Subject: LORENZO MARQUES 1949-PLOTTING- Out of Office AutoReply: HOW LONG HAVE YOU BEEN PRACTICING FLIPPING ME OFF?- did i just hear pin drop?- tomorrow-around the world in 80 days-fdr-biggest problem- be careful

John hi,

Thanks for the so informative automatic response.

Before I forget, I would like to pick up a US$1,000 worth of pennies this Monday, loose would be just as fine.

As you know my plan.

With all that said, earlier today I sent out a draft of what I planned to send you to Carltone and friends.

The reaction even amongst people who have known me longer than you, actually a lot longer could be summed up as, "I learn something knew every day..." [sic], but so far not a single one of the couple of thousand or so who received a copy, came back with any edits or additions, bearing in mind this is the weekend and the only people I know who work on weekends are those in the intelligence communities which I number approximately 7 billion odd, and of course they were all copied, and I assume don't consider me a "security risk".

I would like you to think about a way for this personalized email to you that has you right now beginning to focus exclusively on Christmas dinner to be made so very generic that I could send it out to everyone in the world who has either an internet email address or postal address, and for those in the jungles in places like Peru just let me and Augusto Benito Vargis worry about that and if he, I and his equally very competent, very strong, and athletic wife, Patricia, not to forget Marie Dion Gevisser and Adam L. Tucker and his hoard of increasingly adoring female fans now more than ever contacting him from seeing his photo and bio on the dating websites like jdate.com, match.com and of course just3ants.com where the sum total of contributions remains at US$23.88, none of us can come up with a plan to reach the yet to be discovered Lost Tribe of Israel hanging – get out of your head those 6 million of my Jewish brothers and sisters hanging from ropes during the 3rd Reich just because they were Jewish and the western alliance had cut off all escape routes – just waiting for this most glorious moment in the history of time deep in the Peruvian jungles knowing exactly where the hoard of gold was kept from the Contestadores, then there is a fair – think of my Allied Fighter-Bomber-Pilot father's encounter when on leave during the week of February 7-14th, 1945 where he scored "2 D/H !! + 1 FAIR MISS" - if not a great chance, one or more of the other 800 or so other highly educated Peruvian guides now in "real time" being brought up to speed, might figure it all out.

Not to mention that tragedy of the February 14th, 1945 meeting on board the USS Quincy between President Franklin D. Roosevelt and Ibn Saud of the House of Saud, Saudi Arabia, all the proof the Jewish Underground needed to know that they were going to have go extraordinarily deep underground if there was any hope of the Jewish people outsmarting the 3rd Reich's southern division by putting their best and bravest right dead center¹ in the belly of the beast, the South African Apartheid Regime who made clown Hitler and his thugs look 3rd rate because they were.

Think how quickly it took to deal with Hitler versus the 45 odd years US and British combined forces "held fort" in South Africa while stealing South Africa's gold.

Do you know how much gold is left in Fort Knox?

Do you care?

Who has the gold makes the rules!

China now has the gold, as well.

3 principles I was raised with by my English mother who took great umbrage at being called "British", insisting she was "English"; first, "Loose Lips Sink Ships", two, "Keep your friends close and your enemies even closer" and third, "The Tallest Trees Attract/Make the Most Wind" [sic] – Confucius.

At the same time I would like for you to think more about those pennies very carefully placed on sidewalks throughout the world as well as in the tiny trays at checkout registers where you will see, I suspect, that initially there will be a significant curtailment in theft but in no time to speak of you are going to see hoarding like never before and who knows pennies could be outlawed, so please place me at the top of your list of preferred customers requesting pennies.

Furthermore, if you feel yourself talking to yourself more than ever before remember to say occasionally hello to God who must surely have descended from heaven to give each one of us a fresh start, maybe not.

Below is the email to Carltone I first began broadcasting at 12:34 PM Pacific Standard Time.

Carltone happy Holidays to you all.

It has been a while since I checked this email account [gsg@sellnext.com], my sincere apologies; my thinking though, is that if anyone emails me something they think is of importance and I don't respond to call me or at least not be afraid to email my wife at mdgart@sellnext.com who generally checks that account of hers far less so than me because Marie Dion Gevisser has yet to get her art website www.sellnext.com up and running, and by that time she might decide on another website as well as email address such as mdgart.com assuming it hasn't been taken.

I wasn't sure whether you have received yet your copy of my response to the Hanukah gift sent to me yesterday by executive recruiter Ed Bertolas of Del Mar, California who, according to my one American programmer-apprentice, Adam L. Tucker, has now been added to the "$ hit List" on www.just3ants.com. Click on next hyperlink.

Perhaps you have the time/interest over the next say 20 to 25 minutes as I make myself a second "cuppochino" [sic] in taking a look at what I plan to send out to a Bank of America banker who responded with an "automatic response" to the back and forth yesterday between Ed and me, and please don't feel pressured since I might decide to go for along hike in the rain-snow, the weather not quite able to make up its mind here deep inside the most awesome, breathtaking, pristine Cleveland National forest..

The draft reads as follows:

Dear John,

It has been raining consistently for two days here in the Cleveland National Forest and fortunately I was awoken just moments before it started, about 3 am on Thursday morning and although I hadn't purchased new tarps to cover the cut wood, the old ones ripped to shreds in the last winds although they were already very much on their last legs, I had an extra car cover put aside for such a "rainy day"; and before the very first drops began to fall I had, while rather lightly dressed, more than a cord of wood, enough to last us through the winter, completely covered and back in the Stone Home just as the heavens unloaded one most awesome downpour, rejoicing very quietly so as not to disturb Adam L. Tucker dead asleep in the living room, and consequently none the wiser about my "smart move".

Have you noticed how when you act intelligently and keep it all to yourself, you "sumhow" [sic] find yourself feeling better about yourself?

I'd be interested to know what dinner conversations you are going to be having around the dining room table this "Xmess" [sic] and whether they will be pretty much in the same "superficial" vein as the previous times you have broken bread, pretty much knowing well ahead of time what subjects to bring up and what to avoid like the plague, willing of course to talk just a little bit about politics, religion and sex but aware of each of those around you, their weaknesses, their strengths but never, not once in your life even if you consider yourself "religious" have you given a moment's thought to God looking down upon you all and laughing him-herself silly at your most disgustingly pitiful hypocrisy, worse yet if a family member or close friend is member of the clergy who each and every one of them know exactly what it is that I am talking about given how extraordinarily well schooled I am in both business and religion beginning with the extraordinarily lucrative business of religion.

Also bear in mind that to me and my French-Canadian wife, Marie Dion Gevisser and anyone else were they to be visiting over Christmas and the rains didn't subside they would be freezing their buns inside the stone cold stone home had I not had the "Hand of God" awakening just in time, but then again given how under a "worse" [sic] case scenario we could just dial 911, lie about God deciding to rain down snakes from heaven who seemed to be now congregating, plotting to execute the ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence report I, for good reason, am the only person in the world broadcasting that spells "total doom" for the United States of America unless our President along with the corrupt United States Congress takes the "high road" beginning by explaining why they and the media fail to address such an ingeniously thought through report pulled together by the smartest military minds very possibly in the history of humankind, the oxymoron of all time, resulting in Air Force One being summoned to evacuate us the 63 odd miles to our cliff house perched atop the bluffs of Del Mar, California where even if the heater isn't working we have enough duvets that combined with my wife's cashmere scarves and the very thick wool flak jackets I would ask the President we be allowed to bring from the stone home to keep us warm until what is now just a slight snow storm ends.

Just now checking that not a single pool of water has formed atop the at least one cord of wood and besides we have enough wood stored inside the stone home to last possibly as much as 3 days if not more; certainly you would agree that we are in a whole lot better shape, not to mention, not quite "roughing it out" as much as the world's special forces commandos, beginning with Israeli Special Forces commandos who I am significantly more familiar with, not only wired more than any other nation's military but much more importantly, despite the growing "mafia" problem in Israel, have far more trust in their Commanding Officers than any other western nation given the awesome "checks and balances" first introduced by David Ben Gurion following the debacle of Operation Suzannah in the summer of 1954 which of course you should recall rather well, again assuming you are interested.

Trust me though, the "mafia problem" in Israel is mostly just another "smokescreen" by Israel's Military Intelligence with strong "input" from the Mossad that has been kept "separate and apart" from the very formation of the State of Israel in May 1948, the Talipot special forces unit been around now some 3 decades not exactly sitting around "playing pong" with one another trying to find a way to get free wireless internet access as they drive around places like Del Mar, California due east of the Salton Sea that sits at the 33rd parallel pretty much the same as the Dead Sea some 1300 odd feet below Sea Level, a bird's eye view from the awesome Masada, a spot I have visited most likely more often than the overwhelming majority of Israelis even though I haven't visited Israel in more than a decade, the very first time in July of 1966 when my Royal Mater-Mother, Zena Gevisser, came up with the idea to write an article for the Hashalom, click on hyperlink below

a nothing monthly magazine published only in Durban, South Africa sitting atop the world's richest mineral resources apart from gold; the title, Long Short Story of Masada, click on below

<http://nextraterrestrial.com/pdf/Hashalom--p1.gif>

and you might think it helped that my father, former Allied Fighter-Bomber-Pilot Bernie Gevisser, being the Chairman of the Durban Jewish Club who published the nothing Hashalom would have been able to influence the editor who didn't need much introduction to my highly secretive, beyond belief deceptive mother who

From the earliest days of 1949, she visited Israel two and three times a year writing reports for different publications.

Continuing from my mother's memoirs first published over the Internet via email on October 9th, 2001 and titled, Life Story of Zena,

Her paternal grandmother² had been an early resident of Tel Aviv only returning to England when Zena was born. The Gevisser (she married [on October 10th, 1948]

Bernie Gevisser when she was 19

² Nechie Badash, Gary Gevisser's great maternal grandmother, came from the same tiny village of Plonsk, White Russia-Poland as David Ben Gurion, the head of the Hagannah, Jewish Underground before becoming the first Prime Minister of Israel.

Fair to say that Nechie Badash was not considered much of a "security risk" in terms of selling out her siblings as well as mother and father as they were all wiped out in a pogrom which she escaped as her parents hid her around age 8 in a closet.

after only a few months in Durban) owned land in Haifa harbour and Zichron Yscov and she rapidly felt at home in Israel.

Reporting on the many wars when Israel was attacked she was the first civilian in the captured area of the Sinai and in later years at her own expense twinned Durban with Eilat. In 1978 she left Durban eventually making her home in Netanya [Israel] and England.

Much of her work carried on in various places and although she gave up lecturing she continued with her writings to this day. Her second husband, Alan Zulman well-known in the clothing industry having started in the early 50's – with a partner – a company which became South African Clothing Industries – collaborated in an Anthology that published recently entitled "The Winking Cat". The first story of the title of the book which is about Ancient Energy offers Zena's philosophy which will overcome all of Life's problems. "Keep Smiling".

The Special Operations Division of the Mossad, more commonly known as Metsada which those interested of us all know by now is involved in assassination, paramilitary operations, and psychological warfare, the Kidon unit that carries out brutal assassinations beginning in earnest following the brutal murder of 11 defenseless Israeli athletes at the 1972 Munich Olympic Games, does a rather good job not only in keeping up the "morale" of Special Forces commandos able to rely on their Commanding Officers for sharing with them the best intelligence under the sun, who in turn rely on Israeli Military Intelligence who certainly don't have to be reminded by me time and again about not only the purpose of Metsada but why the Mossad make its presence so very visible on the Internet which wasn't around in the summer of 1954 which didn't prevent either intelligence being shared or those poorly conditioned by the "love of money" to turn on their own brothers and sisters which is what you know happened most likely before Operation Suzannah began.

Not to mention why the Mossad mainly publicize their motto, "By way of deception we wage war", which again gives Israeli Special Forces commandos and their unit commanding officers operating in enemy lines quite the competitive edge over their adversaries beginning how when they put their head down even sleeping say in a Bedouin tent they get a restful night's sleep.

So much so that when an incident occurs like the loss on September 5th, 1997 of the unit commando + 10 other members of Flotilla 13, Israel's Maritime Special Forces unit that runs circles around our US Navy SEALs, there is very significant disruption that occurs as the "chain of command" comes under the most brutal scrutiny, each and every member of Israel's intelligence community knowing perfectly well all Israeli hit squads operating throughout the world then "freeze" and what follows next isn't really all that hard to figure out.

Again, the ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence report that I, and I alone, am the only person in the world broadcasting, of course so far the Mossad have chosen very wisely not to silence me, is in my humble, but seasoned opinion, the most ingenious report given its timing and material relevance in the history of war waking up to the ridiculousness of not only war but why it is they, so very few, are the ones propping up a so manically wrong system that allows so many of us nowhere close to "pulling our weight" to be so flighty, as we spend our time over the holidays with families talking about so much utterly bloody nonsense that while allowing "time to pass by" is rather silly, don't you think, especially considering whenever an empire fails to adequately feed its military, responsible for bringing home the spoils of diamond drilling bit oil wars, it is inevitable that it is just a question before the Roman Empire collapses?

You would know just from your own observations that the average weight of US Americans along with body fat percentage has many of US Americans quite obviously out of control when it comes to our food intake, and yet most of us can mouth the words, "We are what we eat" as well as "we are the company we keep", no doubt those of us "birds of a feather that flock to-get-her" [sic] must at least think we are living in centuries past?

Would you think it is okay for either you and/or me to explain to your wife and kids assuming they are old enough to think that the US is the Monopolist, a rather nasty word, and the downside of US De Beers being the Monopolist of Monopolists has a lot to do with our Roman looks, out-of-control opulence by the ruling elite dishing out rather bitter 47th Street-Wall Street approved "poison pills", cheap candy, fatty diets, poor education, "safe harbor" provisions to boot, to the masses whose obesity brings on premature dementia and why at least your wife and kids should "care" since it will empower them to then understand so much better what they read in the newspapers, magazines and listen and watch on TV without our corrupt elected and non elected government officials along with the equally bought and paid for media simply bothering to tell their audience that you have all the evidence that each one of these nonsense talking heads has at least the same knowledge base as you in the economics, history and politics to explain how the primarily South African based De Beers crime syndicate came to be so "omnipotent", their rise to power all beginning with colleagues of yours; i.e. J.P. Morgan financing De Beers who financed the US led 8 Allied Nations invasion of China in 1900 and the Anglo Boer War of 1899-1902?

Happy Holidays,

Gary
