Would it be fair to suggest strongly that apparently your definition of minimalism incorporates the sum total of your humanity?

I could simply end this by wishing you well; then again I have to constantly be thinking of increasing the circle of those dependent upon my insight and analysis of the important events of the day and who simply lose patience with me when I cut imbeciles such as yourself "short" leaving them with so little else to think about on this most gorgeous beautiful day, so long as you are right smack up against the water and there is this so mild but constant flow of ocean swept fresh air.

What prevented you from just going once again to the toilet, taking very deep breaths until such time as your business #2 had been fully recycled without having to flush, instead thinking it smart to let me know that another South African Tony Unruh who I know well, would share your point of view.

Side note to Tony: Take my suggestion and don't bother me; simply provide Andrew the same sort of "knee jerk" response unless of course you know something about him that shows him a little more calculating; otherwise why would you want to have anything to do with him?

USDC SD New York - Civil Case No. 99CIV.10192

Dear Gary:

By separate cover I sent you a copy of the decision, which will be cited for many years.

We attempted but were unsuccessful in scanning a copy of a copy which is not unusual. Notwithstanding any resulting difficulty, please spare no effort in "stirring up the pot" to find individuals with evidence and have Revlon aware their misdeeds are under a microscope and will only increase in intensity!

A "dumb designer"?

At a minimum I don't know anyone intelligent who would want to hang with someone who considers themselves dumb to the point of proving their point when letting the world know who else they consider dumb.

Sorry China, even if I had you confused with some other designer, I know enough about most South Africans beginning with Jewish South Africans who only judge others, no different to ignorant Gentiles, by how much money they have - I believe my wife has her very beautiful, excellently executed Torrey Pines oil painting, 24 X 36 inches priced very well at US$2,700 at the Del Mar Fair - and even those battling to make it are constantly fixated on figuring out who in their inner circle is "making it" and what exactly they can get out of them when not resenting them.

Did I mention that while I have never sat on the board of any public corporation nor have I ever once attended a board meeting of a public corporation there are possibly no more than a handful of people in the entire world and that includes official members of the Talipot, Israel's most "wired" Special Forces unit who have been as privy as me not so much to exactly what goes on at the most important board meetings of the most important public corporations but much more importantly to the decision making ahead of time.

And of course even if all you do is doodle when sitting on the toilet you suddenly think yourself so smart as you recall someone once mentioning to you, even if only when you were sleepwalking while still in diapers before you learned how to walk, that board of directors only "rubberstamp" what has been decided by those in the "gun-money-power" seats who are all smart enough to know that only those with oversized egos are foolish enough to be officers of public corporations let alone sit on the board of a public corporation, especially in this increasingly highly digitized-wired-age.

Remember, each one of us Durban Jewish South Africans knew exactly why the Lazarus clan of Durban North, open supporters of the United States Government's South African Apartheid Regime, got the best seats in our over-the-top orthodox Jewish synagogue located on the corner of Musgrave and Silverton Road, and even those who were totally irreligious who never attended any Jewish services even on the "high holidays", like Yom Kippur 1973 knew exactly why, and also why they have continued to "befriend" the Durban North Lazarus clan who have mostly congregated here in the United States specifically, La Jolla, the next beach town south of heavily real estate and city council corrupt Del Mar, apart from those like Gunter "The Pig" Lazarus' eldest son Sydney who runs their operations in Durban, South Africa; Sydney now living in the house once owned by Sol "Little King" Moshal, the managing director of the Moshal Gevisser Group of Companies who, along with his "blue eyed" nephew, ugly as hell, dark eyes, dark hair David Gevisser who is my father's first cousin, did the most extraordinary dirty deal directly with the American Charles Engelhard, the co-head and "control person" of the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel [DAAC] back in 1969, some two years prior to the Mossad taking their "vengeance" on Mr. Engelhard who was just 54 years of age when laid to rest at St. Mary's Abby Church, Morris Town, two words, New Jersey on March 2nd 1971, such a well attended funeral drawing none other than Senator Ted Kennedy, former President Lyndon Johnson and Vice President Humphrey.

Right now while of course quite expert at “cutting and pasting”, I am helping my so very gorgeous, so tantalizingly funny, worker bee, walkin-talkin-work-of-art artist oil painter, constantly moving, French-Canadian wife hang paintings in what I consider to be the greatest gallery on planet Mother Earth even though there isn’t sufficient distance to give, in particular Sebastian Capella’s masterpieces, the justice they deserve; then again it is not in the least bit difficult for me to imagine myself out on my footsack.com wave ski paddling as far as the eye can see in our ocean garden directly in front.

Now Marie Dion Gevisser is back in the kitchen letting me know that she has once again forgotten to water the alfalfa that we grow along with most of our fresh herbs; most conscious of everything including how much she spends all the while not simply thinking about the hard working poor beginning with US service people and mostly their stay behind wives and children increasingly aware of the so contrived “economic draft” but actually doing something about it; bearing in mind that my very “to-get-her” [sic] so exquisite, self confident wife in any setting where there aren't any "losers" could easily afford to have the king of Saudi Arabia pick up after her were she to simply ask me.

While most of the world find very few things funny, mostly worrying about how they are going to afford their next meal I am again intimately familiar with both the strategies and tactics of the DAAC, the most brutal terrorist financing organization the world has ever known and who go well beyond corrupting grass roots organizations before they take root.

Yes, there isn't a single business person, professional or even your average gardener who shouldn't be most concerned by the reaction of FBI Special Agent Curran Thomerson to being informed by very credible Adam L. Tucker about his corrupt family.

Curran Thomerson	Ok, Adam, thank you for your help...
Adam Tucker	I would like to discuss the money laundering in my family; they are very dangerous.
Curran Thomerson	Ok, tell what you know.
Adam Tucker	In November of last year I emailed my family and I believe I CCed the sheriff and FBI, and in the email I explained how my uncle laundered money through his business. Within a day or two after, I got an email from my ex-wife telling me that my family was trying to get me arrested. I found out that my mother had contacted my ex-wife whom she never spoke with and later my mom emailed me to incriminate me by asking me what I wanted. In the late 1980's my uncle and his partner had a silent South African partner that provided them with $2 million dollars in seed capital to start their plastic bag company.

Curran Thomerson

So this is your uncle.

Adam Tucker

Yes

Curran Thomerson

So, wait, that was a lot of information can you run that by me once again.

Adam Tucker

Yes, I was a kid at the time and all I knew of it were trips that were made to South Africa and the souvenirs that they brought back which made it seem like a vacation. When I was older I found out that my uncle's partner Albert Halimi contacted family members in Iran that put them in contact with a man in South African that wanted to get money out of the country. And most likely used diamonds. My uncle told me that a suitcase arrived one day with $2 million dollars and there was no official contract so if he wanted to, he could have screwed the guy. But I know they paid him back and then some.

Curran Thomerson

Can you spell their names?

Adam Tucker

Pete Grande and Albert Halimi

Curran Thomerson

So he contacted people in Iran?

Adam Tucker

Yes, he has family in Iran.

Curran Thomerson

Do you know the name of the South African man?

Adam Tucker

No.

Curran Thomerson

So this guy wanted to get money out of South Africa?

Adam Tucker

Yes. And my uncle and his partner needed the start up money since both of them had already mortgaged their properties and still needed more money. Can I get your email address?

Curran Thomerson

Well, thank you for your help. We will contact you if have any further questions.

Adam Tucker

You are welcome. Thank you.

Call placed to Curran April 29, 2008 4:12pm PST duration 3 minutes 23 seconds

Adam Tucker

Curran, hi this is Adam again.

Curran Thomerson

Oh, hey, what's up?

Adam Tucker

I wanted to find out if Gary was being investigated for indictment

Curran Thomerson

Oh, I can't tell that information. If I did tell you that I would break just about every law in the book.

Adam Tucker

What about my family? You didn't seem that interested in hearing about them.

Curran Thomerson

It's not that I am not interested; it just falls under the jurisdiction of another office. I will forward the information to them.

Adam Tucker

What about Robert Hansen?

Curran Thomerson

What about Robert Hansen?

Adam Tucker

He got off because he got paid in diamonds.

Curran Thomerson

What do you mean conflict diamonds?

Adam Tucker

Not necessarily conflict diamonds, just diamond currency. They are light weight, unregulated, untraceable, and fit nicely in diplomatic pouches. That's why Jonathan Pollard got caught; he didn't get paid in diamonds.

Curran Thomerson

Yeah that is how they got him. How did you know that Robert Hansen was paid in diamonds?

Adam Tucker

I read it somewhere.

Curran Thomerson

Ok, well, I'll let you know if I need any more information from you.

Adam Tucker

Ok, thank you. Bye.

In late 1980, early 1981 I returned to New York City after receiving treatment from Dr. Michael Moshal MD, the head of the gastrointestinal unit at the University of Natal-Kwazulu following the DAAC having poisoned my liver while working on 47th Street, New York City and in all likelihood when I had both lymph nodes in my neck removed and liver biopsies performed at Groote Schuur my liver was further poisoned before finally my step-father Alan Zulman "woke up" that something was very seriously wrong given how he knew how good a shape physically I was in when visiting with me in Chicago shortly before I moved to New York to join Codiam Inc. who you now understand more than just the US Justice Department have considered for decades now quite the "eyesore" given how so very little business is conducted at the DAAC's principal price fixing and intelligence gathering operation which you would appreciate by the reaction just to this one email I sent Sheri Hendriks who works for Mr. Martin Rapaport who I got to know rather well in my relatively short "fact finding mission".

Bear in mind two things: Alan was not yet married to my mother; in fact my parents Zena Badash-Ash Gevisser and my father Bernie Gevisser were not yet divorced; in fact they were living together in their double flat at Heron Water located on 2nd beach Clifton, Cape Town, very possibly the most expensive real estate in all of South Africa.

Second, the fact that you are capable of putting any two words and making sense beginning with "sorry china" meaning you are capable of in addition finding China on the map, the same with Mexico.

When Tony Leon the former leader of the opposition party to the ANC South African government referred to Harry Oppenheimer, Charles Engelhard's Anglo South African partner as a "non-racial liberal" Tony was in fact mocking all liberals throughout the world including Americans who know very little about the history of South Africa especially the history involving Engelhard Minerals and Chemicals out of Newark, New Jersey that was bought in 1902 by Charles Engelhard's father, the same year the American financed Anglo Boer War ended and the same year Harry's father Ernest Oppenheimer arrived in South Africa which also coincidentally happened to be the same year Cecil Rhodes, the founder of De Beers that was financed by J. P. Morgan and Co. with approval from the 3 Branches of the US Government, died at age 49.

As you would know from my prior missives Tony and I who have known each other since we kids going back to when I was jumping over barrels on ice in icescapes produced by Marjorie Chase, spent a great deal of meaningful time together in 1995 where I was staying all alone in my mother and Alan Zulman's one most awesome bachelor pad also in Heron Water overlooking the Atlantic ocean with the whitest of white beaches in the foreground, and when we weren't partying out on the town we would retire back to this bachelor pad where Tony most of all would unload his innermost secrets beginning with his belief that the most racist, most evil people in the world were the South African Oppenheimer family.

Again, Tony had no clue that my uncle David Gevisser was the executor of Charles Engelhard's worldwide estate which again included the "control person" of De Beers and their closely linked Anglo American Corporation; moreover that it was my uncle and Charles Engelhard's lawyers principally in the United States who "called the shots".

I have just noticed that the surf has begun to pick up a little and since it looks like Marie Dion Gevisser who just asked me, "what do you think of doing this?" as she places two paintings of Sebastian Capella side by side then before waiting for me to answer moves the one higher toward the vaulted wooden ceiling and I tell her that I agree with her, that then has her stepping off the chair and thinking about it further.

You understand that I was a little more ahead of the game in knowing that women only vent when they speak with males, never really wanting their input, and if women had penises they most likely wouldn't even give us males the time of day, given all my Charm School learnings thanks to this air-conditioning duct that went from my bedroom at our home at 50 Bowes-Lyon Avenue into to my mother's one charm school studio that was formerly the garage.

Once again I would like you all to pay careful attention to this one photograph below taken inside my mother's Charm School studio

The person in the foreground with his back to us is Mervyn Cohen, no relation to Stephen Cohen of Codiam Inc.

Mervyn appears to falling over Neil Klug and to Neil's left standing with a relatively full pillow case in his hands is Vernon Solomon and to Vernon's right is David Lazarus no relation to the Durban North Nazi Lazarus clan currently headed by "Bernard" [sic] Lazarus.

Not to mention this is the last automatic response I received from constantly vacationing Bernhard.

Dear Friends

We are overseas on holiday from 12 May 2008 until 12 July 2008

Kindly restrain your correspondence enthusiasm and I will do likewise.

Kind regards
Bernhard Lazarus

In the background we see first the back of Roy Essakow heading towards the outside door and to Roy's left is, I believe, Raymond Oshry.

Would it bother you if I reduced the amount of those you see in the carbon section and have them placed in the blind copied section?

Would you like to see the 50,000 or so individual/group email addresses in the blind copied section?

What do you think of the FBI by visiting with my one American programmer Adam L. Tucker, all the while letting him know that the FBI consider the "findings" of that ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence report a very credible "terrorist plot", have now done a whole lot more than place www.just3ants.com "in play"?

Were it not for our king-sized bed still full of mostly cushions and the many pillows we sleep with although as you know it is probably best to keep one's head perfectly horizontal when sleeping which we do, we also stick a pillow or two between our legs when finally falling to sleep and yes it hasn't been all that long since we last had an awesome pillow fight.

So let me leave you with this thought as you think a little bit better your next move, what if this is the last communiqué you or anyone receives from me, would it make you feel that much better about yourself?

How's your jewelry business going in Santa Barbara?

Isn't it nice to know that you don't have to worry about De Beers and Co. using their unlimited supply of untraceable lightweight and never inventoried Diamond Currency opening up right next door and in a matter of "two twos" you would be out of business; or are you already so familiar with the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel's Agenda, "Take the money now or open up a taco..."?

Andrew, I suspect it has been about 15 odd years since you and I last met and spoke but I remember you well and of course you remember my Royal Mater-Mother Zena although unless other ex-South Africans have been sharing my emails with you it would come as quite a shock to hear me refer to my most "charming" Charm School teacher mother as my Royal Mater-Mother.

At the same time I don't need to go on having you think that much more about really how well do you know each and everyone you grew up with in South Africa; moreover who you have remained close to all these years including I suspect each and everyone on Garry Purkiss' email list that he kindly decided to share with me?

Your "abrupt" response has me thinking of my highly shrewd "suffering fools badly" mother used not simply once but twice in two closely linked short sentences in her memoirs entitled, "Life Story of Zena".

Not to mention you would know that both my mother and I have never really been known to be "wordy"; on the contrary most people who knew us both would say that not only did we look alike but we were both extraordinarily quiet and thoughtful but not to the point that we would be described as "quiet people" given how you wouldn't have needed to attend my mother's Durban Charm School to know to avoid the "quiet" like the plague; although it certainly wouldn't have done you any harm.

Right this moment you are still in a state of shock given how you never expected me to respond so "wordily" let alone take you and all those who choose to share your company on an educational light journey.

Your immediate focus right now is about your competition followed in the next breath about those who know you "so well" including your customers wondering whether in fact you are already in business in the De Beers Anglo American Cartel, the mafia of mafia.

You are not alone in knowing that not only did I work for the DAAC at the very highest levels of this dynamic organization but I got to see exactly who of prominence in the world is all bought and paid for by this mafia of mafia.

Now you understand perfectly well that while the DAAC have had now for more than a century an unlimited supply of untraceable lightweight and never inventoried currency, never inventoried that is that is by anyone other than themselves, and always price fixed at more than a barrel of oil that explains in simply English not only why this special interest of special interest group have controlled the world's drilling industry for more than a 100 years but why it is that this cartel of cartels is in fact the one and only allocator of the world's precious mineral resources as well as human labor.

All of a sudden you were feeling that the focus of attention was no longer on you as I began to speak in very "general terms" but then you go and think carefully now about a more appropriate response knowing that while you have figured out it is a miracle you know what day it is you are fortunate that I would devote so much of my time and energy to taking you and all those too big for their boots on most extraordinary educational light journey.

Just because you didn't know everything you thought it was necessary to know about me and at the same time you have figured out from reading my previous correspondence to you all that Dr. David Aufrichtig MD knew that I was working for the DAAC on 47th Street, New York City the money laundering and intelligence gathering capital of the world for the DAAC, the most "wired" and lethal institution on the planet second only to the Mossad aided and abetted by the very deep underground Jewish Underground, you had sufficient easy to understand information from the email I sent out earlier that you responded so "abruptly" to have made a far better choice than you did.

Even if you were directly "in bed" with the DAAC and knew it, it is highly unlikely given my intimate knowledge of their "pecking order" beginning with who they are most likely to recruit to co-opt-corrupt people such as yourself with an "artist flair", that you are close to being "filthy rich" but at the same time you would know that again even if you weren't knowingly in bed with this mafia of mafia you are however at a competitive edge given your intimate knowledge, at least since reading what I have had to say, that you are not close to functioning on a level playing field and hence your decision to be so very "rude" towards me simply doing my "level best" to share all my knowledge that each and every person in the world would inevitably conclude as did you, to be 110% truthful.

Cutting and pasting from my mother Zena Ash Gevisser's memoirs entitled, "Life Story of Zena".

This traumatic event caused her to think seriously about her future and she decided to forgo the limelight of theatre and become a writer. It was 1943 and Zena was 12 years old. Winston Churchill's wife Clementine sent her a letter of thanks for collecting money to build a new Royal Oak battleship destroyed in the war. Slowly she was learning the art of Advertising and Publicity. A finalist in a national beauty contest she was asked to join the well-known model school of Lucy Clayton and at the same time trained with the film star Vivienne Leigh's mother as a Beautician. Ever eager to learn new things she joined her parents in their wartime hobby – training in Swedish massage. With all this it [turn to page 2] was not surprising that she had no time for playing with dolls or to her childhood pursuits. The war was over and her dreams of being a foreign correspondent and dropping behind enemy lines in Europe came to an abrupt end. Life was a ball. Dancing Partying – Summer days at the poolside – Attending live theatre at least once a week and much more. Suddenly in 1947 it came, abruptly, to an end. Her father had decided to emigrate to South Africa!!! Landing in Durban the family went to stay at the Minora Hotel. As she went upstairs to leave her suitcase in her bedroom her mother walked into the lounge where a fashion was being organized. Ever Zena's publicity agent, her mother, seeing the struggle that was going on – informed them that although her daughter was only 18 she had a lifetime experience in stage and mannequin work. By the time Zena came downstairs she had a job which turned into a lifetime of Endeavour. The success of that fashion show in aid of Israel brought her into the Durban public eye and stores and manufacturers clamored for Zena's assistance. In Smith Street, sharing rooms with a beautician, she started The Durban School of Mannequins – An Academy of Deportment. Later it became simply Durban Charm School. Initially she advertised for girls to become models. However, she soon learned that a mere five percent of any who came to be interviewed would ever be good enough to be professional. The training brought new found confidence and self-esteem to all. Mainly her pupils were teenagers and adults.

Her favorite opening to the opposite sex was the joke about a religious man who went to heaven. At the Pearly Gates they asked him what his wish was seeing that he had been such a righteous man on earth. He thought about this and then said he would like to see his old teacher who had died some years before. They told him to sit around and wait. Eventually, he saw coming towards him in the distance his old teacher. He looked the same as he remembered him. Running to greet his long lost teacher he stopped in his tracks. The teacher was holding the hand of a young girl who was stark naked. "Oh" said the student "I see you have been rewarded for your good life on earth". The teacher replied "No, my son, she is not my reward – I am her punishment!".

Zena then would say to the audience of salesmen... "Are you my reward or am I your punishment" which would break the ice for as perhaps even to-day but certainly in the 1940s, 50's, 60's even 70's a woman lecturing men was not easily accepted.

Schools were opened in what was then Zambia, Northern and Southern Rhodesia, and the Belgian Congo, Swaziland, Windhoek, Pietermaritzburg, Cape Town, Johannesburg and many small towns often by former pupils who stayed on in Zena's classes to train as teachers. Her curriculum on the importance of being a woman and overcoming shyness as well as how to enter the field of public relations and advertising were taught as far afield as Germany, Switzerland and Hong Kong. It would be many years before Universities and Colleges taught degree courses in Journalism and Public Relations even worldwide never mind in Southern Africa.

Raising funds for charity became the order of the day with as many as 52 charities a year. Some for small events and others for national occasions. Her advice was sought by politicians and business executives for their wives and for themselves..."

"Eventually, Zena found herself lecturing to corporate lawyers and public figures in America and elsewhere overseas on the benefits of investment in South Africa. Where ever she went she was well received. The ignorance of academics and others in fields of power on the subject of South Africa astounded her. In the school holidays she would take her small children (all four eventually) on her overseas trips. Once landing in a capital city in Europe she was met in by a leading civil servant of that country. Handing over her blonde, blue-eyed daughter to this lady she was astounded to be told by her "it is amazing how white your child is with a black father!!" Recovering from shock I asked her what she meant and why did she think my husband was black? Her reply was that I had told her over the phone that I was married to a South African and she therefore assumed he must be black!

Within a week of her arrival in Durban not knowing what to do with herself as training models to up very little of time, initially, she took a job with a lawyer, Rowley Arenstein. His wife Jackie ran a communist newspaper The Daily Worker and Zena found herself involved in all kinds of politics as she typed out the different stories and eventually met Africans, Indians and Whites who were against the Apartheid Government. Ashwin Choudree introduced her to his Ghandi philosophy of non-violence and she became friendly with A.N.C. members and Indian organizations.

Your move!
