Hello to you.

Only interested as it may apply to what we are doing at just3ants.com.

You should take a very deep breath and think about how you could make ends meet while bringing all the people you know together including your pals who attended Harvard who should be able to follow what I just sent a David Charles of Harvard titled, "Your anger is misplaced".

Below is an email Adam Tucker, my one American programmer sent his relatives. It should also help you.

Please read the above links before asking me what or why I am focusing on just3ants.com versus anything else. Once read, if you still have questions about why, then I ask that you direct them to me via email so that we may have an open dialogue. Talk is cheap, put your words in writing and stand by what you have to say.

I am working with Gary Gevisser in an apprenticeship, learning more about business than I ever learned in macro or micro economics or around the dinner table during our many family gatherings.

In December of 2004 when gold was priced $347/oz, Gary went public in forecasting gold's rise based upon what he was observing. His forecast doesn't mean all that much until you look at Gary 's history and the history of gold which for the previous 25 years had been relatively static in comparison to its 28 year high which it has been eclipsing daily.

The Golden Rule, "He who has the gold, makes the rules!", has been around since biblical times, and there is no reason for us to think that we have risen above it.

We are worse than arrogant, and it is time that we realize that we are causing more damage globally by our regime change military machine, than we are helping with us sharing the "American way of life".

Before you say, "The truth is irrelevant" and all that counts is what is happening now; just think if we are such benevolent rulers of OUR free world, then why did we go into Vietnam, Korea, Iran, or Cuba and yet we left the South African Apartheid Regime alone for over 45 years; A 45 year period during which our most racist, most brutal regime slaughtered and repressed tens of millions of blacks which made up some 90% of the population.

The reason that we did nothing should not a be a surprise; individual bankers such as JP Morgan and Charles Engelhard through Companies like 'Engelhard Minerals and Chemicals', were busy stealing natural resources from South Africa like platinum which as an example, was passed into law as a required metal in catalytic converters for all US vehicles in 1975, some 4 years after American Charles Engelhard who most people believe was Jewish, was buried in St. Mary's Abby Church, in Morris Town, NJ; this mafia of mafia kingpin's funeral attended by Senator Ted Kennedy, former President Johnson and Vice President Humphrey.

How can any of you not help but feel like hypocrites while watching genocides happen in real time around the world, knowing full well that the world, including American Jews, turned a blind eye to the Holocaust not much more than 50 years ago and then to the even bigger holocaust that took place in South Africa because Jewish people having gotten once again so very comfortable, professed when donning their yamikas and going to their synagogues to ask for forgiveness on Yom Kippur,

"If there was not a Black problem in South Africa there would be a Jewish problem!".

Now let's talk about your pocket books and my pocket book.

Where is all the gold and other precious minerals stolen from South Africa which we "paid for" with our military mite?

We know from Chapter 18, of The Diamond Invention, titled, The American Conspiracy that some of it ended up in Hong Kong and from there where do you think the crooks amongst US had our bribes shipped?

If this is all getting a little too "close to home", what are your thoughts on the following not so Top Secret Israeli Military Report that states emphatically:

Immediately following the 2008 summer Olympics in China; Al Quaida will launch a series of attacks on the oil fields in Saudi Arabia , Kuwait , and Qatar , which will immediately paralyze the United States economy.

Remember it is not just what is said but what is not said including how easy it would be to have OUR Al Quaida ALREADY sunk a super oil tanker heading north, south, east or west.

On Wednesday, October 24th, Gary opened up a “dialogue” with the Israeli embassy in Washington DC, specifically the office of the Israeli Defense Attaché to now have Israel officially explain its once again, ingenious actions that few would argue is one hell of a shot across the bow of the US.

There is not today an intelligence agency in the world who is unaware of what exactly Gary Gevisser is currently doing as well as his very “open book” past, that few could argue is also rather extraordinary, perhaps very significantly more than his mother Zena Gevisser who is today, just like the most senior members of Israeli Military Intelligence, not talking.

The most lethal intelligence gathering institute in the world has put us on notice.

And the fact that Al Quaida has not attacked our oil sources in Saudi Arabia , Qatar , Kuwait , or Venezuela , is not exactly a miracle, considering it would mean biting the hand that feeds them through the house of Saud.

Now look at the attached photo showing Roosevelt who turned away the SS St. Louis and Ibn Saud on board a US destroyer right after the Yalta Conference that took place two days following the Soviet Red Army liberating Auschwitz on February 2nd, 1945 should have chills going up on your spines; bearing also in mind that without DeBeers diamond drilling bits it would make drilling for oil next to impossible.

An attack made by anyone on any super tanker let alone an oil field, would paralyze our economy and our military, especially when considering the unbelievably fragile state of the capital and financial markets, all dependant on “good news”.

Just the fact that our Achilles heel has been exposed should let you know that whether it is Al Quaida, Israel, Iran, China, North Korea, or anyone our days as King of the Hill are numbered.

The Bible warns of the repercussions of worshipping false idols, yet we have built a value system around money, and have included people willing to murder over it. The Bible gave us simple rules to follow in order to maintain balance, yet we compromise those rules and that balance when we compromise our values and character for financial gain, self preservation, or the protection of our family.

Now to hell with the Bible, since I don't see any of us “making out” like bandits selling anything once the so bought and paid for media feel they have no choice but to comment on the “deafening silence” of Israeli Military Intelligence who understand perfectly well the extraordinary “footprint” Gary has on the Internet.

Go ahead and do a Google search with my name alongside Gary Gevisser.

You can all justify your lack of actions to me or others, but how will you justify it to yourself? Money and material things come and go, but our decisions define us.

I know full well, what I am walking away from, and what hands I am "biting" in the process, but it is because I could not live with making any other decision. Not now, knowing what I know.

What I don't know, is when I am going to die, but I do know that I am not going to wait until I have a comfortable bank account before I start questioning how I can leave a positive foot print since with or without me Gary Gevisser's very credible "footprint" will increase. You are being dishonest with yourself if you believe that donating money or volunteering at a temple will make an impact given the state of the HEAVILY CORRUPT INSITUTIONS beginning with Jewish synagogues, whose rabbis have failed miserably to speak out against DeBeers and their role in diamond cutting and distribution.

Today, upon reading this, you are officially put on notice; ignorance is no longer an excuse for your lack of action. Ignorance will no longer be blissful.

You are all resourceful people that can consciously choose your actions. Now that you have the knowledge you have one of two options; you can support me with your time and money in helping stop De Beers from being the world's allocator of natural resources. Or, you can watch your money in the bank and the value of your properties become worthless as the world as we know it, collapse around us.

If you believe that this is just another down cycle, then I ask you to explain how you think we are going to recover from our declining dollar without collapsing it?

Who but US is going to loan us money by buying our T-Bills? They don't seem like a wise investment at this time.

As of late 2006, China began diversifying their portfolio, and divesting their unprecedented $1 Trillion US T-Bills away from our currency. Without a gold standard our money is not worth the paper or metals that it is printed on.

Knowledge is power, but if you chose to ignore the knowledge, it will destroy you.

One of the great things that I have learned about Judaism is that once a person changes for the better, it is a sin to remind them from where they came.

I have been told by many of you that, "you have to help yourself before you can help others." This statement sounds nice and fun to repeat, but it becomes nonsense once a person's basic needs have been met, which is the case for all of you.

To make things clear, I am not looking to live a life of poverty, but I am also not going to wait until I have "enough", because as you have all proven in one way or another by your lack of actions, "enough" is never enough.

Why should I not be in your faces right now? You have all certainly been in mine, telling me how I should live my life and most quick to judge me for it.

I do not want to talk with anyone that wants to keep secrets and or is afraid to stand by what they say. Choose your words wisely, and put them in writing. There are no more secrets.
