Subject: DECISIONS, DECISIONS, DECISIONS...WHY YOU READ ON...hurt by trade sanctions-are you proud to be an US american?

Katherine, while you research my questions from a few minutes ago, would look at this draft email I would like you, when finished editing of course, to forward to the 4,000 Lost Boys of the Sudan currently living in the US doing one hell of a job promoting US-De Beers-Dollars to more than the 8,000 Lost Boys of the Sudan over in refugee camps in Africa who also survived the De Beers death march as well as to find a way to get copies in to the hands of those 8,000 and then leave it up to me as well as I would expect others including Israeli Military Intelligence to reach the rest of the literate as well as illiterate human population.

Dear John Dau,

As you know I have one last heavily broadcasted email to President Bush that was scheduled to go out yesterday that is now only delayed a day, two at the most, before all future public communiqués are placed on www.just3ants.com and if not just3ants.com then one or more other of our 100 or so websites in various stages of construction from the bottom up.

Before continuing where I left off last Saturday, click HERE, allow me to quickly address two points both of which I will be covering in more detail in my next communiqué to President Bush that will take place after responding to Adam Roop who now wishes to be removed from my email list after first begging me to add both of his email addresses so that when he is on the road he misses nothing of importance.

First, is the importance of all governments, not just the 3 Branches of the United States Government to “promote” their respective currencies with each corrupt government understanding an “unwritten rule” that if they “push things too far” with the United States of America who provided the military mite; in other words, the “funding” of De Beers, by “going overboard” in either printing too much of their own currency increasingly less backed by gold as the United States of America stole the world’s gold production first using their military mite and then the Almighty U.S. DeBeers-Dollar, or worse yet attacking the Almighty De Beers-US Dollar, they run the risk of the superpower declaring war should the US’ tyrant’s second-in-command prove to be equally “unruly”.

Not to mention most of the disaffected peoples of the world who are apathetic about their governments beginning with most United States citizens whose 3 Branches of Government talk a lot about things like freedom and democracy but are constantly voting for pay increases for themselves as they make it a point when not attacking one another to attack foreign governments not “playing ball”, which are all quite relieved to hear me spelling out in simple English why it is that neither the media nor the equally corrupt governments of the world make mention either of me or my explanation as to how it has come about that De Beers, the money launderers of money launderers, the special interest of special interest group have been allowed for more than a century now to act as the world’s number one banker while never, not once having to file a single document with banking regulators beginning with those here in the US who know that De Beers’ biggest market is here in the United States; their ungodly presence on 47th Street, New York City extraordinarily transparent.

Second, is the importance of my personal "credibility" that is not in the least dependent upon that of any member of my family including either my mother or father as well as my father's first cousin, David Gevisser who remains not only alive like both my parents, but is still the American head of the DeBeers-Anglo American Cartel, the mafia of mafia, counterfeiter of counterfeiters that for good reason not a single government including the world's superpowers have dared to mess with given the DAAC's extraordinary "Money Power" that began with their monopoly of Diamond Currency which in addition to being untraceable was price fixed by this principally South African based monopolist of monopolists at always more than a barrel of oil that could only be reached with diamond tipped drilling bits, has been used to accumulate other regulated government currencies and when a government isn't behaving according to the "unwritten" but very strict rules, so then does De Beers unleash their stockpiles of foreign currency.

At the present time when you visit just3ants.com, under HEADLINE NEWS, you will see in the 3rd position the words, De Beers - "Remember Me?"

The hyperlink above those rather important words which I first used on November 11th, 2004 when breaking a 24 year silence with the most important officials of De Beers on United States soil who I worked for in 1980 only as a result of a "deal" between my Royal Mater-Mother and her very close and "lucky" friend, my uncle David Gevisser, are nothing short of bone chilling even if you are so far down the totem pole that you can't even afford a pot to pee in.

No one, not even a street person likes the feeling of being duped.

With all that said, let me now continue

Interesting is a word that from this moment forth you will most certainly versus "in all likelihood" [sic] first think of in terms of how poorly trained Israeli Special Forces Commanding Officers view the value of seized weaponry, drugs, prostitutes, bills about to be passed by bought and paid for members of the US Congress, funding of this program, reduced funding in that program, less for law enforcement here, more for law enforcement there, monies appropriated for Israel to defend herself from the Nazis who won World War I and World II and who since remain committed to remind those of US American-British when practicing to go to war with Israel it is not such a bad thing when coming in to land on Coronado Island, San Diego to see a Nazi emblem blazing bright and shiny from the "ground up".

Back on September 19th when we first spoke, the day after I watched you on a flat screen TV mouth the words, "God must have grown tired of US", you questioned me why people are so bad, and I explained that the business of corrupt governments when not corrupting grass roots organizations before they take root, is all about hooking people on easy to get one's arms around, money, a "propaganda based" means of exchange that is controlled by government officials on the side of the victors of war where there is no evidence that the victors are just, often times not even better fighters, but more ruthless in their willingness to spill other peoples' blood.

Never forget that after stealing the world's precious and limited natural resources, gold the hardest to harvest, De Beers, a dynamic group I am intimately familiar with, focus their attention on funding their "opposition" using not only their own exclusive untraceable Diamond Currency but whatever money currency is best being administered by their bought and paid for elected as well as non-elected government officials who make the laws that allow today people such as the Director of the CIA, General Michael V. Hayden once caught "red handed" with having destroyed tapes showing a supposedly brutal beating of Al Quaida "terrorists" held in detention, to announce with a straight face,

"What matters here is that it was done in line with the law."

The laws of course, written and circumvented by the same people.

You would know that the most rudimentary "black operation" forget "double black operation", would have at the time the decision was taken to videotape the interrogation, including the decision to destroy it and leak its destruction at the appropriate time to the media and the politicians, one and the same, to allow them to have something to talk about all the while this very day another black, double black as well as double double black operation is very possibly also fully underway planned that same very day the decision was made to videotape the interrogation including the decision to destroy it.

Again, the concept of "divide and conquer" which is the "backbone" of master-of-disguise De Beers' military strategy can now be used against them as we go about exposing each member of each of our families beginning with immediate family members which I suggest strongly, contributes significantly to your continued deafening silence.

By now you have also seen here in America that people are more concerned with the brand of clothing they wear than the wellbeing of one another. In fact it wasn't long ago that there were stories in the news about people being killed for their Reebok "Pumps", a type of shoe that could be inflated with air.

When we spoke your idea of "bad" people were limited to the Muslims in the Northern Sudan that were slaughtering your brothers, but by now, having lived here in the United States for some 4 years, you have to see that it is not about religion, race, color, nationality; it has always been about stealing; money just a means of exchange, a promissory note produced in machines and distributed by mindless, corrupt individuals who have no loyalty to anything but those who keep them in a position to authorize the production of worthless-fictitious money as well as commit that country's military to beat up on people like your brothers in Sudan, not yet as co-opted-corrupted as you.

It is not a coincidence that your homeland, rich in VALUABLE natural resources, has been in almost constant civil war for more than 60 years with people such as yourself being counted on to promote the counting of money that gets transfixing after a while unless working for a security company like Brinks who move cash around in armored money advertising vehicles back and forth along our clogged streets, always avoiding side streets as much as possible and when inside their money counting vaults it becomes one most extraordinary funny scene.

And I would know since my royal Mater's half-brother Joe Ash, former Commodore of the Durban, South African yacht club and Durban city councilmember-Vice Mayor, acquired an Israeli technology that when an armored truck guard or bank teller got held up, not important whether it be by someone not smart enough to steal legally or just another marketing opportunity to promote the use of money, some of the money would contain fake money that would explode a dye that would ruin the "legally" counterfeit money.

Moreover, I spent several days with my uncle here in the U.S. as well as with his South African policeman son when he visited, going in several armored truck runs and were allowed in the high security money counting vaults of Wells Fargo, a significant player in this beyond belief "playing-money-business" business.

If every school kid in the world got the opportunity to see what I witnessed and what tens of thousands if not millions of people are employed all over the world to do each and every day 24/7, it wouldn't take them very long to not only "smell a rat" but do something about it which is why their teachers, principals and school boards all the way to the top officials at Head Start in Washington, DC have them do things like surfing physical education when not going on excursions to milk producing farms, zoos and the such.

Bully-coward parents breed bully-coward governments.

While your brothers are being killed, the Sudanese government has been profiting along with foreign interests such as the US and Great Britain; the genocide functioning as a distraction while they steal the natural resources which if shared with your people, would have all of your brothers not only having their own home but never having a reason to fight a single day.

You understand desperation better than most. But throughout your desperation you courageously and intelligently never resorted to violence.

Unfortunately there are people here in the United States that have never known what it is to have to really work for a living let alone the power of desperation to overwhelm, corrupt, and compromise a person's character.

I know that it is difficult to see beyond the direct hand that the Northern Sudanese Muslims played in brutally slaughtering your families and causing some 27,000 of you to go on a death march, however, by now you have got to ask yourself, why hasn't America or any other nation stepped in to help, apart from helping themselves?

The same question why didn't the US and Britain step in right from the start of Israel's War of Independence to tell their Arab oil tyrants that if necessary the US would nuke them just as we did the Japanese assuming Americans service people were unwilling to fight against the right for the State of Israel to survive.

Were you aware that few who know the facts would argue that if it were not for non-Israeli Jewish fighter pilots, Israel would have been defeated and then picture what the world would be like today, and don't place at the top of your list, "Not a single Jewish Nobel Prize recipient!".

Few who also know the facts would argue the very best were Jewish South African fighter-bomber-pilots like my father and my Royal Mater's very close friends like Boris Senior, a name most likely you have never heard before I started mentioning it the other day, but you will not forget his name going forward, this I can almost assure you given not only his closeness to my mother and his securing of weapons of war principally from South Africa or the fact that this South African would become the deputy chief of the brutal Israel Air force or the fact that his was the one name along with a telephone number my mother had me write down soon after I arrived on September 1st, 1972 at Kibbutz Sde Boker in Negev Desert, but much more importantly,

Boris Senior's very careful choice of words when describing his view of Israeli American relations which I covered in more detail in my follow up with New York Times reporter David Stout who is of course also now "playing ostrich".

The moment you wake up in the morning knowing you have less time to live than you did the day before you always want to "cut to the chase", waste no time, even if your intentions are just to get back into to bed, to hell with working for a living, and when you may want to go slow, actually very slow, all depending on whatever that is what interests you apart from me showing you right now how to become financially independent, head trip, trip to that salon, workout spa, Spargos at their new location, multiple business partners who may each only want you, constantly "on call", just waiting for you to show up totally unannounced, and at the same time feel good about yourself being part of a grass roots organization wanting to change the corrupt status quo, which again may not interest you in the least, no different I strongly believe than each and every person who has yet to contribute a penny to just3ants.com.

Let me help you because you liked the fact that there wasn't a single lone "or" to be found anywhere in the above paragraph and why not now invest 90 seconds of your time to read what I have to say about you becoming financially independent and getting laid all at the same time, just like Adam L. Tucker my one American programmer-apprentice is well on his way to achieving.

Not to mention the date Adam had a week ago this past Saturday night, while I am sure she also bathes, was quite "the babe" which of course shouldn't prevent Adam, who was in the room with me this past Saturday at our stone home deep inside the CN forest, but operating off a different network and on to other things while communicating with me as well as the rest of the world in real time, from testing this "bullet proof" business plan on every person he "touches" including all those on jdate.com and match.com who he will never get see "in the flesh", at least not all of them.

BTW don't you think it would help Howard Stern battling the National Association of Broadcasters who maintain that he is interfering with their bread and butter that he call up the NAB and ask Valerie Schulte Esq. if during the 15 years she was schtuping Ted Turner of CNN she ever felt "conflicted out"?

First John, you would know I haven't forgotten our phone conversation when as I laid out so precisely and clearly in simple English how you were in the throes of being totally and utterly corrupted, you kept going back time and again, repeating and repeating and repeating, right up until the end of the conversation, the following so very annoying words, "I just can't understand these Muslims who want to kill us Christians"; even though I never mentioned the word Arab or Jewish or Christian or communism or totalitarian or socialism or despotism or Hinduism or greekism, never once throwing in not even the slightest distraction such as what brand of toenail polish may or may not turn you on but just the thought disgusts me, instead I kept repeating the name DeBeers, De Beers, DeBeers, De Beers, DeBeers, never once mentioning the word Muslim, not even alluding to there being any connection between De Beers, the terrorist of terrorist groups, the genocide of genocides financing organization, and the Muslim community anywhere in the world apart from them owning lock stock and barrel the House of Saud, the Kuwaiti Royal Family, the 3 Branches of the United States Government and the likes and which you know perfectly well I can prove beyond a shadow of a doubt.

Of course my revelations were the equivalent of God descending from heaven and sending all you heathens to Sodom and Gomorra.

Former US Marine Captain Brian Steidle and you must have surely spoken by now, and can you tell me how much or how little I was discussed in your bs conversation.

So how is the world's most favoured slaved doing this rainy morning here deep inside the Cleveland National Forest?

You liked my beggar story and so did a lot of very tall people who often times attract the very worst of the opposite sex, those who are all visual, their brains all mush from a lifetime of denial, still thinking themselves smart to wrap you around their little finger until they find out that in growing tall, having to go through the growing pains you never got to experience the kid in you and once old, fat and decrepit they, for good reason, find all the excuses in the world to remain attached, oblivious to the risk of severe damage an insecure tall person with a poor center of gravity can cause BUT ONLY in their immediate surroundings.

Again, the only true freewill is in our ability to choose our environment and the people that we share it with.

Second, a person who doesn't contribute to society is just like a cancer cell only existing for itself, multiplying and eventually leading to self destruction.

The Kabala is a teaching that the high on their own nonsense Jewish holy priests kept to themselves and then only started to promote it when finding out it wasn't that easy to make a living once they taught everybody what they needed to know who then wouldn't show up at services and then where would all the crooked deals get done?

Did you know that being vegetarian is not only better for your sex life but obviates the need for keeping kosher which further puts a dent in a Jewish rabbi's ability to make a living when not being corrupted by the ruling elite who again have no loyalty but to their own.

Did it not occur to you when you joined me, at least in spirit, at Sabbath services at the Orthodox Jewish synagogue on the corner of Silverton and Musgrave Road, Durban, South Africa that there was a whole lot more going on than simply the biggest Jewish crooks in the community having the best seats in the house, the same with the Reform Jewish synagogues, the same with the Roman Catholic Cathedrals, the same with the rest of the religious institutions anywhere including the mosques, wherever there is dirt that could be further developed for multiple purposes to ensure its "best and highest use"?

Yes, you are of course beginning to feel very ashamed of yourself while thinking more about each sexual partner you have had and will have since encountering me, since the last thing you want to be reminded of is Diamond Currency that hasn't stopped you thinking of all those beggars encouraging "lay people" to quickly pick up every penny they see lying on the sidewalk and at any checkout where there are loose pennies.

I can't wait to show you my relatively large penny collection.

Let me know if you think it would add or distract were I to when loading this communiqué on to just3ants.com to include a photo right here showing the look you can well imagine on the gorgeous face of my French-Canadian wife who has finally got to the point of no longer moving part of the penny collection which I keep at our cliff for "rainy day" in to a safety deposit box at Bank of America.

You will recall in the movie MUNich there was this scene just outside the hotel's bar when the in-shape leader of the one Mossad hit squad warns an older out-of-shape member to be mindful of the attractive, sweet smelling "honey flower" who was not exactly after "killer bees".

I refer a lot to SPIelberg's MUNIch for good reason given how very intimately familiar I am with many if not most and possible all the not exclusive Israeli hit squads that David Ben Gurion began activating immediately after there was clear evidence of a breach in security at the 1972 Munich Olympic Games; the brutal murder of 11 defenseless Israeli Olympic athletes all very carefully planned and executed to perfection by not some ragtag, skinhead nutcases with a hard-on for killing Jews, much like each and every assassination including those of JFK, RFK and Yitzhak Rabin, David Ben Gurion's protégé who was assassinated by a "lone gunman" educated at Bar Ilan University who of course don't only produce fanatics; some of the very best of Israelis such as Ami Ayalon attended Bar Ilan

And of course I got to meet some of their worst both in Israel as well as in New York City, the Park Hotel across from Central Park, to be precise.

Not to mention, the 11 Israeli athletes of course were not exactly defenseless but when up against pros who know how easy it is to load, fire, reload an AK 47 when the bullet clip is empty, there isn't really much one can do but be willing to die the instant an assassin gets within arm's reach.

It was shameful that the whole incident went on so very long unless each and every one of the athletes, most if not all, having completed their military training in Israel, were all tied up right from the very start but then again before tying someone up you first have to get close, unless there was a "rat".

"Keep your friends close and your enemies even closer" – Tsun Tzu.

"By way of deception we wage war" – Mossad

Again, the lessons learned by Ben Gurion and Co. following the Operation Suzannah debacle of the summer of 1954 should serve as more of a wakeup call for all those who don't have to work for living who live off Trust Funds, investment income; i.e. have either legally stolen enough or have inherited sufficient ill-gotten gains and of course so very quick when asked to explain their indifference to the miserable plight of the poor who again are not stupid only misinformed, resort to mindless banter which of course includes suggesting they have "no interest in business, politics, economics or history" and if not schooled in the arts, as so few are, thanks to art being the first discipline a corrupt government stops funding, then go "deafeningly silent".

It is easy to talk, much less so to write when you don't have someone pointing a gun at your head but then again I have always felt us highly creative-inventive Jewish people were living on borrowed time the instant I became aware that we had to fight our War of Independence right after I thought the Nazis had been defeated and the world would "come to order" and figure 6 million of us having been so horribly slaughtered was enough to satisfy the bloodletting.

But that would make me "naïve" to think that somehow because there is "peace and quiet" like we have right now in Iraq and Afghanistan, relatively speaking that is, and all depending on who is reporting the news, that suddenly humanity would want "good things to happen to good people".

Yes, that ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence report that I was not only the first to broadcast but still the only one mentioning it time and again has a lot to do with why you continue to read on.

Just the fact that I was born one could consider a miracle even though my mother had 8 miscarriages ahead of me.

I invited you to our Carriage House in Del Mar, perched atop the bluffs overlooking the awesome Pacific ocean when we first spoke but you told me that you had just been out to California but planned on being back soon when you would make a point of meeting up with me.

Israel's War of Independence ended officially in 1949 and do you know how many miracle Jewish people have been born since?

When do you recall the last Jewish genocide?

What do you think of this Genocide Task Force sponsored by which division of the 3rd Reich's southern division that was being established on the southern tip of Africa right at the same time that the De Beers controlled US and British government were preparing to wipe out those Jewish people fighting for the right of every Jewish person to exist, foolishly thinking they could defy the clear signal of President Roosevelt looking like the "potted plant" that he was on board the USS Quincy as Ibn Saud of Saudi Arabia made "small talk" with an American "Military Attache".

That photo I am talking about is another image that will stay with you the rest of your life.

So getting back to getting smart even when trying to seduce someone of the opposite sex and lets just assume the whole world listening is both gay and heterosexual and the gay people are fine with me believing there is an excellent possibility you are heterosexual and are sickened by the prospect of having sex with another male or "tTOo" [sic].

This sex talk is important because I can prove to you that once your basic needs are met and you, in all likelihood, don't want to discuss DeBeers or worse yet, Diamond Currency, the conversation stopper of all time, the only thing left to talk about is art and sex since to talk about DeBeers will in all likelihood you believe interfere with both your basic and deficit needs being met, and to talk about art to someone who doesn't know the first thing about the appreciation of say oil paintings, the most difficult of the art mediums, is beyond belief boring and I would know since I do know a little about art, little that is when compared say to Sebastian Capella but compared to anyone else I know with the exclusion of some of his students, many having been with him a lifetime, I am very knowledgeable and easily distracted when speaking with someone who thinks they know and could easily find out if simply willing to invest some time finding out, and were they to do that they would quickly find that there isn't very much art out there to purchase, let alone see in art galleries or museums, but that could change if we are able to get through the sex talk which is really what interests each one of us after our basic needs are met and our deficit needs, the fear of losing what we already have, have been mitigated by either investing well or having legally stolen.

Of course we could talk about taboo subjects like politics and religion, but so boring when compared to the only option remaining, sex.

Again, to get into anything involving DeBeers who single-handedly have been the world's extraordinarily inefficient allocator of resources is nothing short of a "guts full", making flirtation not only much easier but so enjoyable especially if you are armed as you are about the extraordinary "Money Power" of the DeBeers-Anglo American Cartel, the darkest of dark organizations capable of committing any crime and getting away "scott free" or so they would like everyone to believe.

Their Diamond Invention book was designed simply to scare the living daylights out of everyone, but in creating this non-fiction story detailing their extraordinary devious nature, they were also telegraphing their weaknesses when letting us know they felt the need to let us know they own everyone and everything worth talking about.

And remember I am still here, still not only typing away but my messages are being heard and none more telling than this Harvard church minister, Jan Randolf daring toss in my face the words, "Care given to the details gives strength to the whole" and then goes deafeningly silent on the most important detail, The Diamond Invention, no different to you and all those on the "$ hit List".

Doesn't the phrase, "The Devil is in the detail" make more sense when it is spoken by a Professor of Law at a so prestigious university like Harvard from the pulpit of Harvard's on campus church?

Doesn't it make more sense to you that academia is the new corrupt church?

Yes, once armed with all extraordinarily valuable Knowledge-Information-Light I have been sharing for free you suddenly find yourself so very smart, so very attractive, so very intelligent to the point that you can move in and out of conversations the same way a filthy dirty disgusting fly moves from one piece of shit to the next.

You sleep with a dog, pretty or ugly, you get fleas.

God is smart, God is not crazy, God is vengeful towards those who armed with the KIL (Knowledge, Information, Light) decide either to keep it to themselves or equally rotten to manipulate others to serve their mindless agenda.

There isn't a single human being in the world who I wouldn't be able to flush out in a matter of seconds in determining not only their agenda but what value they are to me in my pursuit to have the beggars of the world make light conversation with everyone they meet when walking in stride with them as they march toward a penny that has been carefully placed in the one perfect spot, the least sun unobstructed.

Here now is the road to financial independence and one great sex life; moreover, better go vegetarian right now; no need to go "cold turkey", just purchase this one Fields of Green gourmet recipe book that has become my wife's and my second bible. Actually I don't own a bible, but I think you would agree I got my Judaism down pat.

And of course the good Christian that you still want to believe you are would know that Jesus Christ was born Jewish orthodox, lived the life of a good Jewish person, pointed out the hypocrisy of both the yet to be formed Roman Catholic Church as well as the Jewish high priests and died because of it and as you would expect go buried according to Jewish custom.

Next, take her to the Neroli in La Jolla, California and have her allow you, while she parades up and down, back and forth wearing the most revealing, so sexy underwear, have sex with you in the dressing room.

Third, when relaxing over your first meal with the woman of your dreams ask this first date who remember demanded that you have sex with her first in the dressing room at Neroli, how she would have felt if she was a member of the Secret Service security detail guarding President elect John F. Kennedy when meeting with Anglo South African Harry Oppenheimer at the Carlyle Hotel, after JFK won the November 1960 President election that was rigged from the start by De Beers and right before he was sworn in as President, Chief Executive Officer, Commander In Chief of all US Armed Forces.

Now of course this meal could be your last supper; remember us Jewish people have been on borrowed time ever since we were made patently aware with that photo shoot on board the USS Quincy on February 14th, 1945 that President Franklin D. Roosevelt was a “potted plant”.

Step four, suggest that the Secret Service agent knows that the duty of the US Secret Service is to both protect the President as well as protect the US currency from other counterfeiters.

Five, suggest that she, the Secret Service agent is honest, comes from a nice non-Jewish family who say grace after meals even if they don't break bread with many Jewish people, many who say the prayers before eating that require silence after rinsing their hands under water until eating a piece of bread, saying another prayer of course, don't necessarily have their blackened hands properly washed with soap and water that take my word for it, cannot do much to wipe clean their sins against man as well as God, who is not stupid.

Six, suggest this Secret Service Agent with a to-die-for body and of course the most cute French accent would however, know that DeBeers is an illegal monopolist operating mainly out of South Africa being ruled by a the most repressive Nazi-like regime in the history of the world that took power within a month of the State of Israel being granted Statehood.

Seven, if she is in any way, shape or form inappropriate at the dinner, even to the point of not having Veronica Hearst, widow of deceased Randolph Apperson Hearst, father of Presidential Pardoned Patty Hearst and immediate past Chairman of the Board of Hearst Corporation who was also the last offspring of its founder William Randolph Hearst, explain when sweating at the table, whatever the reason, to be so very Charm School like and place one's wrist against an iced cold class of water that can be moved back and forth without appearing in any way distracting while using one's arms and legs ever so modestly to make one's point if modesty happens to be the agenda when you would know not to "name drop", find someone else but first taking a few moments to look around the restaurant and after abruptly getting up leave your card with a previously prepared handwritten note with the Maître D, along with a big tip.

Not to mention that very possibly in the back of Bill Clinton's mind when granting the abominable, so very bizarre Presidential Pardon to traitor Marc Rich who voluntarily gave up his US citizenship when believing it no longer served his best interests, by also giving Patty Hearst her Pardon it would "placate" the likes of me who while knowing that the foundation of the Hearst empire began in mining, William Randolph Hearst, the father of my former and now deceased client, Randolph Apperson Hearst, for whatever reason did genuinely care about us Jewish people and was willing to let not only Hitler know when meeting with this stooge despot in 1934, the same year Einstein wrote as his return address, "Concentration Camp, Princeton", but Hitler's principal supporters in the US.

Cutting & Pasting Wikipedia – William Randolph Hearst:

In 1934 after checking with Jewish leaders to make sure the visit would prove of benefit to Jews, Hearst went to Berlin to interview Adolf Hitler. Hitler asked why he was so misunderstood by the American press. "Because Americans believe in democracy," Hearst answered bluntly, "and are averse to dictatorship."

Cutting and Pasting Wikipedia – 1932 Democratic National Convention

The 1932 Democratic National Convention was held in Chicago, Illinois from June 27 - July 2, 1932. The convention resulted in the nomination of Governor Franklin Roosevelt of New York for President and Speaker of the House John Nance Garner of Texas for Vice-President.

The three major contenders for the presidential nomination were Roosevelt, Garner and former governor of New York and 1928 presidential candidate, Al Smith. They roughly represented three competing factions of the Democratic Party. Smith was supported by the Tammany Hall machine in New York City, and had many supporters in the Democratic National Committee, as well as in Chicago. Chicago Mayor Anton Cermak packed the hall with Smith supporters.

Roosevelt was supported by a solid majority of the delegates, and had the support of Senators Burton Wheeler, Cordell Hull, Alben Barkley, and Huey Long, who held the Deep South for Roosevelt. The new Democratic coalition would begin at this convention: Roosevelt brought into the Democratic fold western progressives, ethnic minorities, rural farmers, and intellectuals.

Garner had support from newspaper magnate William Randolph Hearst and Senator William Gibbs McAdoo. He was never a serious threat, and never bothered to campaign for the position. However, the faction that supported Garner was important because it could break a potential deadlock between Smith and Roosevelt.

After six ballots, Roosevelt had not secured the two-thirds majority necessary for the nomination. At this point, Smith believed the delegates were anxious about a deadlocked convention, and attempted to stampede all the delegates' votes toward his surrogate, Cleveland Mayor Newton D. Baker. The stalemate lingered for several days, however, until a late night call was made by leading Democrat Joseph P. Kennedy, Sr. (then a Roosevelt supporter) to Hearst. Kennedy reminded Hearst that if the convention continued in the same way, Smith or Baker would be nominated, two people who embodied all the political beliefs diametrically opposed to Hearst's own. Kennedy managed to convince Hearst to notify Garner to bow out of the race, and to support Roosevelt. When McAdoo learned of this decision, he threw California's delegates to Roosevelt, and the other states fell in line behind Roosevelt.

Not to mention, Kennedy in 1934 gets Roosevelt to make him the first Chairman of the Securities Exchange Commission and not long after Hearst would break with Roosevelt.

Eight, suggest that the Secret Service agent has never not once lied, stolen or cheated, the same with her parents who she both loves and adores and every Christmas she light Hanukah candles for our brother, the Lord Jesus Christ.

Nine, suggest that the Secret Service agent is able to rise above all the nonsense religious dogma that has the clergy in all the major as well as minor religions creating all this conflict in order to give themselves employment.

Ten, suggest the Secret Service agent is also possibly Jewish and is disgusted by the close association of the Hasidic-ultra orthodox Jewish-Black Hatters and De Beers as I was from a very early age when first seeing them in Israel and wondering what fricken planet did they arrive from and why didn't God at least have us swop places.

Eleven, suggest the Secret Service agent despite knowing the essence of Judaism, "Do unto others as you would want done unto yourself and the rest is commentary", that she would not have taken issue with the Jewish high priests who said 10 is 10 and to allow the Christians the eleventh commandment, "Do unto others as you would want done unto yourself" which would have created just more room for argument since you would need to be possibly reminded that when you put 10 Jewish people in a room you end up with 11 arguments.

Twelve, suggest to the Secret Service agent that while it still remains possible she has not heard of my mother Zena Gevisser who as she got closer to being on adult diapers to suit her childish behavior since what else can explain her senility, but has now heard me say enough times that my mother "only debates people who agree with her".

Thirteen, suggest to your date who by now might have got bored with the "role playing" that the Secret Service agent guarding incoming President John F. Kennedy was absolutely convinced that this meeting at the Carlyle Hotel between JFK and Harry Oppenheimer was simply the "shot across the bow" of De Beers by a future no-nonsense President who was going to have his brother Robert be the next United States of America Attorney General, tasked with executing the sacrosanct anti-Trust laws of the US aimed very specifically at the likes of De Beers who have no comparables when it comes to crimes against humanity.

Fourteen, ask her how, again if she were EVER a United States Secret Service Agent how would she feel about the fact that from that moment forward, beginning with the swearing in ceremonies on January 20th, 1961 all the way through the assassinations of both JFK and Robert F. Kennedy, not one word was spoken about De Beers by either President John F. Kennedy and Attorney General of the United States, Robert F. Kennedy or a single other member of the 3 Branches of the United States Government, at least not in public.

Fifteen, ask how she would feel being the wife of that Secret Service Agent who right after that most extraordinary meeting at the Carlyle Hotel, that Secret Service Agent along with every other Secret Service Agent with a brain between their ears was informed by at least one member of the Mossad that JFK and his wife Jackie had met previously with both Harry Oppenheimer and his American partner Charles Engelhard at Engelhard's Camp Chaleur estate across the border in Quebec, Canada when the details were worked out for this most extraordinary meeting on US soil between the incoming President and the co-head of the mafia of mafia. Sixteen, ask how she would explain this all today to not only her children whose fathers and mothers still guard the President of the United States knowing their other job of protecting the US Dollar from counterfeiters is total bullshit.

Seventeen, ask her if she would like to contribute just one penny to just3ants.com and more if she can afford it.

Eighteen, ask her if she is ready this very instant to find a sponsor with a "value system" and if she answers "no!" or even "maybe", immediately start looking around the restaurant so that when the Matre D calls, you can provide a detailed description of your next prospect.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Wow. Both Marie and I are impressed. It looks like a great hangout!

I believe I did get a copy of the monthly figures. Please tell me how you computed the "percentage of turnover" calculation; it seems higher than I expected.

We wish you and your family very well not only this Holiday season.

Best regards,

Gary + Marie

Ps - I am copying Peggy Anderson who lives in Wiveliscombe, Somerset about an hours drive inland from Minehead; perhaps Peggy, who was my world traveling mother's most trusted and so very brilliant personal Irish secretary for many years back in South Africa, can make copies of the photos and walk them over to my mother's mini estate, 7 Hartswell Lane, Wiveliscombe, TA42E.

Not to mention Robert Anderson, Peggy's husband, very possibly in the top 3 geniuses the world has ever been blessed with, and remember Einstein was one of them, should be extended an invitation to join you for a lager or two, and feel free to charge such well deserved hospitality to my account.

To mention little of each time I visited with my mother who decided to settle in Wiveliscombe only because the Andersons were already there, how much I would look forward to sitting quietly with Robert in the rectangular shaped sun house attached to the garage as we sipped a cup of tea talking about everything under the sun but never once distracted by rather intense philosophical thoughts going back to ancient times to not notice and comment on each and every action or inaction of every bird, no matter how tiny that stopped by to say "hello" and guide us back without missing a heartbeat to how easy it would be to solve the problems of the world should

God bless us once again with someone with as Robert would say, "heightened sensitivity".

My mother, Zena along with my eldest brother Neil who also has homes in Wiveliscombe as well as another of our English friends visited Seacrest/Waterfront in late December 2001 right after I purchased it from the Costers. Zena, who didn't exactly get off a boat just yesterday and has owned homes all over the world was rather impressed with what she saw and felt most of all, besides for being in the most perfect location imaginable, right on the water's edge and adjacent to the most enchanted and beautiful forest leading to Burgundy Chapel, this 3 bedroom house with a café attached, was in "nick condition".

Not to mention this "Gentleman" English friend owns the magnificent home at the entrance to Dunster Castle, just down the road from Minehead, and whose beams in the ceiling of the upstairs master bedroom come from the remains of the Spanish Amanda sunk in 1588.

Of course anything, apart from humans living right on the water requires constant upkeep, especially heavily salt saturated oceans.

Wouldn't it be something if we didn't have to brush our teeth which at least allows us some time during the day not to listen, let alone think about all those suffering so very horribly only because those of us so very fortunate choose very carefully not to care about the truth behind the rich getting richer trickling down the costs of getting rich on to the backs of the poor who are not stupid, only misinformed by the rich who I am proving beyond a shadow of a doubt, all know better and who justify their "ostrich behavior" on the grounds that "there is nothing I can do about all the shitheads out there", all the while able to make so very thoughtful comments which they would prefer to keep to themselves but for "sum" [sic] reason can't help themselves, "People who have money take advantage and those that don't get taken advantage of" before then concluding, "Whatever, I do not care!"

Ps - Beginning tomorrow all my communications apart from the occasional private communications where email may still be more appropriate, will be posted on my blog on www.just3ants.com, which from time to time you might want to check out.

Greeting and good day my friend

First of all

I do appreciate your honesty ;)

HEE HEE this is going to be fun...if you want to play the intellectual "one up-man-ship" this will et very interesting ...

please don't take this the wrong way- Dalton has an EGO too (wow) << see below >>

I do know that I can ride my mountain bike faster,fuck faster, play djembe and percussion better, play chess better, write better poetry and free verse, and ski better than you so don't play stupid f$$$ intellectual games with me (with all due respect, of course)
