Subject: SHADOW-disgraced Family Values

Why not throw or have me throw right back in your uncle's face the emails he sent you and your father stating in black and white that your step-grandfather, his adopted father, molested him and that he, Jeff, was also convinced your step-grandfather Ed molested you and worst of all Jeff's mother, your grandmother "stood idly by" rather than "rock the boat"?

Think it through only once you have perfectly understood what else I have to say of importance this stormy sea day.

"Beware of still water" is an expression I picked up from Marie's mother Rachel Dion when she once visited with us when we were renting a couple of houses side by side on 27th street, after a journalist, I believe it was Diana Henriques of the New York Times went "deafeningly silent".

I love stormy seas especially to swim in as I get to practice for when surrounded by those "intoxicated" with their "small talk".

Alcohol addiction, however, is not something to "sneeze at".

Nor is "blessing" someone with "kind words" when they are clearly very unkind to their body-mind, the first indicator of the supernatural.

Just like most poorly conditioned who when so easily able to get their arms around The Diamond Invention that begins to spell out in no uncertain terms that the Nazis did in fact win World War II and I, cannot find it within themselves to examine ever so carefully the implications of the Nazis having won decidedly World Oil War I and II, beginning with who writes the history, economics and political books, let alone the school and university curriculum that has the DeBeers Nazis barely mentioned, let alone take the next step when figuring out that one indicator after the next of a Superior Being means what exactly to the brain dead?

Alcoholism may have more so than anything else saved the Jewish people; certainly it wasn't us Jewish people throughout the world turning a blind eye to the South African Apartheid Regime that kept us smart, at least smart enough to know to avoid alcoholics like the plague.

At the root of all our diseases one finds a strong trace of alcoholism that spreads like wild fire amongst the "easily impressed" looking for an escape from their "Poverty of thought" but each time they are drunk they lose an increasingly greater part of their mind to the point that they forget the mind is the first indicator of the supernatural.

You should now make a very important decision before responding to your atrocious uncle now wanting more than ever to sweep things under the carpet just like most who think that because they can make intelligent banter that therefore God will somehow forgive them when consciously choosing to be "wishy washy".

It will, like choosing to eat just one jelly bean, effect you the rest of your life, and of course very possibly shorten it which means only something to you since you now have further evidence of the truth being relevant only to those not getting their fair share of the graft-spoils of diamond drilling bit oil wars, and so far you have not been able to find a single person apart me willing to "stick their neck out".

Yes, I moved rather quickly in the preceding paragraph.

How quick are those who have been "wronged-harmed" by a coward-bully to be so very quick to say,

"Why should I throw it in their face? It will only hurt them!"

Instead they choose ever so carefully both their words and actions to make their "targeted audience" NOT ONLY their co-dependent but also their "whipping boy" for them having chosen the company of those who have "harmed-wrong" them; worse yet, unless you are able to create your own identity apart from those family members who have "chosen poorly" the company of one another, you not only perpetuate the "harm-wrongs", you end up making matters even worse by "playing ostrich" to the point that all those "wronged-harmed" including you so soon forget.

Hard to imagine that there could be in fact something worse, but there is.

Those who you share such truths more often than not, in an effort to "compensate" for having themselves "turned a blind eye to evil" will "make the most use" of your weakness as they mess with both your heads.

There is a lot of truth that most women perfectly understand, "Men can be highly successful but they never grow up!" so long as they have a co-dependent holding them back.

There is something about truth that not only gets one through the "rough spots" but much importantly you find yourself not wasting time on "lost souls", today more so than ever able to be identified in "real time" via email-internet.

Yes, that "watch your back" starts to make "fiddled" Jeff Tucker increasingly like The IT and Co.; and it is the Co. who go "in and out of the shadows", so very knowledgeable of these most evil flat line plotters and who are equally dangerous.

And I would know given how I, someone who is not exactly stupid, has made a very careful study of The IT, the same with my friend Devin Standard as well as other members of the very deep underground Jewish Underground who have "protected me" through "thick and thin."

I know, versus believe, that I come not only from a long line of very successful traders who depended on their very good name but from an "ancient energy" that I won't bore you with the details.

What goes around comes around with a vengeance.

Vengeance is sweet to the heart of an Indian.

Watch out for those poorly bred-educated who when their minds turn to mush serve G-d only to test your will.

There is something to be said about, "Only the good die young" for it is the old, weak of heart, void of spirit who, most of all knowledgeable about the ills of the world, fail first themselves and then make it their business-personal to "seduce" the meek who like their predator easy to identify as both "seducer" and "seductor" embrace each other's weaknesses.

Birds of a feather flock together.

Remember God is a genius above all else and you only get to figure it out once you have chosen poorly and then the generally preferred option is suicide which comes in many forms, the most generally accepted, to eat oneself to a premature death.

As a kid I not only got the "synopsis" from my genius literary mother of all the great philosophers but I got to hear my mother Zena discuss in "real time" all the problems of the world and the solutions to these problems with her charm school students who while equipped when receiving their Charm School Diploma to "charm the pants off" anyone, mostly chose ambitious men who to me often seemed more like women, apart from both her secretaries, one a Roman Catholic who married a Scotsman, Robert Anderson, in the top 5 smartest people to have ever walked the planet, and the other a Protestant who married a member of the Israeli permanent force.

Suffice to say, I, along with understanding business rather well, learned a valuable lesson that few ever master over a lifetime, "Learn from the mistakes of others rather than your own" otherwise you will just keep repeating the words of a poorly conditioned parent,

"The only way to learn is to make the same mistakes I made when you grow up".

A lot of things are happening around me, most of all it is pitch dark here in the cliff house, the rough seas having calmed, JoNathan just this minute coming in through the front door and now up the stairs wondering about why no lights, having spent the past two days in The IT's madhouse which of course JoNathan would only attest to were I to bring up why he first got a B in music and then after BIG BEN questioned him, "I hope you didn't do that just to get back at me!", in the next semester JoNathan promptly got a C bearing in mind you get an A here in the States just for showing up to class and not opening your mouth; not to mention yet again JoNathan so very bewildered that his mom and I would question why he would suddenly be playing a racket sport with his right hand after THE IT had so very beastly interfered with his precise brain sequencing when forcing him to bat throughout his baseball years left handed because The IT argued, "I am left handed and maybe he is left handed".

All I can ask is that the Good Lord continue to "bless" this brain dead society with the continued presence of The IT.

Personally, I could care less what you decide to do with your IT uncle because I know better than to place my trust in anyone who is intelligent like yourself and who knows they have a stomach disease like Crohn's but still thinks it is okay to once in a while indulge thinking for some reason that you would be "forgiven".

Even worse for someone like myself blessed from the very start with a healthy and fit body and mind, to "enable" you when purchasing a "killer" like sugar.

I now ask for your forgiveness.

You and pretty much everyone I know can find all sorts of excuses for not doing the right thing which is perfectly okay with me so long as it does not interfere with "my space".

Again, I could care less what you decide to do with your family or your life the rest of your life.

I have only one interest and that is to spread my knowledge of what is to me the most important corruption that goes to core of all that is wrong with this world and how very easy it is to fix; just requiring a few more strong willed, fearless people like myself.

The fact that not a single other human being including you might think it not all that important that DeBeers have for a century now managed to pull the wool over everyone's eyes including Einstein doesn't change "my truth".

Trust me when I tell you that deep down inside I am laughing at all of you who waiver.

And trust me I also know deep down inside of me that 99.99% of the people I know personally are laughing at me, but increasingly less so.

Time to enjoy the Sabbath as the brain dead help wake up the dead.

Adam, I told you I would not reply to you email rantings but now you have stepped outside of the boundary. I asked you in confidence to not bring my past into your thing that you are doing. YOU DID NOT. I now get a copy of your email and an email from the other lunatic attacking my mother for something he doesn't know anything about except what you have told him.

I asked you not to bring me into your mess and now you have. You have done the same thing to me that you are accusing others of doing to you in hurting you. I thought I could trust you but obviously I was wrong. I do not need you or your lunatic friends fighting battles for me that do not need fighting. I resolved my issues years ago. You have now succeeded in getting what few family members you had left pissed at you.

You will not be invited to Phillip's wedding because you how now become an embarrassment to my family and I will not have you spouting your reteric at his wedding and ruining this event. What gives you the right to make you think that you are in charge of righting all of the world's wrongs of the past. If you want to make changes, look at your own self first before you start attacking others.

I have now put your email and your "friends" email on spam and will not go through my system. I hope you are happy with what you have accomplished. You said you found god for the first time. The first thing that is taught is forgiveness not hatred. Let he who hath not sinned cast the first stone. You better be looking over your shoulder at the people who can and would throw the first stone at you. Your are not without sin and have now succeeded in hurting those who took care of you the best that they could during YOUR time of need. Time to grow up.

Jeff

Lois,

You have had over 50 years to lie to yourself, I will not allow you to walk away from what you have created; your position clearly stated as my Dad repeated what you told your boys when they expressed their dislike of Ed your would be husband; telling them that one day they would leave the home and that you would be left alone. How selfish can you be to not only allow your sons to be molested by your companion, but to then victimize Jeff and myself once again by calling us liars. Jeff was your youngest and most vulnerable child, and I your "favorite" grandchild; I hate to see how you treat your enemies.

You disgrace Judaism and your family by presenting yourself as respectful members of your temple and community, and living a life as a hypocrites. Ed will have to deal with his own actions, but to turn a blind eye to evil because it suits you is atrocious. I am ashamed of you and my father for claiming ignorance to "harmless" Ed. Jeff's emails to me and my father confirmed the irreparable damage and hurt that Ed caused him. None of which had to explained to me or Phillip to understand why Jeff responsibly refused to allow his children to be around Ed without his protection. For my father with my adopted 9 year old brother in the home to then welcome you and Ed in for Thanksgiving and break bread with you both, knowing full well what Ed did to Jeff and I, is atrocious and unforgivable.

I don't find it the least bit ironic that my father cowardly ignored the truth just as you did; the fruit never falling far from the tree.

You deserve what ever pain this brings to you as you have not only done nothing to prevent harm to your family, but you brought a predator into your home and offered up your children as well as grandchildren because you were afraid of being lonely.

Ironic that you would think that you were ever in a position to criticize my mother's selfish parenting when you were so cowardly and selfishly doing much worse.

Your Children's blood father, Shelly was at least honest enough to walk away from his children.

How dare you criticize anyone or think that you deserve to be left alone!

Ashamed, and disgraced by your actions and lack there of,

Adam
Your once favored grandchild

Is it possible that you gave your email address to someone who pissed off that you were simply wanting something for nothing, in turn passed it on to me?

Bear in mind that along with people giving me their email address wanting something for nothing, is how I get 99.9999% of my email list.

BTW do you see the connecting dots between;

a) The ruling elite's contrived recessions forcing the stirring masses into abject poverty where they are happy to fall in line between even a wimp of wimps "strong man" Hitler so long as this "lost soul" promises them beer in their stomachs along with the independent thinking-non sheep Jewish people to point a finger at, all the while marching to a war drum beat;

b) The ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence report that I am the only credible person in the world broadcasting, apart from the very top officials of the Mossad-Israeli Military Intelligence who are only talking amongst themselves about what next the US-House of Saud-Al Quaida terrorists will do next to confirm receipt of my broadcasting the Mossad-Israeli military intelligence report, Immediately following the 2008 Beijing Olympic Games, Al Quaida who serves the best interests of certain US banking interests with direct ties to the House of Saud, will launch a series of attacks on the oil fields of Qatar, Kuwait and Saudi Arabia that in the next instant will paralyze the U.S. economy; much like this very smart, not so top secret Israeli Military Intelligence report is designed to do, and at the same time explaining why precisely Al Quaida has not attacked the oil fields of Qatar, Kuwait, and Saudi Arabia, so biting the hand that feeds Al Quaida.

c) The US-Al Quaida-House of Saud foiling their own attack on the oil fields in their own backyard.

d) US Americans racing to grab hold of every worthless-fictitious-DeBeers so very blood stained dollar, whether it be a cop told to save a nickel here and there when going around a corner in his black and white so intimidating police car, the tread left behind inevitably washed down the drains in to the surf which when mixing with illegally smoked cigarettes on Del Mar beaches causes a whale to choke that saves a krill that when now alive to flap its tail causes a surfer to shout, "alright" that has madam Albrecht feeling good about being part of a perpetual genocide along with of course her genocide task force prevention.

e) My willingness to debate with anyone who thinks my being so "on top of things" is pure coincidence versus the bold, so vengeful G-d who I daresay is helping spotlight all those whose words and actions or lack thereof now feel the need to be a "part of the solution", aware that I have only be highlighting only those "$ hitheads", and therefore have a "way out" by stepping forward and saying that they have been helping me all along but when along with my call to do so ever so quietly,

f) Not only my very brilliant, math wizard French Canadian wife taking only 30 seconds to agree that the Nazis did in fact, beyond a shadow of a doubt win World War II and I, bearing in mind Marie Dion Gevisser and I shared a bottle and half of very excellent wines just before, not to mention MDG, far more literate than me in both the French her second language to mathematics and English her third, took no more than 3 seconds to figure out when I explained a handful of things about Special-General Relativity, Quantum Mechanics and Chaos Theory that Einstein's Mind of God equation $E=mc^2$ proved out both Evolution and Creationism; i.e. completing Einstein's quest for a unified theory of the inner workings of the universe, and
