Subject: WILLIAM LERACH ESQUIRE GOING TO PRISON-SIDESHOW

The most important news of the day apart from gold last trading in the spot market at US$792.20 and to the best of my knowledge, President Bush yet to call for an immediate suspension in the trading of shares of public corporations in order to protect all the hard working peoples of not only the United States but each and every mostly very poor people fighting in our DAAC controlled civil wars is, William Lerach, one of the top U.S. shareholder class action attorneys, pleading guilty today to a charge of criminal conspiracy and will go to prison for his role in a kickback scheme at his former law firm, Milberg Weiss L.L.P.

You would know that The IT's girlfriend Dawn works for Lerach who is of course like The IT much more bothered by what will come of Israel's reaction to my insisting they at least “make comment” on the “deafening silence” of each and every academic as well as member of the media which includes the 3 Branches of the US Government to the very easy to understand not so top secret Israeli Military Intelligence report which I am the only person in the world broadcasting that talks most of all to US business interests financing Al Quaida who have had no interest, at least up to now, in coming close to paralyzing the US economy by simply attacking the oil fields of Saudi Arabia, Kuwait and Qatar and at the same time “bite the hand” that feeds them.

Obviously, that “sex exchange” 154 minute phone talk doesn’t impress me as much as it does you.

Did Elise tell you before making the date tomorrow how much she will contribute for all the Knowledge-Information-Light I have shared with you that makes you so increasingly “cute”?

Remember she has no idea the size of your “kiD” [sic] or better yet whether you are good lover which is all I believe she is interested in; not that “weak-kneed” women are “riii” [sic] ever into passionate lovemaking versus those raised from the start to understand why it is that men can be very successful but never grow up!

Extraordinary life of an inspirational woman

ZENA Gevisser-Zulman is one of the most remarkable and inspiring women I have ever had the privilege to meet.

The name may not be familiar to everyone, but she has had her 72 years to the full in a stunning career which has taken her all over the globe into the company of some of the world's top celebrities.

For the past 22 years she has had a beautiful home in Wellescombe - a retreat from work and the family that takes her all over the world.

Zena's positive approach to life was summed up when I suf-

Katharine Courts meets the truly remarkable Zena Gevisser-Zulman is, Zena's own life is no less extraordinary.

Born in Blackpool, the daughter of a Polish Jew and a Russian actress, she was forced to leave her friends and the life she loved when her parents emigrated to South Africa at the end of World War 2. She was just 18.

"I cried the whole way," she recalled. "The end of the war looking boy of them all and within three weeks I had persuaded Bernie Gevisser to marry me," she said.

By her mid-20s Zena had four children and a blossoming career, creating her own charm/model schools throughout the country and spreading her philosophy on the importance of being a woman.

"I worked 18 hours a day, seven days a week while bringing up four children. You could often find me typing at 2am or dictating things to my secretary the second I woke in the morning," she said.

With Durban accommodating the largest population of Indians outside their motherland, Zena frequently lectured groups of the richest and most influential Indian women, and through her contacts she was invited to spend two weeks at the home of Pandit Nehru in New Delhi - hosted by his daughter, Indira Gandhi, who later became Prime Minister.

"Mr Nehru was one of the most overwhelming human beings I have ever met, an inspirational leader and pacifist," she said.

Zena's work led to more fame as her models appeared in Vogue, Harpers Bazaar and other top magazines, and many of her proteges held international beauty titles including Miss World.

A weekly radio show and newspaper column brought requests for advice and guidance from women - and men - from all walks of life and all over the world.

Zena, who "protected" Jackie Kennedy for a short spell following her wedding to Aristotle Onassis, was also part of Robert Kennedy's advisory team on local affairs when he visited South Africa.

AT HOME: Zena Gevisser-Zulman with husband Alan and a copy of her book, The Winking Cat, reviewed below by Katharine Courts

As a journalist, meanwhile, she has interviewed many of the world's top male celebrities over the years. Racing driver Stirling Moss, film star Paul Newman, singer Johnny Marsh, writer Somerset Maugham, ing Marlene Dietrich, J Crawford, Goldie Hawn, Shi Bassey and Gina Lollobrigida is no less impressive.

Of Goldie Hawn, Zena says: "She is one of the funniest young, and she really does giggle all the time. Everything she is very funny and she has a tremendous life, which makes her look wonderful."

In 1984 Zena married the young wizard Alan Zulman of Mount Zion in Jerusalem. The couple had known each other since he was 18; he is now though both look young. Since their wedding they have not spent a day apart for a week and a half. Alan was called to another country during an illness which forced Zena to stay behind.

Zena's philosophy on the importance of being a woman have inspired tens of thousands all over the world.

But she stresses: "It is important to realise I am not a woman's liberator or a feminist. A woman can be as successful as a man, or more so, without resorting to feminism or trying to be more like men."

"I love being a woman, but special and different, using woman's skills to achieve things. Equality brought women down."

"Men never grow up and very immature emotion. They can be extremely successful in science or other academic areas, but women are mature and can achieve much. After all, we have children - and what is greater than that?"

FLASHBACK: Zena at the New Delhi home of Pandit Nehru - "one of the most overwhelming people I have ever met".

fered the embarrassment of looking over a glass during an interview.

"That's not a very good start," she said, to which she replied: "Yes it. It didn't break."

Even before I had met Zena, I was inspired after she sent me her book, The Winking Cat, to read. I became utterly absorbed with this anthology of short stories and poems dealing with ancient energy, parapsychology and the unknown.

But, fascinating as the book had been an extremely exciting time for teens and life was wonderful. The relief after the fighting was immeasurable and we used to go out dancing all the time, and I didn't want to leave it all behind for a new life in a country which at that time really had nothing to offer."

Word quickly spread among the South African youth that an eligible English girl had arrived in Durban, and Zena duly decided to marry.

"I simply chose the best-

Movie moguls latch on to short story

ANNA's book, The Winking Cat, has been published across the US, Australia and South Africa - and now it has been made available in Wellington by a small publishing firm.

"We didn't market it much in this country because I am not so well-known, and the book is only available from one distributor, artist and illustrator Kerry Mollie," she says.

"The book is only available from Kerry's Wellington shop, Amaze in Fore Street, or a Kester shop."

The book promotes Zena's own message of living - "whatever happens, keep smiling". It contains 22 pieces, including four short stories, a series of poems and parapsychology experiences, and the fascinating feature, The Menopause Woman Needs Younger Men.

Her first book, it is an inspiration from beginning to end, offering tips and advice, exploring ancient energy and the unknown.

One of the short stories - One Clean Day, a drama set in the apartheid years of South Africa - has excited much interest among movie makers in that country and in the US, and the script has been sent to Will Smith, Denzel Washington and Whitney Houston as potential leading actors.

"I hadn't thought of the story in terms of a film, but it could work very well," says Zena.

There is also a poem, Lament for Diana, written following the death of the Princess of Wales. It was distributed throughout surrounding villages at that time, and the book mentions that "in Wellington it was placed on a railing, and many brought flowers and placed them beneath it".

The poem was to reach a worldwide audience, too, and Zena recalls: "Tears streamed down people's faces as they read the lines."

The Winking Cat also contains two highly poignant poems about the trials of motherhood - but it closes with an upbeat message with Zena's own cartoon, captioned "a night on the tiles, and all that, is better for you than the cat".

But again, I could be wrong and you simply forgot to ask for the money, gold, family's silver, diamonds on a fast track to becoming totally worthless, most valuable art etc etc thinking only about acting so very mellow and of course so very "attractive" in an all out effort to get in her pants.

You understand better why Zena, my Royal Mater-Mother considered prostitution the most honest of all the professions so long as women were skilled outside of just opening their legs, helped immensely by attending her Charm Schools

THE MPORTANCE OF BEING A WOMAN (SERIES 2)

BY

all about avoiding at all cost “smooth talkers” who should be left alone to attract “loners” who mostly smile when having their photo taken, most of the time wearing a “blank look” that barely masks their very loud growl when just touching the surface of their skins, let alone peeling away the thinnest of layers and conclude that my wife and I are correct,

“The Truth is irrelevant to everyone!”

So what do you think of my “gallivanting”, so very busy international traveling mother, “From the earliest days of 1949 she [Zena] visited Israel two and three times a year writing reports for different publications” also managing in 1949 to visit with her father, Alef-Albert-Al Badash-Ash in Maputo-Lorenzo Marques, Mozambique; my very cash rich granddad Al Ash, according to my father, Bernie Gevisser, being “forced” so very quickly after the marriage of my mother to my dad, to escape from a group of South African Indians who were not “happy campers”.

LOURENCO MARQUES.

Not to mention, that immediately after Al Ash was assassinated by DeBeers it was my mother and maternal grandmother's most trusted Muslim South African Indians who not only provided my Royal Mater with security but who also helped keep watch over her investments.

To mention little of my father always being told only what he needed to know.

BTW please pull off my desktop computer my entire primary email list, some 5,000 individuals + groups/institutions such as the Mossad whose numbers the Mossad have trouble keeping track of hence you understand better why Spielberg would be so very "foolish" in his 5 minute 100 mile per hour introduction to his epic 2005 movie MUnICh to make mention, "While Ex-Mossad agents as well as at least one member of Black September have criticized Vengeance, it has never been discredited", and "it" remember is a book written in 1984 some 6 years after The Diamond Invention was first written which has you of course first laughing since how would it be possible for Spielberg to be qualified to know whether the "Ex Mossad" agents were "egging him on" at the very same time the Mossad were placing a gun to his head to include such an extraordinarily revealing introduction that I know I can prove beyond a shadow of a doubt Spielberg wanted to do like he wanted a Mossad bullet in his head, very similar to the one's used back in the early 1980s fired from more than a mile away at the heads of PLO operatives stationed in Beirut that left a tennis ball size hole bearing the distinct marks of Israeli Special Forces who don't have the time to "play business".

Now starting at the end beginning emailing what I send David Charles and stop once you get to hhalaburda@hbs.edu.

Certainly, "The Truth is Irrelevant" to everyone I know born to wealth and who didn't decide the instant they found out that they stood to gain financially from an inheritance and/or Trust Fund to distance themselves immediately from those buying their silence.

So very easy to laugh everything off, especially when it is so very easy to just take the money and justify your actions by pointing out that you are at least not quite so corrupt as say The IT.

Now laugh.

Now smile.

Now laugh yourself silly.

Silly me if I thought for a minute you or anyone having their basic needs so very easily met would not be able to see how extraordinarily funny you look even when feeling you are so much better than anyone else who may in fact be a whole lot more evolved than you think; Elise very possibly more "in tune" with my writings than you would ever care to imagine and is doing nothing more than "egging you" to help increase the circle of those dependant upon my insight and analysis of the important events of the day.

Remember, you also have no clue who is and who is not receiving my communications going back to the "year dot"!

Were you aware that for many years photos of my mother and her top models doing their daily exercises that included firming up their breasts, stomachs and buttocks without surgery appeared on the back of Grape Nuts cereal boxes?

Do you think for a moment people like mafia of mafia kingpin American Charles Engelhard when visiting the headquarters of my father's family's The Moshal Group of Companies located at 173 Madon Road, Durban, South Africa didn't wonder what my highly influential and extraordinarily well-connected mother would do once she and/or David Ben Gurion and Co. figured out that Engelhard and his crime partner Anglo South African Harry Oppenheimer had plans, once buying off my father's first cousin, David Gevisser, to bury this so very highly diversified international trading conglomerate whose main principal, my paternal grandfather, Israel Issy Gevisser had a whole lot more going for him than owning the control block of shares in Moshal Gevisser as well as in both his and his murdered sister's name, priceless properties in Haifa harbor, Israel?

Do you think when Edward Jay Epstein received this first, nothing short of the most powerful fist to the Adams Apple, communication from me on January 13th 2004, sent out at 2:14 AM PST, the first thing he thought of apart from how he, a Hollywood blockbuster author and editorial writer for the DeBeers controlled Wall Street Journey would go about updating Chapter 18, THE AMERICAN CONSPIRACY of his epic non-fiction so very fascinating novel, The Diamond Invention that leaves the reader believing that Charles Engelhard was very much dead at the time Engelhard arranged as simply a “show of force” for President elect John F. Kennedy to meet Harry Oppenheimer in broad daylight at the Carlyle Hotel located on the upper east end of Manhattan while at the same time there I was some 11 odd months later, on November 11th, 2004 beginning to break a 24 year silence with DeBeers who understood perfectly well that when a decade later in 1969 Charles Engelhard arranged for the wholesale liquidation of the awesome Moshal Gevisser Group of Companies, letting all the world’s very top financial engineers know that the DAAC were going to be paying significantly less than the fire sale liquidation value of this very well known public corporation whose shares were actively traded on the Johannesburg, South Africa stock exchange, this “Money Power” of “Money Power” individuals was in the “very prime of life” and very much “at the top of his game”.

You haven’t forgotten that I forget NOTHING of importance when it comes to the weakness of the human spirit that first shows up when people such as yourself start lying, the first step in becoming a politician.

You haven’t forgotten how many times you have told me that this is who you are based on how you were raised and each time I have to remind you only then do you remember that you only know from being a politicians and telling everyone whose pants you want to get into only what they want to hear which is increasingly how much mellow you can be once of course armed with all my KIL that comes with a hefty price each time you forget that you are a politician interested only in getting in the pants of a “stacked” chick no different to every stacked chick who has her basic needs met and deficit needs under control.

But at least try not to forget 3 things.

First of all how self assured you were when writing to all your entire family including the Roman Catholic uncle who accepted US$2 million cash in a suitcase allowing him today to act so high and mighty self-righteous, that valuable “means of exchange” will flow very shortly in to just3ants.com.; second, I know, versus believe, “the truth is irrelevant” to everybody I know and third, that I remain both very fit and alive to explain who else is there to turn to turn to but to God when scientists such as Dr. John K. Pollard who have spent a lifetime in search of the truth, supposedly, now “throw in the towel” telling me and my wife, not exactly intellectual midgets, that he is a “loner” all the while seeking an “admiring audience”.

Our 90+ year young friend Gene Requa is just walking by directly in front of the cliff house heading north towards camp Pendleton. His wolf, Niki is lagging behind across the railway tracks on the increasingly narrow section of the every crumbling cliffs of heavily real estate and city council corrupt Del Mar, California that you recall President Bush got a real good close up view when flying by in Air Force One the other day.

President Bush may in fact be more interested to hear about your date on Tuesday as well as all else that you could have been doing with your time during that 154 minutes of pure ecstasy sex talk.

So what about Shunit, in her Halloween costume?

BTW immediately following this communiqué I will be “reconnecting” with the Office of the Israeli Defense Department attaché at the Israeli embassy in Washington DC, and I assume you are getting close to being able to pull in “real time” my videotaping of this rather important event and uploading it on to just3ants.com.

You cannot help when looking below at the recent “back and forth” between myself and Shunit, an Israeli-American a “disconnect of sorts” when she does not respond to my “What about Adam?” and then sends me the Halloween costume photo; yet at the same time is rather vague in answering my question, “Also what are your Israeli friends thinking of my communications with the Israel embassy in washington dc?”

What do you think about Watson according to your educators:

"Jim Watson is well known for being provocative and politically incorrect. But it would be a sad world if such a distinguished scientist was silenced because of his more unpalatable views."

How about someone other than me pointing out this moron is scientifically incorrect "beginning" [sic] with African Americans who are not uncle Toms which doesn't include you Lily White Wheat Eaters especially those such as yourself who pass for being Jewish while getting through the 1950, 60s, 70s, 80, 90s while America stole all of south Africa's gold production by justifying your "hipocracy" [sic] while listening to your drunk Bob Dylan whine about nothing but distracting "in support of our south east Asia policy" with the words, "If there was not a black problem in south Africa there would be a Jewish problem?"

I am ready to leave. call me at the cliff house. i left a message on your mother's answering machine.

The key is "who is doing the education?"

There is an abundance of food that is being poorly allocated.

Once the truth is known about DeBeers and how it has the poor of the world fighting it out amongst each other, the cycle of violence taking on a life of its own with the most poorly bred breeding more while the affluent get the "time off" to learn stuff like "gourment" [sic] vegetarian which is not quite rabbit food such a turnoff for those educated to feel rich when eating meat so we fix the problem.

Let's get moving!

Those thinking what is going on the financial and capital markets is just one more repetitive cycle, what goes up eventually comes down and vice versa, are in for the biggest wake up call of their lives which of course explains why academia, the new corrupt church is increasingly deafening silent.

Adam, before you allow yourself to get too carried away thinking Shunit also works for the Mossad let me remind you that I only came across her name-email address in an email broadcast by Norman Lazarus, son of Bernard Lazarus who lives most of the year in La Jolla, California, not to mention that Bernard and his now deceased brother Gunter "The Pig" Lazarus were the heads of the Nazi Jewish Lazarus clan of Durban North, South Africa who like American Charles Engelhard with very strong ties to Nazi Germany were "open supporters" of the Nazi-Socialist National Party of South Africa while being afforded the "best seats in the house" at our over the top corrupt Orthodox Jewish synagogue in Durban, South Africa located at the corner of Musgrave and Silverton Road.

EUROPEAN UNION : WHERE IS THE MONEY GOING?

"As long as young people feel they have got no hope but to blow themselves up, you are never going to make progress."

-- Cherie Blair, wife of British Prime Minister Tony Blair

"The Palestinians are fighting with human suicide bombers, that's all they have. The Israelis ... they've got one of the most powerful military machines in the world. The Palestinians have nothing. So, who are the terrorists? I would make a case that both sides are involved in terrorism."

-- Ted Turner, Founder of CNN

"When young people go to their deaths, we can all feel a degree of compassion for those youngsters - they must be so depressed and misguided to do this...."

-- Jack Straw, British Foreign Secretary

As the war against international terrorism continues, the situation in Israel is deteriorating rapidly with continued attacks against innocent men, women, and children. A degree of moral confusion has emerged with prominent world dignitaries expressing sympathy and compassion for the suicide bombers.

At the same time, the European Union, after the United Nations the most influential international body, representing 15 member states, has been a main benefactor of the Palestinian Authority. It recently announced a further grant of $17.7 million (U.S.) to the P.A.

With homicide mass murders unabating, the Simon Wiesenthal Center has strongly protested to EU External Affairs Commissioner, Chris Patten, that any further funding of the PA should be suspended until the European Union conducts an independent investigation to determine if any of these funds are being diverted to support acts of terror.

Join the Center's online campaign and let your voice be heard. Click here to send your protest directly to EU External Affairs Commissioner, Chris Patten, and Romano Prodi, President of the European Commission...

I just got off the phone with Elise, and I am impressed. I told her everything about what we are doing, why, why I left my wife, why I cut ties with family, and I am forwarding the email that I sent them. Not only was she not turned off by this "activist" but she was impressed.

We have a date planned for Tuesday. We talked for 154 minutes.

Adam
