MEMO TO LAURIE

Laurie,

Are you not tired of reading a whole bunch of my emails?

How many years has it been since I heard from you?

Are you not increasingly depressed that peoples in foreign lands suffering from the refugee crisis we create to prop up our increasingly out-of-control military-industrial-complex are increasingly elated, uplifted by my spreading the truth, detailing in rather simple to understand English how very irresponsible people like you are without having to use foul language?

Go ahead and at least mutter under your breath that you hope God will kill me in the next instant and when our great and extraordinarily vengeful God does not abide by your wishes you then have to deal with the truth that not only am I alive and able to keep broadcasting the truth but you have to live the remainder of your wasted and so deceitful life seeing it all in "black and white", digitized forever.

That being said, now can we be best friends again?

Dr. John K. Pollard Jr. just showed up at the cliff house and also says, "I have all the crooks genetically programmed in my head, so that I would know the relationships of this tragedy... but I don't know what Laurie Black is up to these days."

So what does Laurie Black, so very "deafeningly quiet" all these years has to say about, "Black hands CANNOT lay white eggs"?

Lets see if you have the courage to explain what the CIA was doing developing and executing biological weapons in conjunction with the South African Apartheid Regime and what prevented Bill Clinton from releasing that STORED CD-ROM?

You surely remember Black American Devin Standard whose one uncle was on a US navy vessel during World Oil War II that was denied landing rights in Australia because they were Black.

Spin-Spineless?

Laurie, if absolution is what you are looking for I know of a few Roman Catholic priests as well as a couple of former altar boys such as King Golden Jnr Esq that will listen to your confession and surely commiserate providing all the answers.

As u know I was raised Jewish Orthodox where action in search of truth speaks louder than false promises, transparency king.

You shouldn't be afraid of being questioned on your actions if u have actually made all the efforts to seek out the truth.

Devin Standard, who u also chose to duck when I was simply returning the favor u have given me on numerous occasions to "cuddle up close" with "movers & shakers" responded with the following in reference to an E-mail I sent out to a whole bunch of Jewish South Africans who attended our private Jewish day school:

Any, and all moral highground is undermined if the minute one's proprietary skin has been saved, one turns a blind eye to lesser, equivalent, or greater evil. The fact that the gift of one's life has been spared obligates one to, if not ruthlessly wield the sword of righteousness, to at the very least, least shine a light into the dark corners where evil manifests. Otherwise you are abetting the Devil you've recently dodged. Cheers...

You surely also remember turning down an opportunity to meet face-to-face with Devin who is just like me extraordinarily charming when he wants to be and like me understands perfectly well the actions and the writings of the "sly English".

Don't you just "love it" that Tefo also just appeared "out of the blue"?

Do you not want to talk about it?

Nor have I forgotten how quickly you came to the defense of former corrupt Democratic Governor Gray Davis without revealing that you were involved with a rather important Water Authority here in the southland; bearing in mind that I was presenting you, who is married to a lawyer, smoking gun proof of voter fraud by Gray Davis and other very senior ranking Democrats, all related to water.

Nor have I forgotten that your husband's father, Clinton financier who in return received the so very coveted US Ambassadorship to Switzerland.

Nor have more than just me now fixated on taking down all the crooks, forgotten how your standard bearer Bill "Rhodes-De Beers Scholar-lawyer" Clinton granted at the 11th hour a Presidential pardon to Zug, Switzerland based Marc Rich who while a fugitive from US Justice for trading with the enemy voluntarily relinquished his US citizenship.

Does the price of oil currently also bother you?

You, a Jewish woman raising 4 Jewish children have the audacity to call my emails "irresponsible" [sic]?

That now deceased father-in-law of yours, Larry Lawrence who lied about his US Navy military service resulting in his bones with very possibly still skin attached to be excavated out of our sacred Arlington Memorial Cemetery in Virginia, have you considered doing an autopsy to see exactly what he died of while still in office, serving who exactly?

Where is your shame?

Thank God that God exists and remains smart enough to enter your increasingly numb brain and assist me spread the truth and help prevent just one financial poor US service person spilling the blood of another poor and lost soul in other parts of the world just so that you can be so nauseatingly "comfortable".

God Bless America because America needs all the help it can get with hypocrites such as yourself having such a big voice, but increasingly less so, thanks to God and the Internet which keeps track of everything and everyone.

So lets cut right to the chase.

Are you supportive of your children currently joining the United States of America's military draft or do you think it is only right that we reinstitute the draft in order to prop up our so very bloody and increasingly worthless US-De Beers Dollar?

Can't you wait a moment longer for Marie's most ingenious "negative vote" idea?

Gary

Hey Gary. Note the BOLD BELOW. Need to tell you that I no longer am in business with Southwest Strategies. Please take note and change this. Received an email about this. I have not been with them for over 2 years. You can delete me from your irresponsible email list while you are at it. Laurie
