Subject: Round Table Discussion - GET IT!

Of course both of you are not alone in laughing your heads off at Adam L. Tucker as you are rightly convinced Tefo has joined your ranks; each of you and those like you also quite rightly convinced that everyone is a crook including the poor, regardless of the fact that their socio-economic situations forces them to steal first from one another without any energy remaining if not caught of course, to even think about the rich who are today distinguishing themselves from "elitists" in order to save their necks, while mumbling privately as do you, that you and them, all one and the same, regardless of race, sex or religion, are proud of being elitists, patting yourselves constantly on the back, so smart to have convinced the poor their dire straits socio-economic situation has a myriad of causes, none of which comes close to the true cause which is simply the very easy to understand fact of life that the single cause of all crime comes from the "daylight robbery" of criminal elitists using their military's big guns to first steal the resources of the poor and then enslave them by paying them slave wages.

Of course you are all too full of yourselves at this point to be even be disgusted with yourselves, but your silence is of course being recorded by more than just God who of course has no time for whiners like Adam L. Tucker too busy trying to find himself a date at the Seder table than get all their email addresses.

So go ahead and keep laughing your heads off at Sergio and Adam L. Tucker who may in fact "get it" one of these days if not today.

Fortunately working against you imbeciles are extraordinarily intelligent people like senior ranking members of the Mossad who don't need to hear a single important thing I have to say being repeated but trust me it doesn't bother them as much as the repetition is designed to screw with your increasingly screwball brains.

Moreover, the most intelligent people in the world have never seen any correlation between education, intelligence and the accumulation of wealth let alone fictitious-worthless and so very blood stained De Beers-Dollars monies.

I just can't wait to involve you all in a roundtable discussion where I begin as I am right this instant in asking you what you so highly educated people who prior to being informed by me about the true history of money creation didn't know enough about this so very important subject to even be "dangerous", now have to say about the Mossad never having to pay for either their weapon systems or their own intelligence.

Yes, there is no worse feeling in the world than feeling as you do right this minute so unbelievably stupid.

Agree, it is a much worse feeling than jumping over a cliff and breaking your neck.

You also agree God is ingenious in exacting His-Her vengeance on you elitist criminals still so smug as you count on people like Sargent Amanda Lopez, a top recruiter for the US National Guard now enticing women to join the US Marine Corp.

Side note to Devin: See if you can find a way to make a nickel out of "What on earth was Google thinking?" which Adam L. Tucker says he "missed" in the 2667 odd word email I sent him yesterday [Click on attachment] and at the same time share with me both the name and email address of your favorite Roman Catholic priest even if they are Presbyterian, your favorite Jewish rabbi and favorite Mullah, starting out here in San Diego County, California, United States of America. If you don't hear a response from me it is likely because I am either out on my wave ski, the surf beginning to pick up once again or out visiting with local clergy on the Ducati ST4S; not to mention Marie strongly suggested before heading out to art class with Sebastian Capella that I take advantage of the glass like conditions and to then join her for lunch most likely at Barbarella in the flats of La Jolla where we will continue our 5th wedding anniversary celebrations. Keep sending gold. Gold last trading at US$923.00

Ps – don't you just love hearing Ernest Slotar's phone message only available on www.just3ants.com, beginning with how well he remembers me as this "kind" person although that may have been part of the conversation he and I had following this so revealing phone message that had him like everyone afraid of the written record wanting to "chit chat" on the phone where we always run into "He says-she says" which is really only funny so long as you are not yet on the "$ hit list" [sic] that has you now programmed to think about your worst nightmare, namely, the prospect of a permanent peace or your name appearing along with your written record on the "$ hit list" [sic].

Not to mention don't you just wet your pants each time you come across on the internet this email below from Dawn, The Cow aka The IT's on-off again girlfriend who as you Devin recall, didn't dare show her face in court back on October 24th, 2002 when again, not only did you and French Canadian Paul Hervieux witness along with a packed courtroom Judge Hendrix slapping a Restraining Order on The IT aka Dr. John BIG Ben Stewart MD Also Known As the slimeball of slimeballs, aka The Sperm Donor, but immediately after The IT blurted out loud in court, "He has a gun!" which had everyone in the courtroom first thinking that I was brandishing a gun right there in the courtroom which of course was not the case since I did not have a license to carry a concealed weapon, the judge without hesitating when hearing, from I believe it was me, that I had given possession of this one gun to The IT's X wife, now my wife of 5 years, Marie Dion Gevisser, in the clearest of clear voices, this very savvy Judge declared that Marie should now legally take possession of that gun.

Also Gary [this is Dawn since John does not read your e-mails], get back to your chores. Go have relations with your partner-client-wife or whatever with your puny member. Restraining order forthcoming.

Of course once the lawyer-liars for The IT got wind of The Cow not only sticking her foot big time in the dudud but the fact that The IT was allowing The Cow to use his email account to send me this and other threatening emails including one clearly physically threatening email, a good 18 months after Judge Hendrix lowered the boom big time on the head of The IT and all his supporters now running more than ever for cover, The Cow and The IT have since gone "deafeningly silent" which doesn't mean they have stopped plotting.

Now in order to compete with TV shows like "Deal or No deal" I must now draw all you voyeurs' attention to the distinct possibility The Cow has seen my member when walking along the cliff in front of Cliff House where it is mostly Marie who is naked but mostly with the shades down, but in all likelihood the bow of bow legged, fat ass of fat asses Cow wouldn't need much of a magnifying glass to identify the highly infectious disease on the penis of The IT's, wouldn't you agree?

Moreover, in all likelihood The Cow was not only unaware of Judge Hendrix slapping The IT left, right and center on that wonderfully historic day, again October 24th, 2002, but would never have believed that The IT would be so very foolish to not only defy that Restraining Order when he entered our property apparently a year ago but run the risk of being more than simply videotaped.

To repeat The IT's going on 16 year old son, Jonathan's email to his mother MDG on April 3rd of this year:

I have read your emails. After you asked had John Ben been inside the property I said yes. This gave you the wrong impression I guess. I did not allow John Ben to come in the home or the garage. As I got my stuff he came a couple of feet in. I told him that you guys did not want him there and I asked him to get out. It was not controllable on my part.

Adam L. Tucker has just arrived at the Cliff house and is now working on MDG's laptop and is of course available for participating in this roundtable discussion.
