Professor Ben Singer,

Grow up!

I don't think those who have "challenged" you at any time throughout your career feeling that you were "disingenuous" would object if I were to now use your writings and at the same time expose all those who STILL choose your company when buying their coffee at Starbucks who have kowtowed to their tyrannical

Kuwaiti business partners, to empower that much more the children to parent the parents who need the most help.

First let me share with everyone the photo I took, I think it was the day before yesterday, of a most beautiful wave in front of our cliff house here in heavily corrupt Del Mar, California, fast looking like a Banana Republic.

Let me begin by reminding you of not only what you wrote me on February 16th, but in addition, shared with me what one of your regular “glad handlers”, Salim Mansur had published in the Toronto Sun.

I was a member of the sociology department at UWO and my specialty was attempting to make trouble—more difficult now that I’m not on the campus much. My research and publications have ranged from the sociology of psychiatry (early in the game), to riotology (the Detroit Race Riot of 1967), a dribble of futurism with your fellow Californian Alvin Toffler, to communications and in the last period to an exploration of the concept of standards and what I have called criterial systems. Some of the stuff can be found on the Web.

There is a group of us in London who have been meeting regularly for nearly a decade at our local Starbucks; we include the well known moderate Muslim, whose writings you will find all over the web, Salim Mansur (Political Science Department). He received, along with other well-known people who oppose Islamism, the Stephen Wise award from the L.A. based Jewish National Council (I believe); the highly controversial psychology professor, Philippe Rushton, the columnist and author Rory Leishman, Chris Essex, author of a controversial anti-Global Warming book, et al. Members of our group include an Israeli businessman who has brought into the JCC of London people such as Sir Martin Gilbert, David Frum and others. We are all conservatives and have fought for Israel, against anti-Semitism and anti-Americanism through publishing and speeches.

Thanks for the note. I hope we'll stay in contact with each other.

Now let's read again what your close controversial colleague wrote on that same day.

Politicians need to back soldiers

By SALIM MANSUR – Toronto Sun

The debate over Canada's role in Afghanistan is the type in which democracies engage, and Canadian soldiers on a mission in harm's way need to know they have the government, Parliament and the people of Canada behind them.

This debate, however, will be heard beyond Canada and it will indicate, despite spin doctoring, that a parliamentary majority is lacking for Ottawa to meet its obligation to the UN-mandated and NATO-led mission to support the Afghan people and the elected government in Kabul. It will send a message that Canadians are unwilling to see their soldiers engaged in combat missions, and that among the NATO members there is insufficient commitment to sending the minimum number of troops requested for deployment alongside Canadian soldiers in the Kandahar region, where the Taliban insurgency remains robust.

And the message will be unmistakable.

It will tell the enemies of the Afghan people – Taliban insurgents and al Qaida terrorists – that while the West is not about to cut and run from fighting, it does not have the stomach to stay in the fight for the length of time needed to eliminate them.

This is what Osama bin Laden and Mullah Omar have been telling al Qaida and Taliban fighters from their hideouts in the mountainous caves of the Hindu Kush on the Afghanistan-Pakistan border.

This is also what the Afghan people fear, given their past experience of being abandoned by the West after the former Soviet Union withdrew its communist army of occupation in 1989. At stake are the hard-won gains made since 2002 by a society liberated from the cruel grips of savage fighters and foreign terrorists.

But there will be others – Iranian clerics, Hezbollah and Hamas leaders, Syrian and North Korean dictators, Chinese leaders and African tyrants who have made wastelands of their countries – hearing the message that the West, except for the United States, is reluctant militarily to secure interests beyond its immediate frontier.

The debate in Ottawa and in the European capitals is revealing about where the world's richest democracies stand in confronting Islamists – the contemporary enemies of freedom and democracy – and those who might well be the future enemies in a century that is barely a decade old.

Canada is a member of the original G-7 and a founding member of NATO together with Britain, France, Germany and Italy.

The economy of these allies taken together exceeds $12 trillion. Their combined population is close to 300 million.

Yet the message over the Afghan mission is that these rich democracies are reluctant to send soldiers into combat against an enemy possessing neither an economy nor holding territory – an enemy that is more or less a pack of medieval-minded brigands. Also an enemy that can well be eliminated with the required resolve, as the American soldiers have succeeded in doing in Iraq.

If Canada and its NATO allies are unwilling to engage in combat missions in Afghanistan, why then should anyone have any faith that the West will defend itself in its own backyard, or intervene militarily elsewhere to prevent Rwanda-type genocide?

The Afghan mission was not designed to test the collective will of NATO countries, nor the leadership capacity of its richest members and show them wanting, yet it has come down to this unpalatable truth.

So quickly you went from "my specialty was attempting to make trouble—more difficult now that I'm not on the campus much" to now being "overly occupied with work of a civic nature."

You now sound so much like The IT, aka former practicing pathologist, Dr. John BIG Ben Stewart MD, my so elegant and eloquent French Canadian wife's X husband who tried to suggest that his relationship with my wife was "civil" after he got nailed to the cross by Judge Hendrix in Courtroom 25 down in the criminal courthouse in downtown San Diego, California back on October 24th, 2002 when not only had he lied under oath, under penalty of perjury, in an attempt to portray his 2nd x wife as "unfit mother" but this out-of-control over-controlling freak had used both his children, first as spear to attack both Marie Dion Gevisser as well as my stellar reputation, and then as a shield, as I and my so very articulate, most brilliant, no-nonsense wife unleashed this slimeball of slimeballs well documented past that of course those now manipulating him to get his increasingly worthless monies, including his children, choose to ignore.

It is not only me who feels it is all "coming down to the wire" but those folks on the frontlines of our wars; and wars you will know require carefully laid out plans, prepared well in advance.

The rather good question I presented back on February 12th to well educated Peruvian guide Augusto Benito Vargis as well as his going on 1,000 equally well educated and fit colleagues, no doubt is part of what has you so very worried to the point that you have done nothing short of collapse in to a heap of tears.

Why do you think Mr. Chavez hasn't simply cut a deal with China to get all of Venezuela's oil and in return get state of the art technology, a customer whose currency is on the rise and military protection at the same time without worrying that China's Special Forces Commandos would "turn"?

I know better than to be gracious in victory when dealing with the poorly bred "easy come easy go, money me" folks, who see graciousness as weakness; worst of all you bunch of pseudo intellectuals who think that because you have university degrees, let alone having achieved tenure that you are somehow more intelligent; bearing in mind that you have used most if not all of your intelligence to be utterly conniving.

Yes, it is all coming "home to roost".

All your distractions are about making China the "new enemy" and the Chinese, the Jews of Orient, are not falling for it, and you are all now deathly afraid.

Yes, you now have to bare the cross for having so insidiously led a most fictitious, totally wasteful life, very possibly from the moment your parents and grandparents and if you were orphaned than your foster parents, allowed you to play politics, a skill you have honed at the expense of course of becoming an independent thinker.

Again, you are either incompetent, culpable or both, take your pick!

No doubt you also when reading what I sent journalist George Andreassi when visiting the Rancho Sante Fe Inn yesterday, came away anxiously awaiting how he was going to respond not knowing who was blind copied but knowing enough about folks like Israeli Military Intelligence and the Mossad don't like to be bothered with spam.

Folks like IMI and the Mossad can do much more than read in between the lines and when reading articles such as Revenge of South Africa's 'Dr Death', written by Ms. Dempster unlike people like even my close colleague Adam L. Tucker who also chose to ignore my important questions thinking I would forget as he got caught up in doing other stuff he thought I had forgotten that I ended up reminding him, act very methodically, painstakingly and every so patiently.

Yes, why be "nice" when you know from your own teachings that "nice people finish last"?

Why play dice when you know that God doesn't fool around with those usurp their limited authority?

I detest those who derive great satisfaction in exceeding the limits of their small authority; i.e. evil doesn't come in the form of a pointed tail or pitched fork! – Jeffrey R. Krinsk Esq.

Yes, Ms. Dempster's article published on Friday, April 12th, 2002 contains extraordinarily revealing material about the 3 Branches of the United States Government complicity with the most insane, most evil South African Apartheid Regime that was known to more than David Ben Gurion who headed up the Mossad from its very beginnings to the day this great independent thinker and military strategist passed away on December 1st, 1973, some 13 months to the day when I first met with him at Kibbutz Sde Boker in the Negev Desert, Israel.

Not to mention Israel has never once needed a single US penny let alone some US$3+ billion in aid annually for reasons you should have been able to understand without having read a single word in Edward Jay Epstein's, The Diamond Invention.

To mention little of once you have a single monopolist operating in a global monetary based economy and that monopolist can price fix its product which in the case of De Beers is both a currency and a strategic commodity used to produce precision tooling needed in mass production beginning with building military-industrial-complexes, in the very next instant the "free enterprise system" becomes a farce and anyone who even uses a phrase such as "free markets" is not only idiotic but guilty of the most vile propaganda.

To mention in passing that the United States' decision to now have the International Monetary Fund sell off more of its gold reserves, mostly if not all stolen from countries such as South Africa does not appear to be having much of a negative impact on the price of gold.

All those receiving a copy of this communiqué even if it is the first time they have heard from me, will understand when clicking on the "MADD" hyperlink above taking you to that most important article detailing United States intelligence services involved in working with the South African Apartheid Regime in the production of biological weapons that has been in the public domain now for more than 6 years, why I will discussing such not in the least bit difficult to understand information when I next communicate with President George W. Bush who for good reason, beginning with being in good physical shape all his life, attracted and has kept at his side one most extraordinary and most beautiful and let me add the words, most sexy wife who deserves every kiss he gives her.

Again, you and all those who continue to associate with you deserve my strongest rebuke given how you go about cloaking your true intentions and then when caught with your pants down, feign ignorance of the Nth Degree.

Shame on you!!

Gary, I'm afraid I understand nothing of the businesses, ideology, diamond and gold business, and activities or the personal letters you copied to me. I have been retired 12 years and am overly occupied with work of a civic nature here and will not be able to participate with you or on your lists, so I request you remove me from them. Good luck to you in your endeavors.

Sincerely,
Ben Singer

Ben – it is possible you and your group have yet to receive a copy of the email I sent yesterday to the news director of Channel 8 - KFMB TV, San Diego, California, now being shared with every TV station in the world that took away from me writing, The History of Money Creation and its Future!...-
