Hi Geoff,

I remember my Sunday school teacher trying to explain the concept of a mitzvah with the core of it being about action; after her anecdotal story explaining a real world example, I asked the teacher what about the saying "it's the thought that counts"? She said that it didn't apply to Judaism.

You may have read Gary discussing the "black hatters" which is a term he uses for the Hasidic Jews which as you probably learned from Erez's theses are the backbone of De Beers providing their distribution but moreover acting as their intelligence gathering network which in the case of the De Beers site-holders allows them to further ingratiate themselves with De Beers which ultimately is reflected in the quality of diamonds that De Beers sells them.

These "men of G-d", refuse to serve in the Israeli Defense Force despite there being mandatory service, and they belittle Jews that are not Hasidic for their lack of Judaism.

Yet, in the picture above you see Gary and Rabbi Schneerson who was viewed by many Hassidim as the messiah engaging in a very bizarre ritual... One would think that these "men of G-d" would be handing out the words of G-d or messages of Judaism, but instead you see them engaging in the promotion of the US$ which has nothing to do with Judaism and everything to do with De Beers.

Jewish people like Stephen Cohen of Codiam Inc. who would eat Bacon Lettuce and Tomato sandwiches in the presence of the real top Black Hatter, Martin Rapaport of the Rapaport Report without even a thought given to Stephen Cohen's bosses at De Beers Central Selling Organization located in downtown London have always been not only non-Jewish but virulent anti-Semites going back to Ernest Oppenheimer who in 1929 in the most contrived stock market collapse was allowed by the rest of De Beers bankers throughout the world to become the central figure in charge of the De Beers-Anglo American cartel who only have a presence on 47th Street, New York and retail money laundering stores on the most expensive real estate in all of the United States so as to remind the US Justice Department not only who butters their bread but were they to really launch a full scale investigation it would in an instant implicate all 3 branches of the US Government.

House takes aim at OPEC

<http://www.marketwatch.com/news/story/house-votes-strip-opecs-antitrust/story.aspx?quid=%7BB6EA2A09-FE4D-4825-8368-9D15CEFFA637%7D>

The Senate proved their culpability a few weeks ago when they voted to allow the US Justice Department to sue OPEC for price fixing despite their lack of jurisdiction; as you remember from your previous student's theses, jurisdiction has been the saving grace for De Beers since most assume that the price fixing occurs in London. Of course you now know that there was much more discussed between Stephen Cohen and Martin Rapaport while they broke bread on 47th Street, New York.

Rod Ward of Skadden Arps, reply to my email not only confirmed his receipt but in doing so, also demonstrated that he is not thinking clearly; had he done his due diligence he would have remained silent.

That said, how do you suggest I respond to Rod Ward's email below?

I hope this finds you well,
Adam

Subject: "Free Market" - Diamonds are not forever

Rod,

To what extent do you believe is the effect that the De Beers Anglo-American diamond monopoly which has no entry for competition and has operated for more than 100 years without interruption has on our "free or mixed market system"?

To what extent do you believe is the effect of an untraceable unregulated currency in the same said market system?

The following is an excerpt from Wikipedia: FBI Agent Robert Hanssen who is responsible for the worst security breach in US history

"Hanssen was arrested on February 18, 2001, at Foxstone Park near his home in Vienna, Virginia, charged with selling American secrets to Moscow for more than $1.4 million in cash and diamonds over a 22-year period. On July 6, 2001, he pleaded guilty to 15 counts of espionage in federal court. He was subsequently sentenced to life in prison without parole. His activities have been described as "possibly the worst intelligence disaster in US history."

Do you think that Robert Hanssen is the only person to have ever been paid in untraceable unregulated diamond currency?

Do You think JP Morgan co-founder of the Federal Reserve System, ever thought that the masses would ever realize his role in the creation of the most transparent money laundering system when he formed Anglo-American alongside your son-in-law's great grandfather, Ernest Oppenheimer?

I don't believe that you are Jewish, but does it upset you or any of those around you to know that according to the United States OSS and the US Justice Department, Harry Oppenheimer was supplying Hitler with diamonds both as currency and for the much needed precision tooling necessary to amass a military capable of taking on Europe and wiping out 6 million of the best and brightest?

Does it bother you to have to visit your grandchildren in South Africa because their father is not allowed to set foot on US soil without of course incriminating the US Justice Department that much more?

Have you ever read the non-fiction novel "The Diamond Invention" by Edward J Epstein?

Cheers,

P.S. When forwarding this on to Jonathan, please make note of the entire CC section and be sure to remind him to add Special Agent Curran Thomerson from the San Diego Field Office to the payroll as I'm sure he is not compensated enough by the US Government.

P.P.S. When next passing Michael L. Weiner in the halls at Skadden's New York Office, pay careful attention to his eyes as they will tell you if his lack of action as Skadden's New York, Partner responsible for "Antitrust Matters" is due to his culpability, stupidity, or both.
