I will work over the weekend to get things back on track.

I told Julia that I will be video taping the sale of the diamonds, which we might be able to do as early as this weekend.

Can you resend the email that you sent earlier to, where you first introduced Bori Senior? I am having email problems here.

Subject: MISSING RE: i am begging you.

Adam,

This is starting to look "interesting!"

BTW gold last trading at US$814.00 which even to people like Devin Standard who invested in gold bullion awhile back is not necessarily a good thing especially if Peruvians like Augusto and Alvaro decide smartly to "bury their hatchets" which for all you know may have already happened and therefore just moments in time before those foreign mining companies who have been stealing Peru's gold and gas deposits lose their illegally obtained "concessions" thus making all those forward gold contracts not just in Peru but throughout the world totally worthless.

It is a good thing we have here in the United States not only rules that "protect free speech" so long as what one says is both truthful and cannot be interpreted as "inciting violence" but equally important is the "right to a fair trial".

And very possibly more important is that law enforcement responsible for being the first line of defense-offense for the corrupt ruling elite minority relying on their corrupt elected and non-elected government officials to usurp their limited authority beginning by having law enforcement do their "dirty work", are increasingly up to speed on the fact that they are the most used and abused of the "public servants".

Bear in mind all the extraordinary amount of time you have wasted with all this utter nonsense in the past 24 hours when you could have easily used this time so much more productively, not only to get laid which I know versus believe is still a priority for you just as it is for each and every person with plenty of time on their hands seeking out "uncomplicated sex" rather than deal with the "reality" of me, a rather credible person, pulling out all stops to "give peace a better chance", broadcasting the extraordinary "findings" of Boris Senior, a not exactly inconsequential Deputy Chief of the most brutal Israel Air Force, and therefore such "whimsical", soon to be totally mindless individuals, most unwilling to contribute their entire wealth including every spare moment to promote the fact that we have so far only got US$23.88 in "donations"; bearing in mind such monies were not exactly for just3ants.com, but rather my forthcoming book,

THE HISTORY OF MONEY CREATION AND ITS FUTURE!

You do perfectly understand that while I "take issue" with my Royal Mater-Mother, Zena Rosland Badash-Ash Gevisser Zulman, Zena was a very smart woman and she knew this for certain when her clients would keep returning seeking her most worldly counsel.

Like me, my mother is not an attorney, God forbid.

My mother knew from well before I started talking at age 3 that I listened very well and therefore she would only repeat things to me when letting me know to pay attention to the "disconnects".

Not to mention why it is that athletic people as they age become increasingly attracted to the most non-athletic!

Rather thoughtful Zena Gevisser's words, "The Menopause Woman Needs Younger Men" which doesn't mean that is a good thing, just ask my mother who married my "sumwhat" [sic] athletic step-father, some 6 years younger, with the emotional maturity of a nat.

How much thought have you given throughout your dialogue with your ex-wife who you might want to introduce to THE IT, to the fact that not a single Jewish South African intimately familiar with the South African National Party has made even a penny contribution to just3ants.com?

How much thought have you given throughout your dialogue with your ex-wife to the fact of life that the National Party backed by the 3 Branches of the United States Government seized power in South Africa 1948 within a month of the De Beers controlled United Nations all kowtowing to the United States protecting the monopolist of monopolists De Beers, who each and every founder of the State of Israel knew long before Israel's War of Independence began, that the U.S. was not a friend of State of Israel?

How much thought will you give say 24 hours from now when I am possibly dead to the fact that the US went out of its way to destroy the fledging State of Israel, facts of life that caused the Jewish Underground well before Statehood was granted to Israel to go very deep underground much like the Moranos during the Spanish Inquisition of 1492, the year Jewish person Christopher Columbus sailed the ocean blue?

Not to suggest for one minute that Columbus was a good Jewish person, mostly very bad.

The most recent disconnect prior to when I last saw my mother in late December 2001 was when my Royal Mater referred to my father as "fighter pilot" versus his much more skilled designation, "Fighter-Bomber-Pilot" which only seemed to bother my father who never, not once, ever made a "big deal" about his life as "fighter-bomber-pilot" during World War II that had him completing 71 odd miraculous missions dive-bombing the crap out of the DeBeers Nazi bastards from high in the skies above northern Italy but having to come in very low and very fast when using his plane as the guidance system to delivering bombs sometimes weighing as much as 1,000 pounds, only once I made a big deal about why my mother thought it was a big deal to make such a big deal about something rather important that the average Joe Blow Trucker just concerned about being able to afford the gas this coming weekend could care less about.

I found it quite odd that my dad would even bother to voice what was in fact only a mild "consternation" although "disappointment" is probably a better word.

My mother would explain as well as me the clear logic of my decision to bring up to my father my mother referring to my father as a, "fighter pilot" in the introduction of her book, The Winking Cat which I happened to see in a very rough draft when once visiting with my mom and my step-father Alan Zulman in Wiveliscombe, Somerset, England, just prior to the publishing of the book, which I believe you have my copy, and so you let me know exactly when it first got published; in total about 500 books printed and approximately 498 given away as gifts; it possible that one was actually sold at Kerry Anderson's one gift store in Wellington, Somerset, England, Island of Great Britain, and it also possible that book was purchased by my mother who then shipped it to my dad in Cape Town, the only member of my immediate family not to get his copy.

Not to mention, my dad only finding out the book had been published when Gerald Hackner, my Royal Mater's world renowned South African accountant, called up my Dad wanting my mother's telephone number in Wiveliscombe to thank her for being so very thoughtful in sending him a copy.

In the time it has taken me to type this email which I am typing at a relatively fast pace, my father would have descended from a dizzy height and delivered some 1500 pounds of high explosives on to a number of buildings housing kidnapped innocent civilians chained to the openings, very possibly already dead from the strafing as he and fellow pilot Syd Cohen, who later went on to become Commander of Israel's only squadron in the War of "Independence" [sic], dived before pulling up and releasing their bombs.

My mother, at first, brushed off my "pettiness" which seemed rather bizarre to begin with but even more bizarre was Zena then informing me that I was making "much ado about nothing" since "All your dad ever did was occasionally throw bombs out of the cockpit of his plane" which had me "on cue" then "throwing fuel to the flame" when repeating my mother's senility to my Dad who then went expectantly "ballistic", finding the balls to call my mother and read her the "riot act" which then had my mother apologizing profusely to my father and at the same time letting him know that she had got confused thinking he was a pilot during World War I, when even you, when not thinking of just getting laid, can imagine World War I pilots when smoking their cigars dipped in brandy then lighting the fuse and "bombs away".

Now we are only talking about events taking place some 7 odd years ago, not at the turn of the last century, around the time that my Royal Mater produced [October 9th, 2001] the most extraordinarily crafted autobiography titled, "LIFE STORY OF ZENA" in which there is absolutely no reference to my father being even a "fighter pilot" during World War II since my mother's focus in this ingenious "report" was to show her closeness to the founders of the State of Israel and my "fighter pilot" father did not participate in Israel's War of Independence that should never have taken place were it not for the fact that the Nazis did in fact win World War II which was a continuation of World Oil War I.

BTW, the published version of The Winking Cat refers to my father as a "fighter pilot".

Interesting, wouldn't you agree?

The measures my Royal Mater would go to in communicating to me the things I should pay attention to when she knows I have so many other things on my plate such as folding Marie's clothes that are in the dryer located in the garage of our rented studio cliff house.

In the time it has taken me to type this communiqué what do you think the most senior members of Israeli Military Intelligence have been doing apart from preparing for war with the United States of America in the event the United States forces Israel to once again defend herself against the United States of America?

I think that we should post these headlines together as they show the US public choice to ignore a threat that cannot yet reach them; while leaving Israel within reach.

In all your communications with your X wife what exactly prevented you from thinking, apart from the fact that you are not thinking, it was important to read to her the most important 156 words out of the 6161 word email I sent David Stout of the New York Times via Dr. John K. Pollard?

To repeat:

Senior recounts how his ragtag air force secured victory by personally purchasing aircraft and sneaking them across international borders, and how they risked their lives on unfamiliar and untested equipment. He reminds us of the ingenuity, determination, and resolve that he and the fighters had for the creation of Israel. He emphasizes that the U.S. government was not a friend of the fledgling nation, curtailing the pilots' ability to transfer airplanes to Palestine. In contrast, the Russians rescued the endangered Jewish fighting forces from destruction by permitting "Czechs to assist us (training in and procuring Messerschmitts)." In addition, "Russian diplomatic and political support in the United Nations during that period were instrumental in helping Israel survive." This directly contributed to the success of the war in the air, which, through the efforts of the Mahal overseas volunteers, brought final victory to the nation and led to Senior's ability to initiate and build the Israeli air force.

In all your thoughts about how very easy it is for you to get laid by pretty much any chick of whatever age just wanting to have "uncomplicated sex" with someone they know is just less intelligent did it occur to you, well above average in intelligence, that the only reason you are so very attractive; i.e. still have 4 limbs attached to torso with head, to "lost souls" is because the State of Israel, very specifically its military is not run by a bunch of crazed fanatics and quite thoughtful about "pulling the trigger", not needing a bunch of medals to remind them of which country has stolen most of the world's shiny metals, while not forgetting for one moment why a very thoughtful person like Boris Senior felt the need to,

"emphasize that the US. Government was not a friend of the fledging nation".

Israel only survived its War of Independence that the United States and its allies thought would last no more than a few hours because of volunteer fighter pilots such as Boris Senior who along with Syd Cohen never once forgot the skills and experience of my very humble father who was very purposefully kept back in reserve.

Not to mention both my paternal grandfather Israel Issy Gevisser and maternal grandfather, Grandad Al Ash were not exactly "potted plants" and nor were these very worldly traders twiddling their toes back in South Africa when David Ben Gurion announced his decision to go to war with any nation who wished harm to the Jewish people.

Pupils of the Zena Gevisser Charm School didn't only learn how to hold a knife and fork properly at the dinner table as well as sit straight, stomach in, buttocks tightened, head up, shoulders back all the while making "light conversation" just in order to get laid.

Pupils of my mother also came away with the self-confidence to always look the other person in the eye and know when they were telling a lie without having them strapped up to a lie detector test administered by a seasoned FBI agent.

You haven't forgotten how I felt when The IT was able to get both an FBI agent and a senior member of the San Diego Police Department, Detective Jeffrey Steele to visit with me in the fall of 2002, right after my initial criminal court hearing when The IT and his "money talks" lawyer-liar George Hurst, no relation to the publishing Hearsts, realized that The IT's ex-wife, my wife, Marie Dion Gevisser wasn't going to take his shit; moreover, was going to stand alongside me and fight his baseless charges even if it meant her losing custody of her two children that she had with THE IT; THE IT and Hurst going so very low outside the courtroom, just prior to summoning the FBI and the San Diego Police Department to visit with me at my former residence with the single purpose of threatening to intimidate me to leave town with my tail between my legs, presenting Marie with the photo I had taken of her naked sitting on a rock over at Blacks Beach where all you can see is a face smiling that is totally unrecognizable attached to the most beautiful body of a most beautiful woman and then suggesting it was pornographic.

When you are coming in from a dizzy height with all guns blazing from both wings it is easy to avoid distractions such as those that I have right now, not a single bird in the sky, but just earlier a single dolphin had surfaced, "blowing me a kiss".

Dr. Syd Cohen MD who felt good enough about my father's flying as well as bombing skills to have Bernie Gevisser as his wingman beginning with my dad's 4th mission which took place on December 4th, 1944, was also very close to my very attractive "shiksa" looking Royal Mater but nowhere near as close as was Boris Senior who again my Royal Mater made a point only once when calling me on the very day I arrived on September 1st, 1972 at Kibbutz Sde Boker in the Negev Desert, some 3 days prior to DeBeers sponsored PLO terrorists beginning to brutally murder 11 defenseless Israeli athletes at the MUNIch Olympic games, to place Boris Senior's name and telephone number in my diary that she told me to purchase as soon as I got off the plane at Ben Gurion airport, Tel-Aviv.

My mother Zena was born on May 30th, 1929 and was therefore not around for World War I.

My mother's father, Alef-Albert-Al Badash-Ash who was born in 1900 did join up when only 14 years of age and fought against the Germans in World Oil War I.

Israeli Military Intelligence don't have all the time in the world to "play pong" as US Americans think about stuff like paying off a car loan by taking out another loan when there is an ex-wife with a diamond or "tTOo" [sic] who seems willing to sell those diamonds to help pay off part or the entire car loan leaving no need to take out another loan assuming the diamonds fetch a good enough price which you would only know once you tried to sell those diamonds, something which seems to be missing from all your gobbledygook, which of course makes for very interesting banter when in the course of foreplay or after "uncomplicated sex" you will no doubt have something to talk about rather than De Beers sponsoring more than the PLO terrorists who brutally murdered 11 defenseless athletes at the MUNIch Olympic Games, beginning some 57 odd days before I met with David Ben Gurion for the first time on November 1st, 1972, some 35 odd years ago, rather ancient history, or is it?

In the time it has taken me to type this email you could have got your ex-wife to visit just3ants.com and have her comment on the post you put up on 11/25/2007 at 3:14:06 PM PST titled, DYSFUNCTIONAL FAMILY VALUES that contains this hyperlink which takes the reader to your most recent "back and forth" with Julia "I am begging you" Cadar, and which reads:

Now you are behaving just like my mother, thinking that you will be able to persuade me to drop everything just because you think you will succeed in wearing me down with your phone conversations and more tears.

Obviously you do not yet fully understand what you did when calling me up first with no tears streaming down your face, to let me know that I should be on the "alert" that my family was trying to put me in jail on charges which you knew to be false; everyone in my family simply upset that not only could they all go to jail but they might in fact lose all their ill-gotten gains?

Do you think I am so stupid to forget, how after I had managed to flush out my mother with all her lies as well as her attempts to intimidate me even more when not responding directly to my question that talked to them first using you to threaten to intimidate, you then called me up crying your heart out that you had got it "all wrong", and that somehow I was to believe that my mother hadn't put you up to trying to intimidate me, even after she had already been exposed?

So what you are saying is that I simply shouldn't have even bothered emailing you earlier to get you to try and do the right thing and spell it all out clearer than I have in the previous paragraph.

Please do not call or text message me ever again.

More importantly, although I am not an attorney, better yet a prosecutor I can understand evidence, and the evidence is clear of the hand my mother got you to play in threatening to intimidate me, just because I was exposing my family's corruption.

Julia,

Did my mother first call you "out of the blue" to give you a "heads up" that her younger sister, my Aunt Wendy and Wendy's husband, Pete Grande were trying to get me to "shut up" by threatening to use Pete's influence to have me arrested because I went public with their US$2 million fraud?

Second, did my mother, after I confronted her this past Friday in a series of emails, later call you up accusing you of "lying" to me.

Third, what do you think of the fact that in the 7 years we were together, 2 of them married, not once did my mother or her sister, neither of them caring for you, ever call you directly and were now using you, knowing that there is emotional attachment, to do their "dirty work"?

Fourth, what do you think of the fact that this "cover her ass" call to you took place after my mother first refused to answer my simple question, "Do you know anything about my family trying to get me arrested?", instead my mother chose very carefully not to answer my question directly, instead simply stating, "Pete was pissed and wanted to see what his rights were for being harassed and false information you were writing" before then going on to say so very manipulatively, "I want to get together with you! They are very hurt that you turned on them the way you did. They feel they have been there for you and don't know what you want or need from them? Or any of us?"?

Fifth, what do you think now of her follow up call to you, accusing you of "lying" to me, considering the fact that my mother in her first response to me never denied what she had in fact told you?

Sixth, wouldn't you say it is my mother who is now "twisting the facts"?

Seventh, what do you think of the fact that when I responded with, "What false information? And by the way, I don't want anything from you", instead of replying to me, my mother only called you to "cover her ass" by getting you to then call me and say, "I lied, I was just trying to hurt you!"

I feel the need to spell everything out as clearly as possible since there can be no assurance what other criminally desperate moves my corrupt family may try next.

Do you also feel sick to your stomach, especially as you think back after we separated and my aunt Wendy who has been ambivalent towards you, quite different from my mother who wanted to have nothing to do with you, Wendy sitting atop a small fortune of all ill-gotten gains, calls you up to suggest you not return my grandmother's diamond ring and instead use it as leverage to get me to pay?

This shameful behavior of each member of my family must surely have you thinking like me, how much each of them received and/or is now receiving, as they join forces in coming after me, beginning with my mother and father who last spoke at our wedding and prior had not communicated for many years?

Much more importantly than all this boring stuff between you and this other IT is for you to provide me with the timing on the following:

1. A payment schedule to repay all the monies borrowed, beginning with giving me what you believe is the total amount borrowed.
2. A priority of things you have to do in so far as my computer needs are concerned as well as just3ants.com that may go a long way in both you and your IT beginning to stop talking and writing nonsense.

Adam,

I would like to end our marriage amicably. To do so, I am willing to extend an olive branch.

Will you please get my name off your truck. If you are able to do this, I will give you my necklace AND ring as well as forgive you for the debt owed which is upwards of $2500. Please adam, I can't take responsibility for your car payments. I am already swimming in debt. The ring and necklace will help you subsudize the payments.

Please think about this and do the right thing. Just think of how unfair it would be of you to stick me with your problem of the car. You knew I was against it from the get go, and now I'm definitely learning my lesson for agreeing to sign for you.

This is so hurtful, i never knew you were capable of doing this to me or us. I thought you loved me. I believed in us.

I am begging, please just get me off your truck. Ask your mom and give her the ring as a peace offering, i know she would like it back. PLEASE ADAM! Please do this for me.

Thank you,
