Subject: BILLION TIMES CLEARER-MERCI, MERCI

Dear Augusto,

Based on feedback I have now received from all over the world to what I last sent Adam L. Tucker [see email below] I think it is best that I first clarify one rather important point that I thought was very self-explanatory before then getting in to the "knitty gritty" of last night's New Years dinner at When In Rome that turned out to be the most "revealing" I can ever recall experiencing; bearing in mind that not only were both women at our table, Marie and Dotte very appropriately displaying their healthy sexuality but for the first 21 years of my life, shy of one week, I was fortunate to "break bread" with two very intelligent parents who never tolerated nonsense small-talk.

It seems that not every single literate and illiterate human being is aware of the fact that the United States of America makes a point of getting little if any oil from the Middle East that allows US Americans to make it look like we are an "honest peace broker" in that war torn region, all the while importing from South America most of the 4 million barrels of oil we need every day to satisfy our 20 million barrels of oil we consume each and every day while exporting next to nothing to the rest of the world apart from weapons of war.

Moreover, what is much worse about the duplicity of US Americans is the fact that the United States could so very easily have made the US a net exporter of oil were it not for the fact that the United States of America needs to have this excuse of the being the world's policeman, having to protect our strategic interests.

Furthermore, by having a massive military presence not only in the Middle East where the United States has our big guns pointed at the heads of our tyrants in places like Saudi Arabia, Kuwait and Qatar forget for the moment Iraq that we have decimated simply to steal more oil, the US has access to the oil "free of charge" that enables our warships and fighter jets and tanks and humvees to patrol providing the on the ground military muscle that has none of the world's oil tyrants daring to raise the price of oil to where alternatives to oil become feasible and when they do most of those profits end up in the hands of the US controlled oil companies.

What an awesome money-war-money-war perpetual machine US Americans have created thanks in no small measure to The Diamond Invention making US Americans the world's number one terrorist.

BTW, you could understand why Dr. John K. Pollard Jr. who received his copy before heading out the door to pick up Dotte was unusually reserved last night although it is also understandable that his single focus apart from constantly thinking about how smart he has been to be buying gold ever since my very intelligent wife wrote her first email ever on December 31st, 2002 to a group of gold traders that began, "It seems Mr. Gevisser may be on to something", not to mention yet again gold just right at this time beginning an unprecedented climb, rising by some 140%; not to mention that this rise has nothing whatsoever to do with Americans in general investing in gold given how the United States now has a negative savings rate, instead US Americans have been so very fooled to invest in real estate despite all the warning signs beginning with a significantly slowing down population growth and a US Dollar propped up only by the US' military mite which the ingenious Israeli Military intelligence report has now blasted to smithereens.

So what exactly does this all mean for you Peruvians.

First, no one including me should be telling you what to do or how to do it although I think you would agree that I have proven my "bone fides" and therefore to at least consider my suggestions.

Begin by communicating in your own words with everyone you know beginning with those 1,000 or so Peruvian guides, asking them what purpose do they see in accepting from tourists payment in US Dollars apart from it might still prevent corrupt Peruvian elected and non-elected government officials from being assassinated.

Consider putting it to those not yet assassinated Peruvian elected and non-elected government officials that until such time as you have all examined the "concessions" given to foreign corporations including those involving the Blue Train and all the mining rights not a single drop of gas or ounce of precious metal is allowed to leave Peru.

Also feel free to invite me over to Peru if you think my presence would help.

BTW, JoNathan, Marie's 15 year old son after I read back to him what I wrote above, commented, "That is a billion times clearer!" and when I asked whether he was ready to travel with his mom and me to Peru, without hesitation said, "Yes!"

Back to last night's all about changing sex partners dinner conversation bearing in mind I made a point when shown to our table to make very careful note of all the other patrons beginning with those looking like cheap prostitutes who are often times the most highly paid and deadly Mossad agents.

Leading in to this sexually explicit perfect for dinner conversation where how you go about placing the fork in your mouth at the same time spreading your legs is one of the very first tests you would need to pass assuming your focus of attention is to be a very well paid and of course trained to kill in a split second Mossad agent, with Marie providing a brief history of art education over the past century and given how there has been no art education to speak of since Picasso, a very skilled drawer and color artist decided to go for the money since there was so very little good art outside of the ruling elite who saw no benefit in sharing their knowledge with the masses, that explains Marie's briefness although in a matter of minutes she was able to provide our table as well as those listening in with a lesson in art appreciation that had to have uplifted everyone were it not for the fact that pretty much everything of importance apart from "making money" goes in one ear and out the other of the "easily impressed" who of course are the first to get "flushed out" by those who recruit for the Mossad.

I also threw in my two pennies worth of input but failed to make the following 3 points since I didn't want to be in the least bit controversial and start off what is going to be one most awesome year with the overwhelming majority of the patrons including the waiters and Matre D. collapsing in to a heap of tears.

The first point was that in celebrating 2008 for those of us who "live right" and that means more than simply "mouthing the words" this year is going to be outright hell for the rest; not to mention that Dr. John K. Pollard's new girlfriend Dotte reminded us that 2008 is the year of the RAT.

Second, I thought it wise not to make mention even during the partaking of the creamy desserts of either Einstein in 1934 writing as his return address, "Concentration Camp, Princeton" and the fact that a survey of incoming Princeton University freshman in 1938, the same year co-head of the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel, Anglo South African Harry Oppenheimer gave Madison Avenue "an offer they couldn't refuse", produced a result that author Walter Isaacson wrote in his book EINSTEIN, "is now astonishing, and should have been back then as well."

Cutting and pasting from Isaacson's EINSTEIN:

Adolf Hitler polled highest as the "greatest living person". Albert Einstein was second.

Third, you have to be so severely inbred like The IT and/or so over-controlling and therefore thinking yourself godly as you wreck havoc with the precise sequencing of those in your inner circle beginning with your biological children that a corrupt society provides you the "right of way" to do with as you please so long as after murdering their brain cells you don't leave much of a blood trail, not to realize that it was principally the American Nazis who won World War II.

You don't need to even examine how the United States of America bankrolled as well as provided the military support to Israel's enemies starting with Israel's War of Independence to appreciate how so beyond belief stupid you have to be not to get your arms around such an important truth of modern day history.

Just the fact that Hitler was so non-Aryan looking should be enough for anyone to "smell a rat" and then assuming you are not a complete and total imbecile like The IT and his type which includes his typist towering Dawn Castleman, you would then ask yourself who provided this Little Corporal from World War I with just the boot polish for the boots worn by his Brown Shirts beating up and killing Jewish people as early as 1932, let alone build up one most extraordinary Nazi German Military machine that had the western alliance who provided both the funding and resources then having to "playact" as they "played catch-up"?

But that was then and today is now a whole new world with a whole new outlook that allows even the overwhelming of human morons to read all about how and why Hitler got his diamonds by just moving the cursor over the hyperlink below.

<http://www.edwardjayepstein.com/diamond/chap9.htm>

Now look very carefully at this paragraph below that I cut and pasted from Chapter 18, THE AMERICAN CONSPIRACY of The Diamond Invention written by Hollywood blockbuster author, Edward Jay Epstein:

This raised the possibility that the diamond cartel and its allies might have found some way of intervening in the antitrust division. In a previous antitrust case involving the ITT corporation, President Nixon had blatantly attempted to prevent the antitrust division from pressing its suit. On August 4, 1974, the Justice Department received information that the "De Beers organization is a large contributor to both political parties and should this investigation get to a stage where cases were actually filed [the antitrust division] would probably receive much political pressure." The informant also disclosed that one major diamond dealer in New York was in "constant contact" with Harry Oppenheimer and was somehow relaying to him "information on the progress of this antitrust investigation." The diamond dealer in question was further alleged by this source to have "arranged the meeting for Harry Oppenheimer with John Kennedy when Kennedy was President-elect ... at the Carlyle Hotel," and to have served as an intermediary between Oppenheimer and American concerns in a number of deals.

Everything within the quotation marks comes out of US Justice Department files.

In other words the United States Government as well as every interested person in the world would know, as a result of all this information being made available to the general public in the mid-1970s, that it was not only the US Justice Department who knew that President John F. Kennedy was bought and paid for by De Beers, the same with his brother Attorney General of the United States, Senator Robert F. Kennedy, the same with their younger surviving brother, Senator Ted Kennedy.

The Mossad also knew that Harry Oppenheimer's partner, American Charles Engelhard who was in fact the person who arranged this meeting of President elect Kennedy and Harry Oppenheimer, was just 43 years of age and very much alive at the time, only laid to rest on March 2nd 1971 at St. Mary's Abby Church in Morris Town, two words, New Jersey, age 54 after being poisoned by the Mossad.

<http://www.nextraterrestrial.com/pdf/Charles%20Engelhard%20-%20funeral.htm>

Edward Jay Epstein also knew that Engelhard who first set up this so revealing meeting at the Carlyle Hotel in New York City between Harry Oppenheimer and JFK when JFK and his wife Jackie visited with him and Harry Oppenheimer at Engelhard's Camp Chaleur estate in Quebec, Canada, was very much alive when following this awesome display of arrogance by De Beers, JFK then placed his left hand on the bible, raised his right hand and then swore to uphold the law of the United States of America and there is nothing more sacrosanct when it comes to the "free enterprise system" than our Anti-Trust/Anti-Competition/Anti-Monopolies/Anti-Price Fixing laws.

Right now Marie is speaking French to her mother Rachelle who is in Montreal, Quebec, "Merci, Merci", just now finishing off and when she is finished with the call I will propose that we make love the rest of the day.

Marie just handed JoNathan the phone and he is now speaking to his grandmother and Marie is having to prompt him, "Ask her how she is doing?"

What do you think about when going to Lima to check that everything is fine with Carlos' head you drop by the Israeli Embassy and see if you can get a meeting with the Israeli Ambassador who may be different to the one I met in early 2002 when first visiting Peru, and to have both the Ambassador as well as all the staff to read out aloud this email with of course the appropriate edits as well as what I sent Adam L. Tucker last evening just as we were headed out the door.

The Israeli Ambassador is the one in the center wearing the tie.

Marie now saying, "It is time for a walk!"

Subject: We have to drop Jonathan at a party in Carlsbad. You will need to make your own way to when in Rome. Now think of the following.

Why is it important to people as far away as Peru, Bolivia, Brazil, Venezuela that the military power of the Middle East is the one issuing the clearest, shortest Military Intelligence report of all time going back to the beginning of time that spells total doom for the US economy even if Al Quaida continues to avoid attacking the oil fields of Saudi Arabia, Kuwait and Qatar, thus biting the hands that feeds the United States of America's front line terrorist organization?

Second, why is it important to US Americans to understand that there is absolutely nothing they we can do short of revolution to prevent the total collapse of the US economy given how the US has lost not only the high moral ground but has today a 3rd rate military whose technological prowess is highly questionable given how easy it is to transfer technology by disgruntled American service people who are now waking up to how very used and abused they have been for more than a century, fighting for elitists with no loyal to country or religion, certainly not the spread of freedom and democracy?

Not to mention the Israelis and the Chinese, the Jews of the Orient continue to set the scholastic levels wherever they go.

You start a fire in one oil region of the world, the Middle East happens to be the largest producer of oil, and that region of the world where you get your oil, south America, has to abide by the price fixed by OPEC whose oil price is first price fixed by diamond drilling bits, the exclusive property of De Beers financed by American bankers who at the same time, at the turn of the century financed the American led 8 Allied Invasion of China where all the gold not harvested was stolen as well as the Anglo Boer War of 1899-1902, the same year the successor to De Beers founder,

Cecil Rhodes, a homosexual with a bent towards a Secret Society, arrived in South Africa.

Ernest Oppenheimer's son Harry later forged an alliance with American Charles Engelhard who inherited from his father who started Engelhard Minerals and Chemicals headquartered in Newark, New Jersey, the title, Platinum King.

Now come back to precisely what Israeli intelligence officer Keren at the Office of the Israeli Department of Defense Attache at the Israeli Embassy in Washington, DC, sent me on November 19th.

Mr. Gevisser,
Please send me a SHORT, CLEAR e-mail of what it is that you need from us.
If it wasn't clear until now, our department, the Defense and Military Attache is responsible for US-Israel Military and Department of Defense relations.
If you will be clear I might be able to help you.
Until now, after several e-mails and phone calls I still don't understand what it is that you need.
If you will not be clear and short I will have no choice but referring your name to our security office.
All the best,
Keren

Keren, you will recall, knew ahead of time exactly what it is that I needed from them, the Defense and Military Attache responsible for US-Israel Military and Department of Defense relations.

Keren, went on just enough to let me know I was on "solid ground" when stating clearly, "If you will be clear I might be able to help you."

Keren, then went on as if she was about to write a book,

If you will be clear I might be able to help you.
Until now, after several e-mails and phone calls I still don't understand what it is that you need.
If you will not be clear and short I will have no choice but referring your name to our security office.
All the best,
Keren

Do you think Keren looks in the least bit stupid bearing in mind that you will recall her first words when seeing me kneeling pointing an Israeli semi-automatic rifle that I looked like I was 6 years old?

Do you think Keren's bosses do not see the connection between the Kuwaiti Royal family not allowing Starbucks to open a single shop in Israel and Kuwait featuring as prominently as China in this one of a kind ingenious Military Intelligence report that spells total doom for the United States of America and why both the US military should get smart and "stand down" and the US Congress should step down.
