Continuing...

Judy Keating: Thank you for holding.

Judy Keating: Your account 'nexta' is up-to-date. The next renewal date will be on June 02, 2008.

Judy Keating: The domain 'just3ants.com' is neither registered nor hosted with us.

Judy Keating: Is there anything else I can assist you with today?

gary gevisser: Yes, I know. just3ants.com is registered and hosted with someone else, exactly who, I dont have the foggiest notion. You can email Adam L. Tucker at adam@just3ants.com to get all those details, and perhaps hostcentric would like to bid for that business; better yet choose to be a corporate sponsor and for that they would need to make a minimum financial contribution of US$149,976.12 or the equivalent in gold bullion/coins which at the current spot market price of US$902 would amount to approximately 166.3 troy ounces bringing the grand total of sponsorship so far to US$150,000?

Judy Keating: Did you receive my last message?

gary gevisser: Yes, I did. Did you get your copy of the heavily broadcasted email I just to a Dale Baranowski?

Judy Keating: Yes.

gary gevisser: So, what do you think?

gary gevisser: You might be interested to know that just this minute I sent from my daacstar@yahoo.com email account the following email to hlee@sfchronicle.com; the subject: Are you interested in an interesting story? How many people do you know still have a US$100 travelers check signed some 15 odd years ago by the former chairman of the Board of Hearst Corporation, Randolph A. Hearst; the SF Chronicle I believe still owned by Hearst Corp

Judy Keating: We do support only for hosting service.

Judy Keating: Is there anything else I can assist you with today

gary gevisser: Have you had a chance to digest fully the 5,717 odd word email I sent Dale?

Judy Keating: We handle only enquires that are pertaining to Web hosting and its services. I am sorry that we cannot help you with if you have any other type of enquires.

Judy Keating: We are a web hosting company specializing in site hosting, hosting services, web services, business services, small business solutions, email accounts, domain registrations, web site statistics and affiliate marketing programs.

gary gevisser: What else can I help you with?

Judy Keating: Do you have any other question?

gary gevisser: Have you thought of having a date and time stamp added to the chat sessions?

Judy Keating: The date and time stamp added to our chat session.

gary gevisser: I am sorry I dont understand what you last wrote. You seemed to repeat most of what I previously wrote without answering my question?

gary gevisser: It was interesting to me how quickly you received your copy of the 5717 odd word email I sent Dale Baranowski. I would like to compliment your supervisor. What is his/her name?

Judy Keating: Unfortunately, unable to tell our supervisor names.

Mr. Baranowski,

My one website www.NEXTraterresTRIAL.com has been "suspended" and the "problem" could simply be I have yet to provide Hostcentric who "host" this one of some 100 or websites my new credit card.

Currently I am in a chat session with 'Judy Keating' a "technical support" person.

The last communication at about 7:45 AM about a minute ago was, "Can you please hold while I look into this for you? I should have some more information regarding your issue in 2-4 minutes."

The complete dialogue "back and forth" can be found below:

Please be prepared to answer your Security Question when we begin chatting. To enhance our security protocols, we'll need you to provide the answer to your Security Question at the beginning of our conversation. If you have not yet set your Security Question and Answer, please log into your account now to set it up. Thank you.

Please hold for the next available agent to respond.

▶You are now chatting with 'Judy Keating'

Judy Keating: Hi Gary. I apologize for the wait time. My name is Judy Keating, how are you today?

gary gevisser: Great. How are you?

Judy Keating: I'm great, thank you. How can I help you today?

gary gevisser: Could you tell me what is going on with my one website nextraterrestrial?

Judy Keating: Okay.

Judy Keating: Can you please hold while I look into this for you? I should have some more information regarding your issue in 2-4 minutes.

Judy Keating: Thank you for holding.

Judy Keating: Could you please provide me with the last four digits of your credit card on file, so that I can authenticate you as the owner of the account?

Judy Keating: Did you receive my last message?

gary gevisser: Sorry for the dealy. I am currently typing an email that I plan to broadcast "simultaneously" [sic] with this dialogue. I dont have my credit card with me. Currently I am at the Java Kai coffee shop on the corner of 15th Street and Highway 101 in downtown heavily real estate and city council corrupt Del Mar. I do have a new credit card since I lost my last credit card when coming down Highway 101 at a break neck speed on my superfast Ducati ST4S on the relatively steep section after Torrey Pines Public Golf Course leading into Del Mar.

Judy Keating: You can check the last four digit of the credit card information by clicking on the link 'Billing Console' at this page.

Judy Keating: <http://members.hostcentric.com/webControl/pastduesplash.bml>

gary gevisser: 4472 Do you have an email address in the event this chat session terminates since my wireless internet signal is not all that strong

Judy Keating: To obtain the chat transcript, you need to click on the 'Close' button at the end of the chat conversation. Then you will get a pop-up window asking you to obtain the chat Transcript. You have to check on the radio button next to 'yes', enter your e-mail address at the space provided below and click on 'Send'. The chat transcript will be delivered to your mailbox.

Judy Keating: The last four digit of the credit card information is not correct.

Judy Keating: If you have the account login information, then please get the last four digit of the credit card to confirm the authentication.

gary gevisser: When you say "not correct" what do you mean. I just cut and pasted the last four digits in the "billing console" section. I will do it again this time including everything that is provided including the expiration date of the credit card you have on file that I am quite certain is the credit card that I lost when my motorcycle jacket blew wide open.

gary gevisser: 4888XXXXXXXX4472 Expires : 01/10

gary gevisser: Again, do you have an email address I can use as "backup"?

Judy Keating: I have checked it by refreshing the page.

Judy Keating: Thank you for the authentication.

Judy Keating: Gary, I have noticed that you account because of overdue for $22.99 from May 02, 2008.

Judy Keating: I can see now that you have cleared the past due.

gary gevisser: What then is the problem?

Judy Keating: I have activated your Web site and account.

Judy Keating: Please check it by clearing browser cache and cookies.

Judy Keating: Is there anything else I can assist you with today?

gary gevisser: I would like to send you a copy of the email I am about to send out where I will be thanking you for being so friendly and most of all so very efficient? You are a sweetheart. BTW would you have been willing to "front" me the monies until I got back to our cliff house perched atop the bluffs of Del Mar? Also would you be interested in "moonlighting" for me?

Judy Keating: You can e-mail us at support@hostcentric-inc.com .

gary gevisser: How can I be sure it will get to you?

Judy Keating: Unfortunately, I'm unable to give my personnel e-mail address.

Judy Keating: Is there anything else I can assist you with today?

gary gevisser: Apart from you going to my other website www.just3ants.com and checking out my blog how else could I convince you to consider more the possibility of moonlighting for me?

BTW, I just received the following email from my one American programmer Adam L. Tucker who seems to have got the credit card problem sorted out while we were chatting.

From: Adam L Tucker [<mailto:adam@just3ants.com>]

The credit card had to be updated; its back online now. Do you want me to bring by the tablet fro Jonathan? Ryan said that we can take a graphic from paper so If he or Marie are better with paper and pencil/pen then they should run with that.

How much thought have given in your entire life knowing that the United States Government is the only government in the world to have dropped not one but two massive nuclear bombs on civilian populations and yet Israel has now survived some 6 decades and the United States Government has never been a friend of the fledging state of Israel?

Can you even begin to calculate the odds bearing in mind that a bomb the size of the second hydrogen dropped on Nagasaki were it to be exploded in a truck driven into the Old City of Jerusalem would be lights out for pretty much all of Israel leaving it to Israel's most brutal Navy and Air Force to respond in kind?

Don't you just love my very excellent math wizard artist oil painter French-Canadian wife's explanation of drawing, in not so many words, "Positive and negative space, the positive is the subject matter, the composition, all meet in the middle where you draw the line"; bearing in mind that the first step in creating a beautiful meaningful painting one has to be able to draw which so infinitesimally small numbers of people who call themselves painters know the first thing about, given how they cannot even draw let alone grasp the extraordinary difficulty of mastering "values" the various shades of grey followed by applying color and then there are the brush strokes, all creating permutations that only a genius painter after decades of painting, studying and teaching can execute with ease, and his name is Sebastian Capella.

Everything is geometry beginning with Special-General Relativity that is pure geometry which Einstein with the help of Marc Grossman translated into the math the most unbelievably precise language that is universal that doesn't change that like S-G Relativity stands the test of time that could only have been created by an ingenious Supernatural mind, the mind first indicator of the supernatural; the mind again translates in to the chemistry, into the math that Einstein first imagined before it could converted in to math explaining in simple math the entire workings of the cosmos and why Einstein would conclude correctly, "Imagination is more important than knowledge"; but without knowledge; moreover a search for knowledge-truth you cannot even begin to imagine ending up thinking this world is about you.

Searching for "The hand of God" has been not only Einstein's quest but all those who understand the extraordinary certainty of S-G Relativity that is used time and again in not only explaining the extraordinarily complicated workings of the cosmos but is used in everyday life to converts mass at the constant speed of light in a perfect vacuum into Energy; again  $E=mc^2$  not simply the "mind of god" confirming what the average person knows but putting to rest any conflict between creationist and evolutionists since  $e=mc^2$  in reverse also spells out  $2 c mE$ .

Mother Earth the only spot we know in the entire universe where there is "sound", the Doppler Effect measuring sound waves the "reverse" of the Red shift effect measuring light waves and where we first had evidence of the "Hand of God" showing the universe expanding at an accelerating rate thus placing in question whether the speed of light is a constant.

The only constant we now know given how we can in fact at very low temperatures stop altogether the speed of light is truth; truth that which does not change.

You would agree that it is not only important to know who exactly has benefitted over the years from the financing of Hitler's Nazi German military machine that appeared to catch the western alliance "flatfooted" when looking today at who has got what?

Now you must understand it is not in the least bit important that anyone apart from my wife and master Spanish oil painter-teacher Sebastian Capella think that I am intelligent and if either of them were to deny I now have proof of them saying I am intelligent all on camera following this past week's videotaping at his art studio atop Mt. Soledad in La Jolla, California which is a favorite hangout of the most corrupt Jewish South Africans that I know bearing in mind that I know so very few Jewish South Africans who are not corrupt, the same with people of all the major religious groups including academia, the new corrupt church.

On the other hand there was so much laughter going on at the time that it is of course possible that both my very brilliant French-Canadian wife and Sebastian Capella who have their own very unique way of communicating with one another were simply making fun of me.

What do you think of the possibility I provide snippets of today's videotaping to all those increasing our sponsorship by US$149,976.12 or the equivalent in gold bullion/coins which at the current spot market price of US$902 would amount to approximately 166.3 troy ounces bringing the grand total to US$150,000?

When last did you hear a United States politician and/or member of the media reporting what has been on the minds of each and every Israeli Commanding Officer, Special Forces commando and just the army regular better trained and commanded than any other military in the world, namely,

"US Americans sell weapons to everyone, especially Israel's enemies because US Americans would sell our brother for money!"

You know that each one of us whether we be Mr. and Mrs. Private US and non-US citizen, Trust-hush-fund and non-Trust-hush-fund kid, Israeli Special Forces commandos, Hezbollah spec op commandos thinking they can outfox Israeli Special Forces commandos who still know they have the best intelligence as well as weapon systems in the world backed up most importantly by the brutal no-nonsense Israel Navy and Air Force, again each one of us some 7 billion odd human beings on this planet do only what makes us "feel good" and not an ounce more.

Such "feel good" actions whether it is being kind and gentle to a stranger or family member or just getting a kick out of brutalizing a stranger or non-stranger again never leaving out family infighting, internecine conflict the bloodiest, to the point that when any of us gets bored with the next person who has their personal agenda going even if it is only like most elite "gun-money-power" people to get laid by the person of their dreams without of course any head trip, we just move on without even feeling the need to be in the least bit civil.

It is, however, so very easy to be so very nauseatingly civil once you have accumulated sufficient ill-gotten gains that affords you not only the world's most powerful military on your side backed to the hilt by local law enforcement but the at least 6 foot high wall with barbed wire on top and if not than the one with Gillette razor blades and I assume Gillette since most of us shavers consider Gillette to make the best blades, but again I could be wrong.

Notice how you are not really asking yourself how I have the energy for all this least of all bothering with a total loser like schmoozer deluxe Sammy Haim who I believe participated in the 1967 Israeli-Arab 6 Day War, on the side of the Israelis and thank God he was in some tank triage unit since if he had to fire a gun as he later did in upstate new York when poaching moose to feed himself and one of his wives he most likely would have not only missed shooting the enemy instead Moshe Dayan and inevitably tried for treason given how he was born in a mud hut just outside of Cairo and within a few months trekked over to Israel.

Trust me when I tell you Sammy Haim who to the best of my knowledge is unrelated to this 59 year old Israeli-American by the first name Chaim who I met this past week, is not a spy for either the Mossad or Hezbollah since for starters I have more respect for both military organizations who are not "al-to-get-her" [sic] stupid.

So that doesn't mean those who are armed with the truth and actually stand up to any and all evil never thinking it smart to play God and decide what evil is more evil don't have an "edge" over those so full of themselves thinking they are playing smart all the while putting up with all the negative energy those "negatively attracted" choose ever so carefully to "share".

I want you to think very carefully not only how I transitioned in to the above paragraph but exactly what I mean and if you think you can do a better job of writing it then please be my guest.

True seekers of truth have the most extraordinary competitive edge in this race for survival of the fittest that has of course over time since we began to consume the planet become a race for survival of the richest who are not by a long shot the smartest, again just look at those on the "$ hit list" [sic] and nor should one assume they have any taste just because they have the modern art monies to set the price on pretty much everything once of course De Beers and Co. have grabbed hold of everything their hearts desire including the hottest chicks and guys; makes no difference.

Amazing isn't it how each of our minds gets distracted by just the mention of the word, "sex".

Do you think G-D/G-D was oblivious to this when creating the chemistry of the mind that translates back into the science into the math the most precise of all languages; so exact is math that of course only one most extraordinary genius mind could create such "error free" language in the first place?

Now you also perfectly understand that the instant one loses track of the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel's Agenda, "Take the money now or open a taco stand" so all you are doing is playing with yourself.

Does the idea of sex with yourself disturb you as much as it does me bearing in mind that you are constantly being watched?

Even if you don't believe for one moment as do all of the world's mostly hypocrites that a Superior Being exists, there are few of us with any intelligence who wouldn't agree there is such a thing as "shared energy" which can be explained in "back and forth" of Einstein's "mind of God" equation.

But even then those so full of themselves will always say "So what?" that I who I know without any confirmation from either MDG or Sebastian Capella, am not stupid, can prove beyond a shadow of a doubt using the highest levels of math and science that  $E=mc^2$  provides proof not only of the entire workings of the cosmos which is why Einstein a most humble man referred to this most awesome alpha-numeric mathematical equation, which happens to be "pure geometry" as "The Mind of God" given its absolute precision that has been proven over the past century through one direct experiment after the next, but also both Evolution and Creationism, thus putting to an end any of the so contrived controversy between "Evolutionists" and "Creationists" and consequently were any human being to argue one more so than the other I would argue that they are either incompetent, culpable or both, take your pick!

And of course after saying "So what?" these complete and total imbeciles then of course go on their merry way whether it be to the next big social party or out on the town at the favorite restaurant or simply going shopping and shopping and shopping until they drop.

It is not necessary to drop dead before realizing that at the end of our lives we all know we can't take anything with us and those around us not just our spouses and God know exactly what it is that we are all about as well as how we have gone about ducking the big issues of the day.

Don't you just love email?

Don't you just hate the fact that I am alive, fit and well living the greatest life and with each tick of the clock all the world's military along with local law enforcement throughout the world can't get enough of my writings spelling out why and how it has come about that the best of us who end up killing ourselves are the most poorly compensated?

Have you run by you local favorite priest, rabbi, mullah my;

THE MEEK WITH TEETH SHALL INHERIT THE EARTH

Or how about

THE FISH ROTS FROM THE HEAD DOWN!

Have you ever thought why it is that it is only the corrupt of the world who have this "thing" about the Jewish people including each and every corrupt Jewish person I know which amounts to the overwhelming majority of Jewish people I know who like the overwhelming majority of Roman Catholics, Buddhist, Hindus, academics etc etc that I know, are all about money?

Worst of all they are also like me getting older but for "sum" [sic] reason they all without exception seem so much more unhappier than me and I am quite confident there is nothing wrong with my eyesight and if there was, trust me I wouldn't have survived one days outing on my superfast Ducati ST4S when considering the blinding speeds I reach; bearing in mind I once broke my left leg riding a Harley Davidson when doing less than 5 miles an hour but I have the excuse that I was distracted by a good looking woman.

Have you thought about the fact that you are not alone in finding yourself with very little to say but at the same time feeling the need to reach out to those who have not only flushed you out given your decision to "go for the money" when you thought there would be no negative consequence given how poor are most of our memories, mostly concerned that in addition to your name and face appearing on the "$ hit list" [sic] the monies and the wealth you thought you and your Trust-Hush-Funder had so carefully set aside would last you a lifetime without ever having to work let alone sweat when earning a living, previously quite convinced that no matter what you would always be able to find a lover much more so than a friend who very possibly after great sex would allow you a shoulder to cry on?

Don't you also agree that our Superior Being had a hand to play even in email that is so very awesome in helping flush out all the world's "small talkers" now coming to grips that they cannot rely on the so co-opted-corrupted media to distract the masses with all the things they cannot control and nothing quite like a radio or TV news headline, "BRUSH FIRE UPDATE" that has the construction workers laying for example bricks in a new multi-million dollar home in the beach resort of Del Mar, California saying to themselves, "Thank God it is nowhere near us right now; also our kids are safe at school!!" and then after a short pause concluding the fire is nowhere near their homes and besides they say to themselves, "In any event, thank God I have a great insurance broker who has allowed me to over insure everything and so God bring on your biggest fire and I will end up with brand spanking new mansion” and for those construction workers only renting, not even able to afford renters insurance for their favorite cat that has been declawed and not able to defend itself after the fire from say a mountain lion, in no time at all they are just thankful for having a job working in perfect climate Del Mar, never thinking in a million years that someone like me would stop on my way back from picking up a US$5.49 multi-grain bread from the Harvest Ranch located in the Del Mar Plaza to our beyond belief love and art filled most luxuriously furnished studio home perched atop the bluffs of Del Mar, very possibly still today the most expensive real estate in the world, and while dressed like one of the construction workers who couldn't help but notice that I am not exactly a fatso and very capable of not only assisting them but helping pick up the pace so that their general contractor could come in under budget and make for himself and assuming he is generous that much more profit, and having got their attention as I did yesterday morning to then go about explaining how the book, The Diamond Invention explains in a rather round about fashion how De Beers own all of Madison Avenue and Hollywood which includes the airwaves given their unlimited supply of untraceable currency and the first thing they do with the masses is have them focus on all the “acts of nature” that they cannot control so as to constantly be thanking G-d-Nature for all small things in life they can still enjoy without a moments thought to all the many things they do in fact control beginning with holding their elected and non-elected government officials accountable for failing in their fiduciary responsibilities to hold this mafia of mafia in check.

Have you ever been around a parrot when feeling sorry for yourself, chain-smoking cigarettes thinking to yourself “What a life!!” and before you sound the words the parrot blurts out, “What a life!!”, the cigarette falls out of your mouth, you pick yourself up by your bootstraps and from that moment forth never stop thanking God even though you still don't believe in the Supernatural.

Such a “real life” event happened to the one daughter of this most wonderful lady who has lived the most full life – just look at the size and strength of her hands, my very on-top-of-things French-Canadian and 1/32nd Huron Indian wife, Marie Dion Gevisser and I met a week ago today in Julian, near our Stone Home deep inside the Cleveland National Forest.

Let me attempt to answer your question since you asked "Why?" and then thought yourself smart, not because you are very possibly Jewish since we know how well Jewish Kapos in the Concentration-Slave-Death Camps of Auschwitz and the such managed to survive not because they were smart in using their "Yiddisha kops" "simply willing to save their own skin, no different to what you are doing when essentially saying, "Let things ly!"

Remember at any time you can hit the delete button and/or choose poorly and report me to the "authorities" who you can only hope are at least as co-opted-corrupt as you but with each tick of the clock finding yourself increasingly feeling uneasy knowing perfectly well that the authorities just like those co-opted in to the United States of America's "economic draft" are simply misinformed and not stupid; moreover, when figuring out on their own why it is that they are for the most part so financially poor in order that they don't have the wherewithal to breath let alone be afforded a breath of fresh air and understand in the next instant how you clowns including their senior elected and non-elected corrupt government officials have managed to trickle down the cost of getting richer on to the backs of the poor who again are not stupid simply grossly misinformed you increasingly wonder how long you will get away with your duplicity.

You also most likely did your military service in Israel where I doubt very much you were a member of Sayeret Matkal; infinitesimally small possibility that you were part of that courageous group of one of Israel's most elite Special Forces units who went public with their outrage over the treatment of Palestinians in the "occupied territories".

Not to mention many an independent thinking Jewish person around the world took issue with the capture of Old Jerusalem during the June 67 Six Day War where my mother, the granddaughter of pogrom orphaned Nechie Badash, a close confidante of Ben Gurion given how both Nechie and Ben Gurion came from the same tiny village of Plonsk, White Russia-Poland, received the most distinguished honor of being the first civilian allowed into the captured territories of the Sinai; bearing in mind my mother, Zena Ash Gevisser was not an Israeli citizen but her father Alef-Albert-Al Badash-Ash from the House of Badash and "favored" son of Nechie, had done more than his fair share for the ongoing survival of the Jewish people when he was less than a handful years prior poisoned to death in the early to mid-1960s by the De Beers crime syndicate who immediately upon corrupting all 3 Branches of the US Government at the turn of the last century then immediately began to focus their attention on the most religious of Jewish people; namely the Hasidic-ultra orthodox Jewish-Black Hatters in New York City, the money laundering and intelligence gathering capital of the world for the virulently anti-Semitic De Beers-Anglo American Cartel, who in modern day times was headed by Rabbi Rebe Schneerson who you will see by clicking HERE I got to visit with in late 1989.

And of course, when I mentioned this meeting to my mother Zena who joined me at the same time in New York City for the premier of Broadway musical Meet Me in St. Louis which Frank Rich of the New York Times rightly trashed despite all the celebrities in attendance, Zena never even “batted an eyelid” given how well versed was my mother as was her father Al Ash as was my granddad Al’s mother Nechie Badash who was orphaned as a very young girl during a most violent pogrom that wiped out her entire immediate family, in how extraordinarily easy it is to corrupt each and every family member given the untraceable aspects of never inventoried diamond currency.

When however, you are like Nechie Badash and only the possibility of “selling out” your own offspring so to people like Ben Gurion there is every reason to believe that you can be that much more trusted than the next person waiting around for their inheritance from a co-opted-corrupted parent and grandparent.

There were no more than a very small minority of people who felt there was a “disconnect” in my “got intelligence” communiqué to American Jewish person Adam L. Tucker, the second paragraph reading, “D-Day June 5th-6th 1945 took place some 43 odd years following the death of Rhodes, the founder of the monopolist De Beers whose diamond tipped drilling bits have given this special interest of special interest group ownership of the world’s drilling industry for more than a century.

Most intelligent people have no trouble drawing the connecting dots between oil wars such as the first two major ones; namely, World Oil War I that began in 1914 one year after the establishment of the nonsense US Federal Reserve that everyone knows is owned by private banks who get this US Congress sanctioned anti-competition organization to gift them monies as their organization deems fit which is in turn is used to purchase other banks, other financial institutions such as insurance companies, other public as well as private corporation and not before long tracing the ownership of such ventures is as difficult as tracing Diamond Currency which is also used to finance oil wars first and foremost about culling human population especially poor humans who are first of all the curious, the most innovative, necessity the mother invention versus the filthy rich who are first and foremost the most greedy.

Ask any pizza delivery person around the world which class of people give the biggest tips.

Now focus until I say otherwise on how easy it has been for the DeBeers-Anglo American Cartel to arrange for Israeli Military Officers when venturing outside of Israel to be warmly greeted by a very hot looking woman like my French-Canadian wife Marie Dion Gevisser.

BTW I am reminded how just a couple of days ago when MDG and I arose from bed at our awesomely quiet Stone Home buried in a gentle sloping hill deep inside the most beautiful Cleveland National Forest, having slept and lazed around in the most awesomely comfortable slay bed some 15 hours or so, my very on top of things F-C wife asked as she called from inside the shower, no doubt having seen through the mirror as she walked into the bathroom her beyond belief most beautiful body, "What would you prefer I lose first, my body or my mind? It is not a trick question."

Of course if MDG had any idea I was writing all this she would respond disgustedly, "O please don't write that!"

There is of course nothing more disgusting than family members who talk about other family members who speak out about both the hypocrisy and culpability of those within the family who profit from war, and peace let me remind you is war to many Israelis who profit from war.

There is a new menstruating device that is now on the market that looks much like a see through gas mask which has you thinking both your use of the word "period" and those such as Al Ash who fought on the side of the Allies in World Oil War I, where mustard gas was first employed in the mass murdering of the poor.

I doubt very much you will offer any insightful comments as to why the Israeli government hasn't yet commented on the CIA spearheading a biological weapons programme in conjunction with the United States Government's South African Apartheid Regime that both Nelson Mandela and his successor Thabo Mbeki decided to keep "under lock and key".

Once you understand that I didn't get off a boat just yesterday in Haifa Harbor, and again there is every possibility that I have visited Haifa more often than you, so you should be not only going very quiet but perfectly understanding the connecting dots between 10 or so diamond merchants who first got their start from the Dutch East India Company that financed the expedition of Jan Van Reibeck the first White person discoverer of the Cape of Good Hope, more commonly known as Cape Town, South Africa back in 1652, Cecil Rhodes the not exactly born rich founder of De Beers and De Beers responsible for the staging of D-Day June 5th-6th, 1944 bearing in mind that Jan Smuts who was second in command to Winston Churchill during World Oil War II also didn't need to read Epstein's The Diamond Invention, Chapter 9, DIAMONDS FOR HITLER, subtitle THE SECRET WAR REPORT OF THE OSS/CIA.

Pretty easy isn't to see how very easy it was for Hitler to not only get his financing principally from DeBeers but to rely on DeBeers to co-opt-corrupt sufficient numbers of Jewish people beginning with their Jewish leadership in the United States to "tow the line".

How many Jewish Americans today take umbrage with President Franklin D. Roosevelt not simply turning away the MS St. Louis but at least equal in duplicity, meeting with Ibn Saud on board the US destroyer USS Quincy on February 14th, 1945 some 12 days after the Russian Red Army liberated Auschwitz where some 2 million Jewish people alone were murdered only because they were Jewish?

How long do you think it will take for me to add each scoundrel in the world to the "$ hit list" [sic] without losing any sleep or failing to exercise knowing that I and those allied with me wear that "moral vest" and when our times comes to be reunited with our most trusted friends including our chocolate lab Maggie and Pypeetoe the first thing I will say to G-d is, "What a life!".

Learning and teaching is everything!
