Subject: SCHHTUPID COW

Dear Mr. Hoskyns-Abrahall,

Yesterday I began a dialogue with Ian of King Corn who for good reason responded positively and within 6 minutes to my initial enquiry, that was sent to him at 1:37 PM Pacific Standard Time, Ian being most polite and right to the point:

Hi Gary

I'd be interested to learn a little more about your story. Do tell.

best

Ian

Then when I did at 2:11 PM, Ian went "deafeningly silent" and it could have been just the fact that he had other things "on his plate".

At 8:10 PM last evening after I felt sufficient time had elapsed for Ian to have done sufficient "due diligence" to reveal more of himself to me; that he saw King Corn mostly as a way to not only get rich but be so "cool" and "laid back", all the while very open to other "make me feel good" enterprises that would make having to work for a living before becoming financially independent, all the more less stressful, I followed up.

You would know without me having to tell you so that at any time you could hit the delete button, but I cannot guarantee you that it will work or that all those carbon as well as blind copied would do the same, let alone each and every one of them could be counted on to forget the remainder of this very important email, although Mr. Jeffrey R. Krinsk Esq. of Finkelstein & Krinsk may have like others, more familiar with my writing style, decided in addition to engaging ex-Mossad agents who cannot be necessarily relied upon to tell the truth – just ask Munich Producer (i.e. financier)/director Steven SPIelberg who does a most excellent job of not only exposing himself, but additionally exposes his role in the promotion of fictitious US-DeBeers-dollars - to also read this communiqué from the bottom up; and it is not because today is Monday, which is a very busy day following a weekend where increasingly even the "smart money" people like Mr. JRK Esq. are increasingly and exponentially uncertain about this most uncertain world; bearing in mind the capital and financial markets are all predicated upon the ability to "predict with accuracy" what the future holds; a subject matter, Mr. JRK is not alone in recognizing that I have "sum" [sic] unique and universal skills which is why he would not only say nice things about me, but were it not for my extraordinarily large "footprint" on the internet, engage my "risk assessment" services 24/7.

<http://www.nextraterrestrial.com/pdf/risk%20assessment.htm>

Gold last trading at US$924.00 a troy ounce.

Obviously, in the interests of not only saving time but to get Ian to benefit from the input of his close colleagues who hadn't yet "fully committed themselves" I smartly carbon copied both Curt and Aaron who I believe is the producer-director of King Corn.

And of course I was smart enough to blind copy a whole bunch of people who understand better than most why it is that I don't feel the need in any way, shape or form to "trap" those "intellectually dishonest", given how they do it all on their own, all the while contributing greatly to expanding my "footprint" on the internet in an all out effort to give peace a better chance by first leveling the "playing field".

Yes, I was not the only intelligent person in the world who couldn't help but notice how both Ian and Curt lunged into their fat that once had a pulse, all the while delighting at how much money they would be making when making fun of the masses to be so "schhtupid" [sic] not to have bought in to the corruption, not so much of the big farmers and lobbyists in Washington DC. which is what I assumed was the intent of those profiteering the most from this most excellent production, but the biggest group of lobbyists, the most corrupt of all the peoples on the planet, the United States of America's medical doctors, who know all these facts but only touch the surface when talking with their patients, since to dig just a little, reveals how much it is that United States of America's medical doctors benefit financially from the fact that we all know some 95% of US Americans are in worse physical shape than the Brits, who are not in all that great a shape, especially when compared say to the Chinese with a billion or so still working the farms and who get very carefully selected by the best of the Chinese Commanding Officers trained by the best of the best Israeli Special Forces Commanding Officers to become members of Chinese Special Forces units that you have my word for it, each and every member of Israel's most elite Special Forces units, who pound for pound are the most brutally effective Special Forces commandos in the world, second to none, would "stand down" to their Chinese brothers and sisters with whom they have "no fight", only want to make love; and Israel, you will remember, is nation of some 6 million or so versus going on 1.5 odd billion Chinese who even non-Israelis know are "The Jews of the Orient."

Who, apart from a brain dead individual, would lunge in to their fat with their so receding canine teeth and the rest cow teeth?

You know I am right just when looking at yourself in the mirror that Ian, Curt and Aaron have one most awful looking growl on their faces!!

But, trust me, such deep rooted ugliness that can't all be blamed on Iowa Corn is not even close to both the internal and external ugliness of The IT and his Cow.

More importantly since The IT is such a "no brainer" to read, but so are all those just "money, me, me, me" people who continue to keep The IT's company, knowing that with each tick of the clock, not only will more people know why it is that they are only after his so ill-gotten gains made when being a crooked pathologist at Sharp Memorial Hospital, San Diego, but the investments he and his advisors have made to keep them all "hush" - hence the word Trust-Hush-Funds - will increasingly be worth less than the paper they are written on including the gold bullion that he has purchased following reading so very carefully both my and my wife's writings.

You understand and if you don't have Yale University graduates Curt Ellis and Ian Cheney who fail to mention that they attended an Ivy League university, explain to you, better yet using their "upper class English accents" which of course is not quite as pleasant sounding as mine, better yet my mother's "Queen's English", spelling out in simple English not only why it was that they emerged out of such a "prestigious university" without the skills to compete on a "level playing field" where the merit system works best and where the "gift of the gab" can't even guarantee you getting laid, although again there is that donkey show in Tijuana, Mexico where the female Mexican performer might after taking on the donkey "perform a trick" or "tTOo" [sic] just so long as Curt and Ian provide a means of exchange that has value.

It is possible but incredibly highly unlikely that gold bullion would ever become worthless bearing in mind the world's new superpower, China is not only fueling the world's economy while having built up the greatest military of all time, but the Chinese government never forgot the Golden Rule, "He who has the gold makes the rules" and why it is today that not only is China the largest gold producer in the world, the Chinese government have been very smartly importing gold harvested around the world, even without having to revalue their extraordinarily undervalued currency.

But the De Beers-US Dollar, on the other hand, pretty much EXCLUSIVELY dependant on the military might of the US military yet to go up against a first rate military such as Israel and China let alone a combined force who have been practicing for such a showdown for more than 3 decades now, could without either China or Israel firing a single bullet cause the total collapse of the totally fictitious-worthless De Beers Dollar.

Moreover, the certainty of this happening increases with the continued relative peace we now have in the world as the Knowledge-Information-Light truth I am sharing, free of charge, I might add, spreads at nothing short of light-G-d-speed to all 4 corners of the earth and reaching of course all those in the world's military beginning with the US Military finally wake up to the Trust-Hush-Fund crowd seeing them all as SO "SCHHTUPID" [sic].

Adam L. Tucker is currently working on getting those two most important photos of Hitler and Caroline Kennedy with the "joker" John F. Kennedy's caricature in the background loaded up on to the 784 word email I sent wine specialist Philippe on July 3rd which you should be able to access when clicking on the hyperlink above.

You would know to place the Latin adverb "sic" meaning "thus" or "so" after a spelling or grammatical error.

This hyperlink below takes you to a "BLOG" I have created on my one of many websites, www.NEXTtraterresTRIAL.com for all those involved with the King Corn production and I assume the medical doctors lobby in Washington DC are getting their cut, still thinking

<http://www.nextraterrestrial.com/pdf/kingcorn-blog.pdf>

Of course you will also find it currently on the homepage of www.just3ants.com.

One thing I know is to "keep moving" in an ever changing world and never to think for a moment that a "leopard would change its spots" and instead of just waiting around for someone "mischievous" to do me bodily harm to simply spotlight all those making it patently obvious that they are not in search of the truth on the "$ hit list" [sic].

Doesn't that all make perfect sense?

You do understand that I understand how poor conditioning cannot be eradicated in an instant and therefore all those poorly conditioned want to believe that they can again become "good" human beings once they are "financially independent".

Do you really believe the human condition can get any more "SCHHTUPID" [sic] than The IT and his Cow?

What about Dr. John K. Pollard of MIT as well as his colleague Professor Noam Chomsky who makes a living off the controversy he and Professor Alan Dershowitz of Harvard University have been so carefully, so pedantically, so painstakingly, so methodically and ever so patiently manicuring for decades now.

Wouldn't it be wild if it turned out that Chomsky and Dershowitz were in fact secret lovers?

You will first of all notice not only the trio as well as other colleagues of yours in the carbon copied section but other email addresses that you would recognize, as well as not instantly recognize, while bearing in mind there are a great many individuals/groups in the blind copied section; not to mention that over the next 24 hours more than 100,000 carefully selected individuals/groups will also receive blind copies of this communiqué and who on average can be counted on to forward to 10 other individuals/groups.

I doubt very much you would want to argue with my math given how you won't find even a Professor of mathematics at say MIT University who would dream, but only in their worst nightmare, to question my quantitative skills.

Suffice to say, not only can I also multi-task better than most males and females I know, at least when it comes scripting carefully worded communiqués, knowing rather well, when and how best to create the necessary "distractions" that allow me most of all to gauge my exponentially growing "audience" but as you think more about what else I am doing including about to broadcast an email to a whole bunch of people who have previously only received a very well written email entitled, "We have been betrayed by our leaders", written by my one American programmer Adam L. Tucker who every so often changed the title to "Americans have been betrayed", all the while Mr. Tucker never thought it that important before beginning his broadcasting to make certain there were no spelling or grammatical mistakes as well as some formatting errors that were later fixed, you won't forget, helped by me now reminding you, that shortly after responding to Ian's request I followed up with MIT and Cornell university graduate Dr. John K. Pollard Jr with an email which you can find under "Gary's diary" again on the homepage of www.just3ants.com, all the while I also managed to take care of not only acting as my French-Canadian wife's typist as my most brilliant, level-headed, most beautiful, so gorgeous, so sexy wife sent her X, twice divorced, none athlete of none-athletes, Dr. John BIG BEN Stewart MD one most extraordinary knuckleball email that while having no impact on her flat line plotter, slimeball of slimeball X husband, will register "sumwhat" on all those still warming up to him for singular reason, "Love of Money".

Isn't it awesomely inspiring, so very invigorating to see how just using email we can nip "problem children" in the bud; bearing in mind that there is no such thing as a "problem child" only a "problem parent".

Politician children increasingly show their "true colors" as they imitate most of all that parent with the "playing victim" mentality who once caught playing it "fast and loose" try all sorts of sideways, backwards, forwards movements to have their "victim" when not going crazy to forget, and almost impossible in this so wonderful Digital Age, a godsend.

And of course you would know that in the so very predictable interims, planning so careful to once again be the "center of attention" by doing what they do best; i.e. attracting negative attention that over time reveals itself permanently on their so very ugly faces that shows not only their brutality but why it is that they are so very rude to those simply insisting on only being around those with a "value system" willing to place in "black and white" such an easy to understand "value system" and be tested on it, helped greatly by going and seeing who has been added as well as deleted from the "$ hit list" [sic] only available on just3ants.com.

In the end, whichever way you "cut it", you are not only what you eat but those with poor eating habits are more prone than others to be around those just like themselves all finding escapes for their lack of intellectual honesty which begins with the fact, again when cutting through all their bs that they could care less about a "value system" and are only interested in the "money".

And now this "feeding frenzy" is more than ever as those "too big for their boots" who know and we all know, just by looking at the "$ hit list" [sic] on just3ants.com that these FOOLS NAMES, FOOLS FACES IN PUBLIC PLACES have been getting more than their fair share of the graft-spoils of diamond tipped drilling oil bit war, and so very worried about the increasing prospects of peace that is war on their profits.

Cut and pasted from the homepage of Bullfrog Films (<http://bullfrogfilms.com>)

"Over the last 35 years, Bullfrog Films has become the leading US publisher of independently-produced, environmental DVDs & videos, that point the way to living healthily, happily, and with greater concern for the other inhabitants of this planet, and for our descendants...."

Provide immediately what criteria is used when determining which films, "point the way to living healthily, happily, and with greater concern for the other inhabitants of this planet, and for our descendants"?

Roughly speaking of course, approximately what percentage of your decision is based upon profitability?

Naturally, I have in addition to my household chores that I always do with a smile on my face managed as well to take care of business-personal with Mr. Tucker who actually arose this morning much earlier than usual, most likely because he felt the need to get cracking on making our cabin-stone home spotless when deciding to go to bed much earlier than usual but still not leaving himself enough time to remove his feces from the inside of the toilet bowl.

One of the great ideas my step-father Alan Zulman, co-founder of the South African Clothing Industries did was to institute a rule requiring everyone going in to the factories' toilets to inspect the toilet first and if found dirty to report it immediately.

I bet if Alan had a financial interest in just3ants.com he would be going around to every clothing factory in the world and signing them up for membership on just3ants.com.

Bear with me since I haven't eaten a morsel of food in the past 23 odd hours apart from of course my many glasses of water that has me of course peeing more than most and why I am more likely to leave spots of pee around the toilet bowl that given the threat I have hanging over my head from my F-C wife, "I will have to write another full of it email" it is highly likely this is the last you will hear of it.

Again, feel free to confirm my perfect improvement by emailing Marie Dion Gevisser - mdgart@sellnext.com.

Is it your experience that not only is a liar always a liar, a thief and a cheat and hence once a crook always a crook but those who are also unfit tend to eat poorly and it is inevitable that they have trouble keeping track of their lies following their brains experiencing constant short-circuits that eventually take their toll?

Would you also understand why medical doctors are the one group of professionals that Shareholder Class action Litigation Lawyers such as Milberg-Weiss-Lerach seek out given how these smart money SCALs know that all one needs to get through medical school is a good memory, and once getting through the tough part the residency where the most corrupt feel most the need to sleep as they begin feeling the short-circuits sooner than the rest, they can then be counted to be bought off for next to nothing?

Hence, why the two top 2,000 pound SCAL litigators in the world, Melvyn Weiss Esq. and Bill Lerach Esq. chose very carefully medical doctors in their most financially rewarding scams that now has them both in jail, although I haven't heard yet from The IT who would know from his Cow, a fast typist who works for Bill Lerach Esq. currently in jail, whether his partner in crime Melvyn Weiss Esq. is possibly calling on my immediate family's close friend, Deborah "I am aggressive" Sturman Esq. to work on an appeal just like Bill Lerach Esq. is trying, or so am I told, to get his one daughter in law school to help him out.

Not to mention, yet again, Deborah is the attorney who spearheaded the multi-billion dollar Jewish slave-wage settlement, and nor would you be in the least bit surprised that it was my highly secretive Royal Mater-Mother Zena who was the "catalyst" in getting Deborah when she was just a teenager, to give up her career as a French Horn player for the Cologne philharmonic, return to the United States, go to law school while in her mid-thirties, and immediately upon graduating to find the most corrupt and at the same time most successful SCAL on planet Mother Earth; i.e. Melvyn Weiss Esq. and go to war with the remnants of the Nazi German military machine, which I am simply continuing, working my way up to the very top, the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel's 3 Branches of the US Government.
