David,

By now you have probably visited just3ants.com and if you haven't then you will now and In doing so you will see that we are not soliciting business, we are not looking for followers, and we are completely transparent. We are about sharing information that has not been made available to the public and or has not been viewed in context.

"Um....who the hell are you and why are you sending me this???"

I appologize for misinterpreting the use of "hell" as a disrespectful response to my email.

It is obvious that you have missed the point of the communication and I will not waste any more of my time or yours in arguing simantics and logic.

I will however address your question with regards to very few written responses; The majority of the people that recieved my original email, have been distracted by race, religion, nationality, etc. and conditioned to fear and to avoid questioning the status quo so long as it is serving their benefit. So their lack of response is "shell shock", I know this because I have had many conversations with many people that are not dissimilar to yourself, and along with you the majority of the "money culture" have no desire to see the problems of the world until it begins effecting your pocket book.

Fortunately for the masses outside of our country, our US$ is collapsing and those of us that have fought to retain our money culture will soon be left with a void to fill and will begin to ask the questions that the Israeli Military Intelligence Report addresses.

I will leave you with the same statement I mentioned in my last two communications; I am not out to convince anyone of anything.

It is up to you to find your own truths, and your responsibility to recognize them.

What goes around comes around with a vengeance.

I can only wish you well,

Adam,

If a stranger were to walk up to you and hand out a flyer for some cult, would you put them on your Christmas list?

There's a term for what people like you send out...it's called spam.

If by "replying negatively" you're referring to asking WHO you are and WHY you're sending me e-mails I didn't ask for, then I believe I have a perfect right to ask.

Instead of being glad I asked, you insult me....the very people you're trying to reach.

This is akin to sending out advertisements to come into your store, but then asking them to leave because they're not smart enough to appreciate your products.

If out of the thousands of e-mails you sent out, and only a handful responded, what exactly does that say?

And out of those 3 that responded "negatively" as you put it, you insult at least 1 of those 3, what does that say about you?

If free thinkers don't think alike, then you should be able to appreciate people who don't think like you and question things, as I did.

If you don't appreciate people who don't think like you, then you're a hypocrite.

You'll be considered one more wackjob with a website.

If that's not true, then I expect your next correspondence to be more congenial.

If it is true, then I expect you'll probably insult me some more for not thinking like you, and you'll take me off your list.

David,

If a stranger were to walk up to you and hand you US$100 would you have responded in kind as you did to me?

If you had trouble following the logic of the Israeli Military Intelligence and or my easy to follow explanation; how would you suggest that I adapt future revisions to reach the brain dead?

Would you agree that the government lies? Not so much that everything the government tells us is a lie, but more over that they are capable of lying?

Once you know that someone lies how do you know when to trust them?

As I mentioned in my previous email, I am not out to convince anyone of anything, and in fact I am sure that you would agree, that the world would be better off if there were more independent thinkers out there.

“Great minds never think alike” ~Neil Gevisser

You should know that of the thousands that received my previous email, you were one of a handful that responded and out of that handful you were one of 3 that have responded negatively.

Have you ever thought about the fact that no matter where you get your news, it is always about events that have already occurred?

Now returning to earlier today; here you are receiving “insider” information on a ongoing investigation by the FBI into a “terrorist plot” which I assure you is being taken very seriously; and very simply explains the mutually beneficial relationship between the United States Government and the corrupt kingdoms of Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, and Qatar from which we buy our oil and whom publicly fund the very same terrorist organizations that attack us.

...And after all that very clear easy to follow logic, the only intelligent question you can muster up is:

“Um...who the hell are you and why are you sending me this???”

What do you do for a living David and why is your lineage so important that not even your name has the right to stand on its own?

Cheers,
Adam L Tucker

"Immediately following the 2008 Olympics in Beijing China, Al Qaeda will launch a series of attacks on the oil fields of Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, and Qatar which will immediately paralyze the United States Economy."

The fact that FBI Special Agent Curran Thomerson of the San Diego field office has an ongoing investigation into me and more over the "Terrorist Plot" that is spelled out in the ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence Report, but have yet to so much as ask me to stop sharing it brings credence to the validity of the intelligence report as one can only assume that they don't want to be on the record for trying to suppress this information should the event occurs.

Most people are so distracted by nationality, race, religion, etc. which have nothing to do with the real world and why we have people killing each other. Remember the people that profit from war i.e. weapons manufacturers, government, and banks, have homes all across the world and certainly have no loyalty to country, race, or religion. Their loyalty is singularly focused on money.

I assume you are aware that the United States comprises some 4.2% of the world's population yet consumes some 25% of the world's oil production.

The Israeli Military Intelligence Report is intended to specifically to point out the obvious question of "If Al Qaeda is our enemy, why haven't they attacked our oil supply?"

Once you get beyond the distractions you begin to see how simple it is to follow the money trail.

- 1) It is public knowledge that Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, and Qatar have been linked with funding Al Qaeda, Hezbollah, and just about every terrorist organization.
- 2) When these terrorist attack foreign countries i.e. Great Britain, United States, Spain, etc. these attacks provoke a military response.
- 3) Nearly 80% of the cost of said military response i.e. war is spent on fuel.
- 4) We purchase our fuel from the same countries that fund the terrorists which provoke the military response which results in money flowing into their countries.

We all have family members, friends, or loved ones that are serving in the military, either by choice or by the very contrived economic draft which has the mainly poor who are not stupid but rather misinformed, finding no other option but to serve in the military, thus perpetuating a greater economic division in social classes with "lions lead by lambs" into battle.

I found this Martin Luther King Jr. speech yesterday in which he spoke of the economic draft that occurred just before the official draft for Vietnam, which had the poor mainly black population having no means of supporting themselves "volunteering" for the military so that they could fight for "equality" for the South Vietnamese all the while we still had segregation here on our own soil. He started his speech with, "A time comes when silence is betrayal" <http://www.americanrhetoric.com/speeches/mlkatimetobreaksilence.htm>

The purpose of me writing you today is not to convince you of anything for it is your responsibility to see value in the information and to use your own logic to come to your own conclusions.

I hope this finds you well.

Sincerely,
Adam L Tucker
