Adam,

De Beers have learned a number of things both before and after they decided to implement with brute military force Cecil Rhodes' first will to create a Secret Society that would be the preeminent allocator of the world's resources.

D-Day June 5th-6th 1945 took place some 43 odd years following the death of Rhodes, the founder of the monopolist De Beers whose diamond tipped drilling bits have given this special interest of special interest group ownership of the world's drilling industry for more than a century.

De Beers have known from the start that they would need to share their ill-gotten gains in order to prevent them from suffering the same fate of monarchs of the past.

Infiltrating non-religious grass roots organizations was just one strategy but the most important were religious groups beginning with those subscribing to the Jewish religion who quickly forgot as they got "comfortable" the meaning of the "Wandering Jew".

Naturally those who promote such teachings are the first ones we should bring under just3ants.com's most powerfully bright spotlight.

Notice the arrogance of this one individual who may be the only individual associated with <http://www.yugntruf.org/>

Please remove yugntruf@yugntruf.org from your list(s).

In time not only all the Jewish youth will "get it" first of all how those armed with the Knowledge-Information-Light-Truth have so dreadfully abused their "leadership role" beginning with the parents who think themselves so godly as they first and foremost destroy the curiosity of the youth who are all our futures.

As important as the question, "Why hasn't Israel responded in kind to its own ingenious Military Report of all time" so is the question, "why doesn't the media talk about the money going to the rich and not to the military specifically the hard pressed US military yet to go up against a first rate military in modern day times?

Apart from the very confused masses there are "two camps of thought"; first, those who support a strong military and those who don't, and both of which come together when they feel threatened.

Again, Hilary Clinton has not simply struck a raw nerve she, the former First Lady and still wife of the dog values Bill "DeBeers-Rhodes Scholar" Clinton, has hit the nail on the head with her latest pronouncement in making the "case for white" [sic] appeal:

"These [Whites] are the people you have to win if you're a Democrat in sufficient numbers to actually win the election. Everybody knows that."

Everybody knows exactly what apart from Hilary has the widest known front and backside; can you tell the difference?

The distraction game didn't begin with the Clintons, small time hustling lawyer-liars from the State of Arkansas that features prominently in the Diamond Invention book written by Hollywood blockbuster author Edward Jay Epstein given how De Beers decades ago were simply able to shut down the only diamond production mine on US soil given their enormous political clout in the United States that again most American Service people in places like Iraq and Afghanistan don't have the first clue about.

Nor did it begin with the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel who got their "kick start" at the turn of the last century when US bankers led by J. P. Morgan and Co. backed up 100% by the US Congress financed De Beers in their war against the Afrikaners in South Africa headed by President Kruger whose face appears on the one ounce Kruger Rand whose field commander was none other than the most brilliant guerrilla warfare strategist and technician, Field Marshal Jan Smuts, the only signatory to both peace treaties, World Oil War I and WOW II.

History can only be a very boring subject if it is taught by boring history teachers who don't know any better, but once armed with the truth, such teachers can in fact empower the kids to parent the parents who need the most help.

The De Beers-Anglo American Cartel while not inventing wars, perfected the art of warfare first by murdering the classical training in the arts, allowing anyone who could afford a paintbrush, paints and canvas to call themselves an artist and thus was born modern bs art alongside modern art "bullsh*t" [sic] monies, both in no time at all losing entirely a way to gauge their value apart from those simply handed modern art monies who began setting the price on modern art; again all beginning around the turn of the last century when the entire 3 Branches of the United States Government including the US Supreme Court went along with this most abominable duplicity; all about stealing the mineral riches of the world so that the ruling elite throughout the world could continue to live like Kings and Queens without having to work let alone build up a sweat apart from when going to their favorite workout spot such as Frogs in Solana Beach; and the old farts could "Google" [sic] over the young chicks sweating their lungs out looking mostly for an old fart who they could finish off in a matter of two twos, grab his riches and then just hang out with young hot bodied studs who just know to keep their mouths shut even when giving head.

It is a brutally honest world when you are fighting in the front lines but a whole other world when deep behind enemy lines which is child's play compared to when you are positioned right in enemy lines and you have to figure out not only how to sabotage the enemy's game plan but escape from both enemy and friendly fire.

Again, to the best of my knowledge Ami Ayalon - Israel's cabinet minister "without portfolio", making him the most important person in all of Israel - and I have yet to meet although there is every possibility that he is aware of each occasion I have visited Israel ever since he performed so admirably in Operation Green Island aka Operation Bulmus 6 that took place on the evening of July 19th, 1969, less than 24 hours before Neil Armstrong landed on the moon and the world was glued to their TV sets.

So what is Israel waiting for before officially taking full control of the oil fields of the Middle East and putting an end to all this utter nonsense that should have been nipped in the bud the instant President Franklin D. Roosevelt met with Ibn Saud on Board the USS Quincy back on February 14th, 1945 sending David Ben Gurion whose Hagannah Jewish Underground movement were headquartered in Jerusalem, the clearest message possible that neither he nor Menachem Begin, the more militant Irgun Jewish Underground movement, should push for a Jewish Homeland even if the United States were to get their United Nations organization to go through the totally farcical motions of approving statehood for the fledgling Jewish State?

Israelis are overwhelmingly Jewish and carry still a lot of pain from the Holocaust, the Jewish Kapos who maintained control on the Concentration-death-slave camps on behalf of the butcherous Nazi SS, in fact the least of their guilt given how obvious it was that the United States Government led by the De Beers bankers orchestrated the collapse of Weimar Republic that led to Hitler assuming power in January 1933, and within no time having the resources to build up one extraordinary military machine that had the so-called "western alliance" playing catch-up, and it was in no time that history teachers forgot that moments before Hitler, who was no economist, rather a failed artist painter who barely made a living hanging wallpaper, would have had trouble stealing a barrel let alone a barrellful of Deutsche Marks that couldn't afford a loaf of bread.

Do you see how history can be taught both truthfully as well as in an entertaining manner; so long as one isn't constantly thinking about food, creditors calling, being evicted from your home, your children taken away by welfare agencies, and worst of all dying of thirst?

But of course it is not the "pain" of the past that prevents Israel with the toughest, the best trained Special Forces Commandos in the world, backed up by the brutal US Navy and Air Force who can today reach in no time at all any spot on the globe given how they are already there, not forgetting Israel's not often talked about nuclear submarine fleet that have yet to be featured in any Hollywood movie.

Israel has been losing the "high moral ground" ever since De Beers "went to work" co-opting-corrupting the best of the best of their Special Forces Commanding Officers who each time they stepped foot outside of Israel whether on a family vacation or to get a western education were most closely watched beginning with DeBeers first line of defense, the Hasidic-ultra orthodox Jewish-Black Hatters that make up their diamond-money laundering-intelligence gathering distribution network.

David Ben Gurion nor his close friend Field Marshall Jan Smuts were stupid.

Both, at least to the best of my knowledge, had their own set of genitals, and it wasn't long before they and the smartest independent thinkers in the world began to find an "anti-dote" for such an obvious way to infiltrate Israeli Special Forces.

When you can't beat them join them.

By way of deception we wage war - Mossad.

Ben Gurion showed what he was made of when ordering his top field commander, Yitzhak Rabin to attack and sink the Altalena ship carrying weapons for Begin's Irgun in Tel-Aviv harbor within a month of Israel's War of Independence officially starting.

So important was it for Ben Gurion to assert in no time the need for "command and control", and the need for only one channel of supply.

So let's just cut through all the bs i.e. let's cut to the chase.

The Ingenious Israeli Military Report was simply the first and only necessary response, long in waiting since Roosevelt's "shot across the bow" back on Feb. 14, 1945 within 12 days of the Russian Red Army liberating Auschwitz.

The State of Israel has simply been waiting for De Beers to be stopped from the "bottom up", they are quite the roots.

So you think they were simply waiting for someone like me to take it right to De Beers and all those who support the "status quo"?

So you think that Israeli Special Forces Commanding Officers who are not yet co-opted-corrupted cannot figure out a better replacement than Mike Boyd to take over from the DAAC as the world's most inefficient and so brutal allocator of resources.

Are you stark raving nuts?

Why not China to replace the so heavily corrupt US Government?

Now come back to my New Beginnings Party invitation of December 1st, 2000 to coincide with the 27th anniversary of the passing of David Ben Gurion, the first Prime Minister and official head of the Mossad, Israel's most brutally efficient intelligence institute with the absolutely no-nonsense Kidon assassination unit, that trust me is not made up of one Jewish South African I grew up with or have gotten to know in the 51+ years I have lived on this most awesome, so very resilient, so perfectly balanced universe that stretches as far as the mind can go.

You no doubt missed in that invitation to the partner of the first victim of 911 my point that in all the communications between Randall Kaplan and I, at no time did I present him with any "financials" and remember I am first and foremost a "numbers guy".

Pretty much every young kid knows that if they do something naughty there will be immediate consequences whether it be a slap on the wrist and/or no more than the one bar of chocolate they were given by their parents at the start of the checkout line at very busy Fry's electronics at the Aero exist off Interstate Highway 5 in San Diego County, California, United States of America, zip code, I don't know offhand.

You have to hand it to De Beers and Co. who have managed to get every kid to forget that they will one day be a parent and forget these cardinal rules that only apply to those with instant short memory since to spank the kid a week after they took the second chocolate bar and devoured it before the distracted parent could even say, "What's up" simply doesn't make sense.

So what does it really mean that Dick Cheney's Haliburton has made some US$10 billion out of the zillions of worthless-fictitious DeBeers-US Dollars fighting a totally nonsense war, nonsense only if you don't understand the crisis caused by DeBeers being the most inexcusably poor allocator of resources.

How long has it been since I reminded everyone that yet another day has gone by and I am still alive, fit and well and moreover broadcasting?

Now of course I don't need to pinch myself to remind myself that I am alive, fit and well but I just did to make certain.

Can you count everyone you have emailed and spoken to who once you explain what www.just3ants.com immediately says, "How can I help?" followed by, "I feel powerless to do anything" even if they say nothing after first testing to see whether you have very specific action items about what they can do given how the last thing anyone comfortable with the status quo wants to do is change the "status quo".

Now of course that number totals each and every person you have met personally or communicated with via internet message boards and/email.

Not to mention just the latest Mr. Michael Boyd who in addition to getting a kick out of photographing pretty decent figured women with tattoos on their backs and no they don't look like the Russian Red Army just liberated them out of Auschwitz, now tells us that that he makes a living on Wall Street.

To mention little of when the Mossad gave both the FBI and the CIA a heads up one month prior to 911, Israel's no-nonsense intelligence institute who understand perfectly well they don't need to pay one penny for their intelligence or weapons systems, no different to the DAAC, the mafia of mafia, the Mossad didn't feel the need to spell out the so obvious, that such an attack was nothing short of manna from heaven given the dire straits of the US economy.

In the past, in fact very recent past, the ruling elite who are of course most familiar with me and particularly my "work product" have found comfort in me engaging people like Michael Boyd who are very important in getting those at the bottom of the pyramid to quickly lose hope when they quickly come to realize that someone like him serves as the alternative to the current status quo.

That same ruling elite are the ones remember, also telling you that you can't "make money" selling t-shirts, in fact the only way for you to "make out" is to join the "status quo" or support their alternative Mr. Michael Boyd.

Never would the ruling elite have dreamed in a million years that I, who comes from the "favored class" would have survived this long to spell out their very worst fears in simple English, albeit so very calmly, not in the least bit hurried.

You haven't forgotten the follow-up to the $ hit list cartoon, THE MEEK WITH TEETH SHALL INHERIT THE EARTH and THE FISH ROTS FROM THE HEAD DOWN and what about MAN ROTS FROM THE WASTE-WAIST UP?

You haven't forgotten what exactly it means "truth, that which does not change" given how very difficult a word "truth" is to define despite used so very often.

The awesome truth of that ingenious Israeli military report will remain in the subconscious of each and every human being who will inevitably get to read it and first of all follow the chronology that began with me, and me alone broadcasting it to the world without the "ruling elite" even bothering to comment given how it spelled out in very simple English not only their demise since they all know they are going to one day die but worst of all their culpability that with each tick of the clock each person not part of the status quo forwarding it to the next person playing that much more havoc on the subconscious of the ruling elite who prefer that I don't remind them that the mind is the first indication of the Supernatural.

Moreover, the "ruling elite" know that I am not in the least bit "preachy" that there is possibly no human being alive today who is more analytical, my ability to analyze as well as explain in simple English the workings of the systemically rotten capital and financial markets whether with my eyes wide open or closed, it makes no difference since I have truth always at my side, not in the least dependent upon a single other human being, and yet I have as my partner-wife the greatest woman imaginable and did I mention Marie Dion Gevisser is my lover.

O my God did you hear about this kid at San Diego State University who is less than a month from getting his masters in Homeland Security was busted with a whole bunch of other students by the DEA who found on the SDSU campus some 2 pounds of cocaine, bags full of pot, plus a whole bunch of drugs I had never heard of; and remember I am not yet using a cane to help me walk in to my coffin.

Not to mention yet again that there is no truth to any rumors you may have heard that The Moshal Gevisser Group of Companies was the lead smuggler of Durban

Poison in to Amsterdam or Rotterdam Harbor; in fact I doubt there was much more than the odd recreational worker given how not only does pot smell but there was extraordinary security for all the black workers entering and exiting through the back of Moshal Gevisser's headquarters located at 173 Madon [pronounced maiden] Road, Durban, South Africa.

At first I found this security procedure of the black workers entering and exiting in single file where they were given a complete body search, offensive to the Nth degree and found myself instantly looking away, focusing instead on driving the cars and trucks back and forth, honing my driving skills well before my teenage years.

Don't you feel great even if the instant after you finish reading this communication you take your last breath?

Probably not given how you know you haven't done everything you possibly could to inform our so very poorly misinformed and compensated US military personnel bearing the brunt of the United States Government's so very transparent brutality of the Nth Degree that has been going on now for just more than a century.

Of course neither you nor I could name anyone doing more than you to inform our so very poorly misinformed Service People who are not stupid.

Will you please trust me when I tell you that the United States of American has absolutely nothing to bargain with at this time apart from its ability to use its still most awesomely brutal military force, and that is increasingly questionable as time marches on.

One big misconception is that people don't want to die, when in fact death is not what they fear but rather the pain and suffering immediately beforehand.

This is a very important concept that only the very few of us Wandering Jews know given how the so few of us Wandering Jews keep it all to ourselves.

Have you thought about trying to call my mother and ask her what she thinks was going through my brother's mind when he decided in a knee jerk reaction to reply to your email or do you simply think Neil and my highly shrewd Royal Mater-Mother were just "playing for time".

Of course you have forgotten that the last conversation with my mother Zena back in late summer of 2004 before I broke my 24-year deafening silence with the DAAC, ended with my mother telling me,

"AREN'T YOU CONCERNED FOR YOUR LIFE???"

My mother who first taught me to only talk when being spoken to hasn't also forgotten one should never ask a question unless one has a very good idea about the answer.

Now don't forget my mother wasn't asking me a question when she told me that I was "barking up the wrong tree!"

Cheney is monkey with chump change compared to the brute military force and money-gun-power of De Beers.

Do you recall Mr. Cheney's fairly recent quail hunting expedition where he nearly killed a lawyer friend?

So how do I now manage to live pain free for another day here in paradise?

I couldn't think of anything worse than living in chronic physical pain which most of the world do.

As you know I am now heading on the superfast Ducati ST4S to our Stone Home deep inside the Cleveland National Forest as our recently renovated studio cliff house perched atop the bluffs of heavily real estate and city council corrupt Del Mar is being tented for fumigation.

Now think of all the De Beers miners that afford Hilary to burden us all with her presence all the while constantly having her mouth wide open.

Not to mention at least one 38 year old FBI Agent considers the Israeli Military Intelligence report only available on just3ants.com a "terrorist plot" to the point that Special Agent Curran Thomerson goes out of his way to pay you a personal visit at your apartment and then engages in two conversations totaling some 30 minutes and 15 seconds some 8 minutes apart.

Not too many people "down and out" get a veteran FBI Agent such as well schooled Thomerson to be so "chatty" all the while letting you know in no uncertain terms the Federal Bureau of Investigation is investigating www.just3ants.com leading off by pulling out all stops to get at the source of the ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence report which continues to baffle minds despite its simplicity in understanding perfectly well the dire straits implications for the US economy which the Federal Reserve has the beyond belief audacity to suggest is continuing to "grow" and in the next breath the Federal Reserve's Drudge Report says that Federal and State Governments are hiring like never before.

Have you thought about a job working for Homeland Security on the border between Mexico and the US and since you look Spanish and can speak a little Spanish, you could check to see if Americans are using forged Mexican work papers to find jobs in Mexico. So who would you be working for who exactly?

Talk about Big Government taking over, and at the same time Special Agent Thomerson has now achieved for not just just3ants.com but me, someone who not only does not get intimidated easily but as Mr. Thomerson began to find out in his two phone calls with you back on Tuesday, April 29th, he has stepped on to the biggest story going on right now and will continue that way until each and every senior elected and non-elected government official of the 3 Branches of the US Government steps down given the proof I am providing of not only their gross dereliction of duty but how they are each responsible for the most heinous anarchy not just around the world but here in the United States of America following the 3 Branches making the foolhardy decision at the turn of the last century to hand over lock, stock and barrel to the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel the keys to wealth of the United States including command and control of all US Armed Forces allowing the DAAC to then use the money-gun power of the US Government backed up by again the Armed Forces of the United States to spread across the world the inexcusable tyranny of the De Beers 3 Branches of the US Government.

Now, thanks to FBI Special Agent Thomerson this non-representative Government is moments away from stepping down and in that same instant the US Armed Forces will "stand down" knowing there is no Commander In Chief "waiting in the wings" worth their salt that US Special Forces Commanding Officers and their commandos will follow in to battle against a first rate military such as China.

And although I don't talk for the Israeli Government, no one would be surprised that not single member of the Israeli Knesset would choose to debate me on any subject beginning with why exactly not a single Israeli Military Commander worth their salt would consider the so very corrupt US Government a "friend" of the fledgling State of Israel that while it still has the very best military in world, second of course to China, has ever since the 6 Day War of June 1967 been losing its "first strike capability".

Not to mention yet again, remember we are all now operating in "real time" and so are the world's most brutally effective Special Forces commandos of Israel who while very few in number are backed by the most brutal Israel Air Force and Navy and whose commandos also understand that something is very seriously wrong that Israel has not been able to forge an everlasting peace with all its neighbors given the truth the Israeli people have had on their side from day one were it not for their inept, corrupt, so misguided by "making money" politicians who of course should be tried for treason given the fact that today they have the same knowledge base as me who didn't exactly get off boat just yesterday in Durban harbor, South Africa.

Again, don't you feel great and please don't tell me it is only because you still can't get your mind off this hot Brazilian woman you recently met that I attempted to have you pawn off to Philippe a divorced Brazilian who possibly feels that you offer less competition given how you are "penniless", out of work and soon to be evicted from your apartment, although I am sure Philippe hasn't thought through how very financially successful you could still be simply panhandling for corporate and individual sponsorship for www.just3ants.com, putting aside for the moment if you can "make money" from selling t-shirts; and nothing would surprise me in the least if FBI Agent Thomerson himself doesn't provide you with his official FBI baseball cap to match your just3ants.com t-shirt that says amongst a number of things, "got intelligence JUST3ANTS.COM".

Over the course of the next several days I will provide a not so private note for your Black African American friend Paul Robinson I suggest you place somewhere prominent on just3ants.com.

Adam,

You nor Gary knows anything about my what's going on in my life. I really don't care about any persons struggles other than that of my fathers who is in the middle of a fight with Brain Cancer. I have other family members who fighting for their lives as well.

We are all sharing the same planet, and I'm not sure why you believe your mission is more important than one I choose. Is just3ants bigger than my fathers fight against cancer? Its my life and my choice to choose where to put my energy, by right of this time alive here being mine. What gives you right to point a finger at me or anyone else for spending their time on what they feel is important.

For that I am not ashamed, not in the least. I spent the last 7 years taking care of my grandmother, not shipping her off to a "nice" care home as everyone is doing these days. For that I am not ashamed.

By what right do and Gary have to sit their typing away, making presumptuous statments about my life?

I also repectfully asked for both you and Gary to let me choose my own path, to dicuss things with those who are important to me as this will affect them, you and Gary have stepped over all of my requests.

I've shown you nothing but respect and courtesy for you and you since I met you. I was respectful to your Uncle Gary when speaking with him.

In all of my emails to Gary Gevisser I have shown nothing but respect, simply offering up my opinions and asking for time to make an informed decision. Promptly being encircled into something I didn't ask for.

If my reaching the point of typing this email was your goal, than you have obtained it!

I suggest you both check your own moral premise.

Who elected anyone to be the judge of the world and point a finger at me?

Good luck.

Perspective? I was referring to your question of whether or not you thought I was ashamed. No, I am not.

I think the chemical war programs are disgusting, in South Africa and In America.

Now if you want, "send this to world" as Gary would put it

Good luck

Are you trying to tell me that the right and wrong in the examples you sited are a matter of perspective?

Do you realize how stupid and hypocritical you sound? And you say you are not ashamed.

Have you looked at our "$ Hit List [sic]" on just3ants? You know that I exposed my corrupt family. Your correspondences are a record of culpability; it is one thing to be ignorant but when you know better there is no excuse for inaction.

If the masses are ignorant and complacent, and the people that know better choose to burry their head in the sand how can anything change for the better?

It is people like you that afford an environment that fosters government sponsored genocide.

Inaction to stop something is the action of supporting it.

Adam,

You nor Gary knows anything about my what's going on in my life. I really don't care about any persons struggles other than that of my fathers who is in the middle of a fight with Brain Cancer. I have other family members who fighting for their lives as well.

We are all sharing the same planet, and I'm not sure why you believe your mission is more important than one I choose. Is just3ants bigger than my fathers fight againts't cancer? Its my life and my choice to choose where to put my energy, by right of this time alive here being mine. What gives you right to point a finger at me or anyone else for spending their time on what they feel is important.

For that I am not ashamed, not in the least. I spent the last 7 years taking care of my grandmother, not shipping her off to a "nice" care home as everyone is doing these days. For that I am not ashamed.

By what right do and Gary have to sit their typing away, making presumptuous statments about my life?

I also repectfully asked for both you and Gary to let me choose my own path, to dicuss things with those who are important to me as this will affect them, you and Gary have stepped over all of my requests.

I've shown you nothing but respect and courtesy for you and you since I met you. I was respectful to your Uncle Gary when speaking with him.

In all of my emails to Gary Gevssier I have shown nothing but respect, simply offering up my opinions and asking for time to make an informed decision. Promptly being encircled into something I didn't ask for.

If my reaching the point of typing this email was your goal, than you have obtained it!

I suggest you both check your own moral premise.

Who elected anyone to be the judge of the world and point a finger at me?

Good luck.

Perspective? I was referring to your question of whether or not you thought I was ashamed. No, I am not.

I think the chemical war programs are disgusting, in South Africa and In America.

Now if you want, "send this to world" as Gary would put it

Good luck

When I see a beautiful flower, my realization of it's beautify is my truth since not everyone may share my perspective.

"I read about the South African Dr. Conducting experiments, and RD in chemical agents. Very disturbing, but not suprising

Its history repeating itself. The US government injected African Americans with Chipilis 60-70 years ago saying it was a cure.

Its all perspective, no I'm not ashamed of anything.."

Are you trying to tell me that the right and wrong in the examples you sited are a matter of perspective?

Do you realize how stupid and hypocritical you sound? And you say you are not ashamed.

Have you looked at our "$ Hit List [sic]" on just3ants? You know that I exposed my corrupt family. Your correspondences are a record of culpability; it is one thing to be ignorant but when you know better there is no excuse for inaction.

If the masses are ignorant and complacent, and the people that know better choose to burry their head in the sand how can anything change for the better?

It is people like you that afford an environment that fosters government sponsored genocide.

Inaction to stop something is the action of supporting it.

Mr. Gevisser

My response earlier was intended to start dialogue, not to go on record officially for supporting/leading/joining anything.

Drawing a line in such "areas" as these have far reaching implications, and it certainly is one thing for an individual to choose a path, and spend a lifetime fighting for that path. Its another when the wake of those actions directly affect other people (whose life is just as valuable) who may not want any involvement. So far I haven't heard anything about those you know not "wanting any involvement" have to say about how they have directly as well as indirectly benefitted by the CIA spearheading along with the South African Apartheid Regime the most diabolical, the most macabre biological weapons programme first administered on Black South Africans but with the help of CIA assassins have been spread throughout the world and used on all opponents of the corrupt United States Government and their illegitimate regimes. You are beginning to sound like Devin Standard of Colorado University who knows better than to talk right now, instead just grabbing the cash being doled out to the filthy rich; not to mention that by not wasting time communicating with me he is able to grab that much more. What did you think of that complete prick joke of Dr. John K. Pollard Jr. I recently retold? This isn't just applying for an MBA, its drawing a line between those in power who have the ability to erase me or my family. I need to time to decide for myself and to consult with those who are close in my life to make sure they fully understand. Hence my comments about self assessment and information gathering.

shocked" to hear about the CIA spearheading --- Clandestine operations are an integral part of this country, they provide the blood stained blanket of security that allows you and I to go to Ralphs/Vons for food. I have not decided where I stand on this topic as I and family still live in the country and use its resources. So because you say you are a hypocrite that makes you feel that much better about yourself all the while I still haven't heard your point of view about how it is that the poor in the United States are forced in to the economic draft to support you still affording to go to Ralphs and the such; and the fact that you may not have as large a Trust-Hush-Fund as The IT's "tTOo" [sic] children, well I am sorry.

My God Paul, where have you been living all your life?--- I like many have I an interesting story. And your point?

What percentage of us Lily White Wheaty Eaters get stopped here in the United States for "driving black"? Try arrested for simply wearing a color. Again like many I have an interesting story

What percentage of us Lily White Wheaty Eaters are behind bars today --- Its big business, just like most things today. In fact I have several friends who work in corrections and they always talk about the privatization of prisons. Please be kind enough to send me their email addresses preferably prior them being forwarded or simply reading this communiqué on the internet. BTW did I mention to you or did you possibly miss reading about how barely a day goes by when I don't think about my pogrom orphaned maternal great grandmother, Nechie Badash, what she was thinking as she left the closet she had been hiding in, no more than age 8, to find each and every member of her immediate family, her mother and father as well as siblings, with their throats slit after a bunch of big government-brainwashed Cossacks came riding through their village on horseback, simply on a night out on the town, although it could have been in broad daylight, having fun killing Jewish people, the most independent minded of all the world's peoples; the exception of course, the awesome "living to learn" now going on 1.5 billion strong Chinese, the Jews of the Orient. Don't you just love the Hebrew word, "L'Chaim - To life!", that serves as a reminder that one should be just like Jesus Christ, the greatest orthodox Jewish person that has ever lived, never be afraid of dying, unless of course one believes one's own skin is that much more valuable than the next person with a soft skin?

how best to reach those being recruited for the US economic draft --- This part is interesting. Thank you for contributing! What are you doing for lunch? Do you think you might possibly be a little more sensitive if you stopped eating something that not all that long prior had a heart beat? Do you think once self-absorbed it is just much easier to find distractions from simply "standing tall" beginning by simply putting your hand in your pocket and contribute generously to just3ants.com? Have you figured out the implications of the fact that the Mossad don't pay for either their weapon systems or their own intelligence bearing in mind you of course understand perfectly well so do De Beers never worry about paying credit card bills or even rent. Again, you perfectly understand the "real life" case study of those two diamond wholesale-retail money laundering stores in downtown Del Mar who along with every other one of the DAAC's operations which of course include art galleries, pizza joints, clothing stores, telephone stores, etc etc fix the price of rent that in turn determine the value of all real estate all over the world. My God, Paul what the hell is wrong with your brain? How can you expect me of all people to put with your "sh*t" [sic]. Are you not in the least bit embarrassed that Scottish Black African American Devin Standard sees you as a putz, but of course not quite as pathetic as The IT and his Cow as well as all those emotionless human beings who still have anything to do with these most evil human beings who make Hitler look like a good guy?

The Tele-Communication networks have changed in the last few years with the introduction of the Patriot Act. Yes the internet is communication medium unlike any we have ever seen, yes you can reach people around the world, yes information can be propagated between countries in hours without being filtered, but what if someone pulled the plug? Would you like to hear more about my pal Valerie Schulte Esq. a senior lawyer for the National Association of Broadcasters and what she got out of spreading her legs for CNN founder Ted Turner for a period of some 15 odd years? Or are you more interested to know what special treatment Ted Turner got given how the NAB are supposed to be protecting the "best interests" of the TV networks from cable operators who like the TV Networks are under the command and control of the special interest of special interest group, the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel, the mafia of mafia? Did you forget to ask me what else I picked up when workings for Codiam Inc., the DAAC's principal price fixing operation on US soil all designed to let the US Justice Department NEVER FORGET who "butters their bread"? In which case let me simply remind you again that the DAAC get to see each and every Wall Street deal worth talking about given how they own lock, stock and barrel lawyer-liar figureheads such as Kenneth Standard Esq., the immediate past President of the New York State Bar Association, hence Devin's father's "deafening silence", the same with Alan Dershowitz and Co., all out of the nonsense Harvard Law School.

After the Patriot Act, "entities" were allowed to "splice" connections at the major gateways to the inter-networks, giving the entity the capability to duplicate all in-gress/e-gress traffic, and subsequently data mine on it. The Patriot Act also allows entities to force companies to surrender data or systems for the higher purpose. Whose to say certain pieces are erased permanently from electronic record? Does Howard Stern have anything interesting to say these days? Does he still have long hair?

I can elaborate more if you like, but I think to reach people, several supplemental methods are necessary. Actual print is much harder to erase from historical record, going low-tech may be an alternative. I'm not sure if you are published, but a best seller in Amazon would be great, magazines, Etc... My point is, the plug can be pulled, and the new "protective" legislation just allowed entities to legally track who needs to be rounded up when the time comes. Again qualifying my remarks earlier, I have not chosen any path, and do not want my family involved in anything. Whatever!

Simple information gathering at this point is fine for me. Whatever!

Thanks Thanks
