Subject: FIGURE OUT-PREDICT THE FUTURE-secret weapon knitter- Seminar...
Can I post this on just3ants?

Kory,

While it is the opinion of the most intelligent people I know that even people such as yourself who have witnessed firsthand both my willingness, to set aside all my distractions beginning with my most beautiful and sexy French-Canadian wife, now scantily but very appropriately dressed, sitting beside me as we finish up breakfast and Marie Dion Gevisser allows me to type ever so gently while we both enjoy the live seascape framed by the two enormous and most beautiful Monterey Pines, extending all the way to the horizon, as well as my ability to protect those "without a voice" coming to me with their "simple problems", will never, not until you are totally "down and out", decide to "stand tall" alongside me as I make it my business-personal to highlight the "superficiality" of even those such as MADD [Mothers Against Drunk Driving] who have this appearance of being one of the few "good guys".

Obviously it is not going to take a rocket scientist to figure out that it is going to be "lights out" for US Americans who haven't stashed their gold and other valuables offshore, no different to each member of the US Congress who are not only the most corrupt government officials in the world, but worse yet, the most incompetent, given how for a century now, they have believed the day of reckoning would never take place when they would be asked to account for all of the world's stolen gold that they haven't stashed away mostly in offshore bank safety deposit boxes, that explains why it is not all of the gold is in Fort Knox after having been so brutally grabbed from places like South Africa, beginning at the end of the Anglo Boer War 1899-1902, a most vicious war financed by US American banks led by J.P. Morgan who also financed the American led 8 Allied Nations invasion of China as well as the De Beers diamond syndicate, whose founder Cecil Rhodes in his first will, detailed in the most explicit fashion, his vision for a Secret Society who would be the world's allocator of resources.

So since you don't have much if any gold to speak of stored for a rainy day what exactly apart from "Poverty of Thought", helped greatly if you are already an alcoholic, from having not simply the courage but the minutest of basic common sense to organize everyone you know to attend, right this minute, my "real time", Educational Light Journey-One Tribe of Achievers seminar-workshop?

And of course my Durban, South Africa, Charm School

THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING A WOMAN (SERIES 2)

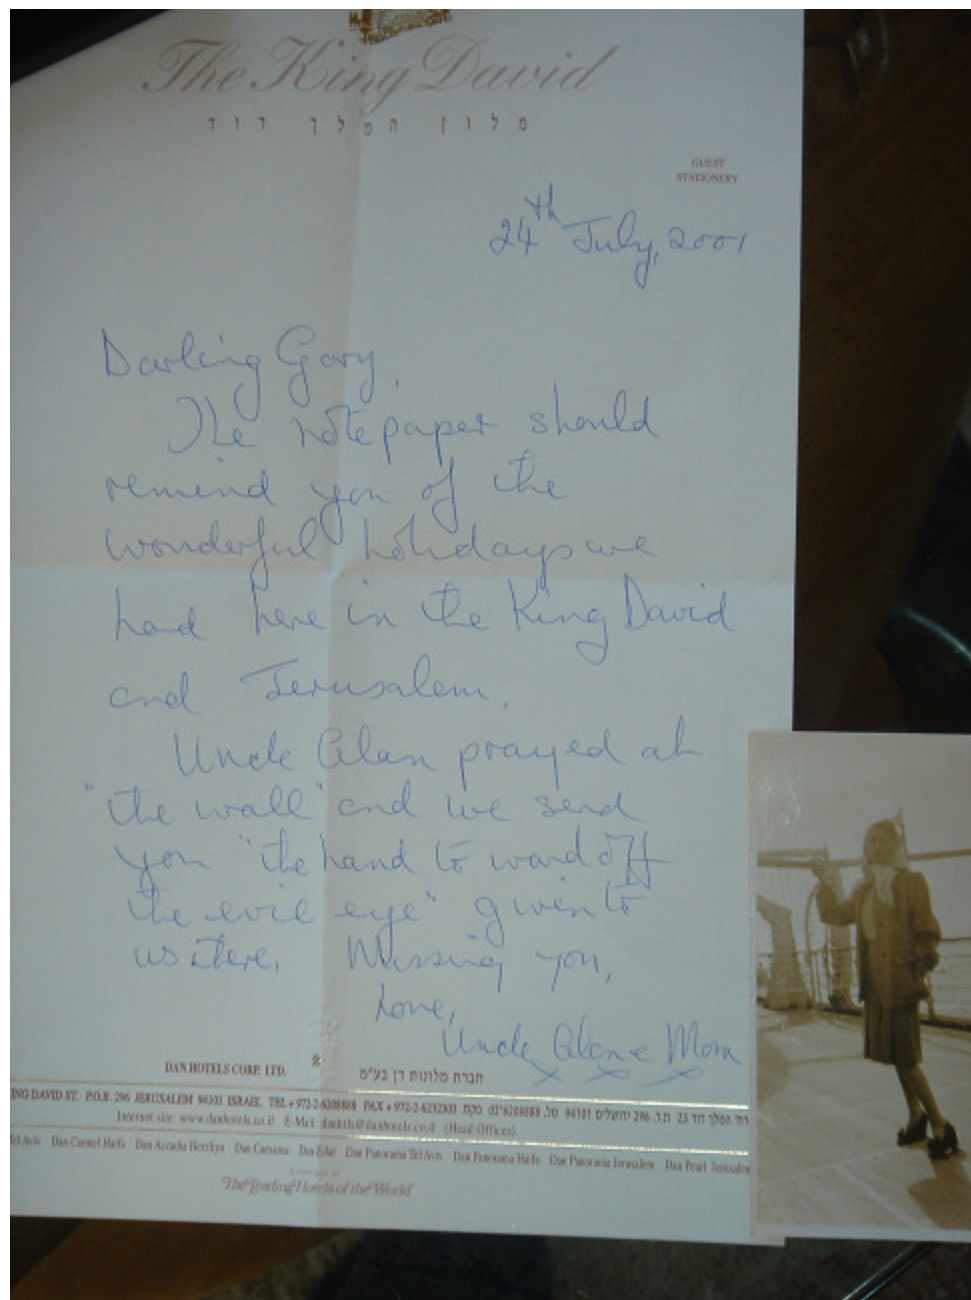

BY

training can inform you how to best deal with things like "blackheads" that turn into rather nasty oozing pimples that along with failing to be first and foremost "straight with yourself" leads to an endless cycle of co-dependency; worst of all ending up at a very young age to be so very boring.

Right now there are 3 dolphins surfing a wave directly in front of our rented cliff house causing 3 people walking on the cliff to stop and enjoy this most uplifting experience especially if you are someone in good physical as well as mental shape, able to easily imagine you were one of them, and if not then a surfer or someone such as myself, a wave ski rider, who every so often has the company of these most amazing creatures; no doubt like all of G-D-Nature including the human beast whose mind the result of a lifetime of lying, cheating and stealing had turned in to a perfect vacuum and is inevitably guided by the most ingenious but vengeful God who most of all demands that we be smart, which of course is impossible when mindless, if we have the slightest chance of making it in to the "promised land" which is where President George W. Bush is now visiting, staying I believe at the King David Hotel.

Not to mention this letter below dated July 24th, 2001, written on the stationery of King David Hotel, Jerusalem, Israel, sent by my mother, Zena who no doubt was thinking at the time not only about me but about her "Life Story of Zena" that she began broadcasting less than 3 months later on October 9th, 2001.

The photo to the right shows my mother, age 18, back in 1947 aboard the Cape Town Castle as she and her immediate family, headed by my granddad Alef-Albert-Al Badash-Ash, a multi-millionaire, journeyed from England to South Africa.

Should you be interested in renting the movie Exodus, you will notice that a blonde American woman looking much like the way my mother traveled back then [see below] featured prominently in this fairly accurate movie that details the struggles of the Jewish Underground up against the British and American superpowers, although there are few, if any, references in this American movie to US Americans being "unfriendly" to the fledging Jewish State, which came of age on May 14th, 1948 and named Israel, by David Ben Gurion, the head of the Hagannah, the less militant of the two Jewish Underground movements, who came from the same tiny village of Plonsk, White Russia-Poland as Al Ash's mother, my great maternal grandmother, Nechie Badash who in 1929, "returned to England from Tel-Aviv, Israel" where this orphan of a pogrom, which wiped out her entire immediate family was, "one of the early residents of Tel-Aviv".

Not to forget the scenes between Paul Newman, one of the many "nothing" celebrities my mother has met, and Eva Marie Saint at the King David Hotel that on July 22nd 1946, again a year prior to my granddad Al Ash "abruptly" informing my mother that they would be headed to South Africa soon to be run by the 3rd Reich's Southern Division, was the target of an attack by the Irgun, the more militant Jewish Underground movement headed up by future prime minister of Israel, Menachem Begin who so admirably chose not to be buried alongside other Israeli heads of state on Mount Herzl, but at Mount of Olives, alongside his comrades who he helped commit suicide in jail, as they awaited execution by the British-

Americans; and should you think it important we also find blame with the persons, possibly in China who weaved the hanging ropes, be my guest.

You might find it interesting to read my very carefully crafted Royal Mater-Mother's "Life Story of Zena" that to the best of knowledge has yet to be published in any other format. Click on below:

<http://www.nextraterrestrial.com/pdf/jkansa-name.htm>

Right this minute, 9:30 am, this very in shape young woman you see below, came running directly in front of our two oversized front windows, stopped, began twisting from side to side, looked straight at me, I thought she smiled, and then continued on her merry way.

Assume for the moment you have never heard of me and have been forwarded this communiqué and right now all you are thinking about is how next to react to the next bit of bad news detailing the collapse of United States of America's real estate industry leaving only our military prowess on foreign battlefields to support our collapsing anything but Almighty US Dollar which will turn us instantly in to one the many Banana Republics we have created throughout the world for the past century, and from which there is no possibility of a recovery, at least not before the entire world blows up; and of course at that moment there won't be any of us to care, nor will there be any news to speak of being reported by the extraordinarily controlled media.

Lets also assume you have little if any faith that I am any different to say a broadcaster like Matt Drudge of Drudgereport.com who gives the impression that all he is doing is picking the most newsworthy items from the controlled media, that he readily acknowledges is controlled, but less so than him, and those who work for him, let alone those who butter his bread who only provide him with references by virtue of his much more visible presence than me on the Internet as well, and of course, more importantly, his reluctance to discuss De Beers, beginning with Hollywood blockbuster author, Edward Jay Epstein's mind-blowing Internet only, The Diamond Invention, that details the devious nature of the mafia of mafia who can don't have to abide by any of our sacrosanct anti-Trust/anti-Price Fixing laws but who can use their unlimited supply of untraceable, lightweight and never inventoried Diamond Currency to fix elections and then to top it all, have the gall to force meetings with our Presidents immediately prior to being sworn in as President as was the case with President John F. Kennedy.

Until such time as you have an understanding of the enormously profitable and "Money Power" business of "money creation" you don't have a clue about how to predict the future and find yourself constantly thinking about the importance of what I have to say beginning with my forthcoming book, The History of Money Creation and Its Future!, when not caught up in your own little world worrying about the things you cannot do anything about such as your kid surfing alongside a bully unless you were to ban him from going in the water altogether, that then has you thinking he may be better off eaten by a shark than continuing to have his head bashed to smithereens by his over-controlling biological father, that immediately has you thinking about not burning his toasted sandwich that you hope he still has a sufficient brain to remember to take to school without you reminding him that when he remembers gives you so much pleasure that helps very little as once he is out the door you are forced once again to think about the rapidly deteriorating value of your real estate holdings beginning with your residence followed immediately by your stock and bond portfolio.

Of course the benefit of the time wasted is that time has moved on and you have got older as well as uglier, your big ears and big nose that much bigger as you age horribly, like pretty much everyone you know, beginning when looking at that parent who is the most in denial, who you only keep going back to not because you so very much enjoy their so malicious head trips but because they have the money and you simply don't want to have to work for a living as these disgusting selfish-bastard parents make you pay horribly for allowing them to co-opt-corrupt you as they make you eat with them when all you want to do is puke especially since as time passes it is inevitable that the entire world will know your shortcomings.

Don't you just love the internet beginning with email where you don't have a clue who is being blind copied all the while knowing that those you see in the carbon copy section are also more than likely to forward highly informative emails such as this to most if not all on their email lists?

Now if you are not someone bought off with a Trust Fund you are now feeling terrific.

You would know that my wife and I have done more over the past several years in addition to getting out of both the stock market and real estate market here in the United States just before it peaked, leaving enough on the table for our buyers to make a healthy profit, all the while reminding them not to overextend themselves and to begin immediately diversifying their portfolio beginning with going in to gold, which you would know is not something you can eat but even without understanding the dynamics and importance of gold in the preservation of wealth, you would know has a history that predates history beginning with the Children of Israel building a golden calf when losing faith in Moses who they felt had spent far too much time dialoguing with God.

God is a word which many of us Jewish people spell, "G-d" to illustrate that our Superior Being has no "life form" as we know it, forcing us to use our imaginations which now has you recalling Einstein's words, "Imagination is more important than knowledge".

But in order to get one's imagination to function one first has to have knowledge beginning with how to not simply survive but prosper from this pending collapse of the US economy which is really and truly wonderful news for all the world's poor and downtrodden, just so long as they don't resort to violence and play in to the ruling elite's so very tried and proven ethnic cleansing civil wars; bearing in mind that the ruling elite have absolutely no loyalty to any tribe, any ethnicity, any race, any sex, etc etc only to those who ferment civil unrest leading to ethnic cleansing civil wars.

If you have the least amount of interest in understanding more about the extraordinarily lucrative business of "Money Creation", but only so long as you have the mightiest military, and therefore not in the least bit bothered especially if you have no money in the bank and up to your eyeballs in debt, just so long as you can still feed yourself and have enough energy to attend one of my forthcoming seminars-workshops, don't you feel just great?

You understand perfectly well that not only are the ruling elite coughing their lungs out as they read this in "real time" but they now also understand that you are very capable of also understanding that it was in fact the Nazis who won World Oil War II that has you now not only thinking about Chapter 9, of the Diamond Invention, titled, DIAMONDS FOR HITLER, but to the year 1938 when Princeton University freshman polled Hitler as being "the greatest living human being", voting Einstein second.

Don't you also feel so good about yourself that you didn't get accepted in to an Ivy League University; moreover, that you decided to skip college altogether?

If not, then all I can assume is that you are still wasting your time and money attending even a local city college who has failed to invite me to speak to their entire student body.

Next, if you are tracking along as you should given how long you have known me and been reading very carefully what I have to say, to now thinking ever so carefully about Chapter 13 of The Diamond Invention, titled, THE DIAMOND MIND; the second paragraph that begins, "In September 1938, Harry Oppenheimer journeyed to New York City..." before then recalling in Chapter 18, THE AMERICAN CONSPIRACY, paragraph 15:

The founder of Engelhard Minerals and Chemicals, Charles Engelhard, [Anglo South African Harry Oppenheimer's partner] was a well-connected American entrepreneur who had inherited a small metal fabricating company from his father. In the late 1940s, he had journeyed to South Africa to make his fortune. South African mines had a surplus of gold, but government regulations prohibited the exporting of gold bullion from South Africa without permits from the central bank, which were very difficult to obtain. Great Britain which still controlled the affairs of South Africa, wanted to retain as much gold as possible within the sterling bloc. Engelhard found a loophole through that regulation: while it was illegal to export gold bars, it was legal to export objets d'art made of gold. Engelhard formed a company called Precious Metals Development that bought gold from the mines and cast it in the form of statues and other religious items. Engelhard exported these religious objets d'art to Hong Kong, where they were melted down and turned back into gold bullion, which could then be sold on the free market. (This ploy was later used by Ian Fleming, who was a business partner of Engelhard, in his novel Goldfinger)

The first thing you would notice when knowing to read everything from the bottom up, is the lack of a period or "full-stop" as we would say in South Africa, following the word, "Goldfinger".

Next, the utter nonsense of "permits" given how Charles Engelhard who chose my father's first cousin, David Gevisser, as the executor of his fabulously mineral rich estate, owned, along with Harry Oppenheimer, the entire South African Apartheid Regime who did exactly as Engelhard and Oppenheimer commanded, given these mafia kingpins "Money Power" position that was created from having the backing of the entire bought and paid for 3 Branches of the US Government whose military prevented any credible opposition, not only in South Africa, but throughout the western world.

Next you will recall that my uncle David Gevisser's closest and most trusted friend in the world was my Royal Mother-Mother who is best known amongst South Africans as simply Zena Gevisser, who was both very worldly and very rich long before she married my father on October 10th, 1948 when just 19 years of age, and within 3 months, "From the earliest days of 1949 she began visiting Israel two and three times a year, writing reports for different publications".

You may even recall this photo of my highly secretive Royal Mater taken in Hong Kong where Zena, in the center wearing her genuine leopard skin outfit that later got stolen, got caught looking very Chinese.

The first thing you should notice is that none of the Chinese people seated or standing look like Chinese peasants that my mother you could possibly imagine had picked up deep in the mainland of China in a rescue effort by an Israeli fighter pilot flying a French Mirage fighter jet used during the 1967 6 Day Arab-Israeli War that immediately following resulted in my very well-traveled mother being the first "civilian" to be allowed in to the captured territories of the Sinai.

Next you will recall that a full year prior, I and the rest of my immediate family visited Israel and then again some 6 months following this most extraordinary successful war that displayed the very best of both Israeli military intelligence and its most brilliant fighters beginning with Israeli fighter pilots who in the second day of the war with victory quite certain, but with both the Mossad and Israeli Military Intelligence already planning the next war, decided to take out in international waters the USS Liberty, a totally defenseless American spy ship that had no business in the area other than to get up to mischief; bearing in mind that the planners of Israel's wars don't have a problem with "short memories" beginning with the absolute fact that the United States of America was no friend of Israel from its very beginnings, a fact of life rather unknown to most US Americans who for good reason couldn't even figure out that Hitler, the most non-Aryan looking human being on the planet would be calling for there to be just one Aryan race without first making certain that his name appeared first on the list of those to be gassed at Auschwitz.

How "fu*king" [sic] more stupid can some 300 million of us Americans get?

If you would like, that would be the first question I will answer at my forthcoming seminar-workshop and why not go ahead right now and book Carnegie Hall.

I strongly suggest that you not only examine the "back and forth" between Adam L. Tucker and Devin Standard who in addition to deciding very deliberately when included only in the blind copy section to hit "reply to all" when first communicating with Adam, has strong relationships with the United States Navy who are this moment the laughing stock of anyone who knows the first thing about how to fight and win a war without resorting to nuclear weapons; but also both my communiqués that "triggered" this dialogue between the two of them which began when Adam L. Tucker sent me his latest draft of his analysis of the not so top secret Israeli Military Intelligence Report, that with each passing moment not only spells doom for the United States economy but leaves it up to the United States Military to continue its mischief in places where it has no business, all the while the world's most competent military, the Israel Defense Force along with the world's new superpower, the Peoples Republic of Communist China, are not exactly "asleep at the wheel".

Then give thought to how many people you think you can attract to attend the next of my Educational Light Journey-One Tribe of Achievers seminar-workshop where not only will I take each and every question put to me no matter how stupid but for the first 100 attendees I will agree, "free of charge", to be an "advocate" for their "competing corruption".

I believe I still own www.competingcorruption.com which will allow everyone in the world including United States military personnel to voice their "grouch" beginning with both their pay as well as the food they eat which with each passing moment is increasingly likely to be their last meal; bearing again in mind that both the State of Israel as well as China have now long had plans to survive not only a preemptive US nuclear attack but a nuclear holocaust versus the United States of America continuing to be totally dependent on its first strike capability; not to mention yesterday's display against 5 Iranian speedboats should have each and every member of the United States Military questioning whether their superiors are incompetent, culpable or both, take your pick!

Whether or not the video put out by Pentagon is accurate [click on below] it talks only extraordinarily badly about the decision making of Navy officials at the highest levels.

<http://www.breitbart.tv/html/26424.html>

Bear in mind that Devin Standard is more familiar than most US Americans as it relates to high speed boats since he was spearheading a project to develop a new fleet of navy vessels for the US Navy and had on his board both a Rear Admiral of the Navy as well as former Navy SEAL members who don't need to be reminded time and again how just one little rubber dingy took out the Cole, the US Navy's most advanced frigates.

Bear also in mind that Devin Standard, an African American, has an uncle who during World Oil War II was on a US Navy ship that was denied landing rights in Australia because of Black American service people on board; not to mention Devin's father, Kenneth Standard Esquire should require no introduction.

Equally important is that you shouldn't forget that on Thanksgiving Day China denied landing rights not just to one or two but three United States Navy vessels that the Peoples Republic of Communist China hasn't forgotten why, what about you?

Bear also in mind that my one American mentor, Amos P. Wright was during WOW II both a US Marine and Navy Officer on board the ship that carried the Admiral of the Pacific Fleet who the night before the pending attack by the Japanese fleet had each and every one of the officers, as well as all the rest of the crew, go on their hands and knees and pray to God to "intervene", knowing that given the size of the Japanese fleet they would all be decimated; not to mention that to this day there has never been a reasonable explanation as to why the Japanese fleet turned around.

Every battle fought is first of all planned and often times years in advance, just like wars.

Remember President Bush is in the holy land today and Mr. Bush knows much more than he is letting on.

US Americans have a hard time gauging what the Chinese, the Jews of the Orient, are thinking when seated across the table because they often do as do Israelis, smile a lot when not smiling, and nod their heads accordingly without feeling the need to say much.

What prevents you from voicing your opinion on that ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence report?

Is it the same reason that the most intelligent people in the world give for why you and everyone you know wouldn't attend one of my seminar-workshops where you should pay as much as you can until it hurts?

Keep Smiling!

Gary

Adam:

I believe there may be 2-3 compelling elements to Gary's thesis.

- 1) Learn how to protect yourself from a financial collapse
- 2) Earn the psychological satisfaction which comes from knowing you are doing the right thing
- 3) Diamonds are the Devil's deception

It should be easy to test stick rates for the message communicated in several different fashions:

A) <http://www.survivethecrisis.com/>

B) <http://www.lewrockwell.com/>

C) <http://www.allamericangold.com/>

I think if you test these blog formats that you can drive significant numbers of people top the site.

Welcome back.

You obviously have a much stronger background in marketing than I do; in fact didn't you come up with the name "Educational Light Journey, One Tribe of Achievers" as a seminar concept?

What do you think the benefits are to attending?

What is the payoff?

"I've been called an idea machine gun. Give me some ammo and the creativity is unleashed."

~Devin Standard

You would agree that was a pretty pathetic show of our Navy this past Sunday, especially with the USS Cole so fresh in their minds. What ever happened to "shoot first, ask questions later"? Then again, we were never really good at the latter.

Maybe we should add 'common sense' to the list of benefits from attending the seminar and from the looks of it there is a lot of people starting with the captains of those Navy destroyers that would benefit greatly even if their incompetence was deliberate.

I think that you would agree that it is all about predictability which is now lacking more so than ever for US.

If you need more ammo, let me know how I can help.

Cheers!
Adam

P.S. Have you made a list of people that you would like to invite?

Adam:

IMHO-The seminar can not be free.
People won't value it if they have no skin in the game.
They will promise to attend, then they won't show.

And, your copy doesn't tell the reader what is the benefit of their attendance/participation, there is merely a list of topics.

People need to know what the payoff is. WIIFM, What's in it for me?

Answer that question in a compelling fashion and you can fill Carnegie Hall!

Rgds,
Devin

Marie says it may not be perfect but it is good.

I am sitting right now with JoNathan about to do his Trigonometry homework and of course it is really tough for both of us not to be distracted by the handful of surfers directly in front of the cliff house surfing glass like conditions, JoNathan now commenting, "Its good" [sic].

Just moments before he said as his eyes lighted up, "Guess what? My teacher said I could do the homework over. I never thought he would. He seemed really stuck up with his opinions. The way he said it was like, "Yeah, you can redo your homework" but he gave me this look like yeah I will let you do it, whatever, but it was not my mistake."

Let me back up by cutting and pasting what Marie sent JoNathan's math teacher last night with of course no input from The IT:

From: Marie Dion Gevisser
Sent: Monday, January 07, 2008 8:42 PM
To: Math Teacher
Subject: Ungraded homework

December 7th, 2008

Dear Mr. S...,

My son Jonathan Stewart has made me aware that two of his homeworks have been entered as zeros. Jonathan is aware of the consequences of not doing his homework.

No teacher has ever reported any problems with missing assignments. It is very unlikely that Jonathan failed to turn his homework in once let alone twice. He should be given the opportunity to bring positive energy to "sum"(sic) mistake.

Please feel free to contact me or my husband, Gary, at gevisser@sbcglobal.net or by phone 858-481-1750

Sincerely,

Marie Dion Gevisser

Of course there was no mention that the math teacher has a very messy desk; not to mention it is doubtful this teacher or any teacher gets many if any communiqués from parents let alone such a sic one; parents probably don't take the time to respond, mostly don't believe they their child actually did the homework.

That should serve as part of Marie's bio but please don't forget her Myspace profile:

I am an artist.

Sexy , beautiful and intelligent.
What else do you want to know?
I can't type. Make it short. Let's cut through the bs.
Just go to jus3ants.com and tell me what you think.
This is some of the things I am interested in apart from art.
My age. Almost 50

As I look out across the Pacific ocean , 11 o'clock, about a mile out, a relatively small vessel, looks like a shipping boat, now making a U-turn, perhaps the following thoughts should serve as part of my bio.

In the event I were to become preoccupied with doing other stuff, like washing off the mud from my Cannondale mountain bicycle so that when it dries and falls off on the floor of the garage those including myself, not paying sufficient attention, end up trooping the dirt all over the cliff house's white carpets that when airborne add to all the coughing that adds to the brain damage of all human beings, this brain numbing matter spread even by butterflies on a deserted island, but only those with binoculars who also lip read, leading either a good or not so good psychologist to trace back each one of us 7 billion odd human beings affected by the mud remaining on the bike's tires, to the year dot when God/G-d failed to coach Adam and Eve on the merits of good parenting, even if the psychologist had sufficient gold stashed away and her only excuse for calling for the guaranteeing of the entire universe, as best we know it, to the fact that her lover wasn't as good as my wife's, and consequently I didn't get around to following up with President George W. Bush as the US Government now raises the ante to embroil the Middle East in yet another war, in an all out effort to distract from the US Government's extraordinary nexus with De Beers, the world's extraordinarily poor allocator of resources that has them constantly needing diversions and nothing quite as easy to finance as their own terrorist organizations using De Beers' own unlimited supply of untraceable, lightweight and never inventoried Diamond Currency, always price fixed at more than a barrel of oil pumped out of the ground using De Beers price fixed diamond drilling bits, I strongly suggest that the analysis of that very easy to understand Israeli Military Intelligence report begins as I would my follow up to Mr. Bush:

Dear Mr. President,

Take a deep breath both before and after reading the introduction to this follow up communiqué bearing in mind that I could be long dead by the time you read it caused either by that butterfly flapping its wings or even a blunt ax to the back of my head.

What does the Military Report of all time mean other than the United States Government is corrupt, so very much in bed with Al Quaida as it is with the corrupt kingdoms of Saudi Arabia, Kuwait and Qatar who the US depend on to finance the likes of Al Quaida who know better than to bite the hands that feed it, all the while our Arab and non-Arab tyrants including those in Iran, beef up their propaganda on the world's impoverished peoples by filling them up with hatred directed to Israel, the most democrat country housing the most hard working and productive peoples in the world despite Israel's many corruptions beginning with the so extraordinarily incompetent current Prime Minister who chooses very poorly in not explaining to the world that from the very beginning of the modern State of Israel, the United States Government was no friend of the fledging Jewish State.

BTW Mr. President, have you forgotten that back in the summer of 2006 about 100 Hezbollah Special Op commandos mimicking Israeli Special Forces commandos hurled the most unsophisticated missiles in to Haifa causing the evacuation of Israel's third largest city, housing a population of some 300,000 and yet not even 3rd cousins of these very skilled Hezbollah Special Op commandos have succeeded in causing the evacuation of Riyadh, Saudi Arabia while avoiding the oil fields of Saudi Arabia, Kuwait and Qatar because you think they simply ran out of missiles which of course Israel could also supply?

Lets now get back to my extraordinary presence on the Internet as well as my "credibility" beginning with my "secret weapon knitter" French-Canadian very excellent artist painter-teacher wife who on December 31st, 2002 chose wisely to write an email to group of gold traders, many if not most, failing to buy gold for their own account, that began,

"It seems that Mr. Gevisser might in fact be on to something..."

Gold closed 2002 at below US$350 a troy ounce. Gold last traded on the spot market at US$888.30.

Neither Al Quaida nor the State of Israel nor Iran nor the Russians nor The Peoples Republic of Communist China, the world's new superpower who feature for good reason prominently in that ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence Report that anyone with even a particle of a brain cannot get out of their mind given how so very easy it is to understand even for the most easily distracted, even if it is just because I say so, have yet to attack the oil fields of Saudi Arabia, Kuwait and Qatar that in the next instant will paralyze the United States economy that is already on its last legs which explains why it is that the United States Navy that lost the USS Cole to less than a handful of guys on one rubber dingy would picking a fight right now with 5 Iranian speedboats who cannot always be counted to follow orders given by mostly United States business interests who profit from war and who see peace in the Middle East as war and very understandably harmful to their bottom line.

My F-C wife has just got back to the cliff house pointing out the bright pink spot in the skyline, the sunset having ended just moments ago.

Now before getting back to extraordinary new and improved species of butterflies let us civilians and non-civilians examine closely the actions of the Captain of the USS Hawker who failed to give the order to blow each and every one of those 5 Iranian speedboats clear out of the water immediately after noticing not only them approaching at a fast speed but dropping what were called "suspicious boxes" in to the water followed by the words, "I am coming at you, will explode in a couple of minutes".

What is the US patrolling in International waters apart from looking for yet another "staged fight"?

Remember, Mr. President we have "eyes in the sky" that can lead to the decimation of an ant while protecting a dog sniffing nearby.

The Iranians are equally as laughable as they now say it was a "routine contact" all the "acting so forgetful" about having threatened the USS Hawker with both actions and words, no different to the US, all making for very interesting entertainment unless of course you and/or loved ones are an Israeli soldier on the front lines fighting to prop up the worthless-fictitious De Beers-US Dollar, now on its last legs....

Subject: BAD NAME - latest draft of analysis

Adam,

Attached is my edits/editions in red. I have not looked at anything other than the beginning.

Let me know when you have run it by Kat and whether you think it may be a good idea for me to begin communicating directly with her. I know not only how to be gentle and kind but how to bring out the best in good people who have not been raised to be "politicians". Let me remind you that this is not your area of expertise.

You get the attention of everyone, and I mean everyone, apart from the most intelligent human beings on the planet, by asking them one simple question, "What happened to the gold stolen by elected and non-elected officials of the heavily corrupt United States Government during the 45 odd year brutal rule of the South African Apartheid Regime?".

Each and every intelligent person I know just happen to serve the best interests of the least corrupt intelligence network in the world; i.e. Israeli Military Intelligence and the Mossad who are kept honest by people such as myself who have no official or unofficial involvement with either organization but who understand better than most who work for both intelligence networks how they function beginning by recruiting not always the smartest of individuals who are as a "general rule" the easiest to distract who serve to continuously pinpoint the "weak spots".

Now why would I even distinguish between "official" and "unofficial" other than to make the clear point that I could never bought given how easy it would be for even an "unofficial" member to be compensated in a myriad of ways beginning with sex and why it is that I chose very carefully when still in my mid-teens to "go it alone" all the while making it my business to watch very closely both vocal supporters and opponents of State of Israel while never assuming for a moment that just because someone referred to Israel in a "negative" way that it meant they were therefore "bad" given how I knew for a fact from my own personal experience that the most vocal supporters of Israel in our heavily corrupt Jewish community of Durban, South Africa, were not simply "bad" but the sort of people I expected the Mossad to assassinate given their "open support" of the South African Apartheid Regime.

You haven't forgotten that American Charles Engelhard was not in the least bit shy about his "open support" of the Apartheid Regime who did exactly as he and his "liberal" Anglo South African partner,

Harry Oppenheimer, commanded beginning with exporting South Africa's gold that were paid for with worthless-fictitious De Beers-US Dollars, and of course not all of it making its way in to Fort Knox which then brings each one of us back to the conversation stopper question, "What happened to all of South Africa's gold stolen by the corrupt 3 Branches of the United States Government during the 45 odd year reign of the brutal Apartheid Regime that didn't make its way in to Fort Knox?" that of course then leads in to the next logical question, "What happened to Hitler's diamonds that he received from De Beers that were not used time and again to finance Nazi Germany's extraordinary military machine that forced De Beers' other clients, the Allies, to 'play catch up'?"

Understand as well that even those with the very best of "intentions" and who genuinely work hard to make a living wage whether self-employed or working for others, don't see 100% the connection between this dynamic organization De Beers and actual people who I say are carrying out the wishes of De Beers who many have never even once heard of before I began down this path of making everyone including those with not the very best of intentions, aware of this most extraordinarily devious and highly manipulative mafia of mafia De Beers.

So what, you may ask, that this information about De Beers is there if someone wishes to see it without having to take my word for it?

Unless it is "interesting", meaning that my research showing the extraordinary close connections between De Beers and all 3 Branches of the very heavily corrupt United States Government, affects directly their "pocket book", neither those with the very best of "intentions" or worst of intentions or anyone in between or worse yet those "indifferent", could care less.

Now of course it is so very easy to get "spiritual" and talk about things like God, Love of country, love of one's children, love of pets, love of cows, love of pot, love of horse manure, love of the most perfectly shaped tits, ass, the best long and soft muscled skier legs of the most exotic French-Canadian woman ever that has each and every person I know, male and female, now totally distracted.

Yes, so very quickly I can remove the so very thin layer of "spirituality" once I get into with any single human being, the knitty-gritty of their "wealth", that affords them so much time to be so very "general" in their "love of God" however they define "God" whether it be a blade of grass or the pimple alongside their anus, and for those who think they are smarter than God to have them explain exactly why they don't think the wealth that they and/or their parents and/or grandparents have, has anything to do with their "extravagance" that affords them to be so very "open minded" about everything beginning of course with their intellectual midgetry argument, "Well Gary, there is not one exact truth" or "Well Gary, there are many truths just like there are many corruptions" or "Well Gary, who is to say that your truth is more important than my truth or what I think is important" or

"Well, Gary, would it make you happy if I just admitted to you that I all I wish is that God will come down to earth, grab hold of your genitals, use a blunt knife and with the handle end that should be at least the size of your fist, stuff whatever remains of your genitals that you don't first chew into tiny little bits, right down throat, before then turning the knife around having you hold the handle and push the blade until it reaches your belly button and then with the other hand grab hold of that small revolver Judge Hendrix on October 24th, 2002 placed in the custody of your wife Marie to protect herself against her X husband The IT aka The Sperm Donor aka Dr. JBS, fire just one bullet at a perfect 90 degree handle that just right before severing your spinal column hits the one edge of the blade that causes it to spin out of control" .

Of course not only can each and every single human being with the most mediocre elementary school education understand what it is that I am saying they can of course find it a whole lot more interesting than anything else going on their pitiful lives given how easily I can address each and every one of their utterly nonsense distractions bearing constantly in mind what we are talking about is their pocket book that affords them to eat, drink, and of course place a roof over their head.

Equally important, those who have all their basic needs met and are in fact quite “comfortable” with the “status quo” they have to realize that I am communicating with a whole bunch of people who do not have their most basic needs met let alone in a position such as the one I am in.

While most “fighting corruption” if not already “bought and paid for” I demonstrate each and every day, every moment in fact, how very much I have to lose given my beyond belief lifestyle that has not a shred of fear apart from doing everything I possibly can to serve the “betterment of humankind” and of course I would be the first to agree that the overwhelming majority of human beings I know deserve to be whipped to within an inch of their lives, the slimeballs that they are.

Then again, I am not God and only know how I think it is best to serve the smartest and most extraordinarily vengeful God beginning by exposing the corrupt priesthood within each of the religions including the worst of them, academia, the new corrupt church.

There is simply no getting away from the very precise and logical pattern to research that I am sharing in “real time” with the entire world and for anyone to suggest that they don’t have the time to verify what I am saying all the while letting me know that they consider themselves both educated and intelligent only serves to increase the circle of those dependent upon my insight and analysis of the important events of the day.

Interesting isn’t it how very quickly those who either don’t have a clue about their own insanity the result of living a lifetime too busy keeping track of their lies from day one are so very quick to say “It is your proof which doesn’t mean it is either proof or the truth” when confronted with the facts surrounding the extraordinary “money power” of De Beers that affords them the luxury of having none of those they have bought and paid for saying bad things about them to the point that they lose their De Beers “privileges”.

God, do I only love imbeciles who God no doubt finds ingenious ways to communicate with me beginning by taking over their minds as they become a perfect vacuum the result of all the short-circuits created from all their lies from day one.

Most bothersome to future specks of dust is that they are still able to appreciate that there are others out there less corrupt, receiving far less graft-spoils of oil wars who can quite easily get their arms around evidence and who understand as well as those who think themselves smart to just “play with words” that proof is a function of evidence, the better the evidence the better the proof.

So let’s go back to that I ounce American Eagle gold coin that so far not a single person who has examined it closely, now more than 5,000 including you, thought very much of the 50 Dollars engraved on the back all the while able to note all the other so very distracting detail.

Moreover, when informed about such a misleading “value” to not give it that much thought all the while remembering so much of all the other detail like Mother Liberty carrying branches in her one hand and of course the words, “IN GOD WE TRUST” that has the totally brainwashed feeling good that at least their government isn’t corrupt to the point that they would take such verbiage off the currency and if they did then to at least find something more to talk about apart from De Beers.

My goal is simple.

Finding common ground amongst “divided people” and no group of people are more divided in this world than US Americans who have prospered the most from De Beers being the allocator of the world’s precious and limited natural resources.

What is really “funny” but not something to laugh about is that the overwhelming majority of US Americans believe that folks in other nations are far more brainwashed based on the fact that US “Money, Me” Americans judge everything and everyone in monetary terms, never giving a moments thought or should I say “credit” to nations we have impoverished first by destroying their art culture.

Note that I am carbon copying both Danielle as well as Dr. John K. Pollard Jr., not that you should expect either of them to comment let alone run it by their nonsense talking current and former university professors but one never knows given how they, like you and everyone else including Israeli Military Intelligence don’t know who is being blind copied as well as those who I don’t talk about who never receive emails but who communicate with me and I with them in either formats that leave no trace.

Not to mention that Danielle had mentioned when she first returned for “Xmess” [sic] vacation that she had the ability to invite “guest speakers” to her university and just because the “spoon fed” American public have not heard of me doesn’t mean that each and every member of the faculty of her college shouldn’t be deathly afraid of what it is that I have to say backed up with facts that once understood by the overwhelming majority of freshman college students would bring to an instant halt all the nonsense being taught and in that same instant empower all those kids not dependant on Trust Funds to enjoy their very first breath of fresh air as they realize that it is they who have the voice and not the very small minority of nonsense talkers who contribute only to the rich and lazy not wanting to work for a living and compete on a level playing field trickling down the costs of getting rich on to the backs of the poor who are not stupid just grossly misinformed.

BTW I am hoping that someone either carbon or blind copied including Dr. Laura would put me in touch with either a psychologist or physiatrist who has sufficient liability insurance to given their opinion on this communication I received from The IT’s girlfriend, Dawn Castleman who obviously got permission from The IT to use his one email account:

Subject: Re: Prediscovery work for criminal as well as civil complaint against The Spe...
Fuck off Gary - this is not the sperm donor but Dawn. If you would like to confront me - be foolish enough to. I am about two feet taller than you and will chew you up and spit your stupid ass out. You have been sucking life off of everybody you latch onto you POS (piece of shit). Each day I pray Marie will get a voice from God to dump your stupid ass because she could do a lot better. What? The alimony and child support petering out you pathetic loser. John is an honorable man, has supported kids well, and you are just a lowly opportunist. Go to your hill in the mountains and talk to the animals. Now stop violating the restraining order before we get another one.

Again, the fact that Dawn never showed her face and fat butt in court on October 24th, 2002 may have a lot to do with the fact that she doesn't know that THE IT lost big time bearing in mind that besides for Judge Hendrix ruling in my favor all the while smacking The IT with lefts and rights that left little to the imagination for having so lied when filing a criminal complaint against some 6 weeks earlier on 9/11/2002 but there were others such as Devin Standard in court witnessing such an awesome display of American Justice.

But we have not only "moved on" without forgetting The IT's atrocity for which he has shown absolutely no remorse all the while God has taken His-Her vengeance with each passing moment including this as well as Dawn having with that May 5th 2006 email opened up both herself and The IT to the possibility of very significant both civil and criminal litigation, her use of the word "we" in the last sentence so very telling especially when you consider the physical description they gave of me was identical in every respect to the fat bitch who still keeps The Its company and bakes so nice and sweet Christmas cookies for his "tTOo" [sic] children who feel good enough about both The IT and Dawn to share them with me and Marie, BUT today it is a very different and far better world given how it is no longer the United States Government and De Beers, one and the same, "calling the shots".

The overwhelming majority of Israelis are neither fanatical nor corrupt and nor are they rich financially speaking and many if not most barely able to keep their heads above water, all the while rich in wisdom and lots of compassion for their fellow human beings beginning with Israel's enemies who Israelis are raised from the youngest of age, just like I was not to hate but to forgive their enemies.

At the same time it is Israelis who are on the front lines of oil wars created by the extraordinarily corrupt government of the United States of America who do not represent the vast majority of Americans, instead the 3 branches of the US government represent in addition to their own "best interests" the best interests of all those throughout the world who prefer not to have to break a sweat when working for a living.

The focus therefore, must now be and until such time as there is an equitable redistribution of the world's stolen wealth, what is happening on the front lines of Israel beginning with Israeli Special Forces Commanding Officers, unit commanders and their commandos who upon returning from their missions don't have multi-million dollar trust funds to look forward to.

And when you hear a moron saying, "Well, Gary, who do you think will do a better job of in the redistribution of the world's stolen wealth?" please respond accordingly and if you need help, just refer them to Dr. John K. Pollard Jr. who even if he were to use a dart in deciding every last detail could only improve matters so long as you are not a member of the corrupt ruling elite who today it is so extraordinarily easy to identify.

Now also don't forget that the very first thing those at the very top of the dark DAAC economic pyramid will do when first reading everything that I have written above as well as the draft analysis that is of course already being shared with each member of the United States Congress including members of the US Supreme Court is to laugh, not once, not twice, but give one most extraordinary belly laugh but increasingly less loud and shorter lasting.

Remember there are many ingenious elements of this one of a kind Israeli Military Intelligence report beginning with the fact that neither China, the world's new super power, aided and abetted by the State of Israel, don't have to comment leaving it up to US Americans to decide what if anything we should say and/or do all the while not a single one of US Americans can avoid the knowledge that currently our corrupt politicians are paying some US$200 for each vote they get, so telling of our so very lazy and corrupt "communist bosses" who give the hard working 1.5 odd billion Chinese communists such a bad name.

Let me know what if anything I have written above would only make sense to a member, official or otherwise of the world's most intelligent intelligence network and of course provide edits for clarification purposes.
