Subject: GOLD LAST TRADING AT US$960.10 - Barack Obama - the devil's spawn.

Dear Mr Hankey,

Right now I am lying with my head up against the headboard in my wife's and my love filled king size bed surrounded by what we, who know a thing or "tTOo" [sic] about the difference between fine art, the very little that there is out there, and arts and crafts, consider to be some of the greatest if not the greatest oil paintings of all time, watching ahead as the surf in the perfectly lit Pacific Ocean rolls in that has me thinking if only I was a little taller on my wave ski I would get that much more of bird's eye view to position myself that much better on the takeoff, and to think that just some 10 hours back I was walking along the bluffs of heavily corrupt Del Mar, California with our 92-year young of mind car-house designer friend, Gene Requa and his one 40-year old friend as close as it gets to committing suicide, his 22 year old Korean wife still married to another American living in Seattle, Washington, flirting over the internet with guys closer to her age who are sending her gifts including panties and to top it off he is totally broke, his landscaping business far better off in bankruptcy as he generates some US$1600 in revenue per month and the Mexican he employs costing him US$2,400.

Not to mention that without divulging names I think it might help for you to hear what my very articulate in the math, French as well as English wife recently said that resulted in this one John last responding, "Well said":

This is ugly John!

So is John Kincaid a form of commercial art. Don't confuse fine arts with arts and crafts. If you are such a skilled artist why would you put it on a skilsaw blade?

I hope I am not insulting you but I cannot relate to this, other than on a very superficial way.

I think you are testing me.

Maybe it will help you better understand what I am trying to do by taking a look at a draft of an article I am pulling together:

The interest in the arts has suffered in the last 100 years or so, stepping away from the classic training.

Art is the foundation of a rich culture.

Written arts, music as well as paintings is a testament of evolution.

Art is necessary to foster creativity in humankind and it is only through knowledge-education that we continue this endeavor.

Through history the depth of a culture has been defined with its involvement with the arts.

The only way to get this depth is through the sharing of knowledge-information.

It is all about knowledge-education-learning.

I thought you might be curious. If one searches "Saw Blade Art" there are 2400 listings. It is apparently a very popular and inexpensive niche of Pop Art. A form of Toll Art. I thought the mountain cabin scene would look neat on the wall of your mountain cabin.

John

This is Linda's site. http://www.mountaincrafts.net/category/.saw_blade_art/

She gives a great deal of information on how they are created. e.g., She produces them in multiples and so cannot use Acrylic paints because they dry before she can return to the head of the line and add the next color.

We are planning to use them in Clock faces. She also supplies the finished clocks in many forms while her husband prepares the blades and does the related woodwork.

I am not ready for the skill saw just yet. First I will try the Chiro tomorrow. Don't give Gary any ideas. You could be an accomplice if they trace back the blade.

Who wants to hear either bad news or about anyone other than a carefully designated Hollywood celebrity like Ron Burkle "living the life of Riley", although it won't take you very long after reading along for just a few more paragraphs wanting to know clearly and precisely, less said the better, how I invest my hard earned and non-blackened handed monies beginning when I first earned no more than gas-petrol money when appearing in ice skating shows starting out back in 1965 when just 7 years of age?

BTW have you ever thought of jumping over a single 18 inch high barrel on ice let alone as many as 7 and when falling on more than two handful of occasions most times ending up in the front row seats, then have to pick yourself up, get back on the ice, rearrange the barrels and go around again and if falling again, and too exhausted, forget embarrassed, just wait at the edge of the ice for the music to end and then walk back all alone to the dressing room and crying very quietly; and on those occasions when either your mom or dad are waiting just a handful of steps in from the view of the crowd, can't wait to have them put their arm around you, no need to make it that much worse with a hug, without them being so very stupid to say a word?

Not to mention that both my parents were extraordinarily busy people who "fetched and carried" me and my elder sister Kathy-Louise who was in one, possibly two ice-shows along with me, to every performance, all the while making time when not visiting with heads of state like Pandit Nehru of India where they were his private guests for two weeks, to venture out at midnight where my Royal Mater would be the lead person manning the phones at Suicide Anonymous.

It is now 7:46 AM Pacific Standard Time and my wife's 15-year old "living to surf" son has just arisen and made his way to the front of our studio home perched atop the bluffs and is now looking out the two oversized front windows at the surf which is relatively small when compared to the last several days and now deciding without saying a word and with his very comfortable colorful handmade duvet to cuddle up in the one very comfortable reclining Italian black leather chair and like me just enjoy this most awesomely beautiful scene unfolding of God who Art in Heaven.

And within moments of feeling like you have died and gone to heaven you must be thinking like me of all those holed up in places like Baghdad void of the basic necessities, the smell of gasoline generators that is a whole lot better to fathom than the smell of burning flesh that along with the smell of sewage in open sewer lines in our so many carefully orchestrated refugee camps throughout the world has you now wondering to yourself what, assuming there is a God, did this one-of-a-kind most vengeful Supernatural Force have in mind when creating our goddam awful species so very out of touch?

It is interesting this "game of life" that like the game of chess is getting your opponent to play to your advantage has us not every day thinking why the most important muscle in the body, the brain, all chemistry that translates back into the science into the math the most precise and therefore most spiritual of all the languages, concluding that the mind is the first indicator of the Supernatural, is housed behind a hard as rock skull that we all know can do irreparable damage when simply shaken at least equal to a blow from the outside but none more damaging, hence the brain so obscured, from the "word blows" and worst of all the deafening silences coming first from one's highly manipulative parents-grandparents who have been so poorly conditioned to believe that their children are through some "Act of God" rather than say an "Act of Congress" to "toy with".

It still probably doesn't bother you all that much to have read as much as you have without yet knowing my agenda, all the while not able to get out of your head those you see in the carbon copy section, let alone most likely not having heard of me, and I certainly haven't heard of you although someone on my email list that represents a statistically valid sampling of the world's literate population forwarded me your communication below that says in a nutshell that even if one is vehemently opposed to Hilary Clinton one should pull out all stops to get her elected in the interests of preventing another stooge like Jimmy Carter or Adolf Hitler coming in to power and bulldozing the entire world in to a genocide only referred to in certain Bible scenes.

Moreover, you wouldn't be in the least bit surprised that even before I met with David Ben Gurion, the head of Israel's Mossad, the most wired and brutal intelligence institute, back on November 1st, 1972, there were those in my "inner circle" who paid very careful attention to what I had to say beginning with my highly influential and worldly Royal Mater-Mother who was from well before I was born on March 24th, 1957 a household name in South Africa and much more importantly when Zena Rosland Ash Gevisser began visiting Israel, "from the earliest days of 1949, two and three times a year writing reports for different publications" she did not arrive at Ben Gurion-Lod Airport "incognito".

In other words, while it is true that "the apple doesn't fall far from the tree" and equally true that no son or daughter should suffer for "the sins of their father-mother" I was fortunate to have both a mother and father who allowed me to "fly free and high" from the youngest of age beginning by both of them but in particular my mother, letting me know that neither she nor my amazing Allied fighter-bomber-pilot with 71 odd missions dive-bombing the crap out of the De Beers Nazi bastards were God who was the only one to be trusted emphatically.

Not to mention the very first fiction story my Royal mater told me involved a young kid coming of age when his father implored him to jump from high up in a tree into his hands and after the most haunting experience that had the father taunting the kid repeatedly to not be such a "pussy" and to trust his father, causing the kid to breakdown in to the most gut wrenching crying frenzy, the kid eventually jumps and lands on the ground following the decision by the father to simply fold his hands.

Let me assure you that neither Israeli Military Intelligence or the Mossad forwarded to me your utter nonsense despite the fact that you have many important facts "down pat" beginning with your very accurate reference to the power of the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel although you don't come close to expressing their true almost omnipotent "Money Power" which I began to "get wind of" not long prior to arriving on a 4 month Ulpan at Kibbutz Sde Boker located near Beersheba in Negev Desert, Israel back on September 1st, 1972 some 3 odd days prior to DAAC sponsored PLO terrorists beginning to brutally murder 11 defenseless Israeli athletes at the MUNIch Olympics.

Moreover, by the time I met my parents close friend Deputy Chief of Israel Air Force, Boris Senior at a coffee shop in Dizingoff Circle, Tel-Aviv just a "hop-skip-and-a-scotch" [sic] from Hayakon Street where many a Mossad agent got their grounding in how to please the so easy to please male species, I had already "passed the grade" to join any of Israel's most brutal Special Forces units including the beyond belief brutally competent Israel Air Force now preparing for a final show down with the United States should the United States decide to act militarily on that ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence report which you can only access on my one website, www.just3ants.com.

Bear in mind that another of my parents close friends was gay fighter-bomber-pilot Leslie Shagam who according to my Royal Mater got kicked out of the brutal Israeli Air Force because he was considered a "security risk" that resulted in uncle Leslie moving to London where he established a "safe house", the London's Traveler's Club, my Royal Mater's favorite "hangout" in London where we were afforded the basement suite with our own TV which was a big deal, at least to me, since at the time we did not have TV in South Africa, waking up at the crack of dawn long before the highly anti-Semitic BBC began broadcasting, most content to look at the static images.

that has another photo of me passing through the airport in Zurich superimposed you can see me watching this British singer, who I think is Tom Jones but the name Engelbert Humperdinck also comes to mind.

By The Way, the photo below is not, I believe, the American Charles Engelhard but another gentleman by the last name Engelhard who was in my father and Syd Cohen's Squadron II [Eleven] during World Oil War II who crashed his Kittyhawk fighter-bomber on takeoff.

Not to mention that American Charles Engelhard the co-inventor-conspirator of the Diamond Invention was married in 1947 to Jane Engelhard who produced no male heirs.

TIME, Sept. 26, 1994

By Melissa August, Peter Bailey, Elizabeth L. Bland and Umesh Kher

To mention little of this mafia of mafia kingpin assassinated by the Mossad at the relatively young age 54, buried on March 2nd 1971 at St. Mary's Abby Church, Morris Town, New Jersey, first journeyed to South Africa in the late 1940s.

To mention in passing that when my uncle David Gevisser, my father's first cousin and very close and "lucky friend" of my Royal Mater's who was always well received in Hong Kong, China, became the executor of Charles Engelhard's estate immediately following the burial that drew the likes of Senator Ted Kennedy, former President Lyndon Johnson and Vice President Humphrey, my uncle Dave was now overseeing an extraordinarily mineral rich estate that included being the "control person" of the DAAC which controlled the world supply of platinum.

BTW part of the delay in getting out this heavily broadcasted communiqué is the fact that I am working at the same time on two other emails; one to President George W. Bush who I can assure you is mostly focused right now on the Chinese government's reaction to the decision by our International Monetary Fund to offload some 500 tons of gold stolen mostly in more recent times from my homeland of South Africa which you can soon access by clicking on the first hyperlink below; and the second, to Courtney Portell of the women's fashion design label, Derek Lam which you can access by clicking on the second hyperlink below; bearing in mind that this communiqué as well as you will soon find on my blog at just3ants.com

Suffice to say as I am now reminded of how very distracted I was earlier by my so very sexy wife getting dressed at the crack of dawn for a meeting she is having in Rancho Sante Fe about a half hour's drive away, as she flashed me her patented most beautiful smile, before then turning away ever so slightly that had me not only panting that much harder but almost falling out of bed to when stretching my neck to see more into the multi-mirrored bathroom area, that each and every member of the DAAC would, if you were invited into a closed door session of those again at the very top of the socio-economic DAAC pyramid, give you at a minimum a "pat on the back" but not much more for your extraordinarily good "smokescreen".

And of course you would be most grateful even if they didn't reimburse you for the cost of your travel and accommodation including of course meals and drinks to get you to attend a one-of-a-kind gathering that very few outsiders get invited to for very good reason beginning with the fact that the DAAC have done a magnificent job of laying the foundations of their Secret Society going back to the turn of the last century when De Beers founder Cecil Rhodes willed it in his first will which you can investigate as well at your leisure.

For the first time in some 10 days my one-of-a-kind also so very wildly funny French-Canadian wife again with a smile and laugh to die for, smiled and laughed following a harrowing fall she took a few miles from our stone home deep inside the Cleveland National Forest, it taking me who was traversing a very steep and loose rock mountain a good 30 seconds to get to her, being ever so careful not to slip when the 40 or so meter fall below could easily break my neck, knowing that there was the possibility just from the two deep "Ughs" I heard that she could be very seriously hurt including coming away being either a paraplegic or quadriplegic even though she was at ground-water level traversing one of many boulders she has encountered often on our many hikes in this awesome spot, but very treacherous for the unwary hiker or mountain biker; not to mention all the rattlesnakes and mountain lions, thank God increasing in number and keeping us humans out.

Worth also mentioning that during this most concerning 10 day period I have been doing more than usual Marie Dion Gevisser's typing since for starters MDG does not as her draft MySpace profile says, "type" as well as checking her email accounts that had me coming across this communication below from one of her friends, a fellow art student of master painter Sebastian Capella:

Eisenhower in Dachau

It is a matter of history that when Supreme Commander of the Allied Forces, General Dwight Eisenhower, found the victims of the death camps, he ordered all possible photographs to be taken, and for the German people from surrounding villages to be ushered through the camps and even made to bury the dead.

He did this because he said in words to this effect: 'Get it all on record now - get the films - get the witnesses - because somewhere down the track of history some bastard will get up and say that this never happened'.. All that is necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing.

Edmund Burke
In Memorial

This week, the University of Kentucky removed The Holocaust from its school curriculum because it 'offended' the Muslim population which claims it never occurred.

This is a frightening portent of the fear that is gripping the world and how easily each country is giving in to it. It is now more than 60 years after the Second World War in Europe ended.

This e-mail is being sent as a memorial chain, in memory of the 6 million Jews, 20 million Russians, 10 million Christians and 1,900 Catholic priests who were murdered, massacred, raped, burned, starved and humiliated with the German and Russian peoples looking the other way!

Now, more than ever, with Iran , among others, claiming the Holocaust to be 'a myth,' it is imperative to make sure the world never forgets.

This e-mail is intended to reach 40 million people worldwide!

Be a link in the memorial chain and help distribute this around the world.

Don't just delete this. It will only take a minute to pass this along.

Without divulging the name of this fine lady who is one of Sebastian's first students back in the days when he was a professor at UCSD where the faculty only wanted him to encourage students to paint their "feelings" rather than benefit from his extraordinary skills and knowledge of classic fine art painting, not simply a "lost art" but a very carefully orchestrated murdering of the arts by the ruling elite to hook the masses beginning with the middle class on utterly nonsense "modern art", let me assure you this still most beautiful woman married to the son of one of the Presidents of Mexico, I believe, could very easily find a way to forward what I have to say to a good number of highly influential people all over the world although of course not quite in the same position as me who didn't get off a boat just yesterday in Haifa harbor, Israel where my paternal grandfather Israel Issy Gevisser and his De Beers Nazi murdered sister Pessiah owned priceless properties well before Ben Gurion declared on May 14th, 1948 that the future Jewish Homeland would be called Israel.

I will now repeat what I told journalist George Andreassi II at the start of my missive to him this past Monday at 6:03 PM PST,

"I am quite certain the first thing you are going to ask yourself after reading all this is, 'It is going to be so interesting to see how best I respond because I am quite certain all those reading this, both in the carbon as well as the 5,000 individuals/groups in blind copied section are saying to themselves, 'It is going to be so interesting to see how he responds!!!'"

Not to mention that my wife sent both her children a rather good "real-tycheck" [sic] email the other day and it is going to be interesting first of all how they respond both to her as well as each other.

To mention little of increasingly taller and stronger 15-year old JoNathan just returning, the time 10:00 AM, from surf Physical Education, today an extra hour because every other Wednesday the teachers at his high school have a meeting, that like most meetings are about meeting just to meet and to set up another meeting just to meet.

To mention in passing that there is a good possibility, depending upon surf conditions that I will begin communicating with teachers around the world via their email addresses easily obtainable off school websites informing them who are caught between the school administration and parents that they have very little choice than to begin immediately waking up their kids that the box they are in is not insulated let alone structurally sound, to withstand the collapse of the house of cards.

Ps – You would do yourself a very big favor and go very quiet after not only reading the most alarming article, Revenge of South Africa's 'Dr Death'? penned by journalist Carolyn Dempster but how teachers not just in the United States but around the world are going to react to their hard earned and so very little wages being so heavily taxed and used to finance biological warfare that I first became aware of when asking those “consiglioires” closest to Ben Gurion, “Why would the Jewish State of Israel that was founded after the Holocaust where some 6 million of our best and brightest were murdered, be engaged in any dialogue let alone trading weapons of war with the so very Nazi like South African Apartheid Regime who so obviously have been afforded the military protection of the United States of America”?

Subject: Barack Obama - the devil's spawn.

I already wrote to you on this matter. I don't know how well you may know Webster Tarpley. He is very highly regarded, and rightly I think, for his book, "The Unauthorized Biography of George Bush," and for his work on 9-11, especially in revealing the nature of "Able Danger" as the covert basis for establishing the pretext of Islamic high-jackers. He has been a fierce critic of the Clinton's in the past. He has been the fiercest critic of the Bushes.

And yet, like me, he finds himself encouraging people to pull out all the stops in opposing Obama, including supporting Hillary. I asked him "If you mean to say that informed people must support Hillary". He wrote back:

Voting is the least of it - vote against Obama in whatever way is most congenial to you. But voting is the beginning of political activity only and not the sum total of it. What you need to do is call in to talk radio of all sorts -- Air America, right wingers, anybody and everybody, and denounce obama is a puppet Manchurian candidate controlled from behind the scenes by Brzezinski. Take that you-tube video you sent me and blast it out to your entire list in ways that you never thought possible. In other words, get political in the full sense of the word.
<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9P15YZrnv0>

WGT

I thought I'd share Tarpley's research and the basis of his conclusions regarding Obama. He is scared shitless, or he would not possibly be able to advocate supporting Clinton. I'm reminded of 2000 when I ran around desperately arguing with intelligent people that Bush was a fascist, and that people should support Gore, not Nader, or sit idly by. Nobody listened then. Why should now be any different? No reason, but Tarpley asked me to write you so I'm writing you.

BRZEZINSKI SEIZING CONTROL OVER US POLICY IN SLOW-MOTION CREEPING COUP

By Webster G. Tarpley

Washington DC, Feb. 23 -- Events of the past few days indicate that the Zbigniew Brzezinski faction of lunatic Russia haters have now won the upper hand inside the secret councils of the Anglo-American finance oligarchy, displacing the hitherto dominant George Shultz-neocon faction. Although George Bush and his cronies still occupy the White House, the policies that are being carried out are coming from the Brzezinski left CIA machine. Brzezinski has returned to public prominence in recent months due to his role as top establishment controller for the Obama campaign. But Brzezinski is not waiting for the outcome of the November elections to take over key parts of the US government. Brzezinski and his left CIA allies are already moving to assert their strategy, even as the neocons and their characteristic obsessions are moved to the back burner. The probability of an attack on Iran or Syria is declining, even as the danger of confrontation with Russia, China, and Pakistan “all much more dangerous targets to trifle with” increases exponentially.

1. KOSOVO: The independence of Kosovo has opened a new crisis front in Eastern Europe, with the potential for very nasty complications in regard to Russia. This is the essence of the Brzezinski anti-Russian policy. Kosovo independence is of course a flagrant violation of all existing norms of international law, most notably the Helsinki CSCE treaty of 1975 which finally put an end to World War II by declaring that all borders in Europe were to be considered final unless and until any changes had been agreed through mutual consultation of the interested parties. Since the Serbian government in Belgrade is vehemently opposed to Kosovo independence, the unilateral actions of the US, British, and NATO are the very essence of international anarchy. The new regime in Kosovo goes far beyond the usual kleptocracy of NATO puppets favored by Brzezinski and his circles. The new regime in Kosovo is essentially the terrorist KLA, an organization devoted to gun-running, drug-running, and trafficking in human slaves. The KLA is a Balkan version of Al Qaeda, and both are wholly owned creations of the CIA and British intelligence. With Kosovo independence, the US, British, and NATO stand ready to use armed force to defend the right of a terrorist gang to assert sovereignty over a segment of modern Europe. The criminal obscenity of this policy could hardly be greater, but for Brzezinski all methods are legitimate provided that they increase tension with Moscow, and in that respect Kosovo independence is already a glowing success.

2. SPACE WARFARE: The shooting down by the Pentagon of a US satellite over the Pacific is a very provocative military stunt designed to intimidate both Moscow and Beijing, who happened to be Brzezinski's immediate targets. This reckless and irresponsible action has raised the specter of an uncontrolled arms race reaching into outer space.

3. SYRIA: Zbigniew Brzezinski himself, fresh from addressing a retreat of House Democrats in Williamsburg Virginia, is now in Syria at the head of a RAND Corporation delegation. The purpose of this mission should not be construed as peace in the Middle East, although some foolish observers may read it in that way. Brzezinski's goal is immediately to lessen Russian influence in Syria, including the closing of certain naval facilities that the Russian navy has maintained in that country. In the longer run, Brzezinski would like to turn both Syria and Iran into components of the ring he means to forge around Russia for the purpose of the strategic encirclement of that rival superpower. Zbigniew's argument against the neocons is, why attack Iran and Syria, when you can turn them into kamikaze stooges, play them against Russia, and get rid of all of them that way? Europe and China are destined to play similar anti-Russian roles in Brzezinski's playbook.

4. CIA UNILATERAL KILLINGS IN PAKISTAN: Back in July 2007, Obama attracted much unfavorable attention when he announced his plan to bomb targets inside Pakistan without reference to the government of that country. He was vigorously criticized by Bush, McCain, and Mrs. Clinton. Obama turned out to be a bigger warmonger than Bush himself, since the tenant of the White House said that it was absolutely essential to work with the government of Pakistan against terrorism, and not humiliate them unnecessarily. Now it turns out that Obama's puppet master Zbigniew Brzezinski is more powerful than Bush on this issue. The Washington Post of Tuesday, February 19 revealed that a CIA Predator drone aircraft had attacked the Pakistani town of Mir Ali, killing a certain Abu Laith al-Libi, supposedly a leading figure of the al Qaeda patsy organization. The big news was that this time around, the CIA had not sought approval from the government of Pakistan. President Musharraf, weakened by the CIA destabilization of his country that is now ongoing, was only notified of the operation once it was underway, meaning that he was not even consulted in advance. Thus, the aggressive policy put into Obama's mouth by Zbigniew Brzezinski has become operational US policy, regardless of what the lame-duck Bush had to say about this issue last summer. Pakistan is now being targeted because of President Musharraf's strategic understanding with China. Brzezinski intends to strip the Chinese of all their traditional allies as part of his campaign to smash the Shanghai Cooperation Organization and any other foci of resistance inside Eurasia against Anglo-American imperialism.

POLICE STATE MOVES TO ELIMINATE OBAMA'S COMPETITION

The campaign of scandal revelations against Senator John McCain in the New York Times suggest that the banking establishment is determined to remove all obstacles that might impede the March of Brzezinski's puppet Obama to the White House. In addition, Arizona Republican Congressman Rick Renzi, a McCain ally, has just been indicted on charges of extortion, wire fraud and money laundering in an alleged scheme to profit from a land deal. Renzi is an honorary co-chairman of McCain's presidential campaign. This is not the first time that the intelligence community-police state apparatus has had to intervene decisively to provide assistance to the faltering ambitions of their puppet, Obama. During his quest for a seat in the United States Senate from Illinois in 2004, Obama received a scandal boost not once but twice. Obama's opponent in the Illinois Democratic senatorial primary of March 2004 was Marson Blair Hull, a wealthy securities broker who spent $28 million on television advertising and was heavily favored to defeat Obama in that primary. But Hull's campaign was torpedoed by a barrage of well timed media charges that he had abused his former wife. Hull was therefore obliged to drop out of the race.

After Hull had been eliminated, Obama still had to face his Republican opponent in the November general election. Here his adversary was Jack Ryan, an investment banker from Goldman Sachs. Ryan had divorced his wife Jeri in 1999, and the case was sealed at their mutual request. Suddenly the Chicago Tribune and WLS television began undertaking mighty exertions to get these divorce records made public, even though they involved a dispute about child custody. On June 22, 2004, Los Angeles Superior Court judge Robert Schneider released the court documents in question. They revealed an accusation by Jeri Ryan against her husband, now Obama's political competitor, to the effect that Jack Ryan had induced her to frequent sex clubs in a number of locations, and had attempted to coerce her into sexual intercourse in the presence of third parties. Judge Schneider's decision was all the more extraordinary because it was made in the face of the direct opposition by both parties to the divorce, and bore on a Family Court matter that is normally kept vigorously secret. It was as if some totalitarian invisible hand were intervening in favor of the beleaguered Obama candidacy. At this point Jack Ryan was compelled to abandon his candidacy at the urging of Dennis Hastert, then Speaker of the House. By now the Illinois Democratic Party appeared to have gotten the message that Obama enjoyed divine protection, since they did not nominate a serious candidate to oppose him in the November election. Instead, they brought in a carpetbagger and well known windbag in the person of Allan Keyes of Maryland, who predictably went on to lose to Obama by the most lopsided margin in Illinois political history.

With US missiles about to be installed in Poland under the direct supervision of Ian Brzezinski, the Pentagon's top man for Eastern Europe, the world is demonstrably moving towards a US - Russian superpower confrontation with unmistakable thermonuclear overtones. The one missing ingredient in this pattern is a suitable demagogue in the White House who can make an appeal for national mobilization in this crisis, including quite possibly a restoration of the military draft, planeloads of body bags, and a dimension of economic sacrifice and tax increases which Bush never proposed. This is the role of Zbigniew Brzezinski's puppet and Manchurian candidate, Obama. The anointed one can still be prevented from carrying out the Brzezinski-Soros plan to seize the Democratic presidential nomination through the domestic equivalent of a color revolution or people power coup.

The dynasty we need to worry about at this point is neither the Clintons nor the Bushes. The main concern today is an extension of the Brzezinski dynasty. Zbigniew Brzezinski, founder of the Trilateral Commission, member of the Council on Foreign Relations, and RAND Corporation operative, personally selected Carter as president of the United States in the mid-1970s. The resulting 1977-1981 Brzezinski Trilateral administration was an unmitigated catastrophe, leading to two decades of severe political reaction from which this country has not recovered. Given the ongoing breakdown crisis of the Anglo-American banking and currency systems, another Brzezinski administration would pose the threat of thermonuclear war with Russia in an infinitely more acute form than in the 1970s. After a few months of Zbigniew Brzezinski running the show, the era of Bush and the neocons might begin to look like the good old days. It is still possible to avoid this nightmare by timely action.
