Subject: READ IN BETWEEN THE LINES - easy come - Client #9 - TRUST - COVER - outing -

Who really has the time to hear about where Hitler got his financing when we all know that of course there were "business interests" backing him as well as others "waiting in the wings"?

Is there a good reason why my father, Bernie Gevisser, an Allied Fighter-bomber-pilot with some 71 odd missions dive-bombing the crap out of the De Beers Nazi bastards is so very quiet at this time and it has nothing to do with his excuse, "What good will come out of it?" which is all about my father believing that he has earned the right to be allowed to "die in peace and quiet" all the while it is the next generation of soldiers on the front lines of oil-refugee wars who are being called upon to do the "heavy lifting" that has got increasingly more bloody the result of each successive generation of fighters not willing to stand tall and tell the truth beginning with naming each and every individual in the world who has profited as well as all those who continue to profit from war and who understand perfectly well that peace is war to those who profit from war?

Much more important who is in the least bit interested to hear all this "ancient history" when we can each be doing stuff like making love to the most beautiful woman in the world when not simply enjoying doing nothing but relaxing looking out of our two oversized windows here at the cliff house perched atop the cliffs of heavily city council and real estate corrupt Del Mar, California, and when feeling the need to exercise a little more than one's mind to venture out as I did earlier today and talk with two, well built, strong and athletic Germans, one a lawyer from Nuremberg, Germany practicing law with a law firm in Los Angeles and the other from Passau, Germany studying business-political science here at the utterly nonsense University of California San Diego that is not, however, as much a "party school" as San Diego State University or the college my wife's 18+ year old daughter is attending in a nearby state when not visiting with her boyfriend.

And of course I mentioned that my wife and I had won this past Saturday evening in a live auction for the benefit of the San Diego Chamber Orchestra an 8 day trip for two down the Danube, starting off most likely in Nuremburg with Passau being the second stop, although it is also possible we may do the reverse route, all depending on input from other German friends of ours; not to mention this trip will most likely also include my wife's first visit to Israel where I will at least try and find the store in the Arab market in the old city of Jerusalem where I had the silver G made when I was 15 years of age.

Stefan, I forget his blonde haired friend's name, seemed a little more interested to hear what I had to say even though his blonde haired friend could speak rather good hebrew having spent a year at Petach Tikva, Israel where you might know there are quite a lot of ex-South Africans.

Both young gentleman who both seemed a couple inches over 6 feet tall, are already "riding high" from the collapse of the US Dollar and therefore they can afford to "take their time" in "digging in" to stuff like why their school teachers and professors in Germany failed to explain a whole lot better the role of De Beers who they had never heard of before, amongst a number of other "unpleasant" things including this "collective guilt", a good number of us feel as well as don't feel, all depending, towards the German people who joined stuff like the Hitler Youth Movement as well as the SS because they really had very little choice much like the Jewish people trying to escape to where exactly?

I suspect that even if you respond with even BIGGER LETTERS I will have "caught your attention" beginning again with the fact that you are thinking that much more not only about my background but those you see in the carbon copy section knowing a good number of them know exactly who is and isn't in the blind copy section versus you increasingly in the dark, relatively speaking, all the while being "spotlighted" increasingly.

What do you think Adam L. Tucker's friend Dave Fraser is thinking these days apart from choosing his words a little more carefully in the future?

<http://www.nextraterrestrial.com/pdf/Microsoft%20Word%20-%20dfraser-trust.pdf>

BTW would you happen to have the email address of Dotte, Dr. John K. Pollard Jr.'s current lover?

I have no reason to suspect that both these young Germans are anything other than who they say they are and even if they are not it still doesn't make the least bit of difference to me, but it might very well be all the difference to you since for all you know they are already on my email list or very possibly have been forwarded my communications and were passing by the cliff house looking so very casual but in the meantime working for one or more of the intelligence services including the Mossad, highly, highly doubtful, wouldn't you agree?

Yes, it is not that often one comes across a Gentile German who speaks a very good Hebrew.

Notice how I am taking my time right now, not in the least bit hurried which of course cannot be said by any of my adversaries including you who I intend to flush out no different to how I would deal with Hitler were this nothing of a little corporal from World Oil War I to be around this very moment.

Here you are living in Israel, in an increasingly hostile environment, and you don't want to hear the truth of the role "money" has played in so many young Israelis having been killed and wounded in Israel's so very contrived many wars.

It is rather interesting not only to me living in the Diaspora but to young Israelis either doing their military service in Israel or about to, that you would not reveal exactly what it is that has you being so very BOLD to take issue with me without spelling it out exactly.

Bear in mind what I wrote David Fraser yesterday referencing Dr. John K. Pollard's most perfect mediocre education that included being schooled at MIT and Cornell University prior to Dr. JKP joining my French-Canadian wife, Marie Dion Gevisser, over here at our studio cliff for one great laughter filled sunset that ended rather late; not to mention Dr. JKP almost stumbling just as I walked him up the alley to his German Mercedes automobile when explaining to him the thrust of MDG's idea of US Americans introducing on to the ballot of each and every election a "negative vote" which I will be spelling out in my forthcoming Part III communiqué to President George W. Bush that I know versus believe you just cannot wait to hear.

To repeat:

In the event you are too numb to figure it out, and remember you are not alone, just ask Dr. John K. Pollard Jr. an alumnus of MIT and Cornell University who educate the most average at our schools who rise to the top of the Bell Shaped Curve making them all that much more perfect mediocre, once you realize that not only "in war money is no object" but how very easy it was for Hitler to get his diamonds to produce precision tooling to make his most extraordinary military machine but diamonds are currency that can be used as both a means of exchange as well as collateral to buy goods and services and the such as well as of course to barter for stuff like oil and the such, then if you are say the Mossad, with the most wired as well as deadly assassination's unit who don't need to report either to the US Congress or the FBI or the CIA, then you too don't need those utterly worthless South African Rands that my stepfather so painstakingly went about raising from the most corrupt of the Durban, South African Jewish community and who when visiting with Israel were treated just like my step-father as "royalty", getting their picture taken with none other than David Ben Gurion who thought they were all imbeciles as well as corrupt, which they were.

Yes, it is not only my Royal Mater-Mother now crying "bloody murder" that has her also mouthing the words, "I want to spit blood" as this "Love for Israel" is very secondary to "comforts of home" including those very many comfortable fatsos in Israel so very much in denial, especially those who came to Israel with their not so little fortunes made in countries like South Africa, thanks to the brutal military mite of the United States military protecting the heinous South African Apartheid Regime whose opposition was all bought and paid for as well by mostly U.S.-British business interests without the slightest bit of loyalty to anything or anyone other than those who helped "feather their nests".

Don't you remember that joke about this crooked Jewish South African Eldred Savell who escaped to Israel back in the early 1970s after swindling millions out of both Jews and Gentiles in South Africa and later was employed by the Israeli bus company Egged where he "took people for rides"?

O my God, cant we all be so very funny when we want to be and what about also being so very polite and proper mannered when attending a gala or charity event dressed in nauseating monkey suits?

And when it gets "too close to home" we just "shut down".

Wouldn't it also you are thinking be so very nice if we could just "all get along"?

La, la, la.

I have a feeling you wouldn't really enjoy hearing me now singing.

The surf however, is just starting to pick up and so I will soon be out the door.

Remember to whistle if passing by 11th street and see me riding my wave ski.

You would agree, it is rather important the decision by Ben Gurion and Co. not to ship into Israel those 50 Spitfires in perfect condition that Boris Senior, a very close friend of my father and mother, especially my highly secretive Royal Mater-Mother, Zena Rosland Ash Gevisser Zulman, had purchased in South Africa just prior to the official start of Israel's most brutal and brilliantly executed War of Independence, in a rigged auction for some 6 English Pounds Sterling apiece; bearing in mind that right at the time my mother and her immediate family had just arrived in South Africa and her father, my granddad Al Badash-Ash, the son of pogrom orphaned Nechie-Nellie Becker-Badash, had in his "back pocket", a cool one million English Pounds Sterling that could have if he was so "ordered" afforded Israel several squadrons of fighter-bomber planes as well as the very best of the best Jewish fighter-bomber-pilots that included my father who like those 50 Spitfires were conspicuously absent from Israel's battlefields.

Moreover, my father and uncle Syd Cohen MD would not have needed any training on those immaculate condition Spitfires all the while blasting out of the skies the very best that the British-American Government could "offer up"; bearing in mind that while flying vastly inferior aircraft including Messerschmitts, the likes of Syd Cohen and Boris Senior made mincemeat out of their enemy counterparts who were offered much more by the British-American Governments than simply being escorted in to battle against the fledging State of Israel so very dependent upon very experienced fighter-bomber-pilots like Syd Cohen and my father, again so very conspicuously absent from Israel's War of Independence, that the best Allied military commanders such as Field Marshall Montgomery thought would last just a matter of hours before Israel would be totally defeated and the Jewish people who had escaped the British-American De Beers sponsored Holocaust would be driven into the Mediterranean Sea, those who survived the Arab onslaught.

You remember that when the first shots were fired in Israel's War of Independence 1947-1949 the CIA/OSS had already swelling up its ranks Nazi intelligence officers who had moved south, the 3rd Reich's southern division taking root in South Africa on May 26th, 1948 some 12 days following the official start of Israel's War of Independence that again the best military experts in the world believed would be over well within 24 hours as they surveyed the Arab armies massed on Israel's border.

It was rather important to the Jewish Underground to "play the game" and make a big deal about the importance money plays in securing both weapons of war as well as paying soldiers including the best of the best fighter-bomber-pilots, but then there is the "intelligence" that includes the enemies' battle plans that doesn't cost a penny if you know how to "play the game".

Naturally, the most mediocre of the mediocre beginning with the morons schooled in our Ivy League universities continue to believe that "money talks" whereas the smartest of the smartest people in the world who don't need an "audience" understand perfectly well that "in war money is no object".

I never once saw my granddad Al Ash's one million English Pounds Sterling which of course was very real but much more importantly is how it served to distract not only my 3 elder siblings but my "nobody's fool" father from asking both Al Ash as well as my mother far more important questions which of course helped reveal to them who amongst us had the most common sense to "read in between the lines".

Time to fly.
