Subject: COOL-black hands cannot lay white eggs...CONTINUING

Now that it looks like my heavily broadcasted communications on this Jewish Sabbath Day have got NOT JUST YOU to at least SIT STILL, while of course you still thinking you are going to find a way, short of suicide, to get out of the noose, you and your increasingly so self-destructive family strung for yourselves, and at the same time no doubt quite optimistic about Elise, not to mention all of you - Elise who I understand is now on her way over to the cliff house, of course excluded - increasingly certain with each tick of the almighty powerful clock reminding you all and others like you tuned in that time is running out for all those who usurp their limited authority that the cowardly-bullying act of suicide will, unless in a Masada enactment where all means of escape are cut off, in all likelihood be reacted upon in an instant by a most vengeful and resourceful God returning each one of you within no time to speak of as ants, but more likely earthworms that the next generation will eat up and for your potato head family to stew on ad-infinitum, WHAT DO YOU THINK of what your mother wrote me below, bearing in mind that she made a point of letting me know that she was not going to carbon copy you but much more importantly, does not deny calling you late at night while you were all alone at home to let you know she was going to be once again breaking her word, that you would surely not mind if she stayed out with her date way past 11 PM when she called and when you did object, this sperm recipient of yours had the audacity to yell at you, "You are so controlling and manipulative!"?

Being a Sperm Donor or Sperm Recipient does not make you a good parent! – Marie Dion Gevisser BTW Adam, at age 14 weren't you living with your aunt Vicki and uncle Gary, attending high school in Escondido, California about a half hour to forty five minute drive from your not so cool mother that was living in Encinitas at the time?

What a bunch of garble. Again not at all capable of telling the true facts only exaggerated lies, Adam was 14 1/2 not 11 yr. . Also when I was in Israel during the war Mike was in the Army and when the war broke out his father was in the US on leave. No where in your e-mail did you answer any questions I asked only a bunch of fragmented ramble. One of the most important questions ill ask for the third time WHAT HAS GARY IN THE LAST 15 YEARS DONE TO IMPROVE THE LIVES OF ANYONE? WHAT POSITIVE HONEST GOOD HAS HE DONE? Not to mention how you told me when you were 11 years old and your mother was out on a date and called you at 11pm when she was supposed to be home at 10PM asking you if you minded if she stayed out a little longer and when you told her that you wanted her to come home she turned around and told you, "You are so controlling!"

For the last time stop the bull shit with me. You need to stop including my mother in all your correspondence ,you are only upsetting her and you can stop the shit now. I have respect for someone who thinks for themselves and does not quote the bullshit you slinging. You continue to spout words of hollow meanings and seem to have no original thoughts. Get down to the problems at hand, # 1you have no means of support and continue to pretend that you feel free of all the money issues you have been chasing.I don't understand your math regarding your work because you never paid your suppliers, never paid Dave Wilson - who by the way is in dire financial straits because you stuck him with money owed from 3 jobs , but maybe it is more important for you to solve the world's issues than to face the people that you have seriously hurt; both financially and emotionally. You continue to address the world's problems but refuse to address your major problems. Yes it is very tough to survive at the pace we sometimes set for ourselves but if we don't strive to improve ourselves we cannot give to those who cannot take care of themselves. I haven't read 1 thing that Gary has written that addresses the local issues of poverty , sickness, or hunger, what is he contributing other than rhetoric to solve issues that he can control. You want to look at the effect of your lack of concern for your previous endeavors, call the guys who now have to look for methods to pay their bills and don't have the ability to just walk away from problems and pretend they don't exist. Don't quote to me any more regarding the economy's problems because I am busy trying to pay off your debts so you don't end up in jail. Don't bother to thank me cause it is my responsibility as a father and a man to take care of what happens in my life.I do not regret the decisions I have made for you or any other people I care about. As long as I can work and That will be as long as I need to , I will continue to love you and hope you can wake up before it is too late to turn into a man and assume the responsibility of taking care of what you can't control that is right in front of you. Nobody is listening in other places to you or Gary's messages cause the two are trying to live and give.

Subject: WHAT-RE: act-what was there to gain by me not ccing you?-cabin estimate

Try again.

This time reference what email-s you are referring to.

Again, begin where I had previously suggested, pointing out exactly where I was, in your words, "questioning why I hadn't given Marie an estimate"?

Second, are you simply fine tuning your acting skills?

Third, are you saying you were also, "not thinking" when writing me a very concise email, "What was there to gain by me not CCing you?"?

Fourth, I will shortly be sending you a draft of my follow up email to Marcia Kramer of CBS-TV, New York. Consider this assignment just the start of your repaying me and Marie for the "opportunity costs"; i.e. the costs of the next best alternative, over the past 3+ weeks as you "played business".

when reading your email about not sending an estimate, it reminded me that I had not done it. My impression from your email, was that I had forgotten to provide it to Marie. I was not thinking.

Subject: ACT-WHAT WAS THERE TO GAIN BY ME NOT CCING YOU?-cabin estimate

For 3 weeks Marie has been wanting to paint, thinking that you would during this time that you lived in both our spaces, all your basic-deficit needs being met including the gas and entertainment monies to date Internet chicks looking for a good time and if not then someone with lots of money, certainly not an "activist", at least have provided us a 5 minute edit of my very funny wife videotaping my timely insight and analysis of the important events of the day.

So you can understand how very upset is Marie who took about a second to fully analyze your, "What was there to gain by me not CCing you?"

What exactly did you have to “lose”?

Let me explain for all those extraordinarily few who were not raised like you and you know who, to be “politicians” from the word go in order that you would end up being more co-opted-corrupted than your parents, Mr. Mike Tucker and his divorced and not remarried wife Ms. Merle Tucker, who look a whole lot like The IT aka The Sperm Donor aka Dr. John BIG BEN Stewart MD and his “cow” girlfriend Ms. Dawn Kilicut whose employer Mr. Bill Lerach Esq. has agreed to go to jail as part of a plea bargain with US Attorneys who know perfectly well Mr. Lerach Esq. whose law firm Milberg Weiss-Lerach has made billions of US Dollars used first to corrupt elected and non-elected US government officials as well as buy up valuable assets belonging to other nations forced to accept our worthless-fictitious and so very blood stained DeBeers-Dollars, is guilty of much more heinous crimes which I do a rather good job in explaining in rather simple English which all talk to the increasingly better understood DeBeers organization doing a rather nasty job, nasty in every sense of the word, in allocating the scarce resources of the world amongst those who “butter their bread”.

You would know when visiting any open market where say for example a Vegan such as Marie’s non-fanatical vegetarian 18-year old daughter, Danielle is forced to chop up meat that occasionally has her vomiting on the pork loins, that when a customer comes along and starts to bargain about the price there is this “give and take” and eventually after a certain amount of haggling without the need to call in either the FBI or Detective Jeffrey Steele of the San Diego Police Department, an accommodation is reached and if not then so what unless it is of course you or your child who ultimately has to chop off their right arm in order to feed themselves.

It also helps to have me explain that DeBeers officials have had, for a century now as they mostly focus on crashing vibrant markets which one still finds outside of the US, the most fun looking from their fabulous and secluded mansions scattered throughout the globe, and seeing such serious faces of those haggling even when it comes to say doing one big master plan real estate development that has the biggest bankers in the land with all their attorneys and other financial advisors along with all their bought politicians, all these clowns doing the midnight shift pulling out all stops to satisfy this and that regulation all the while these so pitiful “movers and shakers”, way down the DAAC socio-economic pyramid. also have to take phone calls from their nagging spouses and of course girlfriends and boyfriends on the side not wanting to hear about their problem children at home, now, this very instant, increasingly having a lot of fun of their own reading all this in real time.

You think for one minute that I would be afforded the position to take over from my uncle David Gevisser, the American head of the DeBeers-Anglo American Cartel, all because he was related to me or because I had a very brilliant mother who along with her over-the-top brilliant father, Alef-Albert-Al Badash-Ash orchestrated from the very moment they arrived in South Africa in 1947 for my nebbish uncle Dave to “ingratiate” himself with American Charles Engelhard who like the very deep underground Jewish Underground who keep the Mossad “on its toes” recognized the extraordinary value of my other grandfather, Israel Issy Gevisser’s multinational trading conglomerate, The Moshal Gevisser Group of Companies?

You think for a moment what it would mean if I were to present my “case of wrongdoing” against each and every person I know who has been receiving my communications and is therefore fully knowledgeable about their corruption that now has them “deafeningly silent” before each and every university class throughout the world I would have trouble getting the overwhelming majority of students who don’t have Trust-Hush-Funds to contribute to the “social cause” of the overwhelming majority of peaceful and hard working peoples of the world not getting their fair share of the graft-spoils of diamond drilling bit oil wars?

Today when first accessing the internet you surely couldn’t have avoided President Gen. Pervez Musharraf declaring a state of emergency in Pakistan today ahead of a crucial Supreme Court decision on whether to overturn his recent election win and amid rising Islamic militant violence.

You would also know that the economic conditions here in the US are not as “combustible” as elsewhere where DeBeers controlled US forces are hell bent on lightening fires between different ethnic groups, such civil wars going a long way in keeping things in the US relatively calm, at least when I last looked.

BTW the surf conditions here at our cliff house, which I daresay your so very easily confused and clearly not in the least bit endearing mother has yet to visit, are rather good and were it not for you now heading over here I would most likely be in the surf with my wave ski having a jolly good time while of course improving my level of fitness which you would know is well above average even for those like you, half my age, still in your twenties.

You would also know that were you to have spent the same amount of time during these past 3 weeks that you spent wasting my valuable resources, time the most precious, trying to date someone over the internet, visiting say a bar in Oceanside near the Camp Pendleton Marine base where there is as you would expect a lot of gang violence and drug usage, it is very possible you would have met also a US Army recruiter like Hispanic Sargent Amanda Lopez and in less time than it took you to communicate with the biggest airhead over the internet bearing in mind your excellent text messaging typing skills, to have convinced such a person to convince all the other US Army recruiters to “give up” this very “bloody game” as you also had them view the movie-documentary NO END IN SIGHT.

Nothing short of riveting is this “eye opener” analysis by top US military brass mincing no words about the primary role of the US after securing Iraq’s oil was to create the most extraordinary bloody civil war that leads not only to one refugee crisis after the next in neighboring lands but the best and brightest of these war torn countries rushing to our shores willing to work for “pennies on the dollar”.

Does the name Albert Einstein ring a bell?

You would also know how very difficult it is right now for US college students here in the US in increasingly poor parts of the country like Oregon and Washington State to get livable paying jobs were it not for such college students having Trust-Hush Funds that are not YET worthless.

You would also know how very tough it is for all those knowledgeable about why it is that the rich manage to get away trickling down the cost of getting rich on to the backs of the poor who are not stupid just poorly informed, to keep up their charade given how you would know that I would be foolish to depend just on people-actors like you helping increase the circle of those dependant upon my insight and analysis of the important events of the day.

You would know that I am ALSO not stupid when reading even the “sly English” language.

You would know that had you in fact carbon copied me on your email to Marie that came some 3 hours after I emailed you not to bother with getting a contract from Marie to do anything around the cabin, my spelling things out so very precisely, it would mean that you by carbon copying me you were being EXTRAORDINARILY “IN MY FACE”.

Instead, you thought very carefully about how little you had to “lose” by not carbon copying me, believing, given how you were raised in a household of two extraordinarily poorly conditioned “politicians”, both your parents using you to get at each other, that given how very successful you have been in the past by following in their tracks, you would somehow be able to still get “in between” Marie and me, and if not then you could always resort to writing, “What did I have to gain?” before then, assuming I had’nt the stamina to keep up with you, when caught with your pants down being able to explain using your previous writings:

From: Adam Tucker

Subject: RE: (no subject)

once a leopard always a leopard. I am a politician; if the purpose if to get them to contribute, then I need to do it the best way I know how and playing up what I think will get them to respond positively. You told me that Alan Zulman got people to contribute by making them feel guilty.

My father knows guilt.

Don’t you just love email!!

So lets get back to your parents who continue to tell you how much they “love” you and you likewise continue to say how much you “love” them and that of course you remain hopeful they will “come around”.

I very much doubt it but don’t you want to at least try and see how long both you and them as well as the rest of the family including your uncle Pete who took the US$2 million bribe, will keep up this charade as you along with all your Internet dates pull out all stops to now contact everyone who knows both you and your family and to ask them what they think of the situation.

I suggest you explain first to every girl you have contacted at the different Internet dating sites beginning of course with Jdate.com what you are thinking when you use the word “love” and whether it is any different to your parents who have possibly never “seen eye to eye", your father some 6 feet 2 inches and your mother barely 5 feet and an inch at tops.

Then see which one of these chicks is the most effective in getting your family to contribute not only to your "deficit needs" as you refer to also things like medical insurance that cover stuff like transfusions for your Chromes Decease but to help mitigate all the resources we have wasted on you as you "played business".

You remember emailing me about "stacked" Elise:

Elise, would like to meet your and Marie. She is doing her own research, but she is the only person outside of you or Marie that wants to make a positive difference and is not turned off by the sacrifices that come of it.

I am working on the website today, although it took nearly 45 minutes yesterday to download the website to the computer so that I could work on the files independent of the internet connection.

Can I use your CC to buy a website template which costs approx $60?

Adam

Adam, you are all a bunch of excellent actors so why not continue acting in this awesome game of life?

Begin your response by pointing out exactly where I was "questioning why I hadn't given Marie an estimate"?
