Subject: POST PLAY

How do we best remind our viewers why Starbucks is "banned" in Israel?

Also what do you make of this "chat session" I had going earlier?

Wise men talk because they have something to say; fools, because they have to say something - Plato

Wouldn't it be nice if people were just nice enough to go beyond saying "thank you" and encourage their lover to share their joy for me pointing out to them that their sex lives will be greatly enhanced if they gave up brain numbing TV which Marie and I did going on a decade ago, and with the remainder of the 4 or so hours left over each day to indulge after spending an hour or so "cooling down" in "post play", preparing healthy vegetarian cuisine meals that when salivating over also make you feel so good about giving up animal life that once had a pulse, although we do occasionally eat eggs and drink a drop of milk here and there, and then the cheese. Ok we are not perfect!

Ok, so I am alone at the stone home and with the exercise I did today it is doubtful I will need more than a handful of hours sleep!

Important stuff going on right now, Drudge having a tough time keeping up with me, the Queen "cashing out", Starbucks not able to keep a lid on their not-so-secret deal with the Kuwaiti Royal Family who have threatened to destroy Starbucks' growth of 5 shops per week in the Middle East if they so much as open one successful operation in the State of Israel who didn't need my Royal Mother's close friend, Boris Senior, to tell them, them being first and foremost

David Ben Gurion that the corrupt United States Government was "no friend" of the fledging State of Israel.

Yes, the weight of that ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence report that the entire world can only find on www.just3ants.com as well as on messages boards where I and friends have been posting, clearly starting to takes it toll as our corrupt elected and non-elected government officials "head for the hills".

So who really wants to be President of the United States for the next 4 years?

Who wants to be a member of the United States Congress who also does not know one day from the next, one moment from the next whether while on live TV and/or live streaming over the internet to explain "sum" [sic] of these very important issues of the day, month, year, decade, going back and forth, starting out with the United States Congress approving the financing by American bankers of De Beers, the De Beers led Anglo Boer War of 1899-1902, and the American led 8 Allied Nations invasion of China in 1900?

Risk Assessment is my business.
