Subject: You can't buy your Yiddish Kop - RE: Fearless Yiddish Kop

My words may in fact invigorate just one individual in a hell hole like Baghdad Iraq where the western alliance has perpetrated unmentionable evil, to not only pay attention but summon all their friends and relatives and begin chanting, "Let's give peace one more chance" by embracing my military plan that I know for a fact the Israel Defense Force is capable of executing even if not all its Special Forces commandos including the most brilliant non-Jewish Druze Special Forces unit are not all in perfect position but who understand there is still plenty of time once the brutal Israel Air Force begins to execute Israeli Military Intelligence's Military Report of all time that again reads:

Immediately following the 2008 Summer Olympics in Beijing China, Al Qaeda will launch a series of attacks on the oil fields of Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, and Qatar which will immediately paralyze the United States' economy.

At this time not only those unfamiliar with me but also those very many and increasingly so most familiar with both my writings and at least equal in importance, my "credibility" that goes well beyond the fact that there were few Israelis let alone South Africans holding at age 9

and 10

Israeli Special Forces commandos' high powered weapons, should all be focused on both the ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence report that has been vetted by both IMI and the Mossad and only available for public viewing on my one website www.just3ants.com, but the State of Israel led by the brutal Israel Air Force preparing for the final showdown; and for no one to think for a moment that my very CLEAR and relatively SHORT sentences are not being read by each member of the Israeli cabinet beginning with Ami Ayalon, Israel's "Minister Without Portfolio" who while no doubt much more familiar than I am with the "logistics" involved in preparing for World War III which we all know will result in World War IV being fought with sticks and stones, also knows that the bulletproof-watertight military plan I have also shared is the only plan that makes any sense given the alternatives of doing nothing or worse yet launching a pre-emptive military strike on Iran without at the very same time calling the United States Government to task for its crimes against humanity.

Such an admonishment must of course begin with taking to task not simply the Hasidic-ultra orthodox Jewish-Black Hatters who serve the best interests of the virulently anti-Semitic De Beers-Anglo American Cartel, the cartel of cartels, money launderers of money launderers, special interest of special interest group, but rather the non-religious Jewish people throughout the world including all those who have been so duped, so extraordinarily stupid not to have figured out when being handed a US$1 bill by the Rebbe Schneerson during the Sunday ritual promoting the use of US currency, they were being co-opted-corrupted in this so disgustingly transparent ritual, that first and foremost was aimed at hooking the masses of Jewish people, knowing the importance of questioning, questioning, questioning, most of all our leadership who we know from biblical times have clay feet, to fall for the "love of money".

http://www.chabad.org/therebbe/mymoment/default_cdo/jewish/My-Moment.htm

Each Sunday since 1986 until his death at age 92 in 1994, the Rebbe would stand tirelessly in a small room near his office as thousands of people filed past to see him and receive his blessing. To each of them the Rebbe gave a dollar bill, appointing them as his agent to give it to the charity of their choice.

The idea that one could be charitable with money without asking about the "money trail" is much worse than being in not the least bit Jewish for there is nothing "meritorious" about those who simply print money who infuse a brain numbing mindset to forget altogether the importance of leading a productive life.

Productivity is a word so very alien to these Black Hatters who like their DAAC bosses welcome the destruction of the State of Israel.

There is just one notable correction from your email to my eldest brother, Neil.

The "slap across the face" was extraordinarily calculated by my most aware and so very proper etiquette English born and raised mother Zena Badash-Ash Gevisser; but Zena, a household name in South Africa back in 1969, did not deliver it directly to David Gevisser, my father Bernie Gevisser's first cousin who was my mother's very close and so "lucky" friend, but rather to my uncle Dave's one uncle, Sol Moshal known to all us South African Gevisssers as the "Little King", who was at the time the Managing Director of the Moshal Gevisser Group of Companies that included ACME Timber where David Gevisser was one of the senior executives.

Please note at this time that I have added a whole bunch of new email addresses to the carbon section, ex-South Africans belonging to SAJAC, who may or may not recognize the household name 'Zena Gevisser' or me or anyone else in my immediate family but they too should pay careful attention to the fact that once again I am carbon copying both Israeli Military Intelligence as well the Mossad who I daresay much more so than folks like the FBI and CIA do not care for spammers or for those who forget not so much their past which is bad enough, but the true history of the modern State of Israel which has been in a survival fight well before the very great David Ben Gurion declared Statehood for the Jewish Homeland on May 14th, 1948 which the American and British Government in particular not only believed would be destroyed in a matter of hours but went out of their way to assure victory for their Arab tyrants beginning with King Ibn Saud of Saudi Arabia.

Not to mention that Charles W. Engelhard who "chose" David Gevisser as the executor of his world wide estate first came across David Gevisser because Engelhard was interested in expanding his timber holdings and was soon thereafter visiting with the "Little King" at Moshal Gevisser's headquarters located at 173 Madon Road, Durban, South Africa, all the while fully aware that the "Little King" had in fact no power to speak of, given how my grandfather Israel Issy Gevisser owned the "control block" of shares in this highly diversified multinational trading conglomerate with branches/offices all over the world.

To mention little of next to "diamond currency" that is lightweight, untraceable and NEVER to forget, unlimited in supply and always price fixed at more than a barrel of oil, timber is the next best commodity for the corrupt superrich to transfer wealth and most of all, undermines the "free enterprise system" throughout the world.

To mention in passing the "slap across the face" of Sol "Little King" Moshal would not have been heard by anyone other than my mother and the "Little King", including, sitting in the office next door, Cynthia Woodhead, the "Little King's" private secretary.

Again, it is possible that accompanying this much more than "shot across the bow" were words out of my so proper Charm School teacher mother's mouth, "You bastard!" after the "Little King" had conspired with Engelhard and Co. to sell Moshal Gevisser, which was a public corporation whose shares were actively traded on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange, for significantly below "fair market value", that in exposing the "Little King" such a "dirty deed" in fact exposed each and every "mover and shaker" in the closely-knit Jewish community of Durban as well as throughout South Africa especially since De Beers and Co. used an "outsider", Natie Kirsh and Co. as their "front person".

It is highly doubtful the "Little King" would have uttered a word given his disbelief, thinking my mother wouldn't have the courage to confront this "Emperor without clothes" who actually believed because of his title, Managing Director and Chairman of the Board and with everyone who was anyone kowtowing to him, that he was the one in charge.

It is even possible that Engelhard and Co. believed the "Little King" was the one "calling the shots"; bearing in mind the "Little King's" wife, Gretchen was getting laid by Sidney Fobb, one of the middle managers of Moshal Gevisser; such an affair a not in the least bit closely guarded secret.

Moreover, Sol "Little King" Moshal like C.W. Engelhard had no male heirs and both saw David Gevisser as their "blue eyed boy".

Not to mention the "Little King's" one sister Janie had married my paternal grandfather Israel Issy Gevisser's one brother Maurice Gevisser whose second son was David Gevisser.

To mention little of the "Little King" was nothing more than a bean counter, a South African Chartered Accountant much like Jeffrey "co-owner-Marc Rich-Flower Hill Mall" Essakow and Sol "Gambling Czar" Kersner and Co. who went out of his way to "block" each and every deal that my very astute business person father with some 71 odd missions dive-bombing the crap out of the De Beers Nazi bastards during World Oil II, presented to the "Little King" that wasn't lost for a single moment on my extraordinarily shrewd mother, her father, my granddad Al Badash-Ash, the "favored" son of pogrom orphaned Nechie Badash who like Ben Gurion came from the same tiny village of Plonsk, White Russia-Poland, and most of all my very on-top-of-things paternal grandfather, Israel Issy Gevisser who wasn't exactly stupid when purchasing for cash not only all the most valuable properties of the Moshal Gevisser Group of Companies but well before the outbreak of WOW II, priceless land in Haifa harbor, Israel which Issy, a co-founder with his brother Maurice of the Moshal Gevisser Group of Companies, held in his as well as in the name of his sister Pessiah who remained in Vilnius-Vilna, Lithuania where Pessiah, who you see as the elder lady standing in the photo below in front of our family's small shop 42 B.GEVISERIS 42, along with her 5 children, 3 daughters, Divorah, Luba and Etele; 2 sons, Yossel and Motele who when about 16 or 17 died suddenly in his sleep, before World Oil War II, were all murdered by the De Beers Nazis.

Click HERE HERE-and HERE for the heartbreaking 2 page letter my grandfather received from the husband of his niece who wrote Issy Gevisser a letter dated May 3rd 1965; Shlomo having married Divorah, who in 1936 gave birth to a daughter:

Cutting and pasting:

You supported your sister and her family from Africa, and this is how we lived before the war. When war broke in 1939, and Vilna was united with Lithuania, you managed to help us through a Kovno merchant, but in 1940 all the borders were closed and I took it upon myself to support the whole family. I was making a good living and we were not too badly off.

Then the real war started – Germany against Russia & from that time onwards, relating this story comes with blood and tears. And for me, this more so, as the war separated me from my loved ones. I was called to the army and served till the end. I was twice wounded, on[e] occasion severely. When I came back to Vilna whilst still in the army in 1944, I found no one alive - not my two brothers and four sisters and their families and no one from your sister's family and their children.

It is difficult to realize from so far away what it means to a man to come home and found he has lost his whole family to a soul. It is a miracle that I didn't go out of my mind. Even today, I cannot understand how I overcame my grief. Their faces were always in front of me, especially at night, I could not fall asleep.

It didn't, however, take long at all for this so out-of-character act of my Royal Mater-Mother to reach others besides for David Gevisser who got the fright of his life, first thinking that he had got away with his deceit, believing that all the "money, me grabbing" Jewish and non-Jewish people watching this extraordinary display of arrogance by De Beers and Co. who have been using "fronts" from the moment they got the backing of the military might of the British-American governments starting with their victory in the Anglo Boer War of 1899-1902, would never piece it all together, instead would buy into the propaganda of De Beers and Co. that the reason the "Little King" sold out the Gevissers was because his "blue eyed boy" David Gevisser had decided he didn't want to run the Moshal Gevisser Group of Companies, instead to go work for Engelhard who would only be dead some two years later, poisoned to death for his "dirty deed".

"The great masses will more easily fall victim to a big lie than a small lie" – Hitler

Neil Gevisser isn't the only Gevisser who "bought into" the utter nonsense of the "Little King" simply being jealous, "having it in" for the Gevissers who had a whole bunch of "male heirs", just "waiting in the wings" and who weren't all exactly stupid and who could see, first and foremost that the Moshal Gevisser Group of Companies was not just about the "Gevissers" whose name meant a whole lot more than simply the literal translation from German into English, "certain" and "Gewissen" meaning, "conscience".

Not to mention yet again the rather sudden death of Engelhard, within 2 years following the "slap across the face", had David Gevisser "wising up" very quickly before informing my no-nonsense and extraordinarily well connected mother that he received a lump sum initial payment of US$6 million, again not exactly peanuts going on 4 decades ago and some 5 odd months before Engelhard's fabulously mineral estate began to skyrocket immediately after the US went officially off the Gold Standard on August 15th, 1971; never to forget that Engelhard was allowed by the Mossad to hold on to not only his ownership of Engelhard Minerals and Chemicals but to control the world's supply of platinum that within a handful of years the heavily corrupt De Beers controlled US Government provided "free of charge" in each and every new automobile purchased in the United States.

To mention little of my most worldly, "Born to perform" mother's clients included at the time Mr. Ari Onassis who wore his chicanery high on his lapels; plus there was the most trusted Muslim Salot brothers of Durban who were also no pushovers, the same with the Mossad whose boss Ben Gurion was most happy to see my mother, dressed to kill, raised by his closest "consigliore" Nechie Badash,

"From the earliest days of 1949 she [Zena] visited Israel two and three times a year, writing reports for different publications".

<http://www.just3ants.com/dev/who/zenagevisser/index.php>

To mention in passing, Stephen Cohen's partner at Codiam Inc. was Alan Lipworth who happens to be the one son of Joan Moshal Lipworth who was one of the "Little King's" daughters, also well-known to my mother, Zena who always had kind words to say about Joan.

Furthermore, at the time I joined Codiam Inc. in 1980 soon after De Beers and Co. had crashed the gold market with of course the full support of their central banks beginning with the US Federal Reserve and US Treasury, Stephen and Alan were getting along "famously", not the slightest sense of any rift.

Try and get hold of Alan Lipworth whose younger brother Leon Lipworth was on Ulpan with me at Sde Boker in the Negev Desert, Israel, near Beersheba, and Leon may also recall the day we all first met with David Ben Gurion on November 1st, 1972, some 13 months to the day when this great man who implored, "Let the children of Israel be a light unto the nations" passed away, and again some 57 odds following De Beers and Co. sponsored PLO terrorists beginning to brutally murder 11 defenseless Israeli athletes at the Munich Olympics.

It is a rather small world.

What goes around comes around with a vengeance.

The deafening silences beginning with Steven Spielberg speaking volumes.

Now let me make note to all those who still think this "money, me" world is all about money which it is but only to those extraordinarily poorly schooled in the history, economics and politics of the ruling elite who again have no loyalty to country, religion or race but to those who share their non-existent "value system" and who are only religious when it serves their agenda.

The agenda of the ruling elite has always been one simple objective, to be the allocator of the world's precious resources without having to work for a living and at the same time instill in the masses that not only will "the meek inherit the earth" but only in the afterlife as the filthy, lazy rich live it up in this life like there is no tomorrow, but it so very important to have the downtrodden only be given scraps to have them constantly fighting amongst themselves without a moment of peace to assess their dire straits situation and simply cry "foul", that they have had enough of the filthy, lazy good for nothing but violent and most inefficient allocator of the world's precious mineral resources including labor, trickling down the cost of getting rich on to the backs of the poor who are simply misinformed and not in the least bit stupid.

Again, it is those who lie, steal and cheat who are the first to lose their minds as they are too busy keeping track of their lies which prevents them from learning and when you don't learn from your own mistakes let alone being smart enough to learn from other peoples' mistakes then you have no one to blame but your own mind, the first indicator of the supernatural given how the mind is all chemistry that translates perfectly into the science, into the math the most precise of all languages that could have only been created by one Supernatural Force given again its absolute precision.

The ruling elite once owning the military might then enter into packs amongst themselves not only who to attack but when, all the while making it look like it is "sumwhat" [sic] of a fair fight.

First, they have to get the masses before fighting it out to a bloody death to be hooked on one or more currencies produced by the different elements of the ruling elite who keep their tightly knit group together by having very carefully arranged marriages and when they fall apart to make it look like they are just "ordinary people" that has the masses clamoring for more like "Princess Di" without a thought given to how easily distracted the masses have increasingly become to question the "money trail" that had the "prince" and "common" princess who in the case of Princess Di wasn't really all that "common" coming together in the first place, with all the chatter, all the different opinions, all sighs, all the tears, all part of the merry-go-round games that the ruling elite so very carefully orchestrate.

Second, while the masses go about finding every which way possible to "make money" the ruling elite are way ahead of them by using the money they have created and kept mostly for themselves to purchase the great mineral wealth of the planet and when the masses begin to stir, they plunge one or more currencies creating civil unrest, followed by chaos in the streets, all depending upon how much chaos is needed to keep the masses from figuring out this musical chair game where they are the only losers. Additionally war always being an option as they use their fictitious currencies to finance both the destruction and reconstruction with no regard for who wins or loses so long as there is profit to be made, and the masses get increasingly number.

Interesting the spelling of such a word is identical to the number as in #. Of course you recall my mentioning recently the game, "noughts and crosses". How many coincidences does it take before one concludes the number is zero, or as us "English" would say, "nought".

Third, once war begins, no matter how big or small, each and every one of us literate human beings, whether rich, poor or indifferent all know, "money is no object" when the ruling elite then barter the amongst themselves those resources they have either stolen using worthless currency or just grabbed using their big guns.

The history of modern day warfare is as simple as that.

Thank you for allowing me on this very day, the Sabbath Day for us Jewish people, Saturday, June 21st, 2008, - Summer Solstice that began at one minute before midnight last night - to write the essence of my forthcoming book, THE HISTORY OF MONEY CREATION AND ITS FUTURE, subtitle, A message for the President.

Cutting and pasting from US State Department's website:

<http://www.state.gov/r/pa/ho/time/id/100933.htm>

The Dawes Plan, the Young Plan, German Reparations, and Inter-allied War Debts

In late 1923, with the European powers stalemated over German reparations, the Reparation Commission struck a committee to review the situation. Headed by Chicago banker Charles G. Dawes, the committee presented its proposal in April 1924. Under the Dawes Plan, Germany's annual reparation payments would be reduced, increasing over time as its economy improved; the full amount to be paid, however, was left undetermined. Economic policy making in Berlin would be reorganized under foreign supervision and a new currency, the Reichsmark, adopted. France and Belgium would evacuate the Ruhr and foreign banks would loan the German government $200 million to help encourage economic stabilization. American financier J. P. Morgan floated the loan on the U.S. market, which was quickly oversubscribed. Over the next four years, U.S. banks continued to lend Germany enough money to enable it to meet its reparation payments to countries such as France and the United Kingdom. These countries, in turn, used their reparation payments from Germany to service their war debts to the United States.

Lets now quickly revisit the present by first going back in history.

In 1925 BASF founded IG Farben together with Hoechst, Bayer and three other companies.

IG Farben cooperated with the Nazi regime, profiting from guaranteed volumes and prices and from the slave labour provided by the government's concentration camps. IG Farben also achieved notoriety owing to its production of Zyklon-B, the lethal gas used in Nazi concentration camps.

1913: JD Rockefeller and JP Morgan co-found the Federal Reserve System, owning the majority of the 12 banks that make up the US currency regulatory system.

1914: JP Morgan finances France, Russia, and Great Britain in World War I.

1917: JP Morgan co-found Anglo American alongside Ernest Oppenheimer.

Under the Nazis, the German chemical company I.G. Farben and Rockefeller's Standard Oil of New Jersey were effectively a single firm, merged in hundreds of cartel arrangements. I.G. Farben was led, up until 1937, by the Warburg family, Rockefeller's partner in banking and in the design of Nazi German eugenics. Following the German invasion of Poland in 1939, Standard Oil pledged to keep the merger with I.G. Farben going even if the U.S. entered the war. This was exposed in 1942 by Sen. Harry Truman's investigating committee, and President Roosevelt took hundreds of legal measures during the war to stop the Standard-I.G. Farben cartel from supplying the enemy war machine.

1940-41: I.G. Farben built a gigantic factory at Auschwitz in Poland, to utilize the Standard Oil/I.G. Farben patents with concentration camp slave labor to make gasoline from coal. The SS was assigned to guard the Jewish and other inmates and select for killing those who were unfit for I.G. Farben slave labor. Standard-

Germany president Emil Helfferich testified after the war that Standard Oil funds helped pay for SS guards at Auschwitz.

June 15, 2006: BASF acquires Engelhard Minerals and Chemicals Corp.

Ps – You can only smile from ear to ear when hearing the words, “He-She-They do not want to change” especially when it comes out of the mouth of someone who just like the person they are referring to does not want to see change, starting out with not ever wanting to be questioned why they cannot express their “value system” in black and white which begins,

“I don’t lie, steal or cheat. Second, I will not have anything to do with people who I know lie, steal or cheat. Third, I love what I do. Fourth, I love to teach what I love to do so that I can continue learning about the things I love to do that give me pleasure while helping contribute in some significant way to the betterment of humankind. Fourth, I welcome each and every individual on the planet putting me to the test. Fifth, I live each moment like it was my last, with no fear of meeting my maker, better yet that I will never see again those awful ugly faces of each and every hypocrite that the world can so easily find on the “$ hit list” [sic] of www.just3ants.com that most definitely needs updating”.

Don’t forget one of the many geniuses of the great Jewish religion is that once a person changes their behavior it is a sin for anyone to remind them of their past behavior; and again, to the best of my knowledge there has never been in recorded history a leopard ever changing its spots which doesn’t mean we cannot be hopeful but it would be pure folly to think that a poorly conditioned person will ever consider graciousness in victory as anything more than weakness.

May G-d/God continue to bless the Israel Defense Force.

Subject: Fearless Yiddish Kop

Neil,

Gary has told me many times about your compulsory military service and your time served in solitary confinement having stood tall while defended a black man. He also told me how you were exiled out of South Africa for your book of poems criticizing the Apartheid.

What happened to that man and his fearless Yiddish Kop?

Put yourself in Gary's shoes for a moment;

Just prior to boarding a plane to the United States in 1978, your highly "secretive" mother hands you two letters of introduction signed by your father's first cousin David Gevisser in unsealed envelopes; one letter intended for the attorneys of Engelhard Minerals in San Francisco and the other letter intended for a one-time executive of Acme Timber in La Jolla.

Upon giving the letter to the attorneys, you are given a nothing to speak of "job" in New York located in the diamond district of 47th street. You enter the very modest office of Stephen Cohen the CEO of Codiam Inc. who then asks you how you would like to be paid. You are introduced to important people in the diamond business, invited to important meetings, and are groomed to replace your "uncle" David Gevisser as the executor of the estate for Charles Engelhard Jr which would place you in command and control of Engelhard Minerals and Chemicals functioning as the American leg of De Beers.

While attending these meetings over deli sandwiches you are introduced to the Hasidic Jew Martin Rapaport Editor of the RAPAPORT REPORT, where you witness your "boss" Stephen Cohen providing Martin with the prices to be printed in his next diamond price setting publication. Staying quiet you realize that you have been "placed" in a position under De Beers Anglo American's principle price fixer in the United States. Your curiosity gets the best of you as you realize that it was no more of a coincidence that your mother handed you those letters of introduction as it was that your "uncle" Dave got his job after the Mossad assassinated Charles Engelhard Jr; and you begin asking questions of the wrong people. At age 24 your health begins to fail you and despite being in very excellent shape you find yourself very weak, and the American doctors can't seem to find anything wrong with you. Once your mother gets word of your health issues she insists that you return to South Africa and be seen by a family doctor who does a liver biopsy and discovers that you had been poisoned.

Once recovered you phone your old boss, Stephen to let him know of your recovery and not only do you find out that he is shocked to hear your voice, but you learn that your "nothing to speak of" job is no longer waiting for you. This provides you with a very clear message of who was responsible for your poisoning as well as letting you know that you must remain very quiet about what you witnessed while in their "employment". Once off the phone you inform your mother that there is no longer a job for you at Codiam, which has your mother responding very quietly since your father was in the room but loud enough that you could hear clearly, "I'll fix him" to which you respond just as quietly, "Leave Stephen Cohen to me" bringing a smile to your mother's face.

You quickly put two and two together as you realize that the slap across the face of your "uncle" Dave by your mother was not only out of character for her but was the result of his role in selling out the Moshal-Gevisser Trading conglomerate which as you recall left your very honest and intelligent father unemployed and blacklisted so that he couldn't use his trusted good Gevisser name to reopen. The selling out of your father and grandfather by a family members reaffirmed your awareness that there is no such thing as "family loyalty" especially when money is involved.

So what can you do but keep a low profile and learn as much as possible with the knowledge that one day you will be presented with an opportunity to share your intimate knowledge of this atrocious De Beers cartel which was not only so obviously behind the Apartheid benefiting from the cheap slave labor, but also financed the reconstruction of the collapsed Weimar Republic led by anti-Semitic little Corporal Hitler as he wiped out 6 million of the best and brightest; And of course not forgetting the role of "blood diamonds" in financing the perpetual civil wars in the mineral rich countries of Africa.

Finally the internet rolls around and affords you the ability to bypass the bought and paid for media so that you can share your intimate knowledge but how can you be sure that your information will be heard before De Beers gets wind of your actions and this time insures your silence for good? Knowing that you cannot trust anyone you begin putting out as much information as you can but in order to insure that you aren't stopped mid download, you decide that the best way to get the information out is to mask it in diatribes so that it can be overlooked and dismissed as crazy ramblings. Once she is made aware of your intentions, your very secretive mother assists best she can in furthering this "crazy" image by confirming your mental condition with anyone that will listen.

Once you feel confident that the meat of your knowledge of De Beers is circulating the internet, you send an email to your old boss Stephen Cohen who is "coincidentally" having problems accessing his email while traveling in Florida and tasks his son Leon who you remember from the many Shabbat dinners at their home, who equally remembers you and responds warmly with an invitation to lunch on his father's behalf. You use Leon's familiarity to your advantage and once you feel that you have created a sufficient nexus between you and Codiam, you inform Leon of the non-fiction novel THE DIAMOND INVENTION and that you will be attending the lunch with him and his father, "wired" by the Feds.

Your eldest brother who time and again demonstrated his lack of fear when standing up for what he believed to be right, finds himself playing his part in trying to sabotage your purchases of 3 bedroom house and café on the waters edge in Minehead, England. Recalling sitting with him in the living room of this well kept "nick-perfect" condition house as your mother walked through the property letting the owner of the house Valerie Coster know that you would not complete the transaction.

Moreover, your mother then goes so far as to contact the authorities in England letting them know that her [Valerie's] husband was leaving the country and that he was about to steal the deposit that you had put down on the Minehead home/cafe.

Of course after learning of all of her interference you confront your mother over the telephone figuring what she had done was all in effort, of course, to "protect" her youngest son who she knew was not exactly a schlemiel, a smarter investor and business person than anyone she knew including her father as well as father in law, as you let your mother know that she had committed a criminal act against an innocent stranger which left her responding, "Well, when they ask any of my children, they will all agree I am crazy!"

"The end justifies the means" as your mother might say, but none-the-less doing the damage of thinking one is G-d/God not realizing that when choosing to lie, steal and cheat the short-circuits that you yourself create prevent you while trying to keep track of your lies, from learning and when you stop learning you lose your mind, and in the case of your/our mother she loses her "ancient energy" which is as much a responsibility as it is a gift.

By now your family who have been mostly misled by your mother as she did her best to protect the ones she loved, all believing her very convincing stories that you are crazy and finding comfort in their ability to dismiss your hard truths because it is easier than dealing with the reality of their ignorance and inaction.
