I will be dropping off some stuff at your place shortly.

● MASSAGE THERAPIST WRITES THREE BOOKS

Mr Magic Hands

A MAN who literally rubs shoulders with the stars was in Tucson, Arizona over the weekend working on the release of three new books — and meeting his mom.

Neil Gellman is a professional massage therapist whose books include recent plays by Peter King and Neil Simon, and Neil Gellman's new book, How to Rub Your Back.

He was born in South Africa and worked all over the world with his work for the 40-year-old company where he met his mom, Zena Gellman.

While staying with her in Massachusetts, Neil dropped into the "country" to visit about his work and his books.

"A lot of our clients are world class athletes who come to me because, while they massage means a lot, it's also a spiritual experience," he said.

"My grandparents were both musicians and I have followed in their footsteps."

Neil wrote his first book of song lyrics, Songs from the Heart of the World, in 1977.

He later collected some 200 samples in "story and sentence" collections of prose called Learning to Listen.

● MASSAGE therapist Neil Gellman, who has just published three books.

It is illustrated by the legendary artist, Williamson's Every Day, and contains one of the original songs from Picking Up the Pieces.

Reflecting that on his books and new music, Neil is proud of his work in Public Art in the World, and Learning to Listen.

Neil says he has been in Tucson, Arizona for a long time and is looking forward to meeting his mom and his friends.

"I was brought up in a supportive family, I was a member of a supportive society, I was a member of a supportive society, I was a member of a supportive society."

is not alone in spending lots of hard earned monies on stuff such as trademarks all the while forgetting how much he-they know about the "clothing game"; moreover, Neil was the first to bring to my attention how exploited were the factory workers at our mother's second husband's rather large clothing company, public corporation South African Clothing Industries [SACI] given how soon after completing his military service in the 3rd Reich's southern division where he spent most of the time in solitary confinement in a military prison after coming to the aid of a black cook – a story you should verify with him – he went to work for SACI and quit once he got his arms around the exploitation of the mostly non-White workers who were "head and shoulders" more competent than the total waste of time Lily White Wheaty Eaters who earned "telephone numbers", all the while our highly secretive, most shrewd Royal Mater-Mother, Zena "saw fit" not to share with Neil that the main business of SACI was laundering cash through "over and under invoicing" of fabric mostly purchased in the Orient.

All corrupt governments beginning with the US government turn a blind eye to this most "ancient" and highly common practice that makes a total joke of each and every money laundering law on the books of each and every country, given how it allows those further down the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel pyramid to "steal blind" from the "dirt poor" all the while the ruling elite who don't get their hands dirty, never once breaking a sweat even when it comes to getting caught since they own all the lawmakers worth talking about, rely on entrepreneurs like my clothing magnet step-father, Alan Zulman, not to talk about the much more significant crimes being perpetrated by the DAAC, the counterfeiters of counterfeiters.

So now think about how you could have an interesting ongoing dialogue with my otherwise very worldly and most literate brother, remembering no one likes to look stupid.

Furthermore, you would understand perfectly well without having to give thought to the "Hand of God" at work why I never made it my business-personal to speak to anyone including my mother about my "findings" when working for Codiam Inc. given how once "armed with such knowledge" people such as my very clued up mother understood from when she was little and "schooled" by her pogrom orphaned paternal grandmother, Nechie Badash, there was little one could do apart from choosing a path of violence which I figured out very quickly when realizing that the Feds were very much caught up in all the money laundering and intelligence gathering that takes place on 47th-Wall Street, would be playing right into the hands of this most brutal mafia of mafia who inevitably found an "accommodation" with the Mossad.

Neil,

Your brother Gary mentioned that you have an ant book which he wasn't sure had been published. I thought if you had drawings I might be able to use them in the design of t-shirts that I am thinking about for just3ants.com. Would you be interested in working with me as I want to take charge of selling t-shirts in order to get my basic needs met. Currently, I am unemployed but with the recent visit by the FBI investigating this Israeli Military Intelligence Report which I have posted up on just3ants.com along as well as on other message boards like Chevron on Yahoo's message boards we are getting a whole lot of attention. just3ants.com alone this past month got almost a 1022 unique visitors from 40 different countries around the world.

Thank you for your time,
