Subject: RE: [IfAmerKnew] Effort to Censor If Americans Knew

Hello,

I have "taken the trouble", mostly "interfering" with one most extraordinary fog-lit sunset here on the bluffs of Del Mar, California to read as much material about you as I possibly could; bearing in mind that although you have a Wikipedia "mention" it won't take you very long to understand exactly why I have such an extraordinary large "footprint" on the Internet and yet you have never heard my name mentioned in "The News" or my very good name appearing in any major newspaper.

The hyperlink below takes you to my most recent heavily broadcasted communiqué that of course was sent to both the Mossad as well as Israeli Military Intelligence who I am quite certain need no introduction.

Suffice to say there are in fact other intelligence services who also know exactly what it is that I am doing as well as how I am doing it and while their "top dogs" may take issue with me, one of the "problems" they as well as those crooks out there quite satisfied with the "status quo", have to deal with is the truth that to begin with, US Americans and British, in not having an "official" military draft suggests that our kids in military uniform, brutally terrorizing the poor of the world sitting atop mineral riches that we want, all in preparing for our lawyers to follow closely behind declaring out loud, "We are a nation of laws, the rule of law is supreme, blah blah", are doing nothing more than exercising their "free will" to demonstrate their "love of country" and the such, and should anyone dare suggest that economics has anything to do with our western world's "economic draft" then they should be labeled, at a minimum, a "revolutionary".

REVOLUTION

The serfs up!

Neil Graham Gevisser

You should understand perfectly well that the American Government and the British Crown are one and the same; the only difference is the language along with the fact that at the turn of the last century the British electorate were "up in arms" with the atrocities perpetrated by the British Crown in cahoots with De Beers-Cecil Rhodes in the American financed Anglo Boer War of 1899-1902 which simply resulted in the world's ruling elite finding a more "artful" way to continue their wars of stealing the mineral riches as in, "Who owns the gold makes the rules".

The "breakdown" in the classical training required in order to produce a good oil painting was in fact brought about by the of the artists of the time such as well classical trained artist Picasso who could in fact draw, deciding to, in "breaking with the church", again in cahoots with the ruling elite, to "go for the money" while creating what is known as "modern art" that has no "gauge" apart from peoples' "feelings" and along came the bankers and their mints designing all sorts of colorful, eye catching monies that the brain dead masses could deliberate on ad-nausea, enough to give anyone with just the most basic common sense a migraine; leading to what we have today which is everyone who has too much time on their hands the result of having masterfully stolen legally now calling themselves an "artist", enough to make you vomit?

Feeling money currency especially when it has artful designs does make the discombobulated masses feel good, at least for the moment but not quite as good as if they had the gold, warm to the touch, and just the "right weight"; moreover gold that is non-corrosive is also non-reproducible.

Now remember you have totally forgotten about good oil paintings until I just mentioned it.

I have very "purposefully" taken you on a rather brief Educational Light Journey; bearing in mind that you still can't quite get out of your mind why I would carbon versus blind copy Israeli Military Intelligence as well as the Mossad while realizing that blind copied is a statistically valid sampling of the world's crooked population who have the money and therefore in a position to dictate what is and what is not art, let alone good art, which doesn't mean they have any class, far from it, and which I can prove beyond a shadow of a doubt beginning by sharing with me the email address of anyone you know who thinks they have made their great wealth honestly and also are smart enough to know not to own a single piece of modern art.

I happen to be a most pragmatic "trader" coming from a long line of traders who was also fortunate to be raised by a most brilliant mother who never told me what to do or how to do it, along with my father who took direction rather well from my mother apart from when they played golf together which may have ended after their first game together when my father would have this most annoying habit of telling you exactly where to putt the ball on the green and the fact that he was always right made it that much more excruciating annoying especially for those very few of us like my mother and me who were allowed from the youngest of age to fly free and high.

BTW my mother was a rather good golfer and so was I, birdies on the first 3 holes after I took lessons with the pro at the Brentwood Country club in west Los Angeles, and then deciding to "toss it all in" since I realized that it appeared that I was "showing off" to prospective clients.

I understand that for "sum" [sic] reason you have been banned from speaking your mind about some Arab-Israeli issue and are quite upset.

I would be interested to hear a capsulated version of your thoughts, preferable if you could keep it to no more than 3 very short sentences.

As you may have already realized I not only know how to read the most ingenious military intelligence reports but I also know exactly how to produce the most ingenious military intelligence reports.

You would also understand that it makes little sense for me to try and deny that I had nothing directly to do with the ingenious Israeli Military report which you can read all about on www.just3ants.com but what you cannot escape and which is SIGNIFICANTLY more important is the fact that neither the Mossad nor Israeli Military intelligence have taken issue with me being the only "civilian" as well as non-civilian in the world to have broadcasted this most important publication.

BTW it is not everyone's mother who was the first "civilian" in to the captured territories of the Sinai immediately following the 6 Day Arab-Israeli War of June 1967 and then some 6 months later had their youngest son, me, "in training".

China has everything to fear with the upcoming Beijing Olympic Games and another reason why China features so very prominently in this again most ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence report of all time; bearing in mind that I was in China back in the spring of 1989 when Israelis were just beginning to visit in droves.

Not to mention the last thing western "price fixers" wanted to see were the hard working Chinese embracing their "merit system" past that has its strong roots in Confucius teachings.

You would also by now be more understanding of why it is that you nor anyone you "respect" or don't respect has heard of me given how you would know that my Royal Mater-Mother Zena Gevisser made the very tough decision to have me educated in Nazi Apartheid South Africa while letting me know, "The Tallest Trees make the most wind" but "the moment you turn 21 you are free to decide whatever you want" always remembering her smart words, "If you are not part of the solution then you are part of the problem".

Once you get your arms around the fact that you haven't in all your years given much thought to how it would be possible with the Allies having defeated Nazi Germany in 1945 and then 3 years later the most heinous, the most brutally repressive regime in the history of the world takes root some 3 years later in South Africa sitting atop the world's richest resources including gold, platinum and uranium, so you should, assuming your ego isn't out of control go very, quiet, and then tell me how you think you can help me get an even bigger footprint on the Internet.

Bear in mind I understand rather well the algorithms of the internet search engines and therefore I shouldn't have to explain as well why it is that time is on my side and not with those on the side of the DAAC, De Beers-Anglo American Cartel who interfere with the light but increasingly less so.

BTW, I would assume you have watched this BBC series which I plan on watching this evening. Even if you have, you may now want to view it again with a much clearer "set of eyes" as you don't forget for one moment the 3 Branches of the US Government in cahoots with the British Crown providing the brute Nazi military strength to the South African Apartheid Regime that of course just one Israeli Special Forces unit made up of less than 30 commandos could have wiped out in all of 30 minutes, max; but in the very next instant their replacement would have been that much more brutal, no different to the western powers in choosing the nothing Little Corporal Hitler sent us Jewish people, the few who could think, the clearest signal possible, that this failed artist painter, so very non-Aryan's replacement would be significantly more efficient in the commitment of the ruling elite to exterminate all truth seekers beginning with us Jewish people who don't buy that easily in to "blind faith" certainly not when it comes to our corrupt human leadership counting on the brainwashed masses to abide "By divine right we rule".

Not to mention, you recall how even you who is not Israeli military intelligence trained thought it so very "stupid" that Hitler who should have put his name at the top of the list of the first non-Aryan to be gassed at Auschwitz would defy his great military commanders and instead of crossing the English Channel and taking London in no time decided to follow in the footsteps of Napoleon and attack Russia in their brutal winter, thus extending the war crimes against mostly us Jewish people.

Again, I have yet to watch this BBC series but I understand from a close colleague that in the first series it refers to "Business Men" that pressured the German government to appoint Hitler to Chancellor.

Time for dinner and to give thanks for another great day.

Dear friends,

We thought you would want to know about the latest distressing effort to censor discussion on Israel-Palestine.

A small group of people have pressured the Greenwich Library (CT) to cancel two upcoming talks on "Israel-Palestine: Beyond the Headlines," by Alison Weir. These had been scheduled since January and have been advertised in local newspapers.

We are challenging this highly inappropriate and probably illegal decision. In addition, apparently a number of people have begun to phone the library asking that they allow the events to go forward as scheduled.

Below is a press release with additional information.

A group of local citizens is challenging the decision by some officials at the Greenwich Library to cancel two upcoming talks that had been in the works since January.

The presentations are entitled "Israel-Palestine: Beyond the Headlines," and were to be given by Alison Weir, a media critic and former journalist who has traveled throughout the West Bank and Gaza. Weir is executive director of If Americans Knew, a nonprofit organization that specializes in media analysis.

According to library officials, after an advertisement announcing the talks ran in local papers, the library received some phone calls and emails from people complaining. The library director, assistant director, and president of the board of trustees then decided to cancel it, determining that it would violate "public sensitivities." Officials refuse to say how many people contacted them, stating only "some were old friends."

"This is absolutely ridiculous," says event organizer John McGillion, of Hunting Ridge Road. "It is my right as a citizen of Greenwich to hold an event at the library. Allowing people to censor a program is outrageous and illegal. The whole point of a library is to promote open exchange of ideas."

McGillion states that "Ms. Weir has spoken all over the country – at Harvard Law School, the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, Stanford, Vassar, you name it. She's given two briefings on Capitol Hill and spoken to various think tanks and international conferences. We're lucky to have her."

McGillion considers the decision "unethical, hasty and illogical." He says, "First of all, censoring a program violates their own professional ethics. The American Library Association Bill of Rights is absolutely clear on this. It says: 'Libraries which make exhibit spaces and meeting rooms available to the public they serve should make such facilities available on an equitable basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of individuals or groups requesting their use.'

"Furthermore, even if it were permissible to screen out certain content, which it's not, how in the world did library officials think they had any idea what the 'public sensitivities' of Greenwich citizens are? Think about it logically: 99 percent of the people are probably happy or neutral that the program is going to take place. Only the one percent who oppose it would bother to pick up the phone."

As word has gotten out about the cancellation, the library has begun receiving numerous calls in favor of the talk being held as scheduled.

McGillion says that since the decision to cancel was made quickly, without consulting library trustees or the public, he considers it "temporary."

"As far as I'm concerned," he says, "the program will go on. We will be at the library Thursday and Saturday and Ms Weir will give the talk she was invited to Greenwich to give. Then the people of Fairfield County can evaluate the information for themselves, without a small number of partisans denying them this opportunity."

ADVERTISEMENT TEXT:

"Ms. Weir presents a powerful, well documented view of the Middle East today. She is intelligent, careful, and critical. American policy makers would benefit greatly from hearing her first-hand observations and attempting to answer the questions she poses. This is an intellectual, thought-provoking, and worthwhile presentation."
