Subject: REVOLUTION - THE SERFS UP! - ANT CARTOON

Joe – an ant just crossed my computer screen that I must have picked when sitting on the cliff here in Del Mar just prior to seeking the warmth of the sun filled studio cliff house; just about to assist my F-C wife make a delicious zucchini pie which you would know is a long process but well worth it when you consider I get to see my walkin-talkin-work-of-art great oil painter partner-wife move around the kitchen all the while looking out this extraordinary view when not observing our magnificent oil paintings that are mostly painted by Sebastian Capella.

Not everyone in the world is “standing tall” alongside us and that of course includes you who has to be thinking what exactly at this very exciting moment in the history of time as my “MEMO TO FBI FILE” is not in the least bit difficult to understand?

Subject: REVOLUTION - THE SERFS UP! - ANT CARTOON

What did you think of this MEMO TO FBI FILE?

We are looking for someone, doesn't matter their age, to come up with a cartoon for a just3ant.com t-shirt that describes what we are doing.

It should include the following:

just3ants.com^{c²} rEvolution Serfs up!

Although the "c" below the "squared" should be lower case "c" and 2 cmE should be very distinguishable.

Not to mention "² c mE" is strong evidence of "The hand of God" which I would assume Einstein would have agreed fits in perfectly with $E=mc^2$ which he described as "The Mind of God" given Special-General Relativity's "certainty" which is not the case with Quantum Mechanics – what goes forward must work in reverse - which deals in "probabilities" and while very accurate can have things going "haywire" every so often given how that is what smart people would expect to happen to the mind the first indicator of the Supernatural given how the mind is all chemistry that translates into the science into the math, the so very precise language of God/G-d who would first therefore as logic would dictate go to work on the chemistry of the mind of those especially who think themselves Godly, thinking they will get away with the short-circuits in the brains caused when they begin to lie, steal and cheat and lose that inborn sensitivity with each and every foul act.

Not to mention my wildly beautiful French-Canadian wife is currently drawing some poulets de bébé – baby chickens and just told me about the rather cruel way male chickens are put to death, makes us now want to seriously consider giving up eggs altogether in our vegetarian diet.

BTW, there should be a "The" before "serfs up!".

Maybe,

REVOLUTION The serfs up!

that my eldest brother Neil Gevisser first dreamed up, should be apart from the rest?

I will pay the person who comes up with the best design at least US$100 in gold bullion, and of course they will become famous as well.

Gold which was down to US$860 earlier today is back at US$880 a troy ounce and not even Drudge Report has commented on the importance of f the words FBI

INVESTIGATES JUST3ANTS.COM that you think should be on the back of the t-shirt?

I am currently sitting in a short sleeve shirt outside our studio cliff home here in Del Mar watching the sunset, a couple on bicycles just to my left dressed very warmly now hugging. Time to see if I can interest MDG in a sunset walk.
