Subject: G-D - 72 - RE: my emails?

Adam,

Forward to the entire staff of Torrey Pine High School this communiqué along with the email I sent Mr. Trupe, again your former high school history teacher, yesterday, click HERE, as I also suggest others such as Tefo in South Africa and Augusto in Peru do likewise.

Perhaps, Dr. John K. Pollard Jr. will take the time out of his busy schedule sending "tits and ass" emails to his "chick list" to finally "get on board" and do something meaningful with his life.

Can you describe the cashier over at Henry's in Solana Beach who most likely thinks highly of so talkative Lars "I am many things, but silent is not one of them" Trupe.

Do you think it ever this crossed this also former student of Trupe's why it is that he is so very fortunate to have his very poorly paid job that most likely doesn't keep his head much above water, if that?

You know once you teach someone the truth, especially about the business of "money creation" that you would expect someone as worldly as Trupe to know like the back of his hand – his deafening silence along with his now growl speaking volumes – then you have nothing else to teach and you, beginning with teachers, especially here in the US who are nothing more than glorified baby sitters caught between the corrupt school boards and the parents not willing to stand up for their children's right to be first of all taught the truth about such an important subject as "money creation" then you would be forced to go out in the real world and compete against your teacher peers in places like Peru and South Africa where the likes of Augusto and Tefo are beginning to stand proud and tall and of course they are also physically very strong, just like their Chinese brothers and sisters; not to forget the Israelis who along with Jews of the Orient, set the scholastic levels wherever they travel.

Low flying US Marine troop carrying helicopter just blew past the cliff house.

Time to hit the surf, something I promised Marie I would do much earlier today, but I got caught up mostly watching the trading of gold; the all important Hong Kong

due to open in a little over 2 hours.

Not to mention that of course Trupe is not alone in not wanting to address any substantive aspect of Epstein's most substantive Diamond Invention book, beginning with how Epstein who didn't get off a boat just yesterday on Ellis Island, New York, made a big deal in Chapter 18, THE AMERICAN CONSPIRACY of:

the founder of Engelhard Minerals and Chemicals, Charles Engelhard, was a well-connected American entrepreneur who had inherited a small metal fabricating company from his father. In the late 1940s, he had journeyed to South Africa to make his fortune. South African mines had a surplus of gold, but government regulations prohibited the exporting of gold bullion from South Africa without permits from the central bank, which were very difficult to obtain. Great Britain, which still controlled the financial affairs of South Africa, wanted to retain as much gold as possible within the sterling bloc. Engelhard found a loophole through that regulation: while it was illegal to export gold bars, it was legal to export objets d'art made of gold. Engelhard formed a company called Precious Metals Development that bought gold from the mines and cast it in the form of statues and other religious items. Engelhard exported these religious objets d'art to Hong Kong, where they were melted down and turned back into gold bullion, which could then be sold on the free market. (This ploy was later used by Ian Fleming, who was a business partner of Engelhard, in his novel Goldfinger)

That "central bank" Epstein is referring to is the South African Reserve Bank linked inextricably to the US Federal Reserve Bank.

Moreover, as you can well imagine Charles Engelhard didn't really have to get permission from anyone let alone a bank that he and his partner Anglo South African Harry Oppenheimer owned "lock, stock and barrel".

Engelhard did, however, do exactly as Epstein described, "exported these religious objets d'art to Hong Kong, where they were melted down and turned back into gold bullion, which could then be sold on the free market" after first setting aside gold bullion for those co-opted-corrupted elected and non-elected government officials throughout the world beginning with those in the United States and Great Britain.

Furthermore, what will increasingly trouble Trupe and his peers so far down the DAAC pyramid, it is rather funny given how they have been bought off for peanuts, is that extraordinary essay written in 1966 by former Federal Reserve Bank Chairman, Alan Greenspan, entitled, "GOLD AND ECONOMIC FREEDOM" which Trupe and Co. can access by clicking HERE.

Now Trupe and Co. have to deal with the so careful laid deception by Epstein and Co. to make it look like Charles Engelhard was long dead and buried when a "nothing to speak of" New York diamond dealer such as Maurice Templesman, "arranged" for President elect John F. Kennedy to meet with Harry Oppenheimer on US soil at the Carlyle Hotel in Manhattan; all such information made available by the DAAC's US Justice Department under the Freedom of Information Act going back to the mid-1970s.

Again, so very out of context, Epstein makes the reader aware of the simple truth that Charles Engelhard laid to rest on March 2nd, 1971 with both JFK, RFK and Rev. Martin Luther King all dead, had "no male heirs", apart from my uncle David Gevisser who became the executor of Charles Engelhard's fabulously mineral rich estate and immediately following his burial, again on March 2nd, 1971, a full decade after that extraordinary meeting between the incoming President of the United States who also carries the title, Commander In Chief and Engelhard's mafia of mafia partner, my uncle Dave received a "cash advance" of sum US$6 million that wasn't lost for a moment on the likes of the Mossad or my highly secretive very Gentile looking Jewish Royal Mater-Mother who,

"From the earliest days of 1949 she visited Israel two and three times a year writing reports for different publications."

Moreover, some 2 years prior, in 1969 when Engelhard orchestrated the liquidation sale of my father and his father, Israel Issy Gevisser's public, multi-national trading conglomerate, The Moshal Gevisser Group of Companies, by first co-opting-corrupting David Gevisser's uncle, Sol "Little King" Moshal who like Engelhard had no male heirs, my Royal Mother, Zena Gevisser told me how she walked in to the "Little Kings" office that was right next door to the office shared by my father and Issy Gevisser who was still very much alive at the time, and without saying a word, walked around his desk and just once slapped the "little King" across the face and then promptly walked out.

Not to mention all the DAAC's carefully conceived plans were orchestrated from Engelhard's Camp Chaleur estate, Quebec, Canada beginning with both future First "Lay" [sic] Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis and John F. Kennedy meeting ahead of the 1960 Presidential election with both Charles Engelhard and Harry Oppenheimer.

You will recall in my mother's extraordinarily crafted memoirs first published via email on October 9th, 2001, the 53rd anniversary of her 3 decade marriage to my father, my not in the least bit wordy mother wrote how she "rapidly felt at home in Israel" upon hearing that her future father-in-law, Israel Gevisser, owned priceless beach property in Haifa harbor that was known at the time of its purchase to David Ben Gurion and other members of the Jewish Underground including my mother's maternal grandmother, Nechie Badash who my mother points in this same email broadcast to a very selective audience, was an, "early resident of Tel-Aviv, only returning to England in 1929" when my "born to perform" Royal Mother was born, again on May 30th, 1929.

Moreover, my Royal Mother has never provided any evidence that ever visited Israel prior to emigrating from Leeds, England to South Africa along with her immediate family in 1947, around the same time the very deep Jewish Underground were hot on the trail of those filthy dirty bastards who financed the clown Hitler.

Not to mention you most likely won't find a single human being either dead or alive, apart from my Royal Mater who "served" both Aristotle Onassis and Attorney General of the United States, Senator Robert F. Kennedy, two sworn enemies.

To mention little of how my still very much alive Royal Mater made a point, but only twice in her entire life, that when she was in the room with Jackie O on October 20th, 1968,

"Not a word was spoken between the two of us" even though they were the only two women present when Jackie O signed her prenuptial agreement with Aristotle, a marriage Mr. Onassis wanted like he wanted a Mossad bullet fired in to the back of his head, leaving a tennis ball sized hole.

To mention in passing yet again that when Robert F. Kennedy visited with us in Durban, South Africa back in June 1966 my Royal Mater was once again tasked by RFK's advance team to come up with "a list of people Kennedy should not meet".

Bear in mind that in 1966, Charles Engelhard was 49 years of age, in the very prime of life, and his partner Harry Oppenheimer 58.

Not to mention that my uncle Dave, like my Royal Mater some 37 odd years of age, looking quite different to how she looked when first visiting Israel from the "earliest days of 1949" when Israel's air war, from which my Fighter-Bomber-Pilot father was so extraordinarily conspicuously absent, was not yet over.

Stop by the cliff anytime although I will most likely be in the surf.

Gg
