Subject: TIBETIAN GUERRILLAS - RE: Website Activity

V. interesting.

On March 2nd I sent the 777 odd word email to Courtney Portell of Derek Lam fashions entitled, We also question God.

<http://www.nextraterrestrial.com/pdf/Microsoft%20Word%20-%20portell-questioningod.pdf>

You recall that on the 4 day cruise down the Yangtze River back in the summer of 2006 during Marie's and my 24 day "fact finding mission", we ran into Professor Daruch, a colleague of Professor Trevor Jones from the University of Natal-Kwazulu, South Africa who informed us that De Beers is a "good thing" because, "they bring order to what would otherwise be a chaotic marketplace."

During that very same dinner conversation Steven Parkinson, an executive for the British based Mothercare corporation, responsible for their Middle East operations that were growing at the rate of 2 new stores per week, informed us that the reason for their strong growth was because Mothercare had the same Kuwaiti business partner as Starbucks who were growing at the rate of 5 new stores per week in the Middle East.

Mr. Parkinson's "loose tongue" was perhaps because he was a little "sleep deprived" given how he had decided rather than spend the additional US$600 upgrading as Marie and I did to a suite rather than stay in the dungeons of the Regal Cruise, a 5 Star going on -1, thinking that the Chinese officials running this very carefully orchestrated cruise wouldn't be able to sell the very few suits remaining, and by the time he awoke the price would have dropped dramatically.

When you snooze you lose!

By the time Mr. Parkinson arrived at the table for dinner it was quite obvious his poor decision to have his girlfriend-wife not live it up in the "lap of the luscious" [sic] suite had already begun to take its toll on their sex lives although no one including me thought it would be in keeping with decorum to explore since the body language between the two of them said pretty much everything,,, and to break their discomfort, Mr. Stevenson somehow felt compelled to just keep talking, informing all of us that the reason for both MotherCare and their sister company Starbucks' most terrific growth was predicated upon both operations not opening a single successful operation in Israel.

Lucy Lang's decision yesterday to copy people on my list as if to let them know something they don't already know when it is about her not about me, is kinda silly especially when one considers who she was copying, not all of them flat line plotters like The IT and his cow.

Lucy is quite obviously afraid that whatever is said she doesn't want it public; no different to anyone accustomed to "milking the system".

Lucy wants everybody to know that she has nothing against doctors, they are all so good, i.e. everyone protecting their turf, i.e., the truth is totally irrelevant when it comes to "war and love" and remember the teachings of the church, "Jesus loves me so, this I know because mommy tells me so!"

So much for this "blind faith" when it suits one's agenda.

Leading me to have you see how long it will take before you are not alone again in getting distracted; not remembering a word I have written but enough to know that once again there is "new information", all the while forgetting not only who I am but why it is that I have more credibility than all the people you know in the world combined which still doesn't prevent you and everyone else from thinking it might be fine to continue each day and every moment of the day as though nothing really is all that different than the day before; i.e. what will be will be; i.e. each to their own; i.e. so long as we are happy, everybody here for one reason or another and so long as we just try to do good without telling anyone what to do or how to do it and never being judgmental and to always show compassion to our enemies, and love them, and to cherish them, then inevitably we will all sit around a camp site with our tee-pee in the background smoke peace pipes, no one having to work for a living apart from slave wage earners who we had nothing whatsoever to do with, those problems belong with the past generations, therefore, nothing really changes all that much and besides there is very little one can do to change the status quo assuming changing the status quo is something we really want.

Not to mention that ever since I returned from China and began explaining the putrid hypocrisy of Starbucks run by nice Jewish boy Howard Schultz kowtowing to tyrants hell bent on the destruction of the State of Israel, Starbucks' share price has dropped some 50%.

To mention little of how so very wonderful it is to be able to do random acts of kindness to strangers when there are folks like very underpaid military personnel particular here in the United States doing all the heavy lifting for our Trust-Hush-Fund kids so excruciatingly nauseating.

And remember this was my second trip, the first for a much longer period just weeks before the CIA's most contrived Tiananmen Square Massacre.

Not to mention do you recall Drudgereport.com or any other bought and paid for media outlet mentioning that the CIA up until August 1971 when Kissinger made his secret trip to China were training Tibetan monks in guerrilla warfare in the Colorado Rockies?

To mention little of such a very important trip occurring in the very same month the United States officially went off the Gold Standard and all the world's gold that they had stolen using the barrel of our big guns then began to skyrocket in value.

To mention in passing mid-1971 was mid-way through the Chinese Cultural Revolution whose opponents hadn't forgotten that peace didn't come to China following the United States Government under the command and control of big banking interests led by De Beers, leading an 8 Allied Nations invasion of China in 1900 where everything that wasn't nailed to the ground was stolen including all of China's harvested gold.

Today's headline news on Drudge Report, "Obama Aide: Bill Clinton Like McCarthy" and I bet you had forgotten that Attorney General of the US, Senator

Robert F. Kennedy, a client of my highly secretive Royal Mater-Mother, first worked for "communist fighter" Wisconsin Senator Joe McCarthy who was a close ally of virulent anti-Semite and Nazi sympathizer, Joe Kennedy, the patriarch of the Kennedy clan whose other son President John F. Kennedy, fully funded by virulent anti-Semite American Charles Engelhard, wasted no time in cozying up to the Germans with his "Ich Bin Ein Berliner" speech back on June 26th, 1963 that was not lost on David Ben Gurion or the Mossad who wield, without consulting the godless US Congress or for that matter the Dali Lama their most brutal assassinations unit who don't forget why the State of Israel had to fight for its life some 3 years following the entire world knowing that 6 million Jewish people having been brutally murdered during the most contrived Holocaust, was simply not enough.

Some 5 days before on June 21st, 1963 David Ben Gurion stepped down as Prime Minister of Israel but continued until his death on December 1st, 1973, 13 months to the day following our first meeting on November 1st, 1972, some 57 odd days following De Beers sponsored PLO terrorists beginning to brutally murder 11 defenseless Israel athletes at the MUNICh Olympics, to be informed by both the Mossad as well as the deep underground Jewish Underground who keep the Mossad "honest".

You, of course, haven't forgotten the email I sent you yesterday letting you know that I am still waiting for your edits to my forthcoming communiqué to Israeli Army trained Shunit that had a Jewish neighbor of mine here in the Cleveland National Forest after reading that draft commenting, "They will have a cow" were I to send it to the management of her stock brokerage operation with very close ties to Bear Sterns.

You also know, of course, you are not the least distracted human being in the world nor for that matter do you spend your time going to meditation retreats to assuage your guilt given how for starters you cannot afford such luxuries even though most often such very orchestrated operations all geared to Trust-Hush-Fund kids, only require donations which of course come courtesy of the Trust Funds again all geared to keep things "hush hush".

You are though also beginning to understand the very practical, real world implications of the Mossad not paying for their intelligence or the fact that the fledging State of Israel has never had to pay for its weapons of war once it had achieved overwhelming and superior military force.

Standby for my follow up to President George W. Bush.

Prepare to load up on to just3ants.com the message left, I believe it was yesterday, on my cell phone voicemail by a significant Chicago, Illinois, based diamond merchant with extraordinarily close ties to Codiam Inc., De Beers' most significant money laundering, intelligence gathering and price fixing operation on U.S. soil.

Please place this up on just3ants.com.

Subject: Website Activity

We had some very unusual activity March 2; I'm not certain of what this represents, but we more or less have 200 "pages" viewed per day, but on 3/2/08 we had 2849 pages viewed.

Btw, we have 374 unique hits this month, with our biggest month being January with 380.
