What happened to the changes from this previous email – chopping off all the waves at the end of the diamond leaving THE VERY TOP LIGHT BLUE WAVES which SHOULD CONTINUE IN LIGHT BLUE NO OUTLINE OUTSIDE OF THE DIAMOND - ill ask marie about the fish scales when she wakes.

Try making the teeth more 3 dimensional by fading a light blue at the top edge going to white to give the roundness.

Does it look like the pope?

You did a good job with the cloud.

We are almost there.

Do you have any suggestions?

You need to start with the different fonts and placement of the words on the back of the t-shirt just with the logo just3ants.com and "the MEEK with TEETH shall INHERIT the EARTH" - just play with fonts, bold and the different colors - try looking in the bible, what they were using as fonts, very ornate - meek teeth inherit earth - the main, the rest fluff - should be able to get the message at first glance, like 2 seconds, no more; and appealing enough that take a second look, so it has to be on a beautiful body - you had better be convincing with your saleswomen - speak to Gary for training, they need to be able to understand and talk and not just sell sex or looking for a boyfriend.

Did Jeffrey Krinsk help you out? Who else did you run it by?

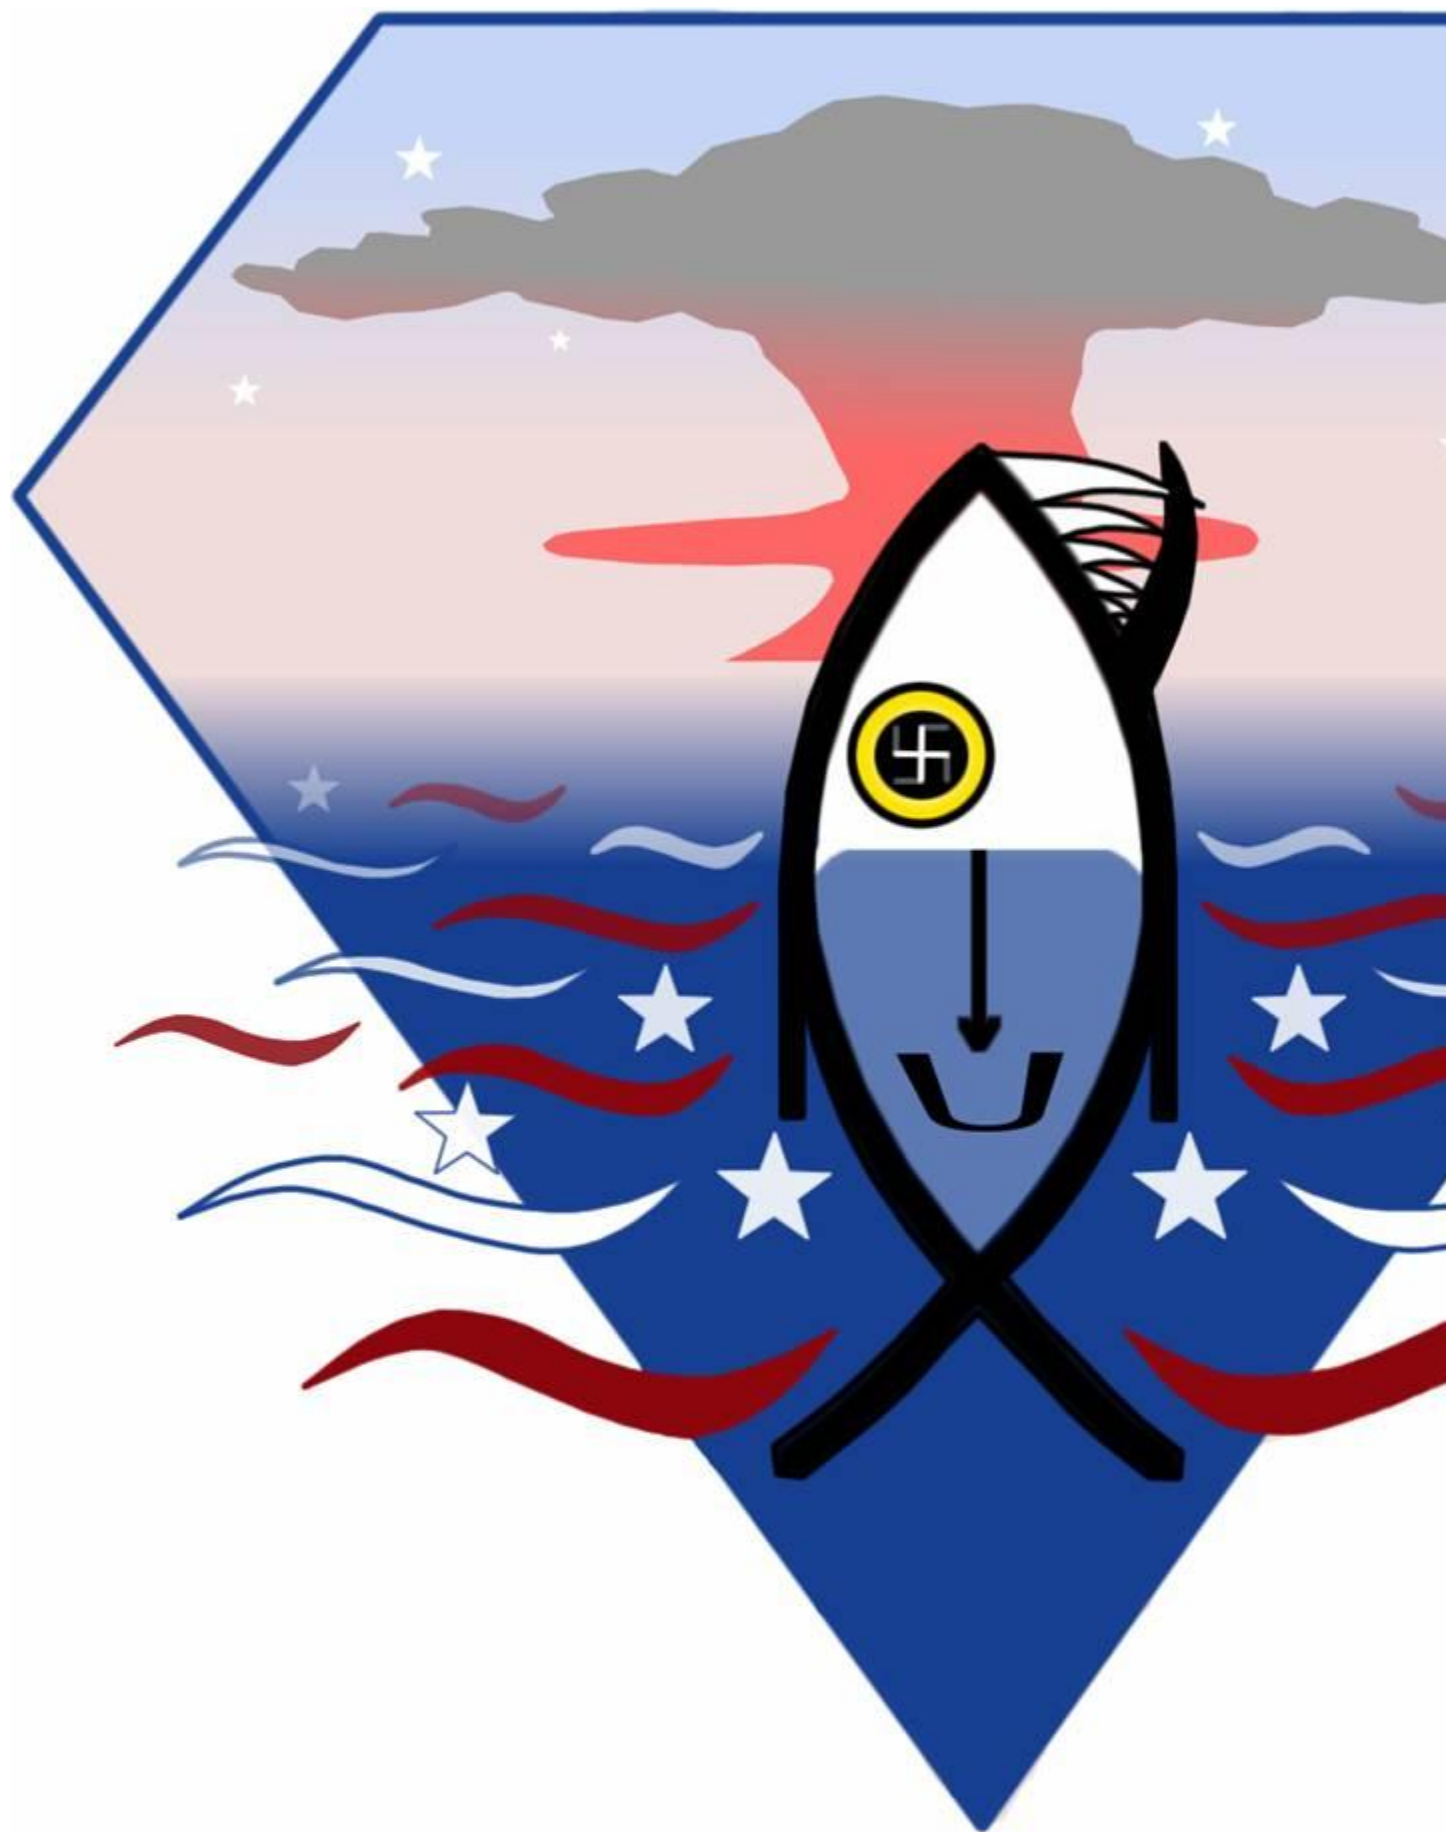

BTW you know Jeffrey gets everything including the dumbest of dumb moves by the US Congress to pass a bill to take on OPEC although these idiots failed to look at the gun-money-power behind OPEC, who paid "handsomely" for our representatives for a century now.

We will have to bring it to a "visual" conclusion, "Pin - Wailing Wall - 47th -Wall Street - connection" - like a wanted poster you pin on the wall; more like "get them list" - "You're next, things to do, your little reminder" - after fish rotting - head - t-shirt and if you are wearing it, it is because you want to get out the message because the t-shirt is really ugly, it attracts a lot of attention.

Get rid of grey line inside face and put a little bit lighter shade of blue inside the face.
Line around diamond too thick. The wave shape is too jiggered. We need to find a way to do it with the computer or buy a template. It has to look very sharp.

It's a little "foofy"? it is pretty, though. Can you sell more or less having a more powerful yellow, almost orange in the eye Do you think it looks more and more like the pope? Try a pinkish-grey in the cloud. A thinner line, maybe the dark blue of the ocean around the diamond and to continue the waves in to the t-shirt outlining with the same dark blue for the white waves. We have to see actual size to see what the pink below the mushroom is going to look like. It could be a little too dark.

Also try making the front tooth sticking out of the mouth a little bit, just the one tooth.

You might want to call Jeffrey Krinsk Esq, 619-238-1333 ext 24 and get his input although you will have to hurry since he could be on his way over to Rainwaters for their special Chicken pot pie Wednesday lunch

Ps – have you digested what I sent reporter Kennedy earlier from my daacstar@yahoo account:

do you understand not only why Mr. Jeffrey R. Krinsk Esq. a very skilled and experienced Shareholder Class Action Litigator wrote this business plan, click hyperlink below but how without any "hoopla and fanfare" i.e. no need for me feeling the need to have an "audience of cheerleaders" I continue with communications such as this to execute flawlessly?

<http://www.nextraterrestrial.com/pdf/MM1-Business-plan.gif>

Do you understand with the United States Congress passing a bill to sue OPEC they just tied the noose irreversibly tighter around their necks as i bide my time imploring the masses not to be so foolish as to resort to violence which is the business model of the media who know like the 3 Branches of the US, that it is De Beers in the background "calling the shots".

Make the eye a yellow fade from the outside in to white in the middle of the swastika – pretty dark yellow on the outside.

Now remember Mr. Jeffrey R. Krinsk's business plan for www.footsak.com that smart money people like Mr. JRK knew was on track to be the number one news+information++++ website on the internet especially when I had executed flawlessly his plan below

Let me explain – start with universe of reporters sending each an “evidence package”, who is left is genuinely motivate to your objective, so far not a soul-fish –now GOLD

AGAIN THAT BRILLIANT BUSINESS PLAN WAS DEVELOPED some 5 years ago and fully executed on www.footsak.com

Also make a mushroom cloud on top of the fish – we have the cloud – the stars and stripes might be a little too big starting at the bottom.

Also instead of a rectangle having the shape of the outline of the diamond.

Will it work with a black outline for the fish.

I want the pink sky to fade back into blue – also make the pink a little lighter – just a hint of pink then turning in to light blue going darker but mostly light blue
