I will call you around 2pm our time or try me on the cell or home line 858-481-1750.

Marie + I just got back from a walk at Torrey Pines, Marie not in the least bit whining says, "not this weekend as much as it would be fun to go skiing..."

Give thought to me now explaining to Joseph, a very competent sbc-AT&T technician who has sorted out our internet connection problems at the cliff house, why Mr. Bernanke of the Federal Reserve gave each and every crook on Wall Street a US$60 billion "Xmess" [sic] gift, all on the backs of hard working people like himself of both Japanese and Filipino.

BTW Marie agreed last night at a fancy party in Rancho Sante Fe where she introduced me as, "He takes care of my multiple needs" that I could include her last name in my name.

Not to mention those 6 thoughtful words go a long way in stopping conversations that lead not just to www.just3ants.com but right now the 3rd headline "De Beers - Remember me?"

What would you do for a living were Augusto and Alvaro to continue seeing each other as the enemy?

What would you do for a living were Augusto and Alvaro were to get smart and at least ask every college student aged person visiting Peru how they can afford even a pot to pee in as I share my knowledge of corruption along with a list of names of all those who not only have knowledge of their own corruption but exactly when they became fully aware of such corruption?

Isn't this the most interesting times to be alive?

Thank you once again for increasing the circle of those dependent upon my insight and analysis of the important event of the day.

Gold last trading at US$721.20
