Subject: 60 MINUTES SILENCE

Devin – I didn't think you would mind if I shared this with a bunch of others including Marie who is over at the Stone Home and very focused on completing a 24 X 36 oil painting of a well-known Torrey Pines tree located in the Torrey Pines State Reserve.

You are also undoubtedly glued to your computer screen this morning no matter where you are, no different to others while mostly feigning how busy you are "leading the good life", time for skiing and playing with your kids who may yet have asked about me and my last communication to President Bush, but that doesn't stop you from worrying when that dreadful day will occur and they present you with all our "back and forth".

So what happened to cause you to leave Smith & Wesson?

Did they feel you were too overpaid or you thought you could make more money now branching out once again, having forgotten how you lost your shirt the last time?

You don't think Marie and I have forgotten that with all your dribble including helping one loser after the next to assuage your guilt, you haven't put your hand into your pocket and made a very healthy financial contribution to just3ants.com let alone jumped on a plane to visit with the President who you know perfectly well wouldn't refuse an audience with you, let alone you dropping the name of your so very quiet father who remember I had the pleasure of hearing his very loud growl after I challenged him on why he didn't take the opportunity when President of the New York State Bar Association to "clean house".

And of course helping out "lost souls" helps you also to prepare to deflect your children's "challenge" when that day of reckoning soon occurs as it keeps you up at night; the sleepless nights not helped by the fact that you have no clue what is going on in the financial and capital markets and why you stay glued to my ongoing broadcasts; your cookies and more very telling along with the increased weight from the shoulders down burdening your joints.

Yes, that was a very low blow to throw at Adam about him being on drugs when he so eloquently "called you" on your blatant hypocrisy; yes you of all people should be much more sensitive, period.

You and Paul "Putz" Robinson have much more in common than the fact they you are both Black African American hypocrites which of course helps people like Nelson Mandela deal with his guilt for having kept under "lock and key" the abominable secrets pertaining to the United States' CIA spearheading a biological weapons programme first aimed at Black South Africans who when not being murdered brutally for a period of 45 odd years as the US Government stole South Africa's precious mineral resources have been enslaved to prop up first and foremost your fictitious lifestyles as you Black African Americans so knowledgeable about the fact that racism plays no part in the oppression of the Black African masses but rather simple, unadulterated greed, choose so very carefully to "play ostrich".

BTW, what did you think of the phone message which you can hear on just3ants.com, left by De Beers operative Ernest Slotar on my cell phone voice mail the other week?

You care as much about your Black brothers and sisters as Lily White Wheaty Eating Dr. John K. Pollard Jr. cares about his children and grandchildren who he utterly detests especially as they wise up to what a despicable human being he is, but again like you and this Robinson character, all saints compared to The IT.

Ps – What do you think about Jonathan providing in writing such incriminating evidence of wrongdoing by his father, The IT?

Wouldn't you just love to be that "fly on the wall" watching this big elephant between them as they sit down inhaling their meals, grow bigger with each passing moment?

Don't you also agree it is next to impossible stopping from being a voyeur and why when not waiting for my next email you are forced to go to just3ants.com to see what you have possibly missed?

Thank you from the bottom of my heart, and so do all the poor people of the world who are not stupid, just grossly misinformed, for increasing the circle of those dependent upon my insight and analysis of the important events of the day.

Now go back to focusing on the implications for the capital and financial markets increasingly aware of the "back and forth" between myself and Joe Carroll of Bloomberg News which will feature prominently in my forthcoming Part VII communiqué to President George W. Bush; not to mention Mr. Carroll now silent going on 60 minutes.

BTW, I still very much look forward to your trip out here this coming May is it?

Gary

Devin,

I would have replied sooner had I had some "free" time.

What is your motivation in writing this nonsense?

"I rarely bother with Adam's emails."

"Adam can pay himself if he gets off his butt. He should get off the drugs too, they won't help."

This is not the first time that you have taken my time away from sitting on "my butt" to respond to your nonsense quips.

If you are fighting for Gary's approval, you will find no opposition from me. But it really is an asinine application of time and it ultimately reflects poorly on you who in turn reflect poorly on me and might I say Gary as well, but not in the way that you intended.

Thank you for the compliment regarding just3ants. In my time on my butt I have been teaching myself new programming languages so that I can produce more feature rich content.

I have had other distractions like applying for food stamps, which is a very cumbersome process btw, but feel free to consult with me so that you don't have to go through the same learning curve as I did. i.e. Press "1" for English and then immediately hit "0" otherwise you may find yourself in a mindless loop of useless information. Not to mention I have also had to deal with new Crohn's Disease issues which is not so simple when you have no health insurance.

Would you agree that going through these hurdles have allowed me to see a perspective that my lilly-white-bleached wheat eating life didn't afford? Do you think this new found sensitivity will be beneficial as our world changes?

How was your skiing?

My prescription marijuana use has been on hold for some time, but I appreciate your concern and fatherly advice; I suppose I could be your surrogate son if that includes financial sponsorship but I think your children would be more receptive to your parenting or at least more deserving. Wouldn't you agree or do you leave that up to Charlotte?

I observed from our first meeting over lunch many years ago that you were seeking approval from Gary, which was memorable enough for me to later inquire about the relationship that you had/have with your father.

Motivation is everything.

Feel free to reply but I think it would be wiser of you to marinate a little and respond with action.

Cheers!
Adam

Gary:

Been too busy the last week or so to be in contact. Skiing, rapid drug detection technology (from israel), due diligence on a potential purchase, the filing of a patent, and a few other things.

Left S&W w/ the collapse of the stock price. What's happening? I've seen an intense flurry of emails; but I haven't read anything for over a week, maybe two. Just filed everything.

I missed a funeral at a Synagogue in LA on Easter. My buddy, who used to be a treasury agent, and a consultant, got a staph infection from his bullet-proof vest when I sent him to Iraq on a project. The infection led to a heart attack. He recovered in Ramstein AFB hospital. Then he was at a sidewalk restaurant in LA and he got nailed by a car. He broke his leg. He recovered; but had problems with clots ever since. One got him. God obviously wanted Mitchell back.

In early May I have to go to NY for another funeral (long-time family friend), to Denver to the State Assembly(I got elected at the caucus on Super Tuesday) and I have a few other things going on. Apart from that, I should have time for a visit in May, or in late June.

I rarely bother with Adam's emails. Has he selected a date for the seminar? By the way, the survivalist community is extremely interested in what you have to say about Debeers, diamonds, wealth preservation, & the fraud of the federal Reserve, etc.. You should link with, and place articles, on the following: the survivalblog, Jews for the Preservation of Firearms Ownership (JFPO), New American Truth Magazine, The Ludwig von Mises Institute, eCademy.com. Also, you might want to start filming some snippets of your discourses and posting them on Youtube and Myspace. I am certain you can have 10,000 friends withing no time. Linking your site to these thers will help drive traffic to you. A web guru buddy of mine has been inspecting your website and thinks you can easily generate hundreds, if not thousands a month in advertising. Adam can pay himself if he gets off his butt. He should get off the drugs too, they won't help.

How is Marie's back?

Congratulations on your anniversary. I am sorry your deficiencies won't allow you to have any more children.

I've heard a lot of talk about your joint exercises; but have seen little result. Maybe you should adopt. My Israeli buddies are concerned that the Arabs are winning the demographic contest.

Just got back from karate, going to shower.

Cheers,
Devin
