Subject: Hoarding by banks stokes fear over crisis

Mr. Wolf,

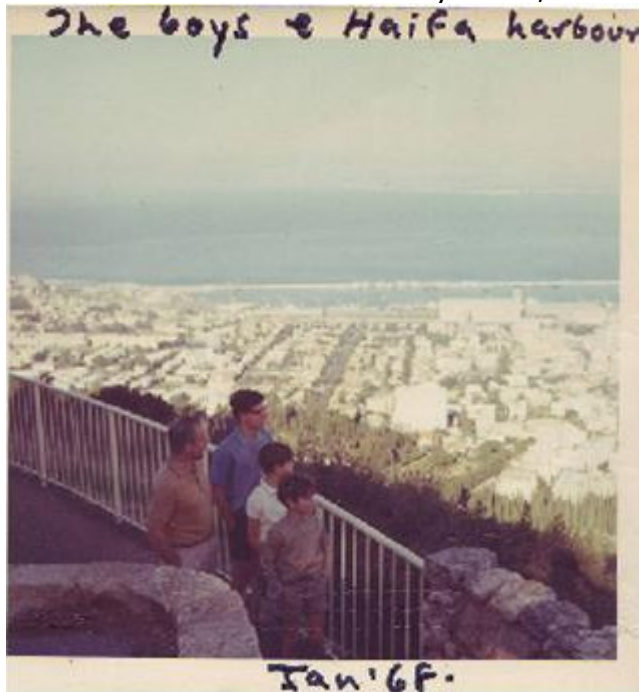

You remember me, even though you and I have not met, at least to the best of my knowledge, unlike your counterpart, Mr. Michael Strauss Esq. of the IMF who I met at the bottom of the zipline at the Simatai section of the Great Wall of China back in the summer of 2006 around the same time Hezbollah Special Op commandos revealed to Israeli Special Forces Commanding Officers how very well they had mastered mimicking the best of Israeli Special Forces commandos, fading in and out of the landscape, all the while text messaging one another to fire the most unsophisticated missiles as far as Haifa Harbor, Israel causing the evacuation of some 300,000 Israelis.

For me to go into any more detail other than to remind you that Haifa houses the 3rd largest population in Israel whose peoples, overwhelming Jewish have nowhere to run let alone hide, is in fact a good use of my rather precious time as well as let you know that I was just 11 years old in the photo below taken of me and two elder brothers and father in January 1968, just 7 odd months before Israeli Special Forces commandos including future Admiral of the brutal Israel Navy, Ami Ayalon launched Operation Bulmus 6 resulting in Mr. Ayalon, now the most powerful person in all of Israel, receiving the highest military honors.

At the bottom of this article in the London Financial Times, "Hoarding by banks stokes fear over crisis" authored by Chris Giles in London and James Politi in Washington, there is the following verbiage:

Insurance breach, Page 12 Martin Wolf...

Mr. Jeffrey R. Krinsk Esquire of Finkelstein & Krinsk is not the only "smart money" person in the world who would attest to my "risk assessment" skills that encompass not only an above average command of numbers but to apply logical thought processing at the highest levels which are most critical in times of war.

Israel thanks to the bankers of the world headed by De Beers, the central bank of central banks and therefore the true "lender of last resort", has been constantly at war, the government sponsored pogroms of the 1880s never having ended, simply morphed by corrupt government propagandists exercising their command of the "sly English" and of course the world's most brutal but very poorly trained military, always having to count on having the biggest gun.

The decision by Israeli Special Forces Commanding Officers to launch such a daring raid on the eve of Neil Armstrong landing on the moon with the whole world's attention glued to their TV sets was not taken lightly bearing in mind that Israel's brutal Air Force could have destroyed in a matter of seconds all of the threatening radar installations on Green Island, Egypt, but that wouldn't have placed the world on notice of the reach of Israeli Special Forces commandos willing to accept heavy losses; never to forget what it means to the State of Israel to lose a single highly trained and skilled Special Forces commando.

You are not the only person in the world who couldn't give a single fuck about Israel or for that matter how many Jewish people were murdered in the Holocaust let alone why it was that Israel had to fight it's so very bloody War of Independence as the likes of you at the World Bank drank back your soda and whiskey, laughing all the way to the bank.

Again, Mr. JRK wouldn't be the only person to testify under oath that I can operate extraordinarily well "under fire" – my wife now asking me to "pick up a little – your clothes" as she is expecting a guest a little later here at our studio cliff house - and now I am taking "internet aim" at you, a scoundrel of the Nth degree who upon graduating from the nauseatingly anti-Semitic DeBeers-Rhodes-Oxford University joined the World Bank in 1971, the same year the United States of America counting on its superior and overwhelming military forces forced their tyrants around the world to continue enslaving their masses when going off the Gold Standard officially on August 15th, 1971 allowing those who had stolen the mineral resources of places like South Africa, Peru, Brazil, China et etc to begin reaping one most extraordinary financial gain.

The "rule of law" which Mr. JRK referenced in his "nothing-everything about nothing-everything" conversation yesterday with Adam L. Tucker who doesn't have quite the financial or political resources as Mr. JRK who I have known intimately since the spring of 1999 when he chose wisely to engage my "due diligence" services aka "Risk Assessment" skills, is only important to those who choose to forget how all the "rules of law" first came about.

The State of Israel had no say in the decision in 1948 by both the British and American Government to place an arms and economic embargo on the fledgling Jewish State when the best military minds of the day left it to Field Marshall

Montgomery to not mince any words when sharing his assessment of the dire straits facing Israeli forces awaiting the Arab armies massing on Israel's tiny borders:

"When Britain evacuates Palestine, the Jews will immediately be overcome".

You also today understand perfectly well the method to my madness that has kept me not only alive but for the most part out of harms way most of my 51 odd years on this planet.

The fact that so very few people schooled in the western Bell Shaped Educational system where it is the most average such as yourself who rise to the top, have no imagination, no curiosity to search further than the edge of their noses, no interest whatsoever in understanding how the most non-Aryan looking Little Corporal from World War I wouldn't have placed his name first on the list to be gassed in Auschwitz is thank God, a very significant factor in my being able to take the likes of intellectual midgets such as yourself to task, at my convenience, of course.

While the filthy rich including all their Trust-Hush-Fund children are all "flustered" by the "inconvenience" of having to deal every so often with small corruption that knocks on their doors like Bank of America finding ways to charge their most favored customers a US$20 service charge here and there, that affords such in denial individuals to throw up their arms and say, "Look, what am I expected to do?" as they and those truly dirt poor all wait for something or someone such as myself to take the lead, the world continues to "burn up" and it is not lost for a moment on our most extraordinarily happy but most vengeful God who is as you will rightly attest is showing His presence before each of your very eyes, no matter the extent of your putrid denial.

I say it is also rather important that my Royal-English-Mater-Mother decided in 1972 to remain in South Africa after two members of South Africa's Secret Police visited with her in her bedroom at our home in Glenwood, Durban, South Africa threatening to imprison my eldest writer-poet brother Neil Gevisser unless he left the country post haste, was not one that my mother took lightly knowing that in all likelihood her two other sons would have to still do their compulsory military service for the United States of America's Apartheid Regime where we could end up experiencing the same sort of horrific treatment our eldest brother received for daring to "buck the system"; bearing in mind that in 1972 not only was I already on a 4 month Ulpan in Israel where I got to meet all of my mother's most important "friends" including David Ben Gurion for the first time on November 1st, 1972, but my two elder siblings, my sister Kathy-Louise as well as my middle brother Melvin had already been on Ulpan some 2 and 4 years respectively ahead of me, and would have very easily fitted in with Israelis of the same age given not only their very good command of Hebrew but like me having visited Israel as well as Europe quite regularly from when they too were rather young.

But you would know it would be quite difficult to hide our Israeli citizenship when it came time for me to immigrate to the United States of America some 6 years later on March 17th, 1978, let alone arrive on Wall-47th Street in 1980 without sticking out like a "sore thumb" as I took copious notes of all money laundering and price fixing by the top dogs of the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel with the full knowledge as well as support of the 3 Branches of the US Government including the Justice Department tasked principally in "maintaining law and order" by executing faithfully the United States of America's sacrosanct Anti-Trust/Anti-Price Fixing laws.

You are a fucking joke!

Despite being an anti-Semitic goy, it is very possible you are fully aware that when visiting Israel, Israeli customs officials do not stamp one's passport so long as one asks them not to, and were one to forget then of course one could just as easily lose one's passport by tossing it into the Mediterranean Sea, a sea I have swam in very possibly more times than the overwhelming majority of hard working-hard playing non-fanatical Israelis who just want to be left alone in peace.

Heathens such as yourself are increasingly quiet despite the fact that you represent the majority of elitists who have, however, no fight in your belly given how out of shape most of you are both in terms of your physical as well as mental faculties.

Every moment that goes by and you fail to inform your readers of the VERY SIGNIFICANT insurance risks that I have been spelling out in simple English beginning with that ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence report costs you and those who pull your strings big time.

Why even bother thinking that the "rule of law" will prevent the masses suffering horribly from your cowardly brutality from rising up and refusing to be violent knowing that coward-bullies such as you cannot count on even US military personnel let alone Prince Harry and Co. to do your bidding; all now plays havoc with your increasingly feeble mind.

I have not only the facts at my fingertips but the "rule of law" on my side.

My very recent communications with De Beers diamond-money laundering dealer Ernest Slotar speak volumes as do your deafening silences.
