Subject: BOUNCED BACK - I wonder what will be said about my families legacy of inaction?

That was good. You bounced back.

The all important Hong Kong gold market set to open in a couple of hours; spot market US$903.30 and still not a single member of the bought and paid for western media looking to comment on not only what was the "BIG LIE" that followed Hitler's "BIG LIE" that his backers, virulently anti-Semitic De Beers and Co. including most of the Jewish people in the United States who are only Jewish when it suits them, thought they would get away with, but my spelling it all out in very simple English well within the next 24 hours in a heavily broadcasted communiqué to your "friend" Black African American Paul Robinson.

Why not share the updated explanation of the "$ hit list" [sic] with your sick mother as I take my time in examining your and her "back and forth" that I assume contributes greatly to what has the FBI and Co. so intrigued with all that we are doing at www.just3ants.com.

Not to mention I don't recall you once thanking your mother for helping weaning you off anti-depressants as she has gone about doing the most wonderful job in increasing the circle of those dependent upon the most unique insight and analysis of the important events of the day only available at just3ants.com.

To mention little of her and your father's bad genes responsible for your so debilitating Crohn's disease.

To mention on passing that over the past 24 hours some 1500 Black South Africans have died of AIDs related illnesses, most of them Black South African children who along with their parents have yet to be informed of the CIA spearheading the most grotesque biological weapons programme during the South African Apartheid Regime that of course was sanctioned by the 3 Branches of the US Government given the deafening silences of all 3 Branches since such disclosures were made fully public in April of 2002.

A very low and slow flying helicopter with a large SKULL on the side just flew by the cliff house, the time 3:55 PM PST.

BTW Jonathan and Marie are now working on THE FISH ROTS FROM THE HEAD DOWN cartoon with of course the music from just3ants.com turned up "load" [sic] but not so loud that we don't hear the sound of the surf from the crashing waves belonging to the Pacific Ocean which your intellectual midget mother refers to as a "toilet".

Come to think of it, do you have a photo of her sitting on the toilet?

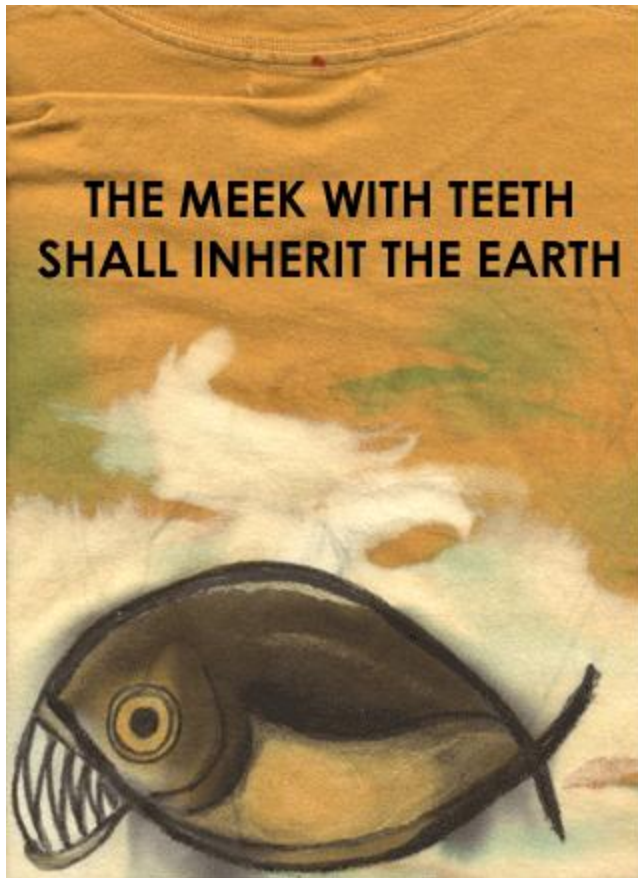

Marie is saying as she sees me type with my badly infected left baby finger, "What happens if you lose your finger?"

Please save me the typing and forward this to FBI Special Agent Curran Thomerson as well as the rest of your family who benefitted from laundering some US$2 million in cash through your mother's brother-in-law's plastic corporation.

Jonathan just asking, "How did the light work?"

Marie commenting, "Obviously he got home safe. Did he have to crank it again?"

Marie has moved from the long Italian black leather couch to sit on the awesomely comfortable reclining black Italian leather couch right next to Jonathan coaching him who is working on her laptop computer to come up with the perfect design for both TFRFTHD and THE MEEK WITH TEETH SHALL INHERIT THE EARTH!

not to mention I don't recall your so extraordinarily in denial so "botoxed-mouthfuled" [sic] mother responding to our "toilet response" – click HERE.

Marie now telling Jonathan, "I would rot the belly more than the back". They are really "cooking".

Side note to Merle "Future Turtle" Tucker:

Marie and I agree Adam is becoming a fine young man. And therefore we don't mind assisting him in his time of need. The fact that you cannot contribute to his work by subscribing to his website shows your narrow mindedness.

The fact that the FBI is paying attention to him and has not put him in jail shows how strong Adam is about the truth.

I think the chronology shows you as the weak kneed fish and as you well know, the fish rots from the head down.

Adam is starting to get in the clothing business. You might like "sum" [sic] items.

Marie is now saying "it's working" to Jonathan who had earlier shown signs of fatigue, bearing in mind he had surfed all morning.

"This will be my last communication with you as I don't have the time to waste."

I lied again.

One of the things I have learned in corresponding with all kinds of people, is that a person wears their insecurities on their sleeve, and generally tells you exactly what they fear most but they usually share it by trying to find negative similarity between themselves and those they attack. The term is called co-opting corrupting; and you provide one of the best examples of this in one of your last knee-jerk response replies to me:

"Adam you are almost 30 years old and what have you done or doing for yourself Adam? You have nothing, no roof over your head, no insurance, no car, can't pay your bills, you have been living off of every one for YEARS borrowing or should I say taking others money, with no integrity or pride. Lieing over and over.... blaming others for things 15- 25 years ago for messing your life up, pushing everyone away YOUR WHOLE FAMILY .You have no one who really cares about you now.. What has Gary done for you? other that twist your mind as screwed up as his and now has your life at risk? My guess is within a year you will be in jail or killed because of your actions you are choosing now for your self. I am embarrassed to say you are my son, I never thought I would see you this way, heartless, crewel, cold, hustler, scammer, troublemaker, no honest values. What good are you really doing for you or anyone else Adam? What real changes are you making for anyone or anything? What do have to offer anyone in your life? Yes it takes money to pay the bills and not live in the street or off someone else who has. It takes a commitment, it takes being reliable and keeping agreements. Which at one time meant something to you."

What you didn't realize was that your laundry list of perceived "failures" in me, shares exactly what you value the most and subsequently are most afraid of losing. The idea that you may be left with nothing and may have to define yourself by your character scares the shit out of you. And what hurts you even more is that you were given opportunities long before I came along to choose different paths and you chose poorly.

I shared with you in late 2007 that the US$ was on its way towards imminent collapse, and you chose to "keep on trucking". Now that your land deals have most likely fallen through, your real estate becoming worthless, and your US$ losing its buying power, you are feeling like you backed the wrong horse and would like to drag anyone you can along with you. By the way, how are Papa and Gary's horses doing?

From a very young age, you scolded me for asking too many questions, the fact that you don't see the importance of questioning is why you stand for nothing and will fall for anything.

"...you have been living off of every one for YEARS..."

Was it Ken Kadansky's treatment of your only son, his compassion towards his mother, or his wealth that had you choosing to keep him in your life for some 10+ years?

As your possessions from which you define yourself disappear, "What do (you) have to offer anyone in your life?"

"I know I do not deserve to be treated the way you have treated me."

What do you deserve?

If there is to be no communication what is your intention of paying me back Adam it has been 9 months and nothing....

"The only thing that I value now is my knowledge and my legacy of actions which can never be taken from me."

Yes Adam look at your own personal actions with me and others. Does not your word or actions mean anything?

I know I do not deserve to be treated the way you have treated me.

After WWI and the reparation payments that Germany had to make, their currency collapsed. There was already a resentment towards Jews, which only grew as people started to burn the German Deutschmark because it was more cost effective than than using its weak buying power to buy coal to keep warm. Then Hitler came along and became a street thug, gathering strength but didn't get real public attention until he was financially backed by "business men" who helped him into the position of Chancellor and the public eye. Once in a position to speak to the masses he was able to convince them that all of the problems of Germany could be traced back to the Jews, which was enough to justify to a poor, hungry, and demoralized public that if the Jews were gone, then all of their problems would go away.

Had the public been better educated as to why their economy collapsed, they would not have bought into the "Final Solution". The problem was they had no access to who was behind the collapse and so all it took was someone that could explain it such a way that made sense and they bought it, hook, line, and sinker.

"those who forget the past are destined to repeat it"

Now look at the United States right now. Economy collapsing, people losing their homes, their jobs, etc. and the growing sentiment is that the Mexican immigrants are the root of it.

Now look at our "$ Hit List" on just3ants.com; a list of people in the position to not only represent the public such as Eliot Spitzer former New York Attorney General, or Alan Dershowitz, etc. these people in the position of power and a responsibility to the public which they have ignored for personal gain and self-indulgence which has been at the expense of the poor that are not stupid, but rather misinformed.

I don't want to see the Mexican's or the Blacks, or the Chinese, etc. etc. being made into scapegoats while the rich get richer on the backs of the poor getting poorer.

According to the census bureau from 2000, 1% of the population controlled 40% of the wealth in our country, this staggering statistic has only gone further in favor of the rich. We now have the greatest division in the history of the world between the rich and the poor. A division that with the right environment will lead to the most bloody and brutal war that we have ever seen, and it will not be watched on television because the civil war will be here in the United States.

As the 1.5 million US soldier are forced to stand down by the Israeli Military backed by the Peoples Republic of China, they will be coming home to a collapsed economy with no jobs. Are you familiar with the phrase "Idle minds are the Devil's playground"?

These 1.5 million soldiers are trained to kill and when they learn who has been profiting from their lives being risked, they are not going to be complacent any more.

The "$ Hit list" providing a record of who knew what and when so that these soldiers and the millions of others that are waking up and asking questions realize that they won't have to fight for peace, which is a ridiculous concept that we have bought into for far too long.

We received 1022 unique visitors last month from 40 countries around the world and in the past 5 days of this month have already received 229 from 23 countries.

I don't care whether you see any of the work I am doing as being beneficial, because I don't put weight into anything you or any one else says.

When a person can spend their whole lifetime working for something only to have it taken away, who much value could that be worth? The only thing that I value now is my knowledge and my legacy of actions which can never be taken from me.

Family is action not a word and I have no loyalty to someone that would defend her corrupt family for the sake of a stupid phrase life "blood is thicker than water". Just look at how our "family" has treated each other and ask yourself what loyalty they deserve.

This will be my last communication with you as I don't have the time to waste.

good luck,
Adam

Interesting that you decide to reply when you are feeling the loneliest; no reply from you on February 4th.

I don't have the time nor to waste trying to explain logic to you; you have very clearly lost your Yiddish kop and are so focused on money and your value system around it that everything you see/read can only be related in terms of money.

Try reading the whole paragraph instead of picking out sentences that you can play off of, and perhaps then you will understand. And if not, then I can only wish you well.

It's unfortunate that you are so busy keeping track of your lies, even the ever so small ones, that you can't even remember sending the email below or the response that it evoked which now has you flabbergasted and playing the victim which is all you know.

My whole life I watched you blame everyone around you for your problems; one person after the other taking advantage of poor Merle; coworkers, papa, grandma, Gary H., my dad, your boy friends, your girl friends, everyone out to get you. I don't envy how you feel and it pains me to imagine living a lifetime wasting all that energy looking at others because it is too painful to look at the common denominator in all of those relationships. It pains me that you know no other way, and that the world that you see is so much different than mine.

Adam I want to know also what he has ever done so far in his life that has been a positive difference to any one...I trusted him to be harmless, when I brought the two of you together and stayed out of things so far but I see he is destructive vile and way way out of line with your personal life and the negative effects he has been in your life in all directions. Your both right I didn't prepare you in life to deal with men like Gary G. sick, scheming, manipulative ways. And now Adam your following his foot steps right down the toilet which is where Gary lives. Adam he has you on his roller coaster which is keeping you busy from dealing with your messed up life right now. Your going to hit bottom and see you burned many bridges as Gary already has. Most of the people he e-mails to, knows he is crazy....and asked him not to e-mail them any more.

I wish you well, and I hope that you can someday find peace within yourself before you no longer have the ability to choose.

$E=mc^2$ which Einstein referred to as "the mind of God"; the equation shows that energy and mass are one in the same, and when you combine that with Newton's Law which states that energy can neither be created or destroyed. This means that if mass and energy are equal and since energy cannot be destroyed, then mass cannot be destroyed either. This theorem means that life and everything that we see, feel, and touch cannot be destroyed, and therefore means that there is credence to the concept of reincarnation. It explains how baby animals have innate knowledge or instincts of lessons learned from their ancestors and how life is able to build upon what it learns.

Have you applied all the lessons that you have learned from being "burned" by everyone, or do you continue to be caught in the same circle of repetition?

What do you think that you will come back as?

The questions above are all rhetorical, so no need to reply to me with answers to them.

Good luck, I genuinely wish you well and hope that you can find your own path to follow which does not bring you so much pain.

Adam

I sent this out to you months ago, I was again very clear with you over and over about the conversations with Julia.....you twist and turn everything to fit the sick way you want to build a story even if it is based on your lies. Do not use me to build your case and lie about me or what I said or did especially if it is not true. You preach about being honest yet you continue your stories and lies. Here is proff of what I said yet you lied about me to the FBI. DO NOT involve me in your garbage I want no part of lies. If this is an exaple of what you are spending your time doing then it too is a bunch of garbage and lies. You are the one who takes no responsibility in what you say or do and how it affects other people. What you have done with me and my life is a good examplle. ONE LIE AFTER ANOTHER!!!!

I have also spent a lot of time thinking about "the meaning of life" and what is a good healthy finish line to work towards. I learned form our family that money is not a finish line since it doesn't solve anything but superficial problems and does not equathe to happiness. It seems that people with obscene money end up devoting their free time to helping people Your saying helping people is a bad thing? Are you saying that getting your own life in order and then when you have enough to help is a bad thing?. So I am not going to washe my life persuing money only to decide so that I can start giving back lather. First off I have no control over Gary; when you emailed him telling him that he lives in a toilet I never said he lived in a toilet, show me where I said that Adam?, what did you expect? You feed him negative things about me to give home the attitude he had of me take responsibility here Adam, you have had no loyalty to me with many people.

Why did Julia know that Wendy or Pethe were trying to prosecute me? Julia and I spoke a few times to share any new changes since you were not communicating with me and FOR THE SIXTH TIME NO ONE WAS TRYING TO PROSECUTE YOU. THEY WANTED TO FIND OUT WHAT THEIR RIGHTS WERE AND THAT WAS ALL!!!!. I understand her exaggerating things as would be logically expected from someone that is in the midst of divorce. You can deflect responsibility but there was no reason to thell Julia anything about Pete and Wendy. Julia and I had been reading what you were writing about Pete and Wendy, I shared that they were pissed and upset with you. There was never any intention to hurt you only concern about you and what you were doing . You are an experience person and know enough about human emotion to know what you were doing by contacting her, even if the original conversation was initiathed by her.

Agent Thomerson has now moved the Israeli Military Intelligence report to the highest terrorist threat possible, all aimed against the United States of America.

The fact that China is featured; moreover at the very start of this ingenious Military Report of all time is because of the preeminent role of just3ants.com to finally take down the DeBeers-Anglo American Cartel, the special interest of special interest group, counterfeiter of counterfeiters, money launderer of money launderers, price fixers of price fixers, who because of their total lock on the world's drilling industry, for more than a century now, make them and those that provide them with their military might the most anti-free marketers; OPEC not exactly "small potatoes".

Agent Thomerson cannot even at this point go to either Israeli Military Intelligence and/or the Mossad to verify such a report given it's so very logical dire straits prognosis and at the same time Agent Thomerson has let not only Adam L. Tucker know on the telephone but the entire world of his decision which makes perfect sense to do as he said he would and investigate what he considers a very real and serious threat.

Such a threat of course as Israeli Military Intelligence and the Mossad have already suggested in their communications with Gary S. Gevisser to be of the highest order requiring US Homeland Security to move this up to the very highest code red terrorist threat assuming code red has never been used given how there has never been such a CLEAR and SHORT terrorist threat since the founding of the United States and its Constitution; not to mention yet Articles II of impeachment to be used against the US Government were it to get tyrannical and not represent its people who have assumed the Constitution is an advocate of free market economies.

<http://www.just3ants.com/emails/israeliembassy/default.shtml>

Agent Thomerson knows that only just3ants.com is the only media source putting out such a code red terrorist threat far greater than 911 that Agent Thomerson knows the Mossad gave both the FBI and CIA a "heads up" one month prior to 911.

Agent Thomerson does not want to be "caught napping" yet again.

When you snooze you lose.

Agent Thomerson knows that the main focus of just3ants.com whose proprietor is Gary S. Gevisser who worked for the DeBeers Anglo-American Cartel at the very highest levels, is to take down the DAAC and the decision by IMI and the Mossad who quite obviously find Gary S. Gevisser most credible to feature China prominently in their ingenious Military Report, is a clear, short and deadly shot at De Beers given how De Beers everyone who is anyone knows owns the drilling industry hence the House of Saud, Kuwait Royal Family along with Qatar as well as Al Quaida, funded by the House of Saud owned by De Beers who own the 3 Branches of the US Government and for good reason Al Quaida haven't yet bitten the hands that feeds it namely all those military providing the muscle to the House of Saud that has never been a friend of the fledging State of Israel.

China needs oil currently price fixed by DeBeers financed by American bankers at the turn of the last century at always more than a barrel of oil.

Where are the "free market advocates" in the US Government who have allowed the DAAC to be in command and control of the capital and financial markets all the while so grossly misleading the American people in making out like the Chinese are not only "bad" but must now be seen as the "New Enemy" bearing in mind that China never financed DeBeers nor did the Chinese people who set the scholastic levels wherever they go as well as of course the equally peaceful Israelis, rig more than just the oil market which is why the IMI ends, "and in the next instant will paralyze the US Economy".

The US economy in other words cannot function without rigged markets.

Such a terrorist attack by the United States Government on the peoples of the United States is both real and imminent and should be taken seriously.

Best of luck to you all!

Adam
