Subject: Once again, you are not the only one very slow to react.

You remember Tefo as well as Augusto whose lack of deficit needs, relatively speaking, places them at a significant advantage; and when you add the fact that they are both not only alive and well but understand rather well that the corrupt US Government representing only big corrupt business interests has not managed to embroil the whole world in war, let alone steal all the world's precious mineral resources including those still buried under the soil of places like South Africa, Peru and China, then you must be thinking that much more carefully about how smart it is to be so very slow to react and delay your meeting with President Bush.

It is a very significant event when a quadriplegic such as Michael who has so much time to research why he has such a warped-comfortable view of the world can pull together such carefully thought through words, "THAT'S GOOD; LET'S LEAVE CHINA TO TAKE CARE OF CHINA" without a care in the world to the fact that the awesomely smart Peoples Republic of China have been subsidizing his round-the-clock care for some 36 years.

How difficult is it unless one is suffering from "Poverty of Thought" to figure out that if the US Government were forced to have Michael's care-giver Joey compete in the real world; moreover on a level playing field where the US military's big guns would not be allowed, Joey would earn barely enough to afford a pot to pee in let alone take care of Michael's many medical needs which he and he alone was responsible for incurring the result of him so very recklessly having fun without quite obviously a care in the world.

Again, the very day that Michael broke his neck, the United States Government went officially off the Gold Standard, August 15th, 1971, a very significant turning point in the enslaving of the world's hard working peoples including US hard working Americans not having a clue about what it meant to no longer have Gold backing the Almighty US Dollar, instead our increasingly out-of-control military-industrial-complex which General Eisenhower right before leaving the Oval Office in January 1961 pulled out all stops to warn not just US Americans but the entire world.

It is very possible that the very day President Eisenhower was broadcasting his most famous speech from the White House the incoming President, President elect John F. Kennedy was meeting at the Carlyle Hotel located on the upper east end of New York City, with mafia of mafia don, Anglo South African Harry Oppenheimer, the co-head of the De Beers Anglo American Cartel while Harry's partner, American Charles Engelhard was laughing his head off at this most extraordinary scene that spelled out picture perfect the extent of the systemic corruption of American politics.

Michael and Joey are not alone in having no clue about the truth only because they choose very carefully and of course so very arrogantly to ignore this and other very significant rather recent historical events including the secret mission of Kissinger to China in August 1971, again the very same month and year the US went officially off the Gold Standard, in order to have China "pick up the slack" and serve US Americans who still had the world's biggest guns and not afraid to use them in enslaving the rest of the world.

By this time not only was American Charles Engelhard dead from poisoning but the US-De Beers-Cartel Government knew perfectly well that the US couldn't possibly win the Vietnam War despite up against a whole bunch of farmers not suffering, however, from alcoholism, other mind altering drugs, and decades of big government entitlement programs taking away individual responsibility.

You also know that were something to happen to either me or Marie prior to the US Congress "stepping down" and the US Military "standing down" given how they will be utterly decimated in either a conventional or nuclear war, you would have much blood on your hands given how much Knowledge-Information-Light I have shared with you over the years.

As Nero fiddled Rome burned.

You are most likely unaware of whether a US service person has yet “turned” knowing how very poorly they are paid to prop up the lifestyles of the world’s so very lazy filthy rich who have been having such extraordinary “fun and games” relying on the likes of Michael and Joey to do their bidding.

Yes, these “emotional purse strings” are not quite the “tear jerkers” they used to be especially if one had sufficient a conscience to place oneself in the shoes of the likes of Tefo and Augusto who would mostly likely know of innocent and mindful individuals who were targets of assassins let loose by the CIA and Co. to administer biological weapons developed in conjunction with the United States of America’s South African Apartheid Regime.

How much of the US$9 per hour that Joey earns to take care of reckless and loose with his tongue Michael do you think should be given to the victims of these US Government sponsored assassins?

You will note that I am broadcasting my “insight and analysis” of the day, choosing very carefully who to both carbon and blind copy, all the while enjoying the beauty of God’s presence here at the perfect temperature Stone Home, the sun shining bright.

Take as much time as you want in responding but don’t assume I think it worth my while to respond at all as you make the conscious decision to keep feathering your nest egg using my so very prescient timing.

Not to mention you also understand much better today why The IT chose to introduce Marie’s very carefully crafted will into evidence on October 24th, 2002 after he had illegally entered my proprietary database; such a will spelling out both for the IT and their “tTOo” [sic] kids how much Marie distrusted her very sick ex-husband who decided to send one final “poison tipped arrow” her way when not only reading her so very easy to understand CLEAR, SHORT 7 provision will, but looking at the chronology of events that led to her getting this one-of-a-kind will witnessed on January 3rd, 2002, the very day those “shorting” the shares of the multinational water conglomerate Vivendi who owned Universal Pictures at the time, began to reap the benefits of the precipitous US$63 billion collapse of Vivendi and its 63% owned sister public corporation Vivendi Environmental; the IT fully knowing, ahead of introducing the will that was totally irrelevant to the proceedings, that Judge Hendrix was going to be ruling against him for having so maliciously filed a baseless criminal complaint against me, intended to murder both my very good name as well as my wife Marie Dion.

The fact that their two children choose not to search for the truth lest it interfere with their "play time" and not to forget all their "sports of choice" doesn't "rule out" the record of what exactly The IT, the slimeball of slimeball was attempting to do when letting Marie Dion Gevisser and me know that he could care less what the world thought about him just so long as he was able to hold on to enough money to co-opt-corrupt his two children who also understood rather well that they were not going to inherit a "king's ransom" from their mother or me who knew better than to make anyone other than Pypeetoe our co-dependants.

At the present time, The IT has to be thinking very carefully his next move, the same with the two children who understand perfectly well that their multi-million dollar trust funds are not going to be handed over to them anytime soon and even when The IT is dead; and of course the good and so smart and vengeful Lord is having him rot away in hell which is only here on this most awesome planet Mother Earth for all those who usurp their limited authority.

It is not necessarily smart for The IT to think it smart that he will be able "rule from the grave" by placing in charge of their Trust Funds people such as King Golden Jr. Esq. who along with his wife Sarah continue to visit with The IT, no doubt looking for their handouts as well as hoping to cover their tracks that go back to that so eventful day of September 8th, 2002, JoNathan's 10th birthday party when after The It failed to get me to take up his gauntlet, exit my parked vehicle and engage him in a fist fight, he was forced to resort to all sorts of ugly name calling and when this non-athlete of non-athletes finally ran out of breath, you of course remember me telling you how I had to duck his spitting, not to mention yet again all that come looking stuff on the edges of his so foul mouth, The IT blurted out in the presence of Marie who had come running to find out what all the commotion was about, "Tell him I do not have poor eyesight" followed in the next breath, "Even King and King's friend Roger Robinson consider Gary a threat".

<http://nextraterrestrial.com/pdf/Time%20with%20friends.htm>

And you don't have to take my word for it that with one hand tied behind my back I could have very easily delivered a sufficiently accurate and powerful blow to this coward of cowards, bully of bullies that has so extraordinarily interfered with the sequencing of his "tTOo" [sic] children simply opting for his blackened handed monies and then "sum", making him a quadriplegic.

Us "backpack carrying Jewish people" don't have much of a problem remembering who exactly were responsible for executing the pogroms that wiped out the likes of my great maternal grandmother's entire immediate family or those that incited these "Poverty of Thought" individuals to do their bidding.

Elitists not "illegals" are the source of all the world's problems and they come in all sorts of shapes and sizes, and all have the common bonding of believing in this "By Divine Right we rule".

Roger W. Robinson I certainly hope will live just as long as Michael the quadriplegic says he will, until their 90s were it not, however, for all their prior very poor eating habits that coupled with a lifetime of denial would shorten the onset of Lou "Gerhards"

[sic] decease, you think?

You haven't forgotten that despite my very "active" lifestyle that includes taking on the biggest and the world's smallest crooks all at the same time, I am very much alive and well and the same applies to all the increasingly small group of The IT's supporters who also cannot forget how not long after Marie Dion Gevisser wrote The IT an email telling him not to interfere with JoNathan's surfing with his friends, The IT ended up having to have emergency eye surgery that now has him sidelined from ever again entering salt water which of course didn't prevent JoNathan from choosing so very poorly when his one friend Patrick was subjected to the most brutal 30 second water dunking by another and much bigger bully, JoNathan thinking that to break the fin of the bully would be a sufficient price as the bully made Patrick pay heavily for Patrick having, without being provoked, taunted the bully in the first place.

It's a wonderful thing these emails that allow each of us all the time in the world to prepare and respond to when we so desire as we also know "deafening silences" speak volume.
