Andrew, as a minimalist humanitarian when would it be convenient for you to join us, including President George W. Bush and his cabinet, in a "roundtable discussion", the subject matter, "Return on Investment using armored trucks to advertise worthless-fictitious, blood stained De Beers-Dollars"?

I don't know how hot it is inland but it has to be miserable?

Very strange weather we have been having this year, wouldn't you also agree?

Don't you feel at least a little "hot under the collar" finding out so very late in life how extraordinarily easy you have been fooled?

Worst of all the fact that you have heard time and again the comment by Hitler, "The great masses will more easily fall victim to a big lie than a small lie"?

And there you are born with two eyes, and let's assume, since you say we haven't met, that you cannot hear, and now and until meeting our very smart Maker you are saying to yourself, "My God, Hitler was also just laughing at us given how this dark haired, dark pussy looking moustache, dark eyes was the most non-Aryan looking person the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel could find?

So now you are saying, "Gevisser is now insulting the pussies of this world!"

Thank you again for helping increase the circle of those dependent upon my insight and analysis of the important events of the day.

BTW how is our mutual friend, very excellent architect ex-South African friend Tony Unruh doing?

Also what do you think Judy Keating, a Hostcentric Customer Support staff person thought of my communiqué to Dale Baranowski, and how do you think I would have been more successful in getting her as well as her colleagues, some already on my email list, to do more "moonlighting".

Do you think it was necessary for me to remind everyone in my last heavily broadcasted communiqué that Superior Court Judge Hendrix, right at the end of the criminal court proceedings on October 24th, 2002, that came about when the slimeball of slimeball, The IT, first filed a baseless criminal complaint against me on the first anniversary of Al Qaida's rather large, but most unsophisticated attack on US soil, Judge Hendrix granted my best friend-wife legal possession of a fire arm to defend herself against The IT, were he to ever come to his senses and understand the magnitude of my and Marie Dion Gevisser's most extraordinary court victory?

What about me reminding you and all the other voyeurs out there – hello Joey and Michael - as well as anyone thinking of having anything whatsoever to do with The IT how The IT called me up a couple of years before, sometime in late 1999 after Thanksgiving which we all had at my wife's house on Barbados Way, begging me not to tell his girlfriend, Dawn aka The Cow that he had made up a story that I had called his Cow a "maid" and in order to screw more with her head he thought it smart to share this totally made up story with his Cow who didn't think to first ask him how sick a person he was to even tell her, although this is exactly how The IT made her feel and something she had previously told my wife Marie when things were more "cordial" versus "civil" which is how The IT first described in court back on October 24th, 2002 how he felt his relationship was with his second ex-wife Marie Dion Gevisser.

By The Way, don't you think apart from it being much more of a positive outlook on things, that Adam L. Tucker when describing in the "$ hit list" [sic] the ending section, "... they know where to stand and who to stand behind" that he would have thrown in "... and who to step on"?

The following list is of people have chosen to ignore right from wrong in an effort to better themselves, with little or no regard for their impact on others. Each member of this list has been confronted and have chosen to turn a blind eye.

WHY IS THIS LIST IMPORTANT?

These email correspondences are date specific records of who knew what and when they knew it. These records of inaction will provide a historical record of accountability, so that when people are ready to stand up they know where to stand and who to stand behind.

The phone call from THE IT to my landline at the awesome one bedroom beach bungalow I was renting on the corner of Stratford Court and 11th Street here in Del Mar began,

"Gary, this John. I need to ask you a favor. I know you have requested in writing that I make an apology to you following the raucous I alone was responsible for creating this past Thanksgiving at Marie's house when Dawn, my Cow, cornered you who is a little more than a one-time very excellent rugby player in Marie's courage insisting before she knocked off your head that you repeat to her face the lie I had told her about you calling her a maid.

I simply cannot go along with your demand.

The reason is that my Cow is currently on disability leave from Milberg Weiss Bershad Hynes and Lerach, the preeminent Shareholder Class Action litigation law firm in the world where she is a fast typist, although I think the legal term for her position is paralegal.

Her injuries, however, may be exacerbated by one or more partners of MWBHL coming on to her as hard as you may find it to believe given what we can all agree is one big fatso ass and the most ugly of knock knees; but I do believe she did discuss this sexual harassment that took place at MWBHL around the time she lost legal custody of her 3 children to her former drunk husband, despite relying on MWBHL for legal advice.

Moreover, it is my understanding that my Cow was quite graphic in explaining in detail the one party she attended at MWBHL where a most senior partner made no bones about his hard on for her; such a detailed discourse by my Cow-maid taking place on a previous occasion in Marie's house, again on Barbados Way when we were all getting along, although it would be a stretch to suggest that we were getting along "famously".

Suffice to say, Dawn is an emotional wreck, a train smash waiting to happen." [sic]

Andrew, so that you perfectly understand. My decision to let "sleeping dogs ly" was because, even though I knew this most disgusting human being was lying through his teeth, so very afraid for his own personal safety as well as Dawn aka The Cow, being able to sue him for every penny he had, I was not living with Marie at the time and nor were we married; and besides I was still doing a fair amount of traveling "back and forth" to faraway places and I simply didn't think it was smart with Marie being so much alone at home to assist the slimeball of slimeballs drive his Cow right over the edge.

Today of course it is a much more different world than it was going on 9 odd years ago beginning with how the FBI have now officially sanctioned www.just3ants.com; in addition to Israeli Military Intelligence and the Mossad who have no trouble understanding the "method to my madness"; moreover, how very well I had lined up my ducks before breaking my 24-year deafening silence to the mafia of mafia, the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel, beginning on November 11th, 2004 with,

Remember me?

Again, I thank you for increasing the circle of those dependent upon my insight and analysis of the important events of the day.

BTW after a short motorcycle ride with Marie Dion Gevisser, me on my superfast Ducati ST4S, mostly following her on her 250cc Piaggio scooter - and Piaggio you would know owns Vespa - we took a break and had lunch at Pasta Pronto, located across from the Flower Hill Mall in Solana Beach, right where two members of the San Diego Sheriffs Department handcuffed a panhandler to the quiet applause of all the filthy rich people increasingly concerned about their fast disappearing wealth mostly tied up in real estate that we all know has all been stolen thanks to those who have the big gun.

While a little nervous at first since it has been all winter since MDG last rode the rather powerful motorcycle which she really hasn't ridden all that much, deciding to first take a motorcycle course before even getting her motorcycle license, it took her just a few turns before she was "back on her feet", not even close to falling.

After a delicious healthy salad lunch, I also had the potato lentil soup which was also very excellent, we came back to our fresh sea breeze filled gallery-studio-cliff house via the side streets of Solana Beach and Del Mar and immediately began work in giving our garage a mighty thorough spring cleaning.

Then after about an hour I came upstairs, took a pee and drank my 4th glass of water for the day.

I am now sitting alongside my so very sexy French-Canadian wife who is reclining slightly with her legs crossed, wearing soft denim designer jeans, in our one super comfortably reclining black Italian made, very soft leather, but highly supportive, chair, knitting away a most beautiful wool and cotton sweater that would easily retail when it is done in roughly 5 hours more knitting which will be before next winter upwards of a US$1,000 or the current equivalent of a one ounce gold coin; bearing in mind that when my math-wizard, highly logical F-C first learnt to knit, the first thing she knitted was a sweater; and of course you would understand not only how difficult that is even for good knitters the so few that there are today, but more so how much it used to annoy Marie Dion Gevisser, a very private person, having me typing to the world everything also about our sex lives and how much I think it has improved since we went vegetarian more than a year ago.

Absolutely nothing bothers you right now, not even your most likely horrible sex life than the fact that you cannot possibly find a way to get over the fact that you can both see and hear and yet you couldn't figure out the utter nonsense of Hitler and the entire World Oil War II that brutally murdered the best of my Jewish brothers and sisters, all on your own; and now you are thinking about the rest of your imbecile friends who you thought were so much smarter than you and dumber at the same time.

In fact you are not alone in not knowing right now whether you are coming or going, wouldn't you agree?

Birds of a feather flock together.

Would you like to join MDG and me for some champagne this evening?

MDG has just piped in, "How about doing something useful and go get a bottle of champagne and perhaps by the time you return I will have finished the first sleeve?"

You understand perfectly well how very easily bored MDG gets when hearing the word, "De Beer" but not quite as much as me; and besides it was very logically minded MDG who first said, "When saying the two words, 'Diamond Currency', all conversation stops" apart from sex and art and since so infinitesimally small numbers of people in the western world know the first thing about art appreciation, more specifically fine art oil painting appreciation, the only thing left to discuss is sex which of course no one who isn't getting it wants to discuss which really contributes greatly to the quietness of others when they are around the two of us.

It is still far from sunset and I am thinking of going out on my high performance www.footsak.com wave ski.

Have you ever tried David Aufrichtig wave ski? Can you tell me what he is riding these days; just to confirm what others are telling me?

What else can I help you with?

Would it help improve my "credibility" with you by showing you a copy of the last check I received from MWBHL

Have you thought to ask our other mutual friend great athlete Garry Purkiss why he thought he was helping you in sharing your email address with me since Garry knows perfectly well that I add to my list each and every email address people share with me and only take them off when they answer my question truthfully, "Why else do you share your email address apart from wanting to get something for free?"; in other words could it also be that Garry isn't the only one who may think you are part of maddening crowd out there handing out your email address, left, right and center hoping you would get something of value without it costing you a penny?

Have you ever been divorced or had a girlfriend or boyfriend for that matter, break up with you; moreover what would they say first and foremost about how well or poorly you are handling matters with me.

Respectfully yours,
