Subject: Human culling - What else would there be for you to teach?

Grace, are you interested in getting together with me?

Remember, I am the guy who was videotaping that blonde lady with the large natural breasts that so attracted your friend Tom?

The hyperlink below takes you to an email I sent earlier to Adam L. Tucker who was seated to my left at the inside bar of Il Forniao in Del Mar.

What would be a real coup, and make our next meeting more interesting, were you to interest Dr. John K. Pollard Jr., an alumnus of both MIT and Cornell University, in joining us.

As you now know well, I am an “open book” which I cannot say the same for most people I know; and although I have been mostly retired since my late 20s, I do know quite a few people from all walks of life.

When one considers your specialty, “Global Leadership”, your business card has you Assistant Director, Global Leadership Institute at the University of California, San Diego, one comes away with believing that you are at least, “open” to hearing what someone has to say, especially someone such as myself both worldly and successful in every sense of the word; which may explain everything about how I not only attracted someone who I consider to be the most beautiful and brilliant woman in the world, but at least equal in importance, manage to keep Marie Dion Gevisser from getting bored, despite all the many so very boring people in our lives.

I do, however, feel that you could be very different from the “rest of the mill” and if you happen to care for the most delicious zucchini pie which I assisted MDG make last evening, I can keep you a slice.

Moreover, the fact that you clearly watch your diet and don’t abuse your obviously very good genes, may have you very seriously reconsidering your decision to first ignore me.

You would surely understand that I am a very busy person and loathe to engage in small talk with anyone let alone those who I know versus believe to be significantly less intelligent than me such as Dr. John K. Pollard Jr., who would even at age 80+ score higher in an IQ test than most if not all freshpeople at MIT, which as you know mostly, if not exclusively, caters to “gifted” kids.

You should also know that my “potency” comes from not only knowing that I am not “omnipotent” but never being “arrogant”; bearing in mind that I consider people like Dr. JKP Jr. even when he is behaving “sumwhat” [sic] like a human to be no more than practicing to return as an ant.

You understand even better, “If you let people treat you like an ant you become an ant!”

There is nothing in the least bit funny about those who think it funny to make all sorts of jokes but who most of all pride themselves on their ability to con the poor who are not stupid, in to the “economic draft”, simply by creating recessions-depressions, all the while also just loving as they see their bank accounts overflowing with cash to purchase weapons of war starting out by hoarding food, the church, particularly the Roman Catholic church weaken the so very poorly cash strapped masses to “turn the other cheek”; and of course my so disgusting Jewish rabbis are not all that far behind.

Again, I know my subject matter extraordinarily well.

Should you decide to continue ignoring me I will simply wait for our Superior Being to “gift” me someone more “eligible” in reaching our young and impressionable students who go to universities such as UCSD and when they come out act just like Dr. JKP Jr. without the skills to compete on a level playing, resorting inevitably to fool those simply financially poorer to join the world’s military where they end up culling themselves.

BTW do you take great pride or feel like vomiting when you see highly sophisticated Made In US weaponry “smoking” other humans from a “dizzy height”; bearing again in mind that I doubt very much even if you have served in any of the world’s military whether it is possible for you even if you had X-ray vision and as good a mind reader as God/G-d to be able to determine that those being “smoked” by mostly the US military in places like Afghanistan and Iraq are Israeli Special Forces commandos simply dressed like the Taliban and/or a member of Al Quaida?

Just this minute one of those paragliders came sailing past our cliff house and of course I stopped typing to wave hello, although the male Occidental wearing a full head helmet most likely didn’t see me. Now he is back heading in the opposite direction, north, towards US Marine Camp Pendleton.

I bet my bottom worthless-fictitious De Beers-US Dollar you weren’t expecting me right now to have you come back to examining in detail that so very important Israeli Military Intelligence report that now has the FBI officially investigating www.just3ants.com?

So do you think Israeli Military Intelligence and/or the Mossad would answer FBI Special Agent Curran Thomerson’s question as to whether in fact it is “authentic”, given how not only is it so very easy to understand without even getting a nonsense high school diploma here in the United States and why disgusting human beings like Dr. JKP Jr. who has so much else to say for himself is so very quiet, but equally important, is my back and forth with IMI and the Mossad who are not one and the same; and more importantly, suffer fools badly?

Yes, there really isn’t much to say if you are on the side of De Beers, the special interest group of special interest group who are undoubtedly the world’s allocator of resources deciding pretty much everything and therefore if you don’t want to work for a living you are perfectly satisfied with the “status quo”.

Moreover, in you case, were you to teach your students the truth, what else would there be for you to teach?

So if you are not on the side of the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel, the cartel of cartels, mafia of mafia, terrorist of terrorist financing organizations, why not comment on this ingenious Military Report of all time that will remain in each of our subconscious until next meeting up with our awesomely smart and so vengeful Superior Being?

To repeat:

Immediately following the 2008 Summer Olympics in Beijing China, Al Qaeda will launch a series of attacks on the oil fields of Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, and Qatar which will immediately paralyze the United States' economy

BTW, what do you think FBI Special Agent Curran Thomerson now thinks of both his conversation this past Tuesday afternoon with Adam L. Tucker as well as ALT's analysis of the so bone chilling Israeli Military Intelligence report?

Now remember when asking your students why Al Qaeda hasn't already attacked the oil fields in their own "backyard", and by that IMI doesn't mean stuff lice down all the oil wells, and in that same instant "bite the hands that feeds them", you cannot be certain that your students are not more on top of things than you and your so very successful Wall Street trader friend Tom.

Now, for the record, is Tom's last name spelled tom.epperson@gmail.com or is it eppersen?

Sincerely yours,

Gary S. Gevisser

Ps – To the best of my knowledge this hyperlink takes you to all the communications I have so far sent you and Tom directly.

Ps I – There are parts of that video I took that I guarantee you will still find hilariously funny; bearing in mind that most of my attention was on the Mexican-Spanish barmen who not only couldn't help hearing what was not always hilariously funny, at least not to them, but who may have felt compelled to keep their mouths shut based on this voluptuous Lily White Wheaty Eating lady telling us of how proud she was in being able to get Ulysses, the General Manager of Il Forniao, who she considers her "close friend" to fire other Spanish-Mexicans who previously had dared to "challenge" this imbecile who quite obviously has, like most of US Americans throughout the world living the "good life", in complete agreement with her, but who simply lack her "courage" to be so vocal in public.

Subject: Gold - great great great granddaughter of Herman Melville

Dear Tom - good morning. I had lost the paper napkin containing your email address but I picked it up off the video I was filming; and BTW, this was the first time I can recall in 19 odd years since I videotaped a dialogue let alone something as interesting and that was back in the spring of 1989 at the top of Beijing Hotel overlooking Tiananmen Square when I spoke to a group of very young Chinese school children no more than 10 years of age; bearing in mind that Sherree, the "voluptuous" owner of the lingerie store in the Plaza had many interesting things to say both before and after you folks arrived.

I am a rather successful "trader" but not in the traditional sense of the word "trader" given how I don't make it my business to trade in either commodities, stocks or bonds although I am rather sophisticated in all 3.

I would like, however, to see if you are interested in doing "good business" with me by entering into a "gold trade" where I would put up gold bullion in exchange for equally verifiable US Dollars; and of course the gold I would be putting up would be fully certifiable; i.e. significantly more verifiable as well as quantifiable than any and all currencies beginning with U.S. Dollars, very probably the most "fictitious" of all currencies; bearing in mind I am intimately familiar with "banana republics" where the "tyrant of the day" simply presses a printing press button and out pops new worthless-fictitious currency backed up only by that tyrant's military might which in most cases comes from outside that particular "Banana Republic".

You might be beginning to understand why it is that I have the most interest in what Grace, the great great great granddaughter of Herman Melville has to say given her interest in "Global Relations".

Bottom line, I am not only an "open book" but someone who does not lie, steal or cheat; moreover, my goal is "world peace" which you are certainly worldly enough to know is "war" to those who profit from war beginning with those who issue counterfeit currency.

I would like to start out with you by seeing if you and/or someone you know is interested in loaning me a nominal sum of money, say US$30,000 although of course I could go up significantly higher or lower for that matter, and I would entrust you with the gold as collateral as well as provide you well ahead of time all my "bone fides" to make certain you are comfortable in dealing directly with me.

Suffice to say although I don't have an FBI record or for that matter never have I been arrested, I am someone who is very well known to most if not all the world's intelligence services and who certainly don't consider me a "terrorist threat"; on the contrary such individuals know for a fact that I am very possibly the most peaceful seeking individual on the planet bearing again in mind I am not only an "open book" but someone who has no interest whatsoever in war, although very well schooled from a very early age in the "art of warfare".

My interest is simply "good business" trading practices which is the only vehicle possible to blunt the "sharp attacks" not to be confused with the Great White shark attack the other day in our waters, by informing those not yet co-opted-corrupted about the real sharks out there; the ones that have been gnawing out there for years.

I happen to know versus believe that those who use gold as a means of exchange when trading services, goods and commodities are more likely to be honest than those that don't which does not mean that all those who use gold as the "means of exchange" to "make up the difference" in any business transaction, are honest.

In fact the biggest crooks in the world, knowing how very counterfeit are currencies, have never stopped using gold in particular as their most preferable "means of exchange" and why I tend to focus on such individuals; "the exceptions prove the rule" as in the Golden Rule, "Who has the gold makes the rules."

If in fact you are an "honest" as well as a "competent" business person you would welcome the opportunity to be allied with me.

I am available anytime this afternoon to get together. Currently I am at our stone home deep inside the Cleveland National Forest and will be heading back to Del Mar where we my wife and I rent a studio house on the cliffs around lunch time when I will be meeting her most likely for lunch in La Jolla at Barbarellas; have you ever eaten there?

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Gary

Subject: Grace - I met you with your husband Paulo at the Il Forniao inside bar.

Tom, had written down his email address on a napkin that "sumhow" [sic] got lost in all the "sic" talk.

The lady that I was filming when you arrived was not aware that a lot of young teenagers use the word "sic" when describing something "cool".

I assume that you know one uses the Latin adverb "sic" to denote an error in either the spelling or grammar of something with "quotes".

Apart from the one Mexican barman you and your husband were the most interesting beginning with you who put on a very excellent "South African accent" especially the fact that I despite growing up in South Africa and spending the first 21 years, shy of one week, over there before immigrating to the US on March 17th, 1978 - I will leave the math to you - I don't really have your "typical" South African accent, and nor did I ever given how I was "born and bred" in Durban which was considered the "last colonial outpost" of the British, of course.

Moreover, my mother who mostly raised me even though she worked much harder than my very hard working and very bright business person father, was English, born and raised over there until she was 18 years of age and her extraordinarily successful trader father decided he wanted to "retire" to South Africa, the "pretext" being that first and foremost he wanted a "warmer climate" than Leeds, England.

Now being the "Assistant Director" of the Global Leadership Institute you would most likely know that Durban has a "warm climate" but it is horrifically humid.

After getting me Tom's email address since I would like to see if I can conclude some business with him, I would like to know a little bit more about you and your husband who again I find most interesting; i.e. I am quite certain that if you are both honest, because I know you, for sure, are extremely bright, we should be able to do a whole lot of very good business and most of all help bring peace to this world which you would know means "war" to those who profit from war.

Again, only someone with a "sensitive ear" would pick up after all these years, and mind you, so very quickly, that I was South African let alone respond with such a very good typical South African accent, since most of the time the accent US Americans "pick up" is "Australian", one of the very few major countries I have not visited; bearing in mind there are very few people in this world who have travelled as much as me; moreover, I have been mostly retired since my late twenties although in 1980 - I will help you with the math - when I was just 23, I had the opportunity to head up the richest organization in the world, richer in fact than both the American and British Governments combined which includes all the wealthiest people in both countries, which I promptly turned down when I figured - BTW my math is pretty good - that I could "beat them at their own game" which is why in 1995, it came as no surprise to me that I was again offered the same opportunity to head up this most dynamic organization that you may possibly have only heard, or should I say "registered", part of their name.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Gary
