd pennies; not to mention you spent about 13 seconds letting me know that Mindy was involved in a car accident and was now unable to work and that I should "appreciate" how much that US$5 odd plus 55 meant to her.

Now sit tight and give her a big hug and a whole bunch of kisses.

Lets add up the hours.

Lets start with 720 or so hours in a month. Lets also assume that of the 2160 or so hours only 30 minutes was devoted each and every day to soliciting free sex, companionship and the distinct possibility of another failed marriage.

30 minutes multiplied by 30 days multiplied by 3 months = 2700 minutes or 45 hours.

US$5.55 divided by 45 hours = 12.33 recurring pennies per hour which is the worst slave wage rate I have ever encountered, bearing in mind that you have to split those 555 United States pennies 3 ways that brings your hourly rate when no securing slave sex to 4.11 recurring.

May I suggest you devote the rest of the evening to improving your hourly rate as well as your sex life by forwarding this email to every person including yourself who uses the Internet to mostly solicit free and wild sex which of course is honest but not necessarily more honest than prostitution, the most honest profession; and before you make any edits please run them by me.

I guess I didn't mention that I am on heavy doses of morphine and since the morphine and something much stronger, starts with a "D", that I received earlier today, is now wearing off, and I am once again in quite a bit of pain, but nothing even close to what I experienced at the crack of Dawn that had Marie rushing me off to the Emergency Room at Scripps Hospital, Encinitas, I will now sign off, and all likelihood delay until tomorrow following up with the President, and which I think you would agree, would make a whole lot of sense if I had you, Mindy and everyone else fortunate enough right now to indulge in free and wild sex, first review?

Vasbeit-Hang Tight!

This is the girl that I met yesterday from Match.com that made the donation of $5.55 to just3ants.com. We spent the day together and had good conversations. She asked a lot of intelligent questions. I sent her a copy of the Analysis a few minutes ago to have her review and make edits. I will let know if/when I hear back from her. It doesn't seem like a romantic match but at least I got her thinking.

You are very welcome. It was really refreshing to meet you too... You gave me hope seeing that there are independent thinkers waking up and asking intelligent questions; it was my pleasure to talk with you.

I would love to hang out again, so lets keep in touch. Let me know if you have any suggestions to be put up on the website. Our goal is to light up as many independent thinkers, lovers or friends.

I have been writing an analysis of the Israeli Military Report which we will be sending via certified mail to every member of congress and then send both the signatures as well as the analysis via certified mail to every major publication both nationally and internationally which will prove for posterity who knew what and when they knew it. Would you mind taking a look at my analysis and making any notes or questions?

Our goal is to get the government to be accountable to the people that it s supposed to represent. We want to try to do this before the dollar collapses and before people get desperate.

You commented about not having as many "tests" in your life...

Hey Adam :)

Thank YOU for yesterday. It is so refreshing to meet someone who likes to do and talk about the same things I do. You have inspired me to really put in an effort to learn about our history so that I can one day hold a better conversation with you ;p. And for the sake of humanity of course. Always great to find fellow thinking weed smokers too. I am not sure how you are feeling but wanted to let you know that as of right now I feel as though I see you as more of a friend. I may be kicking myself in the ass later for saying that, have been known to do it in the past. But I just wanted to let you know how I was feeling.

I made plans to go to lunch with friend and have those dinner plans as well. I was thinking of cancelling tonight cause I am broke and don't want to make you pay for me. I am hoping to get a job next week though and would love to come down and listen to music at the Belly Up with you in the near future, or whatever else there is to do. Or if you get sick of San Diego you are more than welcome to come visit me up here anytime.

All things aside, I had a really good time with you yesterday and hopefully we can hang out again.

Mindy :)
