And just for section that reads “hit list” to graduate “back and forth” between big and small, just like you have something similar on next...trial with those opening graphics.

On a cruise aboard the yacht of Aristotle Onassis.

227

It is taken out of the book titled THE CHURCHILL YEARS 1874-1965 that was published in 1965 at the height of the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel's empire.

Not to mention Aristotle Onassis had people such as my Royal Mother "protecting" people like Jackie O from the media who couldn't just take a photo and get published in order to leave no doubt who exactly ruled the high seas.

There are in fact very few colored photos in this very heavy black and white "photo-biography" of Churchill who would know fought in the Anglo Boer War, was captured by Smuts' Boers but escaped to a hero's welcome.

In May 1917 during a secret session Field Marshall Jan Smuts played a significant hand in "saving the bacon" of Winston Churchill when he supported Churchill being appointed Minister of Munitions; not to mention that following the debacle of the Dardanelles were in one single day, March 18th, 1915 five Allied battleships were lost, Churchill was forced to resign as Admiral of the British Navy.

To mention little of you recalling Smuts was at first the right hand person of Cecil Rhodes, founder of De Beers who when he couldn't convince Smuts of the merits of his "Secret Society" went to war with Smuts' who pioneered and perfected guerrella warfare in what we know as the American J.P. Morgan-Chase financed Anglo Boer War of 1899-1902 where Churchill and his cohorts only managed to defeat Smuts not on the battlefields but placing old men, women and children of the Boers-Farmers in concentration camps where some 20,000 of them starved to death; not to mention that Black South Africans who didn't "figure in" to this all about stealing South Africa's rich mineral resources beginning with gold, also lost some 10,000 of their own in Concentration Camps.

Below is the one and only photo of Smuts in this 264 page book, seated to the far right Churchill who you recall during World War II "saw fit" to have Smuts as his second-in-command and was able to see all the intrigue and treachery that was going beginning and ending with De Beers having fully infiltrated the Diamond Committee made up of the top ranking officers of the De Beers Anglo American Cartel.

Dave, my master of so many trades French-Canadian wife but most expert in oil painting, prays to God almost every night before falling asleep that her professor of professors Sebastian Capella will outlive her all the while imparting at Light-G-d-speed his godly innate talent and knowledge, let alone execution of the world’s greatest paintings that so extraordinarily few people can even begin to appreciate but that too is changing as you now consider before the world ends writing music to Marie Dion Gevisser’s profound ageless, like her, words:

Lack of knowledge–information-light-power, power to change the world stems from humans being lazy and fearful from embracing the truth.

The truth is too disrupting for some people too busy keeping track of all their lies from day one.

The lack of knowledge-light is betrayed by their silence regarding questions Gary pose...

MDG and I are listening to your music-words while deciding in the event of our passing to gift back to Sebastian Capella his masterpieces we are so fortunate to enjoy each and every moment of the day and night that help us dream of a world empty of "lost souls" and when his time comes to join us once again to gift them to a museum to be built only when there are no military, not a single policeman, just responsible people smart enough to figure it all out beginning with sharing.

Now listening to, "look at how she listens - she just goes stumbling through her memories -gray - Breaks her heart - I am going to take you to the top of the mountain -I am going to take you down.. what I need is all around me - you could just keep me floating"

Subject: problem and solution

I want to run by you "the problem and the solution".

Everyone hides behind something going back to when the Emperors/Kings and Queens ruled behind big castle walls offering protection to the serfs in times of need and in exchange the serfs worked the land.

Everyone wants something whether it is the Kings and Queens enjoying the power of ruling all the while not having to break a sweat unless worried about insurrection, a member of the Royal family not caring for the totem pole arrangement.

Once everyone gets their white picket fence around the land that was dished out by the ruling elite to those who did their bidding then they begin to hide but it doesn't change the fact that each one of us has wants.

For you to get a report done you may have to go to a total stranger who has their wants beginning with the fact that they may not have their white picket fence yet or for that matter a piece of land stolen by brute force by the ruling elite, in fact that person may live in an ugly high rise building on the banks of the Yangtze river.

That person may provide you with a solution to your problem but you cannot provide them with a solution to wanting both their own land and white picket fence and then there is that BMW that should be garaged.

So you hide in not sharing your knowledge of how come that person is so poor by simply not responding to their questions all the while having got help from that person in getting your report done.

That person may have, however, an internet connection much faster and more reliable than you and that person may in fact speak as good an English as you and to top it off that person may know much more about English literature than you and me combined.

I ran across such a person in China who was one of the first students to go to university after the end of the cultural revolution but because he didn't have the math skills he had to opt for studying English literature.

Helping Philip "rise to the top" was that he was an excellent runner.

People who "live to learn" listen much better than people who hide by choosing either not to read my highly informative emails or being very selective believing that they have the "excuse" of saying "I don't read your emails so how would I have known!"

Everybody wants something and unless one is willing to be a hermit and has a sufficient large and reliable Trust-Hush-Fund stashed away for a rainy day there is simply no way to escape using the internet, especially email.

What do you think?

Kgotso not Kogotso.

I feel the ground swelling...I have been feeling it for some time.

It all boils down to a few simple points:

- * Paper money is worthless, always has been, always will be.
- * You cant run a country on faith and trust (especially the economy). Leave that to the churches/synagogues/mosques, thats what they sell.

Don't have much time right now but all I can say is be smart and disciplined and very soon you will be able to snatch up land (with water) for next to nothing as the traders and brokers jump out of the windows at NYMEX, NASDAQ and NYSE.

The question really is:

"If you are healthy, eat at least three healthy meals a day, have a safe place to sleep, are sane and have access to clean drinking water as well as clothes to cover your body - what do you really need worthless pieces of paper for (especially if you are hoarding them)?

Picture this, a greedy Zimbabwean billionaire about 20 years back decides to hang onto every bit of Zimbabwean dollar - Z$ - he can lay his greedy hands on. Hypothetically, lets say he has buddies in parliament who keep convincing him 20 years later that things will be fine in Zim. All of a sudden, he still is a billionaire but what's it worth if bread is now Z$20,000,000.00 as compared to Z$10.00?

Compare this to a (poor) man with his own piece of land, growing some of his own veggies, with access to clean water and able to sleep peacefully at night with a smile? Who is richer? Who will be the first to jump out the window?

The (dumb) richer are getting poorer and (smart) poorer are about to get richer if they use their brains wisely."

Lastly, I think everything should be priced in gold and silver, at least starting with agricultural commodities and other commodities.

Shalom!

P.S. The religious types fascinate me, was hearing arguments over Easter / Passover over Jesus' race. many claiming he was black. I was thinking to myself that I have never heard of a black Jew born to two "white" Jewish parents.

On Thu, Mar 20, 2008 at 5:41 PM, Adam L Tucker <adam@just3ants.com> wrote:

Don't waste your time with what I forwarded you. Things are changing quickly here. I visit the military discussion boards every couple of weeks and the posture of the soldiers are changing. People everywhere are speculating as to what caused the economy to collapse.

My hope is that not unlike me, the masses of money-me-American's and the world alike wake up and fill the void left by their collapsed currency with truth.

I have been waking up every one within my reach including the woman that cut my hair a few days ago; to the truth about the US and GB supporting SA 'Dr. Death' and his research/experiments to produce biological warfare that specifically targets black people.

There is a ground swell of change forming... do you feel it?

Kogotso!

Adam

P.S. I found this quote from one of the founding "fathers" of America... his words almost prophetic...

"If the American People ever allow the banks to control the issuance of their currency, first by inflation and then by deflation, the banks and corporations that will grow up around them will deprive the people of all property until their children wake up homeless on the continent their fathers occupied. The issuing power of money should be taken from the bankers and restored to Congress and the people to whom it belongs. I sincerely believe the banking institutions having the issuing power of money are more dangerous to liberty than standing armies.

We are completely saddled and bridled, and the bank is so firmly mounted on us that we must go where they ill guide.

The dominion which the banking institutions have obtained over the minds of our citizens...must be broken, or it will break us."

Do you know if I blind copied you on what I sent earlier to Alida Smith, Senior Editorial Assistant, Financial Times?

BTW, do you have any experience with a Mitsubishi flat screen monitor that keeps turning off and we have played with the "sleep" button but getting no satisfaction? I believe I took out a 3 year extended warranty. Could it be connected to the salt water air?

Also By The Way, if you are interested in "standing in" for MDG and me at Shunit's Purim party tomorrow just let her know. I don't think she would have a problem with it.

Alida, below is my most recent heavily broadcasted communiqué to the President of the United States. Currently, I am taking off several hours to work on updating my will where my French-Canadian wife, Marie Dion Gevisser is the sole beneficiary, but in the event of both our death or incapacitation, to make certain that people like Tefo and Adam are not "hamstrung"; not to mention that Tefo did in fact respond last evening to an email sent to him by Adam but not to my "problem    response" communiqué that pretty much says everything that needs to be said, hence no response from very aware and most brilliant Tefo who also doesn't need to be reminded that God exists given how each breath he takes he knows it is nothing short of a miracle given the extraordinary forces of evil that exists within each of our households; to mention little of a photo I am looking at in a book lent to me by a fellow artist painter friend of my wife Marie Dion Gevisser titled, THE CHURCHILL YEARS 1874-1965, showing Winston Churchill seated amongst 3 other men including Field Marshall Smuts, at a Victory Parade in London, June, 1946; and you would know that on July 22nd 1946, the Irgun Jewish Underground exploded a most powerful bomb in the King David Hotel, Jerusalem; to mention in passing that not everyone in the world is aware that Smuts was not only second-in-command to Churchill during World Oil War II but he was a member of the deep underground Jewish Underground funneling intelligence beginning with De Beers having infiltrated the highest levels of both American and British intelligence, to David Ben Gurion, head of the Hagannah Jewish Underground movement headquartered in Jerusalem, Israel who had honored back in 1932, naming a kibbutz after this greatest friend the Jewish people have known going back all the way to Jesus Christ who only sought to take on the corrupt Jewish priesthood who had sold out to corrupt business interests, so what's new! - Now my wife mentioning to me as she walks semi-naked in the kitchen area of our studio cliff house perched atop the bluffs of heavily real estate and city council corrupt Del Mar, California, "What happened? Relapse!" following my having been messy once again with the peanut butter.

Subject: PART IV - I AM READY FOR BREAKFAST

Dear Mr. President,

I could be back in the surf right now where the water is not quite as smooth as glass but a whole less choppy than last evening when my French-Canadian wife instructed me, "Now go surfing" and in less than 5 minutes, some 4 and half to put on my wetsuit, fill up my camel backpack with water, and in 30 seconds I was in the water and within a couple of minutes my wave ski had hit me on the side of the head following a not all that large wave turning me over before I could strap myself in, instead I am devoting the next hour or so, all depends upon how long Marie Dion Gevisser sleeps in when I can now just imagine her all cheery eyed commanding, "I am ready for breakfast", to helping you cope.

You alone, when not of course taking care of my wife's many needs, are the focus of my attention.

How often do you think about the Dollar Hit list on just3ants.com?

After you have exercised in the morning do you wonder as much as those on the "$ hit list" [sic] how long this nightmare is going to last or do you derive great satisfaction when seeing a documentary like "Born Rich" thinking that you are so much better, so very much "more in touch" than those Trust-Hush-Fund kids just having fun with more wealth to play with than the average Trust-Hush-Fund kid like my wife's "tTOo" [sic] kids from her first marriage to The IT who I wager is far more worried than you could possibly be even if the vast majority of the world believe you have the most blood of innocent victims on your hand.

Remember, I have no hard evidence that you have ever read a word I say despite confirmation from folks like the FBI, Israeli Military Intelligence and the Mossad that they not only get my communications but they "get it".

The IT on the other hand has quite the "black and white" history as does his Cow; the same with Roy Essakow's big buddy over there in Israel, Conrad Wolf.

This bad wolf is another increasingly "lost soul" very concerned, and it is only partially due to the fact that he hasn't taken any personal action against Starbucks for having kowtowed to their brutal Kuwaiti business partners who have threatened Starbucks with destroying Starbucks were they to open a single successful Starbucks in Israel.

<http://www.nextraterrestrial.com/pdf/ressakow-dig.htm>

Those great many of us Jewish who survived the Holocaust mostly, if given much thought these days by our smart and extraordinarily vengeful God, only look at the extraordinary numbers murdered in cold blood and when asked to think about how much better or worse their personal lives would be if those 6 million innocent not able to buy their way out of trouble, had survived and produced on average say 20, no let's not be extreme, let's say just one and a half, the mostly like thing you will hear is, "You are being extreme" before then bringing out their calculators to help them compute that in about 7 minutes from now all those 6 million would have bred themselves out of existence.

Yes, all those Holocaust Memorial Museums all over the world providing jobs to succulents of all beliefs, the most dangerous of course those without any religious background who simply meditate in their own selfishness.

People of all ages, religious, ethnicities, including those void of nothing but "love of money" who are the most in denial come up with any excuse that they can use at any given moment so as to distract from having to deal with the fact that they are all about "money, me", period; and then focus all their energies on saying whatever they think they need to say to get what they want, inevitably showing their "true colors" that start with their "long faces" followed by increasing "deafening silences".

There is in fact nothing good to say about a "money cultured" society let alone one that has been so very brutal and so extraordinarily slow to embrace the merit system, all the while talking about how everyone wants to emulate our merit driven American lifestyle.

My focus of attention apart from having you immediately suspend the trading of shares in public corporations thereby protecting the innocent and naïve from throwing good money after bad, all the while lining the pockets of those such as The IT who have stolen the most, is to have you withdraw all our troops from bases on 130 of the world's 190 countries and at the same time call upon the Peoples Republic of China to fill any vacuum that might exist.

Bear in mind that you cannot count on the State of Israel to continue propping up the Trust-Hush-Funds of people like The IT's "tTOo" [sic] kids who continue to try convincing themselves that when they see say on just3ants.com disfigured American service people and very young Iraqi kids holding guns, that it is "extreme" to think that them just having fun living off their Trust-Funds has anything to do with either their laziness or selfishness and both.

BTW, last night at sunset, 10 troop carrying Marine helicopters flew right close to the cliffs of Del Mar sending quite a message to the mostly rich residents that their monies are being well spent; such a show of force, of course, having no impact on people such as myself who know a little about how very easy it is to disrupt the confidence level of pilots who cannot trust their intelligence as well as why they are so very poorly paid.

Dr. John K. Pollard Jr., as you would know, piped in last night with a video of a Mexican with a pickup truck stopping outside a deserted office building in downtown San Diego or it could have been Los Angeles or Wall Street for that matter, and began picking different "pencil pushers" for jobs back in Mexico and those getting this once in a lifetime opportunity to leave their families and travel over to Mexico to earn real money not propped up by the barrel of a gun given how Mexico has all the oil and water its hard working and non-aggressive peoples need, smiling from ear to ear sitting in the back of the pickup as those left behind showed their "long faces".

Dr. JKP is, however, mostly thinking of Tefo "getting it" when not thinking of how his two gang-banger grandsons are going to deal with him and his children for neglecting so very poorly when failing to inform them of all the knowledge Dr. JKP an alumnus of MIT and Cornell University has received courtesy of me about how he can afford to be so pompous and carefree.

Dr. JKP et al may derive a moment's satisfaction when I inform them that Tefo did not get back to me yesterday as he had committed but in the next instant Dr. JKP et al including The IT and all those whose formal education has interfered with their learning and not all of them on the "$ hit list" [sic], at least not yet, realize that not only may Tefo have a good reason including possibly being dead or incarcerated in a United States of America's controlled prison in South Africa, but Tefo is just one of many independent thinkers in the world waking up to the truth beginning with how impossible it is to forget the hypocrisy of the United States Government given the arrival of the Digital Age.

The overwhelming evidence I have already presented that talk to in great detail the crimes against humanity perpetrated in the name of the American Government by our elected and non-elected government officials simply cannot be willed away just because the rest of the world has not massed on our borders, at least not yet, which of course is not a prerequisite for US Americans invoking Articles II of the US Constitution.

<http://www.nextraterrestrial.com/pdf/Microsoft%20Word%20-%20philippe-whotokill.pdf>

The Almighty Dollars rule is over, period.

The fateful decision by President Franklin D. Roosevelt not to order the OSS [See Chapter 9, DIAMONDS FOR HITLER – The Diamond Invention], the forerunner of the CIA, to kill Ernest Oppenheimer and each and every official of De Beers who played a hand in the decision not to supply the United States with the industrial diamonds that De Beers had stolen from South Africa whose black masses had been enslaved courtesy of the overwhelming and superior military forces of the United States and British Government, is one of many points of triangulation.

<http://www.nextraterrestrial.com/pdf/Microsoft%20Word%20-%20scarlet-love-life-enjoy.pdf>

Mr. Jeffrey R. Krinsk Esq. of Finkelstein & Krinsk continues to “pause”

following my response to his insensitivity, not only to Adam L. Tucker who suffers through no fault of his own from Crohn’s Disease, but to all the victims of the United States Government’s atrocities going back to the turn of the last century.

<http://www.nextraterrestrial.com/pdf/Microsoft%20Word%20-%20atucker-kindspeech.pdf>

The Peoples Republic of Communist China know they cannot rely on getting their just compensation for the United States Government leading an 8 Allied Nations invasion of China in 1900 where troops stole everything including all of China’s gold that had been harvested and wasn’t nailed to the ground, from Chinese nationals like Lucy Lang living here in the United States who simply are too invested in the “status quo” to get over having backed the wrong horse.

I am still waiting for Devin Standard as well as Adam L. Tucker to provide me with their edits to my forthcoming communiqué to Israeli Army trained Shunit who invited me "and your lovely wife" last evening to her Purim party tomorrow.

MDGevisser has this moment made her presence known at the very moment a dolphin surfaced.

I just checked my inbox and saw that Tefo had emailed me last evening.

Continuing ...
