Subject: I DONT AGREE WITH YOU ON A NUMBER OF THINGS - PANHANDLER - RE: Diamond Currency

Tell me what you mean when you say, "she lived in the same pogram...?"

You should now take a deep breath, perhaps go for a walk and why not a long slow jog on the beach but first make certain the beach sand is perfectly flat and solid and if not you may not be doing yourself any good even walking given the damage you can easily do to your knees even if you were in as good a physical shape as me which I know for a fact you are not although when compared to most of US Americans you are certainly not in the worst of physical condition.

Notice how quickly you are not only distracted but thinking about the many areas I could be "wrong"; moreover how I am going about making a "judgment call" in areas I could be so very easily proven wrong; and if not, then, at a minimum, what I have accomplished is to waste your time in reading when I could be doing so many more "intelligent things" and the same with you who is doing considerably more to share the "truth" with everyone.

And at the same time you will have noticed you are not exactly making all that many new friends which of course affords you more time to carefully ponder my very good advice which is all geared toward you thinking even more logically than you are, beginning by taking a deep breath of ocean swept fresh air and instead of continuing down the path you are going this very windy day that again is in a direction a whole lot better than most people in denial just wanting to grab as much as they can before all hell breaks loose, to simply "pick up" from my most recent communiqué beginning with this not all that heavily broadcasted communiqué. Click hyperlink below:

Not to mention Diane has a daughter who is not much shorter than you at 5' 11 inches, long blonde hair, blue eyes, gorgeous, an incredible figure, a snowboarder and as you would of course expect a pharmaceutical rep to boot.

To mention little of if you were to bring her home to your disgustingly corrupt divorced parents who are of course blind copied as well as the rest of your miserable family, the same with mine, it is still doubtful they will forgive you for turning them all in to the Feds who must be just laughing their heads off watching this all unfold in "real time".

Need I remind you that most of the world are both good and honest, most of all hard working while doing their best to make ends meet; and of course kept so busy that they can't come up for air to even think about why it is that that they are so poor and good-for-nothing but small talk people have so much as well as time to think of ingenious ways to trickle down the cost of getting richer on to the backs of the poor who are not stupid just again poorly misinformed and fast running out of patience; and hopefully increasingly smart enough not to resort to violence and play directly into the hands of the "gun-money-power" elite who never dreamed in a million years that one of their own would have not only the guts to take them on but to do so ever so patiently, painstakingly and methodically.

There is, however, no substitute for being "fit" which can only come from very intense cardiovascular workouts and in all probability there is nothing better than swimming in the ocean; and since I know for a fact that you don't have a wetsuit nor are you going to even think of arguing with me that if you had you would go and swim because quite obviously you don't like swimming in the ocean otherwise you would have by now got yourself a wetsuit even if it meant melting down worn out car tires, you would not be finding yourself all "worked up" i.e. "hot and bothered" and therefore more willing to not only listen but digest my good advice.

Don't be stupid now and go running on the beach.

Second, not because it is highly unlikely you will find the beach flat as well as compacted enough that it won't do your knees any damage but because there are more even and solid surfaces like the fricken road; and so what if you get knocked over since if you would allow yourself to simply bleed to death you can then be without any one of the nurses and doctors let alone the paramedics getting all "hot under collar" to be used as a 'practical' in a medical experiment".

<http://www.nextraterrestrial.com/pdf/Inferiority-&-Once-Proud.gif>

Third, click HERE again for my most recent communiqué that I have since sending it out earlier this morning edited in green throwing in a fair amount of "sics" which as you know denotes either an error in spelling or in grammar within the words in "Italics" or "quotes", whatever is your preferred choice of words.

Fourth, only bother further clicking on the hyperlinks within that 1441 odd word communiqué which of course could have been sent as well as understood by the overwhelming majority of the world's literate human beings when you have simply taken a deep breath, since I doubt very much you feel like I do which is to go right now for a run to Torrey Pines State Reserve and then swim in the ocean without one of my "tTOo" [sic] wetsuits, the one a super duper Marino wool lined Patagonia wetsuit, for as long as time permits before I would have to leave in less than half an hour for La Jolla where Marie and I will be having lunch with one-of-a-kind master oil painter-teacher Sebastian Capella at his restaurant of choice, although my preference would be Barbarellas since there is a wide range of vegetarian dishes although, I tend to pretty much always order the same food which now has me thinking we should possibly try somewhere else, but then we run the risk of being "disappointed", but at the same time I know, and you also know, that I haven't forgotten how mathematics – God/G-d's language for communicating with each of our brains which is all chemistry that translates back into the science into the math – proves out conclusively that whenever choosing change one increases the odds of success even if you don't have the foggiest notion of the math.

Not to mention such findings first presented to the world, as far as I am aware by the math wizard Marilyn vos Savant, considered the smartest human being in the world – just checked with Wikipedia – Ms. Savante is still alive, born on August 11th, 1946. Maybe you want to email her and share with her Dr. John K. Pollard Jr's email address while letting her know that Dr. JKP Jr., an alumni of MIT and Cornell University is part of that maddening dumb crowd preaching to the world the falsehood that women are "weaker" in both the science and the math which is the best test of logical thought processing; and the fact that it is false doesn't stop all the nonsense talkers who are as logic would dictate, the dumbest of us single task oriented men, from not only talking this utter nonsense but compounding this so totally untruthful statements of theirs with other untruths and why again as logic would dictate this good friend of ours imbecile who again is a total genius despite his formal education interfering with his learning, when compared to The IT and The Cow and Co., refuse along with the rest of those so very mediocre educated under the bs Bell Shaped curve educational system where it is the "most average" who rise to the top, to comment on the so very easy to understand Israeli Military Intelligence Report, the Military Report of all time which spells total doom for the American economy that once you also take a deep breath should have you mostly focused right now, partially because I am reminding you, of that panhandler that got handcuffed in broad daylight by heavily armed local law enforcement who of course had their many lights atop their patrol car flashing as the rich residents of the area patted themselves on their backs that this was "good use of our hard earned tax dollars".

To mention little of when I recounted this story to a 60-year old imbecile man who makes his money developing commercial real estate - ugh - at this most awesomely catered party for some 50+ guests, before going on to say that US Americans are going to have to "pull our socks up" and embrace one another like never before, beginning by stopping the "blame playing" worst of all thinking it smart to think the Chinese who set the scholastic levels wherever they go cannot see the "writing on the wall" and not thinking for a moment of putting down the hard working Mexicans who if they were to leave would make the dire straits of the US economy nothing short of cataclysmic, responded ever so civilly, all the while taking two steps away from me getting that much closer to his sister-in-law:

I don't agree with you on a number of things but this is not the time to have an argument. But you should know that there are two things that are important to me. First, my family. Second, my Roman Catholic religion.

To mention in passing, what this so uncaring human being failed to say was simply,

"I could care less about the poor who havent figured out a way to steal legally or anything you have to say!"

And of course I couldn't stop there and after making absolutely certain he wasn't going to say anything and was at least 6 feet away from the pool I piped in:

"So what do you think of Senator Ted Kennedy representing the best of the best Roman Catholics here in the United States and what do you think his brother John F. Kennedy was thinking when meeting at the Carlyle Hotel with Anglo South African Harry Oppenheimer, the co-head of the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel right before putting his hand on the bible and swearing to uphold the law beginning with the United States so farcical "sacrosanct" anti-Trust laws all geared to putting price fixers out of business?"

Not to mention, I could have also said, better yet had I bagpipes providing the harmony, "What else did the Pope do for the Jewish people during the Holocaust apart from sitting on his hands?" which could have proved quite embarrassing considering that if I had to run in order to get away not only would my kilt have lifted, and I am not about to describe what if anything I had underneath, there is this bag that hangs in front of the genitals known as a Sporrán that is simply not designed for runners and as Marie later pointed out why it is that some of them are made of soft leather.

To mention little of this truly great party that drew some of the finest and funniest people I have ever met including the awesome brother of this imbecile, was held at this very big and finely fine art decorated Rancho Sante Fe mansion which of course includes two portraits done by Sebastian Capella, and where the hostess who happens to be not only very beautiful despite around my middle age of 51 odd but very much so extraordinarily "easy going", very much "in touch" with the "common person" although of course in this neighborhood and married to one of the sons of a former President of Mexico, it was hard for me to suggest that Mary – I won't give out her last name – should take you in; although since you have a contractors license and know something about the landscaping business, perhaps you could go door-to-door giving out as well just3ants.com business cards?

was taken by Marie this past Saturday soon after hearing from this most wonderful multi-cultural lady who first came to the US some 4 years ago from South Africa but who is northern European but spent most of her life throughout southern and central Africa, that her very good friend Frans Visser who I only recently got to know rather well had passed away a week ago this past Friday; Frans making certain this most awesomely funny lady now helping Frans' 20 year old son operate his father's very successful gem business that doesn't include a single diamond, put aside a most beautiful piece of Malachite I had purchased from Frans many months ago when I first met this most interesting genius of a man who was married 3 times and had many girlfriends and at the same time it is very possible that there is no one alive today who knew more about not only precious and non-precious stones but all that it took to mine them; Frans a specialist in dynamiting to boot;

and of course Frans Visser whose last name is very similar to mine did not think very highly of De Beers who of course he knew was principally responsible for all the abject poverty throughout the world as they so incompetently have gone about allocating the world's precious mineral resources for more than a century.

Fifth, I know you haven't forgotten since I am for starters now reminding you of how the smartest financial engineers on Wall Street thought I had lost my mind when I decided not to pursue making my first website www.footsak.com a "household name" given how THE PERFECT STORM II could have made each and every shareholder class action litigator such as very skilled and experienced Jeffrey R. Krinsk Esquire, "beholden" to me following the decision by the Chief Executive Officer of Chase Brass Industries to "cave in" to the pressure caused by that so very "insightful" story that scared the "living daylights" out of Citigroup's Citicorp Venture Corporation who again specialize in "management friendly", i.e. "shareholder hostile" takeovers.

Sixth, you haven't forgotten either why it is that my eldest brother Neil Graham Gevisser so very enthused by your opening letter to him where he started seeing big $ Signs went suddenly "deafeningly silent" [sic] once he was then forced to focus on the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel having played a pivotal role in the so extraordinarily "shareholder hostile" takeover of our grandfather Israel Issy Gevisser's multi-national trading conglomerate, the public corporation, Moshal Gevisser Group of Companies that first attracted Harry Oppenheimer's American partner, Charles Engelhard who the Mossad assassinated at age 54, buried on March 2nd 1971 at St. Mary's Abby Church, Morris Town, two words, New Jersey; this control person of the DAAC who chose my uncle David Gevisser as his executor most likely had no say in making certain that Senator Ted Kennedy, former President Lyndon Johnson and Vice President Humphrey attended his funeral.

Seventh, nor have you forgotten what I spelled out yesterday to you in this 4980 word communiqué that could have you in the very next instant becoming a "household name" especially if you were to say be murdered in "cold blood" and all the so bought and paid for media were to be forced to make a big "hoopla" about your life.

Eighth, you do remember, again because I am reminding you that there is no glory in being stupid.

Ninth, on the other hand you also know that you have already done enough to have impressed our one most Supernatural force that it is unlikely you should worry yourself, at least not right this instant, about returning as one of those big red ants although you might think at least for a moment that it is better than one of those small black ants.

Tenth, you would know it is not always a good thing for people to think you are "weird" unless of course your goal is to survive and at the same time make the most of your common sense.

Eleventh, is it possible you were intentionally mixing up the word "pogrom" which is the word used to describe the massacring of Jewish people that took place in eastern Europe in the early to mid 1880s?

Twelfth, you realize, especially now that I am reminding you, that when you email me something I am forced to stop whatever it is that I am doing which includes doing nothing and simply looking out at our extraordinary view and if not then looking at the priceless masterpieces of Sebastian Capella as well as those painted by my increasingly beyond belief very excellent oil painter artist wife who of course contributes very significantly to my credibility!

Thirteenth, have you noticed that whenever you are around me and people have enough common sense to ask me not so much what they can do to help the world

“heal itself” from all the selfish miserable bastards, but rather what they should invest in, every so often I mention my wife’s art?

Time to fly.

Ps – I just noticed you had blind copied me on this mockingly excellent communiqué to this imbecile Bill Kovarik while looking like you had blind copied some 15,000 individuals/groups. I don’t simply think you would do fine making an extraordinary living as a speaker but how about running for President of the United States and if not what about the Speaker of the House bearing in mind there is no assurance the increasingly aware electorate would allow any senior elected or non-elected US Government official so much as to afford a pot to pee in.

Subject: RE: Diamond Currency

Dawn,

Tell me if I am wrong, but at the origin, books were intended to share knowledge so that it didn’t die with the person that learned/experienced it. Of course this has changed over the years, but none-the-less why are you in the book distribution business and more over for independent publishers? The root of your business in my opinion to give those that don’t have the opportunity to be signed by folks like Simon & Schuster an opportunity to get their story (i.e. Knowledge) shared.

It sounds all very nice and even altruistic until you begin to think about the power that someone in the position of book publishing and distribution has in their ability to dictate what information is shared and whether someone’s knowledge dies with them.

At the age of 8 years old Neche Badash while hidden in a closet witnessed the throats of her mother father and brother slit by Cossacks having a “night on the town” killing Jews. She lived in the same pogram in White Russia as David Ben-Gurion the future founder of the Hagannah (the Jewish Underground) and the first Prime Minister of Israel. She became very close to David Ben-Guriun and the Hagannah and played an integral role in the founding of the State of Israel.

I have a close Jewish South African friend, Gary S. Gevisser who is the great-grandson of Neche Badash who continued her devotion to the survival of the Jewish nation by passing on her “Yiddish Kop” to her son and grand daughter, Zena Gevisser, the mother of Gary S. Gevisser.

Needless to say there is a lot of history behind the creation of the Israeli Military Intelligence Report, and I assure you that it is very credible. It has been vetted by Mossad as well as Israeli Military Intelligence who have allowed Gary Gevisser to begin broadcasting it back in August of 2007. If you visit just3ants.com you will find correspondence between Gary Gevisser and the Israeli US Embassy in Washington DC whom eventually claimed to have email problems and would not confirm the receipt of Mr. Gevisser's emails which directly questioned their knowledge of this Intelligence Report.

I am just a programmer helping Gary Gevisser share his story, although I coincidentally have my own first hand experience with diamond currency as one of my uncles Pete Grande (commandpackaging.com) laundered some US$2 million through his plastic bag manufacturing company from a "silent" South African partner in the late 1980's.

My communication with you and many others was initiated to share the information of why Israel had to fight a war of Independence, and why despite popular belief, the United States has been no friend to the State of Israel.

Take a look at <http://www.just3ants.com/America/default.shtml> which shows just a few contradictions like the Swastika shaped US Naval barracks on Coronado Island in San Diego, CA; which began construction the same year the Israeli Air Force and Navy torpedo ships attacked the spy ship USS Liberty stationed just off the coast of Egypt some 2 days into the 6-day war. An unprovoked attack on a "allied" ship that was spying on Israel as she was attacked by Syria, Egypt, and Jordan.

Have you ever thought about how Hitler was able to amass such a massive military arsenal from the collapsed German economy post WWI reparations? According to our history books, Hitler was "helped" into the position as Chancellor by "powerful business men". These same powerful businessmen benefited from the slave concentration camps and provided Hitler with untraceable De Beers diamond currency as well as the much needed industrial diamonds which are required for precision tooling necessary for the mass production of tanks, machine guns, and anything steel.

Gary S. Gevisser was employed by De Beers in 1980 and was in a high level trusted position because of his uncle David Gevisser who was and still is the executor of the estate for Charles Engelhard which places him with the control block of shares of Engelhard Minerals and Chemicals Inc. This "opportunity" afforded by Mossad who assassinated Charles Engelhard at the young age of 54 unofficially dying from his addiction to Coca-Cola.

It was during this employment with De Beers that Gary Gevisser attended private meetings conducted between Stephen Coden of Codiam Inc. a diamond site holder, and Martin Rapaport of THE RAPAPORT REPORT which is an international price fixing publication for De Beers.

It is no secret that De Beers is a monopoly, but according to our US Justice Department the price fixing occurs in London and out of their jurisdiction, but upon review of memos release from the Freedom of Information Act, one begins to realize why De Beers has never been stopped.

The following excerpt is copied from investigative journalist Edward J Epstein's non-fiction novel THE DIAMOND INVENTION.

<http://www.edwardjayepstein.com/diamond/chap18.htm>

On August 4, 1974, the Justice Department received information that the "De Beers organization is a large contributor to both political parties and should this investigation get to a stage where cases were actually filed [the antitrust division] would probably receive much political pressure." The informant also disclosed that one major diamond dealer in New York was in "constant contact" with Harry Oppenheimer and was somehow relaying to him "information on the progress of this antitrust investigation." The diamond dealer in question was further alleged by this source to have "arranged the meeting for Harry Oppenheimer with John Kennedy when Kennedy was President-elect ... at the Carlyle Hotel," and to have served as an intermediary between Oppenheimer and American concerns in a number of deals.

I would suggest reading Chapter 9 – DIAMONDS FOR HITLER as well as Chapter 18 – THE AMERICAN CONSPIRACY.

You might be shocked to find that this information has been available since 1978 when Epstein first wrote the non-fiction novel, but then again when you realize how systemic it is you begin to see why complacency has afforded it to last this long.

On our website you will also find what we call the "$ Hit List [sic]" which is comprised of people, some public some not so public that include the likes of Elliot Spitzer, Alan M. Dershowitz, Joe Grundfest, et al; this list showing email correspondence marking the date and time when they were notified of Gary S Gevisser's intimate knowledge of De Beers and chose to turn a blind eye. The hope is that this list will one day allow the responsible people to be held accountable for their actions and inactions; preventing another holocaust of falsely assigning our troubles to the backs of the innocent as was done with the Jews and as is being done in the United States with the focus on immigrants as the center of our financial problems.

Kind Regards,
Adam L Tucker

PS please forward this to as many people as you can, our goal is to share truth and to provide the masses with the tools to peacefully stand tall. History has always been written by the people in power; but thanks to the internet, for the first time in the history of man information can be shared across the world at the speed of light and shared by everyone. Godspeed.

Subject: Diamond Currency

At the turn of the 20th century JP Morgan as well as other US bankers discovered war profiteering by financing the British Anglo-Boer War of 1899-1902. No loyalty to race, religion, or nationality; just money. Shortly after this war, in 1913 JP Morgan confounded the FEDERAL RESERVE and began hooking the masses on traceable currency regulated by his bank. In 1917, JP Morgan invested heavily in Anglo-American, a joint venture diamond mining company with Harry Oppenheimer who would later leverage a stock pile of diamonds to gain control of De Beers Consolidated Mines, thus creating De Beers Anglo-American Cartel. This move allowed the creation of an untraceable unregulated currency. Controlled traceable currency for the masses & and untraceable currency for the ruling elite. This untraceable currency has since been used to corrupt governments, finance wars, all without leaving a money trail. Thomas Jefferson (Letter to James Monroe, January 1, 1815) "If the American People ever allow the banks to control the issuance of their currency, first by inflation and then by deflation, the banks and corporations that will grow up around them will deprive the people of all property until their children wake up homeless on the continent their fathers occupied. The issuing power of money should be taken from the bankers and restored to Congress and the people to whom it belongs. I sincerely believe the banking institutions having the issuing power of money are more dangerous to liberty than standing armies. We are completely saddled and bridled, and the bank is so firmly mounted on us that we must go where they ill guide. The dominion which the banking institutions have obtained over the minds of our citizens...must be broken, or it will break us." He who forgets the past, is destined to repeat it. Cheers, Adam L Tucker
