Subject: LATER ALIGATOR - RE: How are you feeling?

Devin - I assume you have checked out thoroughly my eldest brother Neil's website which you most likely first came across when receiving your copy of the 492 word email I sent Adam yesterday just before spending the greater part of the afternoon at the Ducati dealership in downtown San Diego where I got to not only play with the cutest of cute puppies that seemed the perfect mix of both Pypeetoe and Maggie but got to hear about the important issues of the day affecting hard working and mostly Lily White Wheaty Eating Americans who are not benefitting from the "status quo" including one very upbeat Navy diver-swimmer-rescuer who is now 28 years of age having joined the Navy just two years ago and while a little older than most recruits given how in very good shape he was and remains was easily able to get through "all the hoops".

This year this much younger looking gentleman skilled also in a Brazilian martial arts that apparently is mostly dance taught to slaves who managed to fool their masters, very much in the vein of guerrilla warfare versus going "toe to toe" and slugging it out before retreating back into the jungles, earned US$27,000 last year and this year because he is putting in much more overtime expects to make around US$33,000 but he wasn't sure.

Certainly, he isn't going to make what even the main salesperson at Ducati will make who says that he can currently barely make out; moreover, dealerships like Ducati are not suffering nearly as much as Japanese motorcycle dealers who cater to a much more financially poorer clientele.

Did your heart beat stop at all when reading that a 28 year old kid finding out yesterday for the first time that he is responsible for your over-the-top lifestyle, not to mention the rest of your family who count so much on the economic draft that has people like this formerly 26 year old Lily White Wheaty Eating kid joining up to risk life and limb mostly because he feels "patriotic" and was looking for something different than the desk/cubicle job he had in Boston, and earned last year US$27,000 and is now fully aware of just3ants.com that has that "$ hit list" [sic] that needs updating but Adam L. Tucker hasn't been able to get Tefo to do his "fair share" and the same with you?

BTW what did you think of my brother Neil's bio that starts out,

"Neil Gevisser is South African born and Michaelhouse educated."

Ever heard of "Michaelhouse"?

How much of a "selling point" do you think that is?

Do you know of a single South African let alone a Jewish person attending Michaelhouse the preeminent boarding school in South Africa from which the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel recruit?

Do you think the fact that Neil has never had any association with De Beers has him now suggesting that he has or do you think just the fact that mentioning Michaelhouse makes it a "conversational piece" and you know that any publicity whether good or bad is good?

Do you know what day it is today and whether because it is the Jewish Sabbath day it may delay Neil who is totally irreligious from getting back to Adam who I doubt has forwarded the email address of that Brazilian to Philippe so that Adam could move on to take up the slack caused by Tefo giving Adam the "run around"?

BTW what did you think of Marie's email to The IT who just unilaterally decided to reduce the amount Marie gets paid to babysit Jonathan by some US$800 last month? Do you think it could be because when Marie injured her back Jonathan stayed over at The IT's big 3 story house kitty-corner from King Golden Jr. Esq.?

Do you think this photo below of me on the right, my mother Zena in the middle and my middle brother Melvin on the far left is cute?

Do you know how difficult it is to get people to pull themselves away from looking at just3ants.com when I explain what it is all about?

Could your leaving Smith & Wesson have anything to do with the fact that you sell such an inferior product or had you saturated the US market; meaning the poor just could no longer afford to use your weapons to kill one another and are now seeking fun in the sun joining establishments like the US Navy continuing to grow and thus the government of the US can say the economy is growing?

What exactly is your point in visiting with us this coming month when I think you would agree we can accomplish a whole lot more you continuing to do what you do?

What exactly else are you doing and why not think about something clever to communicate to my eldest brother Neil beginning by explaining how you have the time to fill out a survey on just3ants.com although you didn't give your name and nor did we ask for it but cannot find the time to put your hand in your pocket and not make some joke simply sponsoring Adam's rent money since Adam over the summer can always hang out with the bums at the beach and the public showering facilities are rather excellent and for food he can just go to the dumpsters at grocery stores like Vons and live like a king all the while when getting in and out he would be constantly exercising all his muscles including those so important scalene muscles in the neck that many a repetitive stress injury expert would argue contribute significantly to diseases such as carpal tunnel syndrome.

When you are bored with life why not commit suicide since that is what most people do anyway but this way you take up less space and consume less.

US Americans are not simply a bunch a whiners who don't fight very well at all but we are the world's biggest consumers a point not exactly lost on the very many poor US Americans just waking up to why it is that the rest of the world so detests us and it is only because the ruling elite around the world have earmarked the United States as the place for all the world's poor to focus their hatred while the ruling elite including those such as yourself here in the US have of course no loyalty to country or religion since your religion as you prove each and every moment of your life is all money, the more the merrier.

And of course at the end of the day there is always The IT to point to as well as his Cow and all those ignoramuses who choose his company only to keep trying to get out of him as much as they can so that they don't have to work for a living and again lead such miserable lives although you would argue it is better to have money and be rich and miserable than poor and miserable.

You remember that one-time 26 year old kid who is now 28. Well he gave me the website for this Brazilian martial arts.

Later alligator.

Ps – could you send back to me the copy of the email I sent earlier to a journalist for the San Francisco Chronicle that I believe is still owned by the Hearsts.

Ps I – It is possible that this US$100 travelers check above that was signed by Randolf A. Hearst, the immediate past Chairman of the Board of Hearst Corporation and prior to his death was the last surviving son of the famous publisher who founded the company with an inheritance left from his mining magnet father, is the one given to me by Neil although Mr. Hearst would make a point of reimbursing me for all my expenses using the same travelers checks when I was doing rather sensitive assignments for him back in late 1993 early 1994 that equipped me rather well for when I later met in South Africa with my uncle David Gevisser the American head of the De Beers Anglo American Cartel.

You may not yet have received Adam L.Tucker's most recent follow up with Neil:

Subject: RE: When you let people treat you like an ant you become an ant

Neil,

While you are thinking, I thought I might share with you a little bit of information about my family and why diamond currency is so close to home.

In the late 1980s my aunt and uncle began making trips to South Africa and returning with souvenirs and photos of them on safari. I didn't think much of it at the time as I was still a child and very much focused on myself. It wasn't until a few years ago that I learned the true nature of these South African "vacations". While discussing my uncles business, I found out that my uncles successful plastic bag manufacturing company had a rather large kick start from a silent South African business partner whom contributed some $2 million dollars seed capital to their fledgling business thanks to my uncle's official partner, a Jewish Iranian business who was put in contact with this money laundering South African investor via family his family in Iran.

Needless to say, my family was not very happy when I decided to air their dirty laundry back in November of last year; to the extent that my mother contacted my ex-wife to "warn" me that my family was trying to get me arrested, and then when I inquired to the validity of my ex-wife's claims, my mother sent me a carefully worded email attempting to incriminate me by implying that I was trying to blackmail them.

Counter to my conditioning, I have learned to listen to people's actions and inactions instead of their choice of words.

Gary has told me of your time in solitary confinement while serving in the South African army, as well as your poetry book that forced your exile.

I wanted to also share with you an excerpt from a recent email that Gary sent a local Brazilian acquaintance:

Philippe – I doubt Adam L. Tucker has shared with you the email address of his latest Brazilian lady friend, but I think if I asked him no more than 20 times he would have you communicate with her to have you simply ask her what she thinks if she were a member of the Mossad and found out that De Beers played a pivotal role in the financing-arming of Hitler's Nazi Germany that resulted in the brutal extermination of some 6 million of the best of the best Jewish people who along with their offspring are not around to add to the competitive pressures in all the market places including Funeral Directors who market all sorts of trinkets in addition to coffins, would she bother with starting her own currency printing press like the US mint or folks like the north Koreans who have the identical intaglio machines or simply have one of the Mossad's very hot looking "hookers" visit say with my buddy, Client #9 and find a way of communicating to Mr. Eliot Ness, no strike that, Mr. Eliot Spitzer Esq., former Attorney General of New York State and the immediate past Governor of New York State, that not only the Mossad but the entire Israel Defense Force must get without having to beg, let alone borrow and/or steal all the intelligence and weapon systems to defend itself against the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel and all its satellite states such as the United States of America's Government, as well as, of course, make up for the wholesale slaughter of some 6 million of my Jewish brothers and sisters, which I think you would agree Hollywood blockbuster author Edward Jay Epstein explains all very well in his most fascinating, non-fiction novel, The Diamond Invention, very specifically Chapter 9, DIAMONDS FOR HITLER which I am sure you have heard of before and if not click hyperlink below?

Devin,

How would you like to be my first sponsor? If I can't come up with $1260 I am going to be evicted.

In addition to sponsoring my time spent towards saving the world, I would also assist you with your website.

Adam

P.S. The Rattlesnake? Couldn't you have come up with something more original?

Almost over my cold.

Will come to California to visit you guys at the end of the month.

Which program are you using to design your website?
