Subject: IT IS TIME.

As you know I am considering doing an "exchange" of sorts with Dalton, not to mention his low ball offer which may in fact be very fair considering the fact that this Cannondale mountain bike has been a problem from the start.

The fan of the small heater in the garage of the cliff house just started even though it is not in the least bit cold.

I don't think you should wait until I am placed in a refrigerator before attempting to recover on my behalf the following:

1. The US$35,000 American Airlines personnel stole out of my hand luggage that I am quite certain you can convince a jury of our peers I have beyond a shadow of a doubt evidence of SIGNIFICANT fraud, not simply the emails demonstrating personal culpability by their General Manager followed up with threatening phone calls once Mr. Terry realized the extent to which he had "put his foot in his mouth", but the lack of follow up by the Chief operating officer of American Airline Mr. Gerard Arpey as well as the Peter Bowler the President and CEO of AA's American Eagle Airlines.
2. Then there is the US$45,000 "interesting" note I have with Newel Starks, an officer of CVC that is tied in to the value of Sterling Holding Company, a Citicorp Venture Corporation wholly owned subsidiary; CVC a wholly owned subsidiary of Citigroup; bearing in mind Mr. Starks as well as his second wife Nancy placing their John Hancocks, "on the dotted line", never ever to forget The IT and the "Hand of God" now so very evident on all those who choose his company.
3. Finally, the "settlement agreement" that Wetherly Capital Group under the control of Ronald Burkle sent me on April 3rd, 2002 that you and I have discussed, not quite "ad-nausea".

The communication I hope to have with the President of Iran may or may not extend my lifespan but you would know it now does not matter.

I have with that 4938 word email to Dalton accomplished the "task at hand".

One monopoly being allowed to not only exist but thrive from its very start at the turn of the last century makes every "rule of law" not just irrelevant but totally irrelevant.

There can be little or no humanity to speak of in such a society that so arrogantly flaunts its support of such evil.

De Beers are today much more given their century of rule much more than a terrorist sponsoring group, today embodying more than the entire nation of the United States of America.

The ratching up of diamond commercials over the past week is of course no coincidence, the same with the increased "deafening silence" from all those who have profited from De Beers tyranny beginning with Trust Fund kids, good for nothing but plenty of "small talk" who De Beers rely on more than anyone to incite the masses of students particularly college age students, to be violent.

You haven't forgotten I got most of my formal education in the United States of America's South African Apartheid Regime that "held fort" over South Africa for nearly half a century, longer than the Israelites camped out in the desert.

You haven't forgotten that folks like Israeli Military Intelligence and the Mossad don't need much if any repetition.

Adam Tucker may be a little distracted thinking about his forthcoming dates with two women he thinks are "great", not even to the point of thinking that either or both of them could be Mossad agents, and consequently hasn't followed up with your request to simply find himself a lead plaintiff such as your wife to initiate an epic class action lawsuit against De Beers; but Campbell Soup like pretty much everyone who is silent these days wouldn't last very long under "cross examination" assuming they made it alive on to the steps of the courthouse.

You, on the other hand, are not in the least bit distracted and also know how very "generous" I am with those I care about.

I have torn up many agreements with many people over the years that would have afforded me many a "kings ransom", always knowing, however, that there was this omnipotent power watching over me encouraging me each time to overcome the "greed" factor and of course it didn't take me long to see the immediate benefits all the while knowing that I had increasing less time to "live right".

I have less than a handful of email communications to complete before sunset tomorrow when I have a self-imposed deadline on broadcasting my insight and analysis of the important events of the day via email.

One thing you would know intuitively even if you weren't tapped in to my computer network is the extraordinary deafening silence coming from my South African immediate family who "know better" each day that much more not only about me who has been so very quiet up until I met you in the spring of 1999, but much more about my mother and father that they would all prefer not to know given how they know they cannot believe a single word coming out of my mother or my father's mouth beginning with my dad who was the first one to "stick his foot in his mouth" when explaining what he believed was the reason why my mother's father, Alef-Albert-Al Badash-Ash was doing in Lorenzo Marques/Maputo, Mozambique back in 1949, let alone what my mother has said as her father's reasons for settling in Durban, South African in 1947.

One last thing to consider; even when I am dead, time remains very much on my side, the side of truth, that which does not change.

Shalom,

Gary
