Subject: As you wish=A tes souhaits - There is always more than one way to do things!" - Conflicted - peace is war to those that profit from war!

Allan,

Do you yourself a favor and take a deep breath.

I want you to now get over the fact that both Israeli Military Intelligence as well as the Mossad have known well before David Ben Gurion gave the name, Israel to the newly formed Jewish State on May 14th, 1948, that not only was the De Beers controlled United States Government "no friend" of the fledging Jewish State but the utter shameful of the United States Government who were not content with some 6 million Jewish people being murdered in cold blood when so very publicly imposing an arms and trade embargo on the so very beleaguered Jewish fighters in Palestine with their backs to the Mediterranean Sea and not a single safe harbor were a single Israeli to escape, all the while the US and British Government armed their Arab tyrants with both weapons systems and intelligence expecting the quickest and bloodiest massacre in the annals of history.

The reason is that not only do we have to "move on" but now, in only God/G-d knows how long, it is not only the Jewish people but all the world's downtrodden including all our Arab brothers and sisters, and never to forget for one moment our most awesome Black Africans as well as all the Chinese and all the Indians, everyone who has suffered for so long under such tyrannical rule, who can begin to celebrate the beginning of a new era that will last forever, the start of truthfulness that begins with exposing each and everyone who clings to the lies of the past.

You are always able to choose the path you are on.

The more you lie, the dumber you get, the stupider you get.

The dumbest of the dumb hide behind philosophy, like,

“There is always more than one way to do things!”

You would know that a verbal communication is not a logical process with a moron.

Turn up the cool music at www.just3ants.com, LOUD!!

Next, email Adam L. Tucker - adam@just3ants.com – and let him, who is having trouble with Wild Blue satellite connection, know I would much prefer to hear the music rather than just hum it ALOUD which in a public setting, no matter how cool are folks like Dave Matthews, it does look very strange and most inappropriate in a public library as I am right now.

Allan, you do understand that you are in a “race against the clock” that you cannot possibly win.

At one point in time you would have surely known that instead of responding with, “What sort of relationship do you want?” to someone not in the least bit interested in a dialogue but who mouths off, “I don’t understand why I don’t have a relationship with you” TO VERY SIMPLY say, without raising your voice, “Let me give you the whole picture of what I expect out of a relationship” and as you spell out your “value system” beginning with, “I don’t lie, steal or cheat. I won’t have anything to do with someone who lies, steal and cheats. I like who I am. I love what I do. I thoroughly enjoy teaching what I know. I love being around people who are genuinely interested in search of the truth and who understand that there is no difference between a liar, a cheat and thief, who in being too busy keeping track of their lies are not only boring but impossible to teach!”, the interactions with such mindless people get less and less, and most of all you find yourself with so much more time on your hands to do the things you love to do.

Of course, this very logical approach was not your first instinct even though you understood perfectly well the person trying to trap you wasn’t expecting such logical thought processing even though they understand that the reason they are not choosing to have a relationship with you is that you have previously made it perfectly clear that you don’t care for their dishonesty.

But because they have convinced themselves by lying, drumming into their head, time and again before meeting up with you in the street, better yet a crowded street, saying repeatedly, “I don’t understand... I don’t understand!!” and having got away time and again being the “center of attention” by getting their parent-s to respond to their “negative attention”, they expect a long drawn out response along the following lines:

We have been through this time and again I don't want you to wear me down with your nonsense "I don't understand"!

Negative attention seekers constantly, when not "deafeningly silent", resort to "pulling on the emotional strings" which once analyzed logically are no more or less than, "puling on the purse strings".

Let me explain; and remember at any time you can hit the delete button but before doing so, at least scroll and when not looking for your name enjoy the photos.

Emotion, we can all agree, is a "chemical reaction" that translates back into the science into the math and even if we can't all see this in precise mathematical terms we all appreciate how very easy it is to figure out whether the person being so "emotional" is really "honest with their feelings" by simply asking the simple question, "When you go to your Trust-Hush-Fund provider do you ever question the emotions that go through your mind when taking the money?"

How many people do you know who blame others for their "emotional instability" ever say "No" to the person buying their silence?

Send me your list, no matter how short.

Emotionally unstable people may very well have an excellent claim of abuse against those parents who have led them to believe that besides for their parent-s, they are the "center of the universe", but how do they explain the "emotional" side of being rude to the parent who isn't willing to be their co-dependent, instead trying to instill within them a "value system".

It is inevitable that more and more logical thinkers will see the close correlation between "emotionally unstable" people and dishonest people.

So now you and people who know you are far better equipped to deal with dishonest people thinking everyone in the universe will fall for their carefully laid trap, "I don't understand" and to simply carry around a pencil and paper and have them instead of speaking and having those crocodile tears come streaming down their faces write down their "value system" that should include some sort of punishment you think, like if they transgress to be placed on the "$ hit list" [sic]?

And of course without having to spell it all out, do yourself the favor of leaving the person trying to make you feel bad about their poor choices in life and who are hell bent on dragging you down with them, thinking that if they want to continue the conversation to know the next question out of your mouth is,

"So tell me about how great is your sex life!"

Let me know the instant you hear back from Adam L. Tucker and which song in particular has you now jumping out of your seat, on top of the table, dancing.

Moreover, the fact that you are not alone in your continued bad choices isn't in the least bit consoling especially when you consider all the rejoicing going on right now just by the folks who received an advance copy of this, most of all just loving why it is that we should all rejoice in trashing those living off Trust-Hush-Funds mostly in the western world who so smugly now for more than 3 generations thought they would get away with their stupidity.

Go on, "SHOUT IT OUT LOUD!"

How stupid can you possibly be to think you would get away with all your fast and loose play just because your mommy and/or daddy said so without informing you that they are neither so smart let alone godly to protect you as they too head for the hills that given the reach of the internet offers no sanctuary?

Then of course you go down to the beach and make an island unto yourself.

Just look around you and see who is "egging you on"

and you first of all have to wonder about their "agenda" as much as your own.

It doesn't take you very long to figure out that since those egging you on just like you cannot commit to place your "value system" in writing and know that you are going to be tested on it whether or not you purchase and wear the just3ants.com t-shirt, "I don't lie, steal or cheat!", you again are not in the least bit comforted by those choosing your company who while telling you "No one tells me what to do and why the hell should I write down my value system" they may very well be "fooling around" and even if not, you are increasingly lost in your own thoughts knowing first and foremost, you are incapable of debating me on the "merits", beginning with the "proof" I am providing in "real time" that you are in a "race against the clock" that you cannot possibly win.

Not to mention would you believe that I am seated once again at the Del Mar Library, having just spent the past hour or so talking with a most attractive, very well educated, most enlightened young Indian lady, a Hindu, and once Tasha didn't seem bothered by the photo of my parents Bernie and Zena Gevisser visiting with Pandit Nehru of India when he was Prime Minister and had my parents as her personal guest for a period of two weeks, I went on to explain what it is that has all those benefiting now for some 3 generations of the most brutal rule of the heavily corrupt 3 Branches of the US Government feeling not only nauseated but increasingly paralyzed beginning with the latest "poor, poor, me" Mr. Noam Chomsky who I corresponded with earlier today in follow up to what my one American programmer Adam L. Tucker sent him yesterday in which I expressed to Mr. Chomsky my "disappointment" in Mr. Tucker's "tardiness", so disrespectful of my explicit instructions, "You need to do a major spell-check – and when you have it all in one color, and proofread twice, send it back to me" before emailing very busy Mr. Chomsky.

To mention little of the fact that not only did Adam notice that I found a spelling error in the second word of his 3100+ word communication which he then corrected before sending it on to again, very busy Mr. Chomsky, mostly waiting with baited breath, for the next shoe to fall, but Adam never thought it important to then proofread for the 3rd time, given how he had led me to believe that he had both spellchecked as well as proofread twice the first draft, to at least remind himself that not only had he never once done a spell-check nor had he proofread once, let alone twice this rather important email which Adam thought important enough to bother me with in the first place.

NEWS FLASH – FRAP ON ICE: STARBUCKS CLOSING 600 STORES

And of course you not only recall my communication this past Sunday with Leo Muller, an employee of Martin Rapaport of the De Beers Rapaport Report where I reminded him of Jewish people only being Jewish when it suited their pocket when I pointed out once again that Starbucks, run by a Jewish man, Howard Schultz has no shops in Israel only because they have kowtowed all these years to their Kuwaiti Royal family business partners who have threatened to destroy Starbucks' 5 stores per week growth in the Middle East, were that to happen.

Naturally, I didn't spell out all these facts given how Mr. Muller as well as you, as well as the Feds as well as Israeli Military Intelligence as well as the Mossad as well as the CIA as well as everyone following along closely, and of course more so than ever, my writings about this most important subject that I first learned of back in the summer of 2006 during my wife's and my 24 day fact finding mission to China where during the cruise down the Yangtze River, the Middle East business manager for Mothercare shared this extraordinary piece of information with us over a dinner that began with Mr. Parkinson first explaining that there are no Mothercare shops in Israel for the very same reasons given how their partners in Kuwait are the same as Starbucks; and of course Mr. Steven Lee Parkinson may still have the excuse that he was "sleep deprived" following his decision to wait a night, thinking the price of a suite would drop, resulting in him not only losing sleep on the first night but each successive night it got that much worse as Mr. Parkinson got that much more talkative until of course I let on that I was not only Jewish but I was not going to lose any sleep in exposing the deceit of both Starbucks and Mothercare.

When you snooze you lose!

Click HERE for the email I sent Mr. Chomsky who has also yet to respond.

I should also mention that it looks like each and every one of the emails being sent to me right now are first being read by more than the Mossad who would know how to access my email without interrupting the "flow of things", which may account for why I haven't heard from Adam L. Tucker although of course it makes little difference in the "scheme of things", as you increasingly understand I know a thing or "tTOo" about how to "go with the flow".

Given your extraordinary command of Afrikaans I thought you would be able to appreciate how awesomely beautiful it is to wake up each morning next to the most exquisite so sexy French-Canadian woman who not every day breaks the silence of the waves crashing against the cliffs of heavily real estate and city council corrupt Del Mar, California talking the most beautiful French with her French family living in Canada.

and below is Debra just a little lighter skinned and a Black South African kid about the same age kissing.

Not to mention that one of my sister, Kathy-Louise's American friends captured this most memorable and so spontaneous action on camera.

To mention little of in the summer of 1995, the day before I met with my uncle David Gevisser, who as executor of the estate of Charles Engelhard-De Beers and Co. continues to represent the American leg of the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel, I had spent the morning with De Beers and Co.'s fully bought and paid for Trevor Manual, currently South Africa's Minister of Finance and back then Trevor was South Africa's Minister of Trade and Industries.

Right after David Altman and I had concluded our rather important business with this important minister in Nelson Mandela's ANC Government when Mr. Manual provided David and I with all the evidence that he was both incompetent and culpable when agreeing to "support" the sale of David's US based trade show business, Made In USA Inc. to the "remnants" of the South African Apartheid Regime who didn't disappear in to the woodwork, I got out of Trevor's one most comfortable lounge chair and had him sign a copy of this great photo which of course when I presented the signed copy to my uncle Dave the next day, not only did it help "break the ice", but it had my horrible stutter uncle laughing himself silly and even more so once I spelled out the details of this bizarre transaction.

Correct me if I am wrong, but my guess is that you are not only Jewish South African and of the white race but you were also raised on the Jewish South African mantra, "IF THERE WASN'T A BLACK PROBLEM IN SOUTH AFRICA THERE WOULD BE A JEWISH PROBLEM".

Consequently, such a horribly warped "value system" had you not even bothering to question why Nelson Mandela and Co. would agree to the demands of the CIA that he as well as all his future successors beginning with Thabo Mbeki whose recent autobiography was penned by my uncle Dave's son Mark, keep "under lock and key" the macabre biological weapons programme developed by De Beers' Apartheid Regime under the guidance of the CIA and British Intelligence.

As very dumb as you are, you just like Mr. Chomsky are not yet totally brain dead and are able STILL to get your arms around the fact the problems of the world have nothing to do with race, sex, color or religion simply poor parental religious teaching and greedy people not wanting to work for a living and relying on their "big guns" to first brutalize the poor of the world until such time as they are all "beaten to a pulp", and then worry about who is going to keep your swimming pool walls shining.

But what really troubles you is how you bought in hook, line and sinker into believing all these years that South Africa needed "foreign capital".

It is this fact and this fact alone that has you now so very paralyzed.

Of course you knew that the very sick statement repeated time and again by fuckhead Jewish South African people, "IF THERE WASN'T A BLACK PROBLEM IN SOUTH AFRICA THERE WOULD BE A JEWISH PROBLEM" was just a way to "pass the time" while stealing blind from the overwhelming majority of the mostly non-aggressive black population groups; and the more it was said, the more you all laughed yourselves silly, and the more you fuckheads laughed yourselves silly the more easy it was to find less time in your busy schedules when you weren't shopping until you dropped to think about the brutality of the Apartheid Regime making the likes of Dr. Mengele of Auschwitz at a minimum "smile from ear to ear".

Money, me, me, me people all think they are not only smart but so convincing as they can always just walk away and in a worst case scenario go on a shopping spree.

Best of all were all those money rich, me, me, me South Africans paying upwards of 10% to have "runners" move their ill-gotten gains "offshore".

Now to help you get through all of this let me tell you that I have explained all this to Adam L. Tucker at least 20 times if not closer to 30 times and still when writing an important communication to Professor Chomsky it sure looks like Adam still doesn't "get it".

And before you start saying, "poor, poor Adam" just remind yourself that you never "got it" until just now.

Moreover, when you realize that there are great many South Africans who "got it" before you but never shared this so very important knowledge with you so you go now to crawl back in to you hole and to simply remind yourself that I have been entrusted to reveal the most important Israeli Military Intelligence report of all time that has again been vetted by both IMI and the Mossad who have known at least as long as I have known that South Africa was the last country in the world that needed "foreign capital" let alone "foreign investors" when De Beers and Co. thanks to the military might of the 3 Branches of the US Government had total control of South Africa's rich mineral deposits and why it was a bunch of bloody nonsense that Charles W. Engelhard would have to resort to smuggling gold out of South Africa when all he needed to do was to call up either his South African Reserve Bank or the same US Federal Reserve Bank who did exactly as CW Engelhard and Co. directed.

Of course no one in the world reading this in "real time" is in the least bit surprised that the Apartheid Regime not only came out of 45 odd years of uninterrupted and most brutally repressive rule filthy rich but continued to get even richer under the equally corrupt ANC Government, all "playing business" to the Pied Piper De Beers and Co. who had each one of them just like the 3 Branches of the US Government by the short hairs, literally and figuratively, and which of course my uncle David Gevisser and Co. realized even total morons such as yourself would all figure out in time.

But what my uncle Dave as well as you wankers, so far down the DeBeers and Co. dark pyramid, "it isn't even funny", never realized were two things:

First, not all of us Gevisssers or for that matter the entire world, could be bought either for all the money in the world or some bloody nonsense like "love of country" when there isn't a government that couldn't be corrupted by this mafia of mafia with access to unlimited amounts of untraceable, lightweight and never inventoried diamond currency always price fixed at more than a barrel of oil.

Second, that I for one would be smart enough to be one step ahead of you imbeciles who have always prided yourself, first and foremost, on the fact that while you might occasionally say, "I believe in God" when we all know that the truth is that the last thing you ever really want to believe, for a moment, is that some Superior Being exists otherwise why would you first of all be so hypocritical; and second, what makes you all so smart that you would even think for a moment you would get away with all your bloody nonsense given how it really does take a great deal of smarts to figure out that a Superior Being exists, and to continue to be smart and act accordingly, beginning with never being in the least bit afraid to die, but in the meantime why "playing out" this great game of life which is all about exposing each and every corruption that "passes you by" without not even once "turning a blind eye to evil" for that would mean not only do you fail a so easy to pass test, but in giving a free pass to a fuckhead you don't get quite another opportunity to live life to the fullest because the ingenious mind will always make a point of reminding you of your lies, and if not then simply be content with returning as ant, since if you think like an ant, you are an ant.

And why not if you “play your cards right” have the most beautiful and most brilliant French-Canadian woman in the world as your partner-wife?

And to top it off be blessed for one week shy of his 6th birthday, the physical presence of Pypeetoe

the most beautiful, the most precious, the fastest, the purest of pure spirits, without a single agenda apart from eating the finest of Porterhouse steaks, immersing himself in Trader Joes rich Greek yogurt, wrapped up in the finest of MDG's cashmere scarves and being close to either MDG or me or the people that we love such as Spanish master painter Sebastian Capella

and his wife Margarita

in the almost one-of-a-kind Versace dress is most beautiful, even if it doesn't show all of her most beautiful legs?

Marie Dion Gevisser, who is most private and has threatened on more than one occasions with divorce beginning with the day we got married on April 22nd 2003 after being together for some 9 odd years prior, if I use photos of her without her permission; but can you "rili" [sic] blame me when I spend day, weeks and years on the internet looking at both clothed and naked female bodies and I have yet to come close to finding one woman who has just one of her perfect body parts let alone the finest that come together so breathtakingly perfectly, and to top it off my F-C wife is the most intelligent person I know which isn't to say "sum" [sic] sleaze bag lawyer wouldn't want to represent her.

Could you in addition to sending me photos of the best looking women you have dated along with their email addresses without feeling the need to explain why they dumped you, provide me with a list of lawyers ranking them, but only in your opinion, starting with the sleaziest at the top.

If you think it will have you focus that much quicker on your assignment feel free to email MDG directly. She has two email addresses: mdgart@sellnext.com and mdg0013@yahoo.com

Tell me honestly, and try not to use Afrikaans words, are you not much more interested to hear what my so very aware, so extraordinarily funny, beyond belief sensuous, and so very sexy French-Canadian wife Marie Dion Gevisser and her mother Rachelle Dion spoke about yesterday morning on the phone versus have me explain how the recent words coming out of the mouth of the current corrupt leader of the House of Saud, "GET USED TO IT" fit in perfectly with my goal in the interim, between the Israel Defense Force executing flawlessly my military plan of all time, is to destroy the Trust-Hush-Funds of good-for-nothing so very smug, so very ugly, spoiled rotten Trust-Hush-Funders who in the next instant will tell those parents who have co-opted-corrupted them, to simply "FUCK OFF"?

Of course this so very important "leveling of the playing field" which simply means reinstating the "merit system" versus cronyism that has its roots in the brutality of the Kings and Queens of not all that long ago counting on their knights to force hard working farmers to flee the lands to the safety of the castles, the constant disruption slowly but surely tearing to shreds the fabric of a "living to learn" society that in the end when diseases of living in "confined quarters" erupt, the poor and rich suffer equally, as in death, which shouldn't necessarily bring a smile to the face of all those people who don't have their own multi-million Dollar-Euro-Yen-Yuan-Gold Trust-Hush-Funds, given how a very significant number of those kids who haven't been "fortunate" to have it "so easy" are extraordinarily resentful and just as passive aggressive, feeling that the world owes them a living.

Now send me a list of all the "Wandering Jews" you know and of course their email addresses.

BTW were you aware that Black Plague that destroyed some half the population of Europe in a matter of days contributed to the spread of knowledge as natural fiber clothing of the dead was then used to make paper, all coming about at the time of the invention of the Guttenberg printing press?

So can you explain why those living off Trust-Hush-Funds courtesy only of most brutal governments waging war only on the poor of the world getting increasingly poor should be entitled to their "privacy" as they not only benefit from all the daylight robbery where their government uses their big guns unsparingly on overmatched populations, but then these scumbags have the fucking audacity when "hanging loose", to dress up in torn pants, ripped skirts, stained t-shirts making out like they are so very "detached" to the material world and worst of all when traveling around the world let alone the United States of America, so fitting in with the truly poor, they come across as so carefree, so non-judgmental, so going with the flow, so concerned for the plight of the poor, so scolding of all big governments, making the poor feeling even much worse if that is possible to imagine, without ever of course bothering to explain that the time is now for the poor of the world to rejoice, not to succumb to violence, understand most of all why De Beers and Co. felt the need to publish the Diamond Invention which exposes their Achilles Heel.

Come on, get over the fact that you are one big dumb fuck, be happy that you are still alive and when next seeing an ant, kill it, the same with a fly, be active, most of all be rejoice full and most thankful that you still have an opportunity to be part of the solution than up to now being only part of the problem.

Stand up right now, and scream loudly, "FREE AT LAST, FREE AT LAST, FUCK DYLAN, FUCK LENNON, THANK GOD ALMIGHTY I AM FINALLY FREE!"

At last count we had nearly 1,800 new visitors to just3ants.com for the month of June.

How many t-shirts can I count on you ordering this month?

Need I remind you that such a very carefully thought through military plan of all time which can be achieved without a single bullet being fired, let alone one additional drop of blood spilled, and not could but would bring about world peace well within 24 hours, bringing to end the tyrannical rule of the United States Government's tyrants on a whole lot more than 130 of the 190 countries where the DeBeers-US Government maintains military bases, all geared to instill paralyzing fear in each and every one of our tyrants, now pulling out all stops to "save their own necks" as they all perfectly understand that so easy to understand Israeli Military Intelligence report, again vetted by IMI, the Mossad as well as the FBI and only available on www.just3antsc.com; again such a bone-chilling report spells out in one CLEAR, SHORT sentence the extraordinary close alliance of the House of Saud-De Beers-Al Quaida-US Government very much on their last legs.

Now you are back to thinking about Rachelle and Marie's older sister Danielle, who has the same name as Marie's going on 19-year old playing poor-rich girl college student, just got back from a 3 week trip to Italy and Czeckslovakia I managed, while of course finding out all about her most enjoyable trip, to get Rachelle's reaction to "sum" [sic] of the thoughts I planned to share with you all in my first video-broadcast on just3ants.com.

And should you be interested to know I never thought it necessary to get into how the Russians who liberated Auschwitz on February 2nd, 1944 and were ruling over Czeckslovakia, allowed the Jewish Underground to not only purchase for Israel's most brutal War of Independence, November 1947 – January 1949, desperately needed Messerschmitts, but the training of Israeli pilots most of whom were volunteers from outside of Israel and who had no experience on Nazi Germany's extremely well engineered fighter aircraft but which were no match for the later and much more advanced American built Kittyhawks and British made Spitfires, although the Yiddisha kop of the Israeli pilots led by my immediate family's very close friend, Commander Syd Cohen made up for all the deficiencies and then "sum" [sic].

Not to mention you would have needed to be here at our awesome gallery-studio cliff house to fully appreciate the most hilariously funny "argument" that ensued well before I read Rachelle who has no internet connection, YET, the 428 word introductory broadcast, as I started out practicing "sum" [sic] of my French on Rachelle beginning with "A tes souhaits" which as you know translates literally into the "sly" English, "as you wish"; and is used after someone sneezes which is a whole lot better than sounding so godly with "Bless you".

Please don't mind if I don't go into the history of this "Bless You" given how so boring is the manipulation of the ruling elite, hand-in-hand with the corrupt church of all the major religions including Buddhism which like the major 3 religions has of course plenty of good including the lessons learned from giving thanks to inanimate objects just so long as the masses can rid themselves of all the succulent priests-academics all talking out of both sides of their mouths just like their handlers the corrupt politicians, all about money, that is increasingly becoming worthless without, however, the entire world being embroiled in war, which is excruciatingly disconcerting to the ruling elite who have been counting on another World Oil War for several years now, but to no avail, given how such miserable bastards simply cannot keep up with the awesome power as well as speed of the ever growing internet.

Can you now count the number of times you have thought quietly to yourself the words, "Foreign capital" as well as "foreign investment".

Now take out a piece of paper and write them down just like you would if given detention in South Africa and had to write something out 5,000 times.

I suggest you stop at 50.

Next to each write the words, "I want to vomit!"

Suffice to say that Rachelle Dion recalls rather well how in late December 2002 when the price of gold was trading at less than US$350 a troy ounce I provided a very detailed as well as easy to follow explanation why the US Dollar would begin to decline and never in the remaining history of the world recover to where the face value of US$1 bill was worth as much as the thinnest single sheet of toilet paper, while the price of gold as well as other currencies including the Canadian Dollar would rise; and so long as the US dollar didn't experience a precipitous collapse the masses of the world would be better off given how with each passing moment the knowledge that I have been sharing all these years would reach exponentially increasing numbers of highly wired hard working and downtrodden masses, who again are not stupid just simply poorly informed by all those co-opted-corrupted by the most brutal US-DeBeers-Government who only represent big business interests starting with the De Beers Group who are mostly non-US citizens.

Have you noticed without yet finishing writing, "I want to vomit" some 50 times you are feeling like one of the masses, just dumber?

Leading in to making sure I had "A tes souhaits" pronounced correctly was my describing the awesomely romantic day Rachelle's daughter and I experienced the day before that again caused great laughter as both Rachelle and Marie began "arguing", in French of course, whether "A tes souhaits" was the best choice of words.

You would know that Marie Dion Gevisser's French is very excellent just by her extraordinary command of the English language that is so very ugly when compared to French unless of course spoken by someone who speaks French and who just happens to have a better command of the English language than anyone I know and you know I know a good number of very well bred and educated English people and I daresay despite your excellent command of Afrikaans it is highly doubtful you have close to as good a command of the English language as my wife, and of course I will prove this point even more so not just with you but each person on the "$ hit list" [sic] as time marches on and the "sly English" ruling elite who of course include the French Rothschild also join you in your "deafening silence" which you would still know talks volumes as well as the garbage you speak, the little you will speak as time marches on.

Again, I will save what I read Rachelle for another time but it is fair to say that this lady, about the same age as my highly secretive Charm School teacher mater Zena Gevisser, got very quiet while acknowledging she fully understood everything I had read to her; bearing in mind Rachelle's English is not quite as good as her daughter's, but I would daresay a whole lot better than yours which coupled with the fact that Rachelle has so much more intelligence than you will undoubtedly contribute greatly to you now deciding to go quiet, which is not to say you shouldn't complete your writing assignment.

Most English speaking South Africans apart from when you all talk trash, throwing in here and there Afrikaans words to make yourselves seem not only more worldly than you are which you know isn't very much but also to maintain this "aloofness" which goes a long way but only with the superficial crowd who have yet to hear of me also explaining that at best you only have a "little bit" of an English accent assuming, of course, you come from Durban or Capetown South Africa, versus most who come from inland Johannesburg with this most nauseating "Jo-burg" accent that makes you sound so inbred which of course most of you are, hence the need to maintain your SAJAC [South African Jewish American Community] memberships subsidized by the likes of Marc "Trading with the enemy" Rich through his one Lieutenant Roy "Flower Hill Mall-Rich" Essakow.

Besides for still being very beautiful Rachelle Dion has retained her good genes that includes a great grandfather who was a Huron Indian Chief and hence why it is that my wife's 1/32nd Huron Indian blood makes such a big impact on Marie's awesome body and mind, the two much more connected than "ass-a-blief" imbeciles such as you would like to think.

Moreover, half my wife's genes come from her father's side.

Let me know if you want to see the photo of Jonny Dion in his Canadian Air Force uniform; bearing in mind he was the sole survivor of bomber crash.

The nicest thing non-US Americans have to say about US Americans is that the high chances of the next US President being a Black person is, "revolutionary"; without of course bothering to explore whether or not Senator Barrack Obama is competent and honest; and I can tell you that he is neither, and my conclusion has little to do with his big government supporters thinking that slogans such as "hope" and "change" mean anything in a fast changing world where the "rule of law" remains predicated on who has the biggest gun, and it is no longer the United States.

Can you imagine any previous King of the House of Saud, Saudi Arabia telling US Americans, "Get used to it!!"?

What do you think the odds are that the Mossad has made certain each member of the House of Saud have not only received such a report but the analysis provided only on just3ants.com??

Most non-Americans up until very recent times will have told you, had you bothered to show any interest, that when they talk to Americans traveling around the world they are quite surprised how very little Americans know about other countries including Canada with its rich mineral resources including water and yes that electricity that the United States has been paying so very little for in the past all the while some 80 percent of Canada's exports are purchased by the United States using the most worthless-fictitious, so very bloodied currency ever produced in the history of the world.

When the Canadian Dollar was worth some 30% less than it is today when compared to the US Dollar; i.e. it would take one Canadian Dollar to buy 70 United States cents, US Americans could be seen in all the world's capitals staying at fancy hotels, renting villas when not buying them in all the world's "hot spots" and of course eating at the best and most expensive restaurants including those in Montreal, Canada, but today there are SIGNIFICANTLY less of US so out of shape Americans traveling and a whole lot more cultured Europeans who are most of all not so noisy and do know about other subjects apart from "making money."

How many times since I last asked have you said to yourself, "Foreign Capital" followed by "I want to vomit!"?

And these residents of the world's capitals outside of the United States are today not only smiling more but laughing themselves silly as they also know they have increasingly less to be afraid of the US Military spearheaded by the CIA disrupting their much healthier economies beginning with the fact that while our fat disease is spreading around the world it is not close to being as debilitating as it is here in the US and US Americans increasingly less able to rely on our much better in shape youth joining our most brutal military just to support the lifestyles of the ruling elite and those co-opted-corrupted to continue enforcing a reign of terror on the rest of the world's hard working peoples who just want to be left in peace and quiet and now have a spot like just3ants.com as their "one source-stop-shop" to get all their information.

You understand it is both I as well as Israeli Military Intelligence who understand perfectly well that remaining in "denial" is much more comfortable, but it is increasingly difficult as you appreciate the ever exponentially increasing footprint I have on the internet that remaining silent is not the smartest choice, and nor is it beneficial to either do me harm or wish me harm given how you simply cannot figure out how it is that I have survived this long taking on the biggest corruption of all time, all the while managing rather well to do other stuff like my daily chores including constantly dusting and cleaning our cliff house here in Del Mar that is such an extraordinary small "sacrifice" to pay when considering how out of this world it is to be on the water's edge of very possibly the best year-round climate in the entire world?

As I prepare to depart the Del Mar public library and head back to our gallery-studio cliff house I am reminded of Marie Dion Gevisser putting on yesterday her wetsuit that is between 15 and 18 years old and most likely 19 given how in all likelihood she purchased before her having her first child, and not only does she very easily fit into it, she looks so unbelievable; then again not only does MDG have those 31/32nd French perfect lean, long muscled, broad shoulders, long arms, most sexy body, she has that 1/32nd Huron Indian Chief blood that couple with her brain has her remembering you are what you eat, never to overeat, always to leave the table a little bit hungry, and if still hungry some 10 minutes after having one little square of high quality dark chocolate to then brush the teeth and look forward to the next days exercise always with a smile on your face.

Am I going overboard when telling you how fortunate I know I am and at the same time adore my wife who like me knows exactly which battles to fight and the proof can be found in the fact that we have not only remained alive but each moment we dont regret anything and look forward to the next moment as though it was our last.

You remind me of what I was looking at the other morning, the most beautiful female ass in the entire world followed immediately by these two rather cute pigs on my French-Canadian wife's French antique dresser with their asses facing outward as Marie Dion Gevisser headed back to the bathroom to finish getting dressed for a plein air painting at the Del Mar Fair Grounds.

Were it not for your use of the Afrikaans word "asseblief" which not everyone on my email list that represents a statistically valid sampling of the world's literate human population, knows means "please" I would have simply added your name to the "$ hit list" [Sic] on just3ants.com.

Forgive me if I am repeating that Jewish as well as non-Jewish South Africans have this very annoying habit of throwing in Afrikaans words in speech which they think is not only "cool" but it allows them "wiggle room" to either when not getting what they want such as not being spotlighted on my 100 or so websites in various stages of construction from the "bottom up" to either get angry and most often use the "f" word or try and get a little more "clever" but they have this really tough time in simply being quiet.

What is your choice?

Would you say that you fall into the category of those who are "as good as the last person they spoke to" or are you singularly focused on those words, "Foreign Currency" and "Foreign Capital" and finally the two words, "Diamond Currency", the conversation stopper of all time!!!
